“I am your Jesus, born Incarnate.”

“The world has suffered a great tragedy in loss of life and property in the recent earthquake and tsunami. But while everyone can agree on this event as tragic, most fail to see the greater tragedy—the greater loss of life through the sin of abortion. In the natural disaster the world sees the visible loss of life. In the sin of abortion the truth of the far greater loss of life lays hidden and concealed behind the curtain of lies and compromise.”

“In truth the world should not be surprised by God’s Justice, but should expect it in any form as retribution for the grievous loss of life by abortion. Understand how fragile and vulnerable all life is and learn from the recent tragedy the world now focuses upon.”

“Everything is subject to change, but can only be changed through transforming love in the heart. This Holy Love can span the abyss that yawns wide between Heaven and earth. Thus the loving heart can suspend the laws of nature and bring peace to warring nations. Love can restore harmony between man’s free will and the Divine Will of My Father. Love can uncover evil.”

“Much lies just ahead. Many will stand convicted of false virtue. Pray for those who have given their hearts over to sin.”

Monday United Hearts Confraternity Service

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: “Praise be to Jesus.”

Jesus: “I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. My brothers and sisters, My Eternal Father desires that you love Him more so that you will be able to feel His Love to a greater degree. Give Him your complete heart—hold nothing back. Ask for nothing except love, and He will give it to you. He will enable you to come deeper into the Chambers of Our United Hearts.”

“Tonight We’re blessing you with the Blessing of Our United Hearts.”

Monthly Message to All People and Every Nation
(This message was given in multiple parts.)

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: “Praise be to Jesus.”

Jesus: “I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. My brothers and sisters, today you must understand that the future of the world does not hinge upon modern technology, the abundance of natural resources, the stock market or even the tact of government leaders. The future of the world is dependent solely upon mankind’s relationship with his God. This relationship must be based upon compliance with the Eternal Father’s Divine Will.”

“The Father’s Will is always Holy Love in the present moment. This alone—to love God above all else and your neighbor as yourself—is the key to a promising future for the world at large. This alone brings peace into hearts and, so too, the world. Holy Love alone brings nature into harmony with God’s Will. Do you search for answers for famine and disease? Place God first and all else will follow.”

“My Father who is Creator of all things desires to be united with you. He desires that Heaven and earth be united so that the Kingdom of the Divine Will which is the New Jerusalem will be established. It is in and through Holy Love that Our United Hearts will triumph and scripture will be fulfilled. It is in this triumph My Father’s Kingdom will be established in hearts and in the world and His Will shall be done.”

“Do not be surprised that I ask you to refocus upon the present moment, for your victory over evil in the present moment strengthens the heart of the world and its struggle against evil. You may think there is no response to your efforts, but you are wrong, for we are winning.”

“Today We are blessing you with Our Blessing of the United Hearts.”

“Once again, open your heart to this truth—humility and love are always found together in the heart if they are genuine. Stop and consider the counter traits to humility and love. They are pride and hatred—two things Satan develops in a soul that cooperates with evil.”

“But true virtue makes its home in the humble, loving heart. Such a heart is spiritually little and unassuming. Such a soul desires to be divested of honor and acclaim and takes delight in hiddenness. Always beware of the one who seeks recognition, who takes credit for the workings of grace and enjoys being in the spotlight. To such a one inspiration does not come from Heaven but from the adversary. A heart such as this is full of ambition, self-interest and promotes division instead of unity. Pray against all that opposes humility and love. Humility and love build up—pride and hatred tear down.”

Friday Rosary Service

Jesus is here. His Heart is exposed. He says: “I am your Jesus, born Incarnate.”

“My brothers and sisters, allow Me to take dominion over each present moment in your life. Do not squander the present moment, My brothers and sisters, on selfish pursuits. Ask Me and I will help you to find the way to true holiness through self-surrender.”

“When I return clothed in victory, the world will be governed by the Divine Will of My Father. The Church will be transformed through love and mercy. Indeed, the very fiber of the heart of the Church will be Divine Love. All that afflicts church and world politics today is in opposition to Divine Love. So then, you must see this message as a healing balm, a solution and the promise of coming victory.”

“To live in harmony with God’s Will means there are no more factions, hidden agendas or disunity. All are of one accord—the common good—the Divine Will which is always Holy and Divine Love.”

Second Sunday Service to Pray against Abortion

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here. They are dressed all in white and there are radiant lights all around them. Their Hearts are exposed. Blessed Mother says: "Praise be to Jesus."

Jesus: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. My brothers and sisters, please realize the injustice is part of that human condition. You have racial bias, gender injustice--but the worst of all is the injustice perpetrated against the weakest--the unborn. Because these conditions exist does not mean you should let this be, but you must pray that the truth be exposed and these injustices be revealed for what they are. Most of all the crime of abortion needs to be eradicated, for this weighs heavy upon My Heart and plays an important role in the future of the world."

"We're blessing you with the Blessing of Our United Hearts."

Monday United Hearts Confraternity Service

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: "Praise be to Jesus." Jesus says: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate." (A private message was given by Our Lady.)

Jesus: "My brothers and sisters, please understand that there is very little in each present moment that your free will can control. Indeed, your very next breath must be ordained by the Divine Will of My Eternal Father in order to take place. Your existence is dependent upon His Divine Will. Therefore, understanding this, allow your hearts to be transformed by His Will and you will see that many more graces become apparent in your lives."

St. Thomas Aquinas says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"I have come to lay bare some of the enemy's favorite ways to attack souls who are engaged in good works. It is not enough to verbally give God the credit. What matters most is what is in the heart."

"The enemy makes these suggestions which are temptations to pride and the spirit of sanctimony:"

“—I am holy because God gave me such and such a cross. See how I suffer. See how well I carry my cross.”

“—God inspired me to do such and such because I’m so holy. I accomplished such and such better than anyone could have. God works through me.”

“—I have such and such a gift (discernment, healing, etc.). I am specially chosen and must let everyone know this so that I can use this gift.”

“Further I invite you to understand that trust in Divine Provision is second only to the virtue of Holy Love. For this trust not only reflects Holy Love present in the heart, but Holy Humility, as well. Through trust the soul can accept the Divine Will and surrender to it.”

“Make this known.”

Second Friday Rosary Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here. He says: “Praise be to Jesus.”

“My brothers and sisters, recognize that it is a great grace to look into your own heart and discover where you are failing in Holy Love. As it is a grace for each soul, it is more important for the priest to humbly do this. The priest should also pray for his penitents so that he can help them discover where their errors lie.”

“Tonight, as always, I’m extending to you my Priestly Blessing.”

Monday United Hearts Confraternity Service

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: “Praise be to Jesus.”

Jesus: “I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. My brothers and sisters, you should be praying every day for enlightenment as to where your faults lie and how you can improve and come deeper into the Chambers of Our United Hearts. Do not be afraid to be shown where you are failing, for it is only in this way that you can improve, love Me more, love My Mother more and come deep into the deepest Chambers. I desire each one be holy—as holy as he can be.”

“Tonight We’re blessing you with the blessing of Our United Hearts.”

January 21, 2005
Friday Rosary Service

Jesus is here with His Heart exposed. He says: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. I have come to help you understand in a more profound way how important your acceptance of the Divine Will is in each present moment. Your acceptance of My Father's Will can be likened to the shell of an egg which protects the innermost part of the egg."

"In your acceptance of My Father's Will lies the protection of Holy and Divine Love in your heart. You know from past experience (He's smiling) that if an eggshell cracks, the contents slip out. So it is with your acceptance of My Father's Will. Your least resistance allows part of the Holy Love and the Divine Love in your heart to escape. Understand that every present moment offers a unique challenge and the treasure of grace—each one different with every person."

"Tonight I'm blessing you with My Blessing of Divine Love."

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: "Praise be to Jesus."

Jesus: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. My dear brothers and sisters, tonight I invite you to realize that the Divine Will of My Eternal Father is comprised of Divine Love and Divine Mercy, but these two which make up the Divine Will are clothed in Holy Humility. It is impossible for the soul to conform to the Will of My Father outside of humility. For love and mercy are only genuine when they proceed and are clothed in humility."

"In truth I tell you, there is no beginning nor end to this holy hour you offer Me. It began before time began and it reaches into eternity. My Father's Will encapsulates it just as it embraces every present moment."

Public - Feast of St. Thomas Aquinas

St. Thomas Aquinas comes and says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"Let us explore the Sixth Chamber—the Heart of God. In this Chamber the Heart of God comes alive in the soul. The soul then becomes a living tabernacle of the Divine Will. Such a soul is always at peace, for he has overcome the temptation to pride resulting in impatience, greed, anger and every sort of debauchery born of pride."

"Such a soul exists in the Heart of God at every moment and with every breath. He lives to appeal to God alone and to please others as they are pleasing to God."

"Strive for this—it is attainable!"

"I have come to encourage the formation of prayer cells within individual hearts and within groups wherever possible. None has the excuse of too little time to form a prayer cell within his own heart. There are 24 hours within a day. A prayer cell—recitation of five-decade rosary, the United Hearts chaplet and meditation on a message—takes perhaps 30 minutes."

"You can form prayer cells with mutual supporters of the ministry and invite a new 'guest' each week. Do not feel intimidated about starting such a group. My Mother is present each time a prayer cell assembles to pray."

Jesus: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. My brothers and sisters, whether the soul acknowledges this truth or not, there is but one way into the Will of God—the Heart of My Father. That way is through the United Hearts—My Mother's Immaculate Heart and My Most Sacred Heart. I have shown you the path and enlightened you as to the way to pursue the path. The more souls that understand this, the quicker Our victory."

"I have come today to explain to you that on the cross Divine Love and Divine Mercy unite. It is in this union that the soul finds God's Divine Will. Apart from love and mercy the soul does not conform to the Divine Will. It is through the invitation of Divine Love and Divine Mercy the soul is able to enter and advance through the spiritual Chambers of Our United Hearts."

"Understand, then, that the journey through these Chambers is, in essence, a deeper and more willing embrace of the cross in each present moment until, at last, love and mercy are perfected in the soul."

"My brothers and sisters, tonight open your hearts and see the great grace that I am giving you by My visit here. Accept God's Will for you in every present moment for that is the way to sanctity."

"I desire that you be holy—that you be perfected in humility and love. I want to take you, each of you, deep into the recesses of My Heart. Do not resist Me any longer. See that all your doubts are a temptation to compromise. Accept what I am giving you here tonight."

Monthly Message to All People and Every Nation
(This message was given in multiple parts.)

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: “Praise be to Jesus.” Jesus says: “I am your Jesus, born Incarnate.” They are looking at the people in the apparition room and Jesus blesses them. (A personal message was given.)

“Today I come to solemnly warn all people and all nations—you must guard against Satan’s lies and deceits. Do not allow ‘liberties’ to take the form of laws which condone sin. This can only occur when self-love is disordered and morals become convoluted to the point of sin being a desired good. Here specifically I am speaking of same sex marriages, abortion and the harvesting of human embryos for body parts.”

“The whole and entire reason mankind even considers such laws is because he seeks to satisfy self and not God. He cannot step aside from disordered self-love long enough to look with honesty into his own heart. This lack of honesty concerning the state of his soul is Satan’s doorway to compromise.”

“Genuine peace—both within the heart and within nations themselves—comes only from a movement of the free will to live according to the Divine Will of My Father. His Will is Divine Love and Divine Mercy. Love God above all else. Love your neighbor as yourself. Forgive one another as I forgive you.”

“Allow the treasure of personal holiness to bloom in your hearts by choosing God’s Will. Never presume you are holy enough. Strive for perfection in love and mercy in every present moment. Holiness is not a competition but a personal relationship between you and your God. I hunger and thirst for this relationship with each one of you. I desire to build a city of Divine Love within each heart—a city only I can enter.”

“Do not wonder at My stressing personal holiness when there are so many problems and crises in the world today. A nation will only have just laws if its people respect God’s laws. Respect for God’s laws comes through personal holiness. A nation is as holy and righteous as is each person holy and righteous.”

“My brothers and sisters, understand that My victory lies in the conversion of every heart through Divine Love. When every heart is united in Divine Love, My Triumph will be complete and My Father’s Will shall reign over the world. Do not perpetuate wrong in the world, but take a stand against it.”

“We love you, and We’re blessing you with the Blessing of Our United Hearts.”

Conversation with Divine Love

“I am your Jesus, born Incarnate.”

“Today I invite you to enthrone within your own heart the Divine Will of My Eternal Father. Do this by accepting everything that comes to you in every present moment. This does not mean that you accept temptations, but that you see them as an opportunity to grow deeper in holiness by rejecting temptations.”

“I desire your sanctification. I will strengthen you in your slightest attempts to increase in holiness.”

“I have come to help you understand the importance of bearing the cross with love in silence. The more the soul embraces each cross in such a way, the more meritorious each cross is. When the soul complains or the love in his heart becomes lukewarm, he receives less assistance from Heaven in his sufferings and the cross becomes heavier.”

“You will please make this known.”

“I have come to help you understand that often there is so much pride that is bandied about in the name of discernment. False discernment is really nothing more than judgment. True discernment is a gift of the Holy Spirit which comes through littleness and humility. It is only through holy littleness that the childlike soul can recognize Father, Son and Holy Spirit.”

“Many like to mimic discernment, but I invite you to see that the truly childlike soul does not stand on a soapbox making his judgments known to all.”

Conversation with Divine Love

“I am your Jesus, born Incarnate.”

“Child, I desire to share with you facts about My Passion and Death that have heretofore remained hidden. I will disclose these things to you in Conversations with Divine Love on Fridays during Lent. Then I will ask you to print the first volume of Conversations. Will you accept this assignment?”

Maureen: “Yes.”

Jesus: “This is coming to you for the world in its purest form and from My Lips.”

“First I will take you to the Garden of Gethsemane. I moved towards this point in time with a heavy Heart—heavy, for I knew so many would slip to their perdition despite My sacrifice. The greatest suffering I bore for the redemption of mankind was the Divine Knowledge of the lack of love in hearts. Many times during persecutions, you feel only a fraction of My sorrow; but imagine if you experienced all the hate and apathy of every human heart that ever existed or ever will exist—all at once!”

“This is what caused the Blood to flow from My Pores. This is why I begged that this Chalice be passed by Me. When I accepted My Father’s Will, I did not receive any consolation of knowing His approval. An angel came and ministered to Me by cleansing the Blood which had fallen.”

“I give you this first of many dictations on a Saturday. The ones to follow will be on Fridays.”

“I have come today to specifically address the topic of service to others. Some are particularly called to this. Yet they allow Satan to infiltrate their hearts in such a way that the whole purpose of humble service to others becomes distorted. This is how Satan works. The servant begins to be controlling—desiring everything his way and rebuking any authority over his actions. He determines his way is best and discredits the authority Heaven places over him to other coworkers, causing disunity.”

“In the world this happens over and over every day and in a multitude of situations. When it takes place within a mission or a church, it is a direct path to destruction.”

“I invite you to see that My Victory will come through the spiritually little. This is what you must strive for. Do not gossip or tear each other down. Build each other up in the Spirit. The tongue can be used for good through Holy Love or it can be used for evil. There is no gray area.”

“I invite you to trust one another because trust is the victory of Holy Love. Always embrace the truth. Do not become ambitious for ambition’s sake. Do not take pride in your accomplishments, for all good comes from God.”

Ecumenical Prayer for Unity Amongst All People

Jesus is here with His Heart exposed. He says: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate."

"My brothers and sisters, to live in Holy Love dictates that you have a righteous heart. By this I mean you love God above all else and your neighbor as yourself. If you place the opinions of people ahead of God's Will for you, then you are making a false god of friendships with others."

"Stay close to Me. Make your heart into a little prayer chamber where you can retreat; then the Holy Spirit will come and tell you what you need to know. Do not pretend to know more than God is giving you to understand."

"What My Mother told you last night concerning the Rosary of the Unborn is this. If a group is gathered who are praying for the unborn from the heart and only one person has in their possession the Rosary of the Unborn, I will honor each 'Hail Mary' from each person in the group as if they were holding the Rosary of the Unborn themselves."

"In this way I lift the constraint of time which it takes to produce enough rosaries."

Monday United Hearts Confraternity Service

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Jesus has the Crown of Thorns on His Head and looks like He did during His Passion. Blessed Mother is kneeling in front of Jesus, crying. She says: "Praise be to Jesus."

Jesus: "I am your Jesus born Incarnate. My brothers and sisters, see and understand that the thorn which penetrated the deepest into My Head represented the souls who say they love Me but do not trust Me. Oh! How often this happens, and often to the souls that I have been the closest to. Consider My anguish and then see that your love and trust must be united as Our Hearts are united."

“We’re blessing you now with the Blessing of Our United Hearts.”

Conversation with Divine Love

“I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. I will continue My dictation on My Passion.”

“The Chambers of Our United Hearts remained open throughout My Passion. I was willing to welcome and forgive any one of My torturers if they would but turn to Me with a remorseful heart. None did. Darkness overshadowed them. They did not recognize Me, just as many do not recognize Me today in the Holy Eucharist.”

“The insults of the whips were not easy to bear, but I had surrendered to the Will of My Father. Therefore, I bore every blow for mankind’s redemption. These pains were little compared to the pain of seeing the hearts of My persecutors. Their hearts were vessels of apathy, hatred and disgust. How many today carry the same spirits in their hearts?”

“My Mother suffered each blow in Her own Body mystically that I suffered physically. I could not protect Her from this trial which was a bitter portion of My Passion and Death.”

“Today it is the prayers of Her consecrated children that support My Mother as She looks into the hearts of mankind. Do not fail Her, for She suffers much.”

Monthly Message to All People and Every Nation
(This message was given in multiple parts.)

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: “Praise be to Jesus.”

Jesus: “I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. Today I have come to address those truly consecrated to Our United Hearts. Your greatest enemy is complacency. Do not think because everything is safe and secure in this moment that it will be so in the next. What you see as security—food, clothing, shelter, even finances—is all-fleeting. Your safety and security needs to be the refuge of Our United Hearts. This is a refuge you cannot see or touch—yet it is eternal.”

“If you truly believe in Our United Hearts, you will exhaust every effort to pull mankind away from temporal satisfaction and into this Spiritual Refuge. Mankind must step away from pleasing his senses and seek only to please God and neighbor.”

“I have come to tell you that the future of the world rests on mankind’s respect for one another as creations of God. Without this respect and love of one another, certain disasters are bound to occur by My Father’s Permitting Will. I tell you all of this out of the unconditional love I hold in My Heart for each one of you.”

“Open your hearts and I will lay bare your consciences. This is the only way to change and to come deeper into the Chambers of My Heart. I am asking you to allow your free will to move in favor of a deeper love for Me. This is the way to peace and reconciliation with God and neighbor. You must desire it in order to will it.”

“Apathy and complacency are your enemies as time is running out. Certain plans that are in hearts will be revealed in the world soon unless you take Me seriously. My call to you today is not just for one, but for all.”

“Do not waste time questioning the events that are rapidly unfolding at this apparition site. I am sending a multitude of graces so that hearts will change and open to Holy Love. Any doubts you embrace are temptations from Satan to keep you away from Me.”

“Allow Me to describe to you how beautiful the world would be if all people respected one another as God’s creation. There would be no wars, no abortions or birth control, no pornography or violation of innocence. God would will disease to be eradicated. There would be no crime; therefore, no prisons. Hunger and poverty would be relieved. In short you would be living in the New Jerusalem. Is it any wonder I call you to this? Mankind desires the fruits of the solution—but not the solution.”

“Today I have come to remind you that you are children of the Light. As children of the Light, you must help Me to overcome the darkness that lies buried in hearts. I have given you the means to accomplish this which is Holy Love. Please choose this remedy—please choose to help Me in this battle against evil.”

“Today We are blessing you with the Blessing of Our United Hearts.”

“My brothers and sisters, you are children of Light; as such I need your prayers and sacrifices to overcome the darkness that hides in hearts. Your sacrifices are as worthy as the amount of Holy Love with which they are offered. Be as little children who love Me and give me all your prayers and sacrifices to overcome the evil that remains hidden in hearts tonight. Do not think that your sacrifices are unworthy, for if your love is childlike, all you give Me is worthy.”

Conversation with Divine Love

“I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. I desire to take you deeper into My confidence as this day draws to a close.”

“The Crowning with Thorns which I suffered at the hand of My torturers had particular significance. Each thorn represented the prideful worship of a false god in the hearts of My persecutors—then and now and in the future.”

“There was the thorn of the false god of wealth which penetrated the deepest. This thorn was closely challenged by the false god of reputation. Then there was the false god of physical beauty. I must not neglect the thorn of the false god of intellect.”

“The Crown of Thorns was particularly difficult to bear for it mirrored so closely the errors in the hearts of men. While I suffered with love in My Heart, My torturers attacked Me with venomous hatred. Their love of God had been replaced by disordered self-love. I bled for them.”

“You may wonder at My telling you each present moment is eternal. The decision for or against Holy Love in the present moment is carried into eternity, bringing with it the earned reward or punishment in the next life. Therefore, how the soul spends each present moment determines his eternity. He may die in My friendship, but at the same time have wasted many present moments resulting in a lesser reward in Heaven.”

“I call each soul into union with Divine Love. In each present moment each soul is given what he needs to attain Divine Union. Each one, with his free will, must open his heart and desire this union in order to partake of the graces offered.”

Conversation with Divine Love

“I am your Jesus, born Incarnate.”

“I have come to help you understand how all that is taking place through God’s Will fits into His Divine Plan. I desire that you assist Me in bringing souls into Divine Union. Time is short. With the assistance of all My victims of love, I can bring Divine Union into the heart of the Confraternity. I am using the humble and little ones to confound the proud. The Pharisees today are the same spiritually as in My day. They are the smug and self-righteous who desire this Mission fit into their plans instead of their plans being transformed by the Mission.”

“Remain a little child—always trusting that My Plans are greater than any human plan. Let Me take your hand. Do not doubt My love for you. I am securing many areas of this Mission now, and preparing a feast of miraculous grace.”

“I have come to help you see that to be as a little child does not mean keeping silent in the face of grave error. Even a child can tell the difference between good and evil and needs to make his views known. What your country is now moving towards is not only choosing which unborn should live or die, but who has the right to live until natural death. Only God can make these determinations. When man plays at being God, he invites the Arm of Justice to fall.”

“I am waiting for the leaders who represent Me on earth to take a public stand—thus far, few have done so. Is it any wonder that Holy Love has been rejected by the present day Pharisees when they will not lead on moral issues?”

“My Mother is weeping—it is Her Tears that withhold My Justice. Console Her.”

Conversation with Divine Love

“I am your Jesus, born Incarnate.”

“Today I have come to speak to you about My carrying of the Cross—a journey which led to the sacrifice of sacrifices. Humanly, I could not have made this journey as I was already greatly weakened by previous trials. It was by merit of My Mother’s prayers I was able to bear up under this burden. I kept My focus on the souls who would succeed in passing through the narrow gates of Paradise because of My sacrifice. I could not think of Myself. The moments when I was most vulnerable to Satan’s attacks to reject these trials are the ones I surrendered to the Father for those who allow Satan to usurp them in the corruption of others.”

“It was Divine Love and Divine Mercy which supported the Cross. It is Love and Mercy that come to the rescue of each soul in his journey towards salvation. I am your strength in every temptation and weakness. Call upon Me.”

“Do not focus on the cross and its effects upon you, but on the graces that accompany the cross and the positive effects your surrender has upon the world.”

See the crossbeam as your embrace of God’s Will. Every cross is a test in one or more of the virtues. Therefore, understand that every cross comes to you as My call to come into Divine Union.”

“I have come to write love and mercy on the heart of humanity. I come to call forth a spring of love from the cold-hearted like water from a stone. Those who come to this apparition site or read Heaven’s Messages with the intent to make them fit into their way of life will be disappointed. It is each heart that is being called to change—to be transformed—by Divine Love. Only in this way can the soul come into Divine Union where there is no anguish, no unforgiveness—only peace and love.”

“I long for you to make this known. I long for mankind’s response to love within love.”

Conversation with Divine Love
(Good Friday)

“I am your Jesus, born Incarnate.”

“On this day so many hundreds of years long past, salvation mounted the Cross. Yes, Love and Mercy made one—suffered and died for all and for each one. My pain was made more intense when I looked upon My Sorrowing Mother. Still today—for there is no time or space in Heaven—you can console My Mother as She stands at the foot of the Cross.”

“My consolation as I hung dying was the knowledge of the Divine Mercy devotion in these latter days, and the spread of the Confraternity of the United Hearts. The Confraternity opens the font of Divine Love that is My Heart for all to share. It is through knowledge of the Chambers of Our United Hearts souls will be assisted in their mount to perfection and will be able to find, and to imitate Divine Love.”

“I held nothing back on Calvary. I surrendered all for the sake of sinners. Each of you must decide to surrender everything to Me in order to be free to choose for Holy and Divine Love.”

“No pain I suffered on the Cross was too great, for I beheld the face of humanity before Me. I suffer still when I see any sinner turn away from Me. I implore you—imitate Divine Love and Divine Mercy to one another. I will reach down from the Cross and help you.”

(Holy Saturday)

“I am your Jesus, born Incarnate.”

“After My death on the Cross, I descended to a place which was neither Hell nor Purgatory—a place where many awaited Me—the patriarchs—Moses, My foster father Joseph, to name a few. Before I released them to enter the glory of Heaven, I charged each one of them to pray for My Love and Mercy to be made known in these last days.”

“I bid them pray for the Divine Mercy Revelation and for the Confraternity of the United Hearts—the two vehicles of My Divine Love and Divine Mercy. I made them understand that these vehicles of My Love and Mercy would convert and save a multitude before My return. Then I sent them to Heaven.”

“I have come to reiterate what I told you after Communion today. Love is the alpha and the omega—the beginning and the end. It is the beginning because the soul is called to Holy Love as his first step on his spiritual journey. It is the depth of the soul’s love that determines the depth of his trust in Me. The greater his trust, the more abundantly My Mercy comes to him.”

“My Mercy is the doorway to Holy and Divine Union. Union is love’s attachment to Me. In the end it is the depth of love or the lack thereof that determines the soul’s place in eternity. Therefore, love is the alpha and the omega. God is Love.”

“Today I have come to describe to you this beautiful treasure which I esteem more than any other in a soul who embraces it. It is Divine Victimhood. Such a soul gives to Me everything—great and small, joy and trial alike—towards the conversion of sinners. Though their sacrifices remain hidden from the world, I tabulate everything in My Heart and measure it according to the love with which it is offered.”

“Divine victims carry the weight of error on their shoulders with joy, for they know they are assisting Me just as I carried My Cross. Their sacrifices reach through time into eternity.”

The little flame represents the Holy and Divine Love in your heart which must be on the Cross to bring Me souls.”

“Render Me the kindness of reproducing this image so that souls may wear it as a reminder of My call to Divine Victimhood.”

Jesus is here in white with His Heart exposed, and says: “I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. Alleluia!” There is a large angel with Jesus now. The angel says He will speak to the priests in the apparition room.

Jesus says: “Thank you for coming here. Trust in Me—always trust in Me, for it is your trust that measures your love. I’m calling each of you to be holy victims of Divine Love so that I can use you to usher in My Victory. Be pillars of faith during these troubled times that lie ahead.”

The angel says now Jesus is speaking to everyone.

“My brothers and sisters, oh, how I desire to take you deep into Divine Love, but it is your unforgiveness of self and others that holds you back. Do you not trust My Mercy? I welcome you—I call you—and I desire your Holy Victimhood so that we can be triumphant together.”

“Tonight I’m blessing you with My Blessing of Divine Love.”

Divine Mercy Sunday – Midnight Service at the United Hearts Field
(This message was given in multiple parts over two days)
(Saturday 4/2 a.m. and 4/3 12:10 a.m.)

Jesus is here as He is in the Divine Mercy Image. He says: “I am your Jesus, born Incarnate.”

“Today, in My Mercy, I have come to tell you that the future of the world depends upon its treatment of the weakest and most defenseless of all. The heart of the world must reflect Holy Love in order that true peace can take up its reign. As long as righteousness is compromised, peace will be compromised. You cannot take life from the womb or shorten life that you see as useless, and expect God’s favor upon you.”

“Justice has been withheld by the efforts of certain saintly souls, but even these measures are falling short now, as some have been called to Heaven and evil is on the rise. It is time to take account of where you are headed and cast yourselves upon the ocean of My Mercy. Place yourselves within the Compassionate Heart of your Savior. No longer be imprisoned in the tomb of sin, but be free in the Divine Will of My Father.”

“In this area of the world, you see the environment as hostile to My call seeking your presence here. Yet, I tell you, hearts all over the world must be the focus of your visit here. For it is hearts that are unrepentant and hostile to My Divine Mercy—hearts that will not look at their own sins—that are a reflection of the cold and unfriendly weather you are experiencing here.”

“I invite all people and all nations into the warmth and welcoming Mercy of My Heart. It is the recourse left to you if you desire a rebirth of faith in the world. My Mercy and My Love are one. Neither comes to you apart from the other. All are welcome in My Father’s House which is Divine Love and Divine Mercy Itself.”

“You will reflect on these words in the near future. They will take on added meaning in the days to come, just as the passing of this Holy Pontiff will take on added weight after he comes to Me.”

(4/3/05 12:10 a.m.)

“I have come so that you will allow Mercy and Love reign in your hearts, and take dominion over the heart of the world. In the Church you must allow My Mercy and Love to reign and be in charge. You must recognize Mercy and Love as the army of victims that will form beneath the Wound of My Heart. These victims are the power of this age.”

“I’m taking all your petitions to Heaven tonight where they will rest at My Feet and My Precious Blood will cover them. You have nothing to fear.”

Pope John Paul II is now with Jesus, standing to His right, and they both bless us.

Monthly Message to All People and Every Nation
(This message was given in multiple parts.)

Jesus is here with His Heart exposed. He says: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate."

"The gates of Hell shall not prevail against My Church, nor shall Hell prevail against the soul who lives in Holy Love. Every soul—no matter his faith—is called to share My Father's Kingdom—the Kingdom of His Divine Will. No one is excluded unless he excludes himself. So then, if you are called to be one in eternity, you are also called to be one in this life."

"Do not separate yourselves through self-love. See how you are all one in God's creation. Look with love upon one another. Put away distrust, greed and every form of immorality. No longer live to satisfy yourself, but to satisfy one another. This is the path to peace and prosperity in this life and salvation in the next."

"Do not let My words to you echo in the desert of misbelief. Allow this Message to take root and grow in your hearts—just as the seedlings are awakening and growing in the springtime. Open your hearts and let them be nourished by Holy and Divine Love."

"If My call to you goes unheeded, the earth will heave in sorrow and you will cry out for My Mercy. Those who make policies and legislate laws must listen first to God's Law and act under it. They must stop acting as though God does not exist and never gave mankind any laws."

“You have lost a great leader in John Paul II—a reconciler among men. I seek your prayers that the next Pope be similarly steeped in the Tradition of Faith. Pray with Me.”

“My brothers and sisters, John Paul II taught you how to live and how to die in Holy Love. I desire that each one of you be visible signs of My Divine Love in the world; it is thus you will be My instruments and bring many into the Chambers of Our United Hearts. I’m calling each of you into sanctity in this way.”

“I’m blessing you with My Blessing of Divine Love.”

Second Friday Rosary Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here and says: “Praise be to Jesus.”

“My brothers and sisters, priests must constantly surrender their flock to the Divine Will of the Eternal Father, for it is in this surrender that true martyrdom of Holy Love is begotten. It is only in this way that sanctity can be obtained.”

“Tonight I’m blessing you with my Priestly Blessing.”

(At Adoration)

“I am your Jesus, born Incarnate.”

“When a soul abandons his attraction to the world and surrenders worries over his reputation, past events and future events, his heart is emptied of distractions and I can begin to fill it with Divine Love. Yes, these are the things you must surrender. The enemy wants to keep you in turmoil so that I cannot show you the wonder of Divine Love.”

“I desire intimacy with every soul, so much so, that the soul remains in My Divine Presence throughout the day, making the most mundane task a wonder of love. I desire to fill each soul with the Eternal Flame of Love that I may take charge of each heart, and bring it deep within My Own Heart.”

Jesus returns a short time later and says: “Remain with Me a bit longer.”

“The quickest path to the depths of My Heart—the soul that is immersed most easily and readily in the Will of My Father—is the soul that is childlike. This is something that cannot be learned, but must be practiced to be experienced. The spiritually little have abandoned themselves to God’s Will and His Provision with a childlike trust. These children always share My Presence and do not fear. I can describe spiritual childlikeness to you, but the soul can only attain it from Heaven.”

“I have come today, as I always come to this site of predilection, that I may trace upon each heart My call to Divine Holiness. It is only in this way the soul of every country will legislate according to the Law of Love.”

“My brothers and sisters, never be afraid to stand up for the TRUTH—the truth being that life begins at conception and ends in natural death according to God’s Will.”

St. Thomas Aquinas says: “Praise be to Jesus.”

“I have come to explain these truths to you. You understand in your heart that each present moment in each person’s life is individual just as each person’s life experiences are individual. These present moments will never be repeated in anyone’s life. When they pass, they are gone forever. It is how the soul spends the present moment that determines his eternity. Therefore, see that the present moment has eternal effects. If the soul responds positively to the graces God gives in the present moment and loves God with his whole heart and neighbor as self, he will have a greater reward in Heaven than the soul that wastes the present moment.”

“Now, in a similar way, every soul’s eternity is experienced in an individual way. This is how the Highest Heaven is experienced by souls in the Fourth, Fifth and Sixth Chambers. The Highest Heaven in the Fourth Chamber is experienced in a different way than it is in the Sixth Chamber.”

(He smiles.) “Say you are listening to a symphony. The symphony is perfect. The musician appreciates it in a much more complete way than the ordinary person. Yet, they both appreciate it to the fullest of their ability.”

“It is the same with Heavenly reward. The soul that is conformed to the Will of God (Fourth Chamber) is living in the Highest Heaven possible for him. The soul united to the Will of God (Fifth Chamber) or even immersed in the Heart of the Father (Sixth Chamber) experiences an even more profound Highest Heaven.”

Maureen: “You are telling me this. I am not a theologian, St. Thomas.”

St. Thomas: “No one said you are. Just write it as I tell you. Ask our Heavenly Mother for understanding.”

St. Thomas Aquinas says: “Praise be to Jesus.”

“I have come to give you a deeper understanding of the afterlife. Each soul’s reward or punishment—as the case may be—is as individual as is each present moment in this life. No two souls experience Heaven in the same way, for no two responded to life in the world in the same way. Purgatory and Hell are also individual to each soul.”

“The more worldly consolations the soul seeks in this life, the more his joy in Heaven diminishes. However, each soul feels happiness to the fullest that he is able to in Heaven. It is the soul’s loving response to grace that determines his eternity. If he is given the grace to help others but chooses only to serve himself, he will reap little reward in eternity. Those who choose Hell use life’s situations to serve themselves. They love some sin more than God and neighbor. In this way they condemn themselves to eternal punishment.”

“God desires every soul be saved. For this reason He sent His only Begotten Son into the world as a Sacrificial Lamb. God does not scrutinize each soul for some tiny error or fault with which to condemn. He looks with a Merciful Eye upon every present moment the soul spends in the world—always searching out the Holy Love in his heart.”

“Every moment is a unique opportunity to love God and neighbor more and, therefore, to earn a more profound reward in Heaven.”

“My brothers and sisters, as you read and listen to the messages from St. Thomas over the last couple of days, please understand in your hearts that the reason I come to you with the Messages of Holy and Divine Love is to establish a unique and individual relationship with each one of you.”

“Hopefully you will respond with warmth, and you will be open to following the path of Holy Love straight into Our United Hearts. There I await you, I encourage you and I hope for your arrival in the deepest Chamber.”

“Tonight I’m blessing you with My Blessing of Divine Love.”

April 16, 2005
Public

“I am your Jesus, born Incarnate.”

“For all time I have held these words in My Most Sacred Heart for you to record. Every present moment is woven into a great tapestry which comprises the soul’s eternity. It is the cooperation between the free will of the soul and God’s Divine Will that determines his eternal reward or punishment, as the case may be.”

“No two souls experience eternity in the same way—just as no two souls ever experience the present moment in the same way. The present moment is the summary of each one’s past—his joys, victories, response to temptations and so on. All of this comes to play in the present moment. So then, each one has separate difficulties or ease in responding to the grace or temptations in each present moment.”

“The soul’s response—for or against God’s Will which is Holy Love—determines his reward or punishment in eternity. Even though My Mercy forgives the repentant heart, if the soul made many poor decisions against love in his life, he will not experience the same Heaven as one who tried always to live in Holy Love.”

“Therefore, understand that no two souls experience eternity in the same way, for no two experience the present moment in the same way. Understand, then, that to be in the Fourth Chamber or any of the Chambers in this life or in eternity is a unique experience for each soul.”

“It is a concept I will help you contemplate.”

Some are like Simon, helping Me to bear the Cross of sinners who turn away from Me. Some are like Veronica, wiping the Face of their dying Savior with courage and conviction. Some stand at the foot of the Cross consoling My Sorrowing Mother.”

“But there are others—ones who betray Me and do not repent—like Judas. There are those who desert Me in the presence of the Cross. There are those who hide from Me by hiding from the truth. There are those who will not accept the truth until it is shown them—like Thomas.”

“I love all of them. I ask them to prepare for a New Pentecost—an overwhelming Indwelling of the Holy Spirit. I ask them to prepare for My Triumph by being My Victory in the world.”

St. Thomas comes and for the first time I notice all the buttons down the front of his cassock. He says: "Look at all these buttons your poor St. Thomas had to fasten every day. Yet, none of these were without eternal value, for I fastened each one with love for God and neighbor in my heart. Had I looked upon each one as a mundane chore, they would have been wasted."

"This is how to have the heart of a little child. Always carry the love of God in the center of your heart. Do everything, say everything, think everything with this love. A child always trusts that his parents will make everything right. So the one who seeks childlike holiness must trust that the Will of God will bring good from every situation."

"The child takes joy from little things—a flower, a warm day—even a breeze to carry a kite. The childlike soul sees all the little things that God gives freely and rejoices in them."

"So you see, even buttons can add to your eternal happiness and carry you deeper into the Chambers of the United Hearts. Pray for the light to see small ways to increase in childlike holiness."

11th Anniversary – Feast of Mary, Refuge of Holy Love

*Colossians 3:12-17
Philippians 4: 4-7*

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: "Praise be to Jesus." Jesus says: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate." They greet the priest and the people here.

Jesus: "Today I come to you to celebrate what Heaven designates as the Feast of Holy Love. You live in an age where the extraordinary has become the routine. It is a grace-filled time and a dangerous time. These contradictions in events around the world are outward manifestations of the conflicts that lie hidden in hearts."

"There are many and significant Heavenly interventions around the world these days which are Heaven's attempt to call all of humanity back onto the path of righteousness—the path of Holy Love. Those consecrated to Holy Love must persevere in the face of hypocrisy and untruths which Satan spreads as a means of defeating love in hearts. Allow your hearts to be true victims—martyrs of Holy Love. Do not be devoted to the world, but to God and neighbor."

"My little lambs, you do not see how Satan has insinuated himself into the hearts of government leaders. He is using the words 'freedom' and 'rights' to remove God from public view. He promotes the culture of death as a freedom of choice. He engenders duplicity of hearts so that it is difficult to take anyone at their word. Further, I tell you, do not believe that failure of open discovery of weapons in certain countries proves they do not exist. This, too, remains under cover of darkness."

"These and many more are reasons for your prayers and sacrifices and your bold proclamation of Holy Love. You will never fail in My call to Holy Victimhood so long as I am at the center of your hearts."

"My dear children, My brothers and sisters, My little lambs, today I ask of you to make your hearts an oblation of love. Give Me every victory, every defeat, every grace. Give Me everything, My children. Do not be afraid of trials—begin to love the cross. We will be victorious together."

Friday Rosary Service

Jesus is here with His Heart exposed. He says: “I am your Jesus, born Incarnate.”

“My brothers and sisters, the way to be more deeply united to the Will of God is to accept all things as from the Hand of God. When you accept to surrender—the deeper your surrender to the Will of God—the more closely you are united to His Will. The more you are united, the deeper your union.”

“Tonight, My brothers and sisters, I’m blessing you with My Blessing of Divine Love.”

Jesus: “I am your Jesus, born Incarnate.”

“My brothers and sisters, today as you celebrate motherhood, I invite all people and all nations to come into the Immaculate Heart of My Mother. To do so, you must abandon yourselves—you must embrace the cross—and you must love your brother and sister as I love you. Place God first in your lives.”

St. Thomas Aquinas says: “Praise be to Jesus.”

“I have come to help you see that those who have nurtured negativity in their hearts have grown an obstacle contrary to Holy Love—for Holy Love is the vine and humility a branch. The humble heart does not look at the bad effects of every situation and how all things affect him negatively. Humility accepts all things as from the Hand of God. In this, the humble soul rejoices in all things and takes delight in the Will of God.”

“Then, when difficulties come, as they will, he is able to give them back to God and await the next part of God’s plan with patience and forbearing.”

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: "Praise be to Jesus."

Jesus: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. My brothers and sisters, never allow discouragement to be a part of your heart; rather, have hope always, for hope comes from the Lord. The Father desires that you unite your will to His, and this is only possible if you overcome the obstacle of discouragement that Satan sets upon you."

"Every moment holds precious grace with which to be victorious. Therefore, live in joy, hope and peace, and always trust that the victory is ours."

"I am your Jesus, born Incarnate."

"I have come to describe to you the heart of a child, as I am calling all to childlike littleness. The heart of a child is simplistic. He seeks to please—not so much to be pleased. He does not take account of what he doesn't have, but delights in all that he has. When needs do arise, he goes first to his mother or father. He trusts they will bring all things to good."

"Those who seek spiritual littleness must not be quarrelsome or hold grudges. They must not be the fault finders but make allowances whenever possible. Like the child, they should take complaints to Heaven's helpers first—My Mother or Me. Then, in humility, they should stand back and wait for Heaven to act."

"If they find themselves in a place of leadership where it is their job to correct, then the correction must be with Holy Love. Love does not accuse, but reminds."

"I am showing you the direct path to Heaven—a pathway of littleness and simplicity. Follow after Me."

Feast of Our Lady of Fatima

“I am your Jesus, born Incarnate.”

“I invite you to see that Heaven is intervening all over the world on behalf of world peace and the salvation of souls. Since My Mother appeared in Fatima, She has appeared in literally every country, trying to bring souls into the fold of Love. However, Heaven’s attempts to call attention to the urgency of mankind’s conversion have been summarily dismissed—discounted as ‘alleged’ contacts from Heaven and regarded as more than likely not real.”

“This attitude is at best foolhardy, and at worst disastrous. If a mother warns her children about imminent danger, the warning comes from love. The child had better listen and not rebel. Today, your Heavenly Mother is telling all Her children to listen—to hasten to conversion, and to pray, pray, pray! Take Her seriously.”

“The horrendous problems within the Church itself are only a symptom of what hides in hearts. Therefore, run into the Arms of Love and seek forgiveness, protection and guidance.”

“You do not see what justice can bring. Each prayer, each present moment is priceless. I invoke you, as My Mother does—pray, pray, pray!

Second Friday Rosary Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here and says: “Praise be to Jesus.” He smiles at Fr. J. and nods his head.

“My brothers and sisters, pray for all priests that they be spiritually little, for this way they will not be sophisticated and worldly-wise but will have the singular purpose of saving their flock. Pray that all priests embrace this truth.”

“I have come to help you understand that the childlike soul, though not worldly-wise, is Heavenly-wise in ways to please Me and My Father. Thus, such a one is considered by the people of the world to be unsophisticated. But it is this very simplicity that I find attractive and, therefore, flood the soul with Divine Love.”

“Long have I waited to share these words with you—to give you deeper understanding of My Father’s Divine Will. Much is said and written about finding God’s Will. In truth there is no need to search it out. God’s Will is clothed in the circumstance of every present moment.”

“In order to conform with, be united to, or immersed in the Divine Will, the soul must accept everything God gives or allows in the present moment. Remember always, the cross is sweet. God brings good from the cross as well as the victory. Everything that My Father gives or allows leads to the soul’s salvation.”

“As there are many priests coming here, both Orthodox and Roman Rite, I desire at this time to address them.”

“My brothers, in this present moment, I desire that you rededicate your lives and your vocation. Consecrate yourselves to My Eucharistic Heart through the Immaculate Heart of My Mother. Then, through the Eucharistic Heart of your Lord and Savior, be consecrated to the Divine Will of the Eternal Father. Through this recommitment, you will live in Divine Love.”

“Pray this:”

“My Jesus, Divine Good, accept my heart as Your instrument in the world through Holy Love, which is the Immaculate Heart of Mary. I consecrate my vocation in this present moment to Your Eucharistic Heart. I will dedicate my life to bringing the Holy Eucharist to those You lead me to, and to whom I am led.”

“I desire union and faithfulness to the Will of the Eternal Father through consecration to Your Eucharistic Heart. Amen.”

Midnight Service at the United Hearts Field
Feast of the Immaculate Heart of Mary
(This message was given in multiple parts.)

Blessed Mother is here as Mary, Refuge of Holy Love and says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"My daughter, today I am beginning My public message to you to be read in summation after I appear to you in the field at midnight. It has been difficult for Me to withhold these things in My Heart, and even more difficult to dictate them to you for the ear of the world."

"You must understand that self-love has carried away the hearts of a vast majority of the world populace to the point of God's Creation being convoluted towards the fulfillment of this disordered self-love. The life that God creates in the womb is defiled and discarded without regard for the soul that He creates at the moment of conception—discarded because life is not loved for what it is; or even worse, body parts are harvested as though the unborn child was a used car."

"While Christians go to every extreme to limit reproduction and use sex only for pleasure, the nation of Islam is burgeoning forth and will soon outnumber all other populations. You do not see what lies hidden in some hearts, but I tell you that unnatural birth control is a tool Satan is using to bring destruction to your doorstep."

"Decisive steps are being taken towards stripping God from view in public places so as not to offend anyone. Little concern is tendered towards offending God. These are steps that were taken during the spread of communism. Have you not learned from the course of human history?"

"Disordered self-love leads to the pitfall of placing human respect ahead of God. In doing so, sin is condoned so as not to offend the sinner. In particular I speak of homosexuality which is a sin, and has been a sin since the beginning of time. Therefore, it should not be regarded as an alternative, but as a path to perdition."

"Tonight I invite you to first respect God in all His Creation; then, to respect one another and yourselves as part of God's Creation. It is only in this way that you can live in Holy Love according to God's plan for you. It is only in this way, dear children, that you can save the world, and I can share eternal life with you."

"Tonight I have revealed to you the symptoms of the ever-widening abyss between mankind and his Creator. I also give to you the remedy that can span the abyss—Holy Love. As your Mother, I come with a love beyond all telling to lead you, protect you and show you the way. This is the most I can do. I cannot make you choose Holy Love. I cannot make you respect God and neighbor. You, dear children, must decide to come closer to God. You must desire to pray and to sacrifice for those who do not make good choices. You must decide for Holy Love.”

“Do not be surprised as I tell you that this site of Heaven’s predilection will come into focus in the near future. Heaven desires greater, more positive attention be drawn to these messages. While Satan has held sway with his lies and innuendos, Heaven will now intervene. Truth will win out.”

“My dear little children, tonight I have come to envelope your hearts in the Divine Will of the Eternal Father which is Holy Love itself. My children, Jesus desires that you make My Heart known as the Gateway to the New Jerusalem which is the Kingdom of the Divine Will. Do this, My children, and I will bless your hearts and your lives. You will have peace, and there will be an end to war and famine, and every kind of disease.”

“My children, tonight your Heavenly Mother is blessing you with Her Blessing of Holy Love.”

Midnight Service at the United Hearts Field
Feasts of the Sacred Heart of Jesus/ Immaculate Heart of Mary Feast of the United Hearts of Jesus and Mary – June 5

(This message was given in multiple parts.)

First the Image of the United Hearts appeared; then, Jesus and Blessed Mother appeared with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: “Praise be to Jesus.” Jesus says: “I am your Jesus, born Incarnate.”

Jesus says: “Once again I come to remind you that the mission of this Ministry is to bear My Sacred Heart to the world. My Heart is Divine Love—a Flame given to consume all that obstructs holiness of heart. With this Flame, I will illuminate the conscience of the world and purify the heart of My Church.”

“I take delight in the childlike soul—the soul that awaits My dictate and delights in fulfilling My smallest desire. You are living in difficult times—an era set apart from all others. It is a time consumed by hedonism and self-love. It is an age of error, but also an age of the fulfillment of prophecy. Divine Love is the Wing of Victory upon which I will return. Therefore, no enemy will prevail against this Mission. Those who oppose it, oppose My Sacred Heart and will be crushed by defeat.”

“I reveal this to you, not so that you will rejoice, but to inspire your prayers for all your enemies. It is in this way Satan’s hands are bound.”

“I have come to shower the world with My Merciful Love. Indeed, it is this Merciful Love that is calling you into the New Jerusalem. You will experience periods of tribulation interspersed with periods of My Merciful Love.”

“As the New Jerusalem draws closer, you will be given a deeper understanding of God’s Divine Will. It is My Father’s Will that shall triumph and reign through Our United Hearts.”

Blessed Mother says: “Dear children, tonight Our United Hearts bend towards earth, and My Beloved Son allows Me to join Him in this message. Our Hearts are moved by your prayers, and because of the devotion here these days, a very grave evil is held in abeyance by the Hand of My Son. I tell you this so that you will continue to turn to Our Merciful, Loving Hearts in your needs.”

“Tonight I am charging you with the mission of spreading this message when you return home. I give to you the grace of Holy Boldness, and I am instructing St. Michael to hold his sword over you to protect you from your enemies.”

Jesus says: “Tonight, My brothers and sisters, I have come to show you the light upon the path to your sanctification which is Holy Love. You must make amends; you must come to Me with repentant hearts.”

“My brothers and sisters, often in the world you depend on predictions concerning the stock market, the weather and so forth. But I have come not to predict tonight—I have come to promise that each one is being given the grace tonight to enter through the Gateway of the New Jerusalem which is the Immaculate Heart of My Mother. Accept this invitation, and I will fulfill My promise; but first you must surrender.”

“Tonight We’re blessing you with the Blessing of Our United Hearts.”

Monthly Message to All People and Every Nation
Feast of the United Hearts of Jesus and Mary

(This message was given in multiple parts.)

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: “Praise be to Jesus.” Jesus says: “I am your Jesus, born Incarnate.”

Jesus: “I have come to remind the world that My Dominion is One with that of the Eternal Father. My Reign is the Divine Will of God. It begins in every heart that says ‘yes’ to the Divine Will through Holy Love. It is everlasting.”

“Today you are reminded of this through apocalyptic events and miraculous graces. You are called into My Father’s Will through these messages which lead you through the Chambers of the United Hearts. But it is always your ‘yes’ in each present moment which resounds through all time, and reaches into eternity that affirms you in My Father's Will, and establishes within your heart His Kingdom—My Kingdom.”

“My Kingship is over all people—all nations, though few recognize it. When I take up My place in hearts, as I must, My Kingship will be established in the world. Even today I am acting as your Lord and Ruler. I am sending the Seraphim and Cherubim out over the crowd to help you to conquer hearts for My Kingdom. You are being given the grace of evangelization, perseverance and trust. You are being given brotherly love.”

“My brothers and sisters, today in this present moment and in every present moment, I desire that all hearts be united. I desire that your heart be united to Mine—that your heart be united to the Immaculate Heart of My Mother, and that your heart be united to the heart of all mankind. It is only in this way that My Victory will come.”

They bless us with the Blessing of the United Hearts.

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: “Praise be to Jesus.” Jesus says: “I am your Jesus, born Incarnate.” They greet the priests in the apparition room and all people here tonight.

Jesus: “My brothers and sisters, I greet you, and My Mother greets you, in the name of the United Hearts with Love and Mercy. I invite you to understand, tonight and always, that whatever lays outside of Holy Love in thought, word and deed is not the Will of God for you. You, yourselves, must examine your hearts and realize what is superficial and what is true love.”

“Tonight We are imparting to you Our Blessing of the United Hearts.”

Second Friday Rosary Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here and says: “Praise be to Jesus.”

“Today our Heavenly Mother kneels at the foot of the Cross and receives into Her Arms with much sorrow the hearts of priests. She tries to mend the hearts of those priests who have been abandoned by their confreres and the hierarchy of the Church. She prays for priests who have lost their faith through heresy.”

“But Her greatest sorrow at the foot of the Cross today is the hearts of priests who are like they are dead—dead to the faith, dead to evangelization—and do not realize their roles in the salvation of their flock; for these She sorrows the most. Comfort Her, as I wish to be comforted myself when I look upon many priests today.”

“I’m extending to you my Priestly Blessing.”

St. Thomas Aquinas says: “Praise be to Jesus.”

“I have come to help you understand discouragement. The human heart has to willfully open to this spirit of its own accord. In doing so, the soul rejects the cross that God wills for him in the present moment. That present moment will never return. Once it passes, it is gone forever. The same cross may be offered to others, but surrounded always by a unique set of circumstances. These circumstances are as varied as the person’s state of mind—his temptations, his health, his environment, and so on.”

“Discouragement is kindred to self-pity which carries the heart into the past and/or the future. The soul is tempted to think, ‘look how long I have waited,’ or ‘how much more can I do to accomplish such and such?’ Accept both cross and grace alike in each present moment with a heart of Holy Love. Then, and only then, will you have peace.”

St. Thomas Aquinas says: “Praise be to Jesus.”

“I have come to help you understand the dangers of spiritual pride. This pride is a real threat along the path of holiness. It is a misleading of the spirit inspired by Satan to fool the soul into thinking he is much deeper into the Chambers of Divine Love than he actually is. Such a soul is eager to believe he has been carried to the depths of union when actually he has been given only ‘spiritual candy’ to help him begin the journey.”

“Disordered self-love makes him believe he is holier than he is. This same self-love inspires him to think he is having mystical favors which place him far above any others. When God grants genuine mysticism, the soul desires the background. He cherishes hiddenness and embraces childlike littleness. Such genuine holiness desires not to be recognized, and is never demonstrated for the attention of others. The truly holy soul desires the background.”

“There are many who feel they must talk about their gifts so that they are recognized as holy. They are disappointing Jesus. What Jesus gives must be between Him and the soul, and his spiritual director.”

Second Sunday Service to Pray against Abortion

Jesus is here with His Heart exposed. He says: “I am your Jesus, born Incarnate.”

“My brothers and sisters, today I have come to help you realize that no one can love life in the womb apart from Holy Love. The two always go together—love of life and Holy Love. Therefore, when you pray for the Mission of Holy Love to expand and grow, you are also praying against abortion.”

“AN OPEN LETTER TO OUR OPPONENTS”

Blessed Mother is here as Mary, Refuge of Holy Love. She says: “Praise be to Jesus.”

“Dear children, you have chosen to oppose My work here at Holy Love. You are confusing discernment with rash judgment. I have come here to reconcile souls with their God. I come to renew hearts in the two great Commandments of Love. Do not listen to Satan’s lies. Do not encourage a spiritual pride which breeds self-righteousness. The Holy Spirit is a Spirit of Truth. True discernment is a gift that God alone can place in the heart. You must not presume to have this gift when you do not.”

“You ask for credentials from My messenger here proving her worthiness. You set up your own criteria with which to judge her interior life. Humility does not defend itself. I have instructed My messenger, in humility, not to defend herself, but to remain silent.”

“If you continue to persecute her after My warnings, do not seek My defense when you most need it. There is never a just cause to slander another, calumnize, detract or rash judge (Jas. 3:6-18; 4:11-12). There is never a good and just reason to lie about another. Your position in church circles or the community does not change lies into the truth, or sin into virtue.”

St. Thomas Aquinas says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"I have come to help you see that love and humility must abide together in the heart that seeks personal holiness. Neither one of these two virtues is genuine if the other is absent. Just as a tree always has roots, love and humility are joined in the soul that seeks perfection."

"Further, I tell you that the depth of holiness—that is, the depth of the soul's journey into the United Hearts—depends on the depth of Holy Love and Holy Humility in the heart."

"It is the souls who seek holiness, but bypass humility, that cause the greatest problems within a ministry. These are the ones who desire holiness on their own terms. These are the faultfinders who cause division by speaking against others. It is these souls who do not accept or respect the authority that is set in place. They desire to be known as holy, even as victim souls."

"The soul who tries diligently to progress to perfection does not want his virtue to be discovered by others. He desires hiddenness—always the last and least place. He seeks all of this with a loving heart."

“Avoid factions—I do not mean friendships. I mean opposing one another in thought, word and deed. If one tries to influence you against another, avoid association with him. Such influence breeds disunity and weakens your personal holiness, as well as this Mission.”

"For humanity, humility and love are the passport to deliverance from the tyranny of sin. Holy Love is built upon Holy Humility, and Holy Humility is built upon Holy Love. These two are dependent upon one another. Each one is only as deep as the other is deep. Without one, the other is false. If both are superficial, then personal holiness is superficial. St. Thomas Aquinas says: “Praise be to Jesus.”

“I have come to help you understand that Holy Love is the mirror which reflects the state of your soul. In this mirror the depth of Holy Love in your heart is reflected along with the reflection of all other virtues—for love is the light that shines through all virtues. It is self-love that clouds this mirror and does not allow the soul to see clearly the depth of virtue in his heart or his errors and faults.”

“Holy Love is the mirror all souls need to gaze into to see their inner beauty which reveals how they appear in God’s Eyes. This is the appearance and beauty that needs careful attendance—continual attendance.”

“The depth of every virtue in the soul is reflected in the depth of Holy Love in the heart; for instance, the soul can only be as patient as he is loving. He can only be as humble as he is loving. To pretend otherwise is false virtue, and not a reflection of Holy Love.”

“This is why the soul must continually weigh and measure his thoughts, words and deeds on the scale of Holy Love. Only then will he be a more perfect image of Holy Love for all to behold.”

(This message was given in multiple parts.)

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: “Praise be to Jesus.”

Jesus says: “I am your Jesus, born Incarnate.”

“Today I am bringing you the peacefulness of My Heart to help you understand what My Victory will be like. Satan will be defeated only by the Light of Truth—Truth that comes from hearts of love. This is why this Mission of Holy and Divine Love is My Victory and Satan’s defeat. The enemy knows this and uses seemingly good people to oppose Me here.”

“This is the reason I tell you that these days it is not safe to trust titles or positions of prestige. Trust those whose actions prove they live in Holy Love. These are the ones who do not lead by control and reprisals, but by the Hand of Love.”

“If you do not embrace the Truth, then you oppose it. If you oppose the Truth, then you oppose Me because I am the Truth. I have come to help you discover the Truth within your own heart.”

“Solemnly I challenge you to see that the impoverished nations of the world—many of whom are in this hemisphere—have become the spiritually rich nations. On the other hand, nations such as your own which are materially wealthy are fast becoming spiritually impoverished. Many churches are being closed due to a shortage of priests. This nation, which once sent missionaries to second and third world countries, will soon be seeking priests from the same nations.”

“The true Tradition of Faith which My Mother was sent to protect is now being supported in home schools. Today I would like all the home schools to surrender, in kind, to My Mother’s protection, for you are enkindling the faith of the Church of tomorrow.”

“I come to this site of Heaven’s predilection to bring salvific graces to your midst. I caution you, those who discourage others from coming here or from believing in the Messages, or even discourage belief in the United Hearts Revelation, these have set themselves against Heaven itself.”

“Such as these will not find peace until they repent. They will never be able to restore to Me the souls that may have been saved if not for such negative influence. They cannot mend My Heart wounded by the loss of souls who were called to sanctity through these Messages, but were influenced by evil to oppose this Mission. Those who try to dissuade belief in all the graces offered here are anti-apostles. They will not find fulfillment in their own way of spirituality, for they do not live in the Light of Truth.”

“I am the Way, the Truth and the Life. I am Divine Love—Love is the Light that will overcome the darkness.”

“My brothers and sisters, open your hearts wide—let in Divine Love. Surrender to Me. Do not allow unforgiveness to block the way. Satan watches this place, and he sees that you cannot be discouraged. Come here often. Pray as much as you like, and even more. Pray for the conversion of sinners. We are praying with you.”

“And We’re blessing you with the Blessing of Our United Hearts.”

Conversation with Divine Love

“I am your Jesus, born Incarnate.”

“I come with many from the Heavenly Court today to deepen your understanding of these truths—truths which the world has not heard before.” (St. Thomas Aquinas, St. Catherine of Siena, St. Martin de Porres and many angels are with Jesus.)

“When you see Me, My Mother, the saints or poor souls, you say you are having visions—apparitions. In fact you are seeing the spirit of all of these. The spirit is apart from the soul and apart from the body. Like the soul, it is eternal. This is how St. Joseph welcomed My Mother into Heaven at Her Assumption. His body was not in Heaven, but his spirit manifested in a physical form to welcome Her.”

“The spirit is the embodiment of all the virtues that the soul holds in its heart. If the heart opens to evil, then the spirit is also evil. This is why it is most important to let Holy Love stand guard over the heart. The spirit is the gateway to the eternal soul.”

“You will make all of these things known, and no longer question the way in which Heaven allows you to see beyond the earthly realm.”

“I am blessing you.”

Maureen asks Blessed Mother later that evening:

“Others with same favors?”

Blessed Mother: “The above that appeared with Jesus and Sts. John Vianney, Therese, Teresa of Avila, Gertrude.”

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here and says: “Praise be to Jesus.” Then he greets the people here, and smiles at the priests.

“My brothers and sisters, tonight I invite all priests to realize that their hearts are purified during each Mass through the Holy Eucharist. It is in this way they can be more completely united to the Hearts of Jesus and Mary. It is in this way, as well, that they can abandon themselves more completely to the Will of God.”

“Tonight I am imparting to you my Priestly Blessing.”

Second Sunday Service to Pray against Abortion

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here and they are framed by the Rosary of the Unborn. Their Hearts are exposed. Blessed Mother says: "Praise be to Jesus."

Jesus: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. My brothers and sisters, today I come especially to strengthen your commitment to Holy and Divine Love. Understand that no one who believes these Messages, and sincerely lives them, would commit the sin of abortion. This is why the Rosary of the Unborn and the Chambers of the United Hearts belong together always."

Blessed Mother is here as Mary, Refuge of Holy Love. She says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"Dear children, when you began this spiritual journey, I covered you with My Mantle of Protection. Each present moment that you live the Message of Holy and Divine Love, you take a step forward on this spiritual path that your Heavenly Mother calls you upon. Allow Me to use you as My instruments of grace in every present moment. Be the Message in the world, and allow My words to you to come alive in your hearts."

"It is My request tonight that on the 13th (July) which is one of My feast days—the Feast of Rosa Mystica—you meet at 9:00 p.m. at the Sorrowful Mother Shrine to pray the rosary. I will be with you."

“I have come to help you realize that everything is linked to Love. Love is the energy that holds the Universe together. Love is the Cross. Love is the Light that shines through every virtue. Love is the Creator of every present moment.”

“Since nothing is created outside of Love, and no one can be saved outside of Love, each soul must find his way into the Heart of Love which is God’s Holy and Divine Will.”

“Do not be frustrated by this journey, for each soul will make his way, providing he recognizes the path of love I call him to follow. The struggle to uphold Holy Love in the center of his heart is the struggle that will hold him on the path.”

9:00 p.m. Rosary Service at the Sorrowful Mother Shrine

Blessed Mother is here as Rosa Mystica and says: “Praise be to Jesus.” (A personal message was given to Maureen.)

“Tonight I have come to address all people and all nations, most especially My priest sons and all religious. Be united, My children, in the Message of Holy Love. I speak to the doubters; I speak to the lukewarm; yes, even the arrogant and those who are imprisoned in habits of sin.”

“Be united in this Message of Holy and Divine Love. If you do not understand My call, dear children, it is because you have not listened to Me with your hearts.”

Jesus: “My brothers and sisters, tonight I desire that you follow Me with docility along the path which I call you upon, with a humble heart and with much Holy Love. Dedicate the rest of your lives to spreading the Confraternity of Our United Hearts. Each soul that comes into the Confraternity hastens the Victory and Triumph of Our United Hearts in the world. St. Thomas Aquinas says: “Praise be to Jesus.”

“I have come to help you understand that just as every present moment is different for each person, so too, graces extended to every soul are individualized. The Crown of Thorns, in a particular way, leads the soul deeper into the virtues. This is because the Crown of Thorns, more than any part of the Passion, was a trial of humility. Humility, remember—with love—is the basis of every true virtue.”

Let every thought, word and deed arise from the motive of Holy Love in your hearts. In order to do this, you must search your hearts to see where you are failing in Holy Love. I will help you recognize where you need to improve.”

The ones who lag behind waiting to see who believes, and waiting for signs and wonders, will gain less grace. “Loathsome to Me is the soul that is self-satisfied. Such a one has not opened his heart to self-examination. The first step in the illumination of conscience is to recognize the need for conversion. “I am your Jesus, born Incarnate.”

“Once the grace of the illumination of conscience has been extended by means of grace, the soul must, by a movement of his free will, begin to cooperate with the grace given; that is, he must surrender to the action of the grace of conversion within his own heart by looking at his sinfulness. This, of course, requires Holy Love and Holy Humility—two virtues which the soul must accept in the very earliest stages in his spiritual journey.”

“In the beginning, the soul does not recognize the action of grace or virtue, or even surrender within his own heart. It is only as his journey deepens that he is able to see these things with clarity.”

DISCERNMENT

St. Thomas Aquinas comes. He says: “Praise be to Jesus.”

“I have come to further describe to you the true gift of discernment. Many proclaim this gift, feign this gift, presume to have this gift. These are the ones to beware of. These are the ones who, in reality, have only spiritual pride.”

“True discernment is like a gourmet palate which, when introduced to a fine wine, recognizes and appreciates the depth and richness of it. The gourmet does not make a snap judgment. Rather, he savors the wine slowly, allowing it to interact with the sensitive taste buds—a gift God has given him. There is nothing superficial about the conclusion he draws concerning the wine. He does not base his conclusion on preconceived opinions, but on the experience of his own interaction with the wine.”

“How true this is in regard to spiritual discernment. So often pride is the judge, and the gift of discernment is not even present. Messages from Heaven must touch the soul. They must interact with the spirit. Like fine wine, they must be savored—their essence felt before a conclusion is drawn.”

“So much damage is done by those who proclaim faulty discernment. It is an important tool in the hands of Satan—a tool he uses freely to destroy much of Heaven’s work. It is only through pride he can succeed in this.”

“Peoples’ opinions are not the same as the gift of discernment, though they may be presented as such. Beware!”

Monthly Message to All People and Every Nation
(This message was given in multiple parts.)

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: “Praise be to Jesus.” Jesus says: “I am your Jesus, born Incarnate.” They’re looking around the room and smiling, particularly at the priests who have on their Roman collars.

Jesus says: “My brothers and sisters, today special grace is being passed to you through the Hands of My Mother. This grace will help you to recognize where you are on the path of Holy Love, and what you need to do to come deeper into Divine Love.”

“I have come to help mankind see that the path they are choosing—the path which is one of disordered self-love—is the one that Satan tempts you to choose. It is not a path that leads to eternal life.”

“Inordinate self-love bears bad fruit. It leads to oppression, war and the misguided use of technology. Self-love, when it is disordered, bears the fruit of a sensitive ego which does not accept criticism; unforgiveness which separates the soul from his Creator; and easy acceptance of the compromise of all truth which, in turn, leads the soul deeper into sin. The person who is deep into self-love only sees how every situation affects him personally. He is too selfish to nurture good acts, or to even be charitable in his speech towards others.”

“He uses the world’s goods and all his talents which I gave him at conception, towards his own personal profit. Do you wonder, then, at famine, poverty and unchallenged disease?”

“Your country now is engaged in a war which will not end until terrorism ends. It is a war of good against evil—truth against Satan’s lies. The war began in hearts and spread into the world. I have come once again into the world at this humble site to bring peace into hearts—peace which will come only through the truth of Holy Love.”

“Self-love keeps souls from realizing that they are cooperating with Satan. This is why I tell you—inordinate self-love is the root of the world’s problems today.”

“I invite all to comprehend that because the messages of Holy Love, which are one with the Mission, clearly define Satan’s defeat—the enemy has set himself against My work here.”

“Satan attacks the Message and My messenger through highly credible and the most unlikely sources. He does not come clothed in truth, but always in lies and convoluted reality. He appeals to the pride of false discernment.”

“You, My devout followers, must be wise as serpents and gentle as doves. Ask the Holy Spirit to help you to recognize where Satan is coming clothed in goodness. In the end the enemy will not prevail, for when he opposes the Mission, he opposes Me. Suffer these trials with the dignity of the martyrdom of love. I suffer with you, and I will be victorious with you.”

“I invite you to see that weeding your garden is much like perfecting your soul. I have watched you as you weed your flower garden. You’re always a little surprised at the depth of the roots of the weeds and how much they have infiltrated the soil around them.”

“Think of the weed as self-love which entangles itself around the heart that really wants no part of it and is trying to live in Holy Love. The areas of the heart given over to self-love are not fully discovered until the soul tries with sincerity to pull these ‘roots’ out. Sometimes the weeds of self-love in the heart are difficult to remove, and it is only with intense effort the heart can be freed of all that is holding him back from growth in holiness.”

“The gardener does not give up in ridding his garden of weeds. Neither should the soul grow discouraged in freeing his heart of the weeds of self-love.”

Blessed Mother and St. John Vianney are here. They both say: “Praise be to Jesus.” Now they look at Father – nod and smile.

St. John Vianney says: “The Holy Mother permits me to tell you this. Priests always need prayers no matter what their holiness seems to be on the surface. They are under attack, and it is not only the priests who suffer attacks but also the Church hierarchy—Cardinals and Bishops. Such is the state of each priest’s daily journey—one attack after another. Understand that the priesthood is the soul of the Church.”

You must not support the life of those who are fighting in the war in Iraq, and at the same time support birth control and abortion. If you are praying and seek consolation in the loss of life in the war, think of how much more My Mother and I seek consolation in the lives that are lost in the womb.* Console My Sorrowing Mother, for She weeps constantly for these little ones.”

“And so, pray for the victims as My Mother implored of you many days ago (personal message given to Maureen by Our Lady) when this storm was crossing your state of Florida—to pray for its second landfall and the victims. Here the innocent have suffered along with the guilty which is what I warned over and over. When I speak of the guilty, I refer to those who condone homosexuality, lewd conduct, destruction of the innocent and all who disregard the Ten Commandments."

"The morals of this country have deteriorated. God has been removed from schools and public places. So it is that the destruction of the heart of this nation is resulting in the physical destruction of areas that have supported much sin."

"As you attempt to recover, rebuild the morals of your country as well. Do not be so foolish as to disconnect the real cause from the disaster. Do not say, 'God would not do this.' Look at Sodom and Gomorrah. Learn from the peoples' response to Jonah's warning in Nineveh. Even the king put on sackcloth and ashes. My Father saw this, and did not reign terror upon them. Listen and learn."

Monthly Message to All People and Every Nation
(This message was given in multiple parts.)

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: “Praise be to Jesus.” Jesus says: “I am your Jesus, born Incarnate.”

Jesus: “I have come to help you comprehend the desperate hour your country is in. Already in this young century, you have experienced two apocalyptic events—these being the 9-11 attacks, and this most recent hurricane which destroyed an entire city.”

“It is the hour in which America must choose to unite in Holy Love. Thus, mankind can turn back the wrath of God. Only in this unity based on love will you truly be ‘one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.’ This means even the weakest and most vulnerable—the unborn—have rights. Indeed, it is your treatment of the weakest amongst you that will determine the future of your country and of every nation.”

“This is not the hour when you should further distance yourself from God through the insult of encouraging still greater promiscuity and disregard for life. Here, I am speaking of making available ‘over-the-counter’ what you term the ‘morning-after pill.’ Nor should you allow gambling to spread across the country. It becomes a false god and carries hearts away from Me.”

“Do not be mistaken or confused. There is one purpose that brings Me here; that is, to draw you into Our United Hearts. Herein lies the Ark of the Apocalypse—the Spiritual Refuge of these times.”

“Today I do not come so much to offer solace in recent tragedies, although My empathy is always in your midst. I come to warn you that each one must make the conscious effort to become more holy, for it is only in this way you can avoid future disasters. It is only by your efforts My Mother can hold back My Arm of Justice which sadly aches to fall.”

“I come in truth to lead you in truth. The Prince of Lies spews lies about this Mission to pull you from the path of righteousness which I desperately need you to follow. He comes clothed in goodness and title, and engages you in spiritual warfare. I come clothed in truth, and love and mercy. Follow Me.”

“I tell you, there has never been an age when My Mercy and Love has been more apparent or more needed. Through Divine Mercy and Divine Love, I have laid My Heart bare here at this site, and I continue to do so.”

“I am moved by the many prayers offered here to give to the world the following prayer, which, if propagated and accepted by all people and every nation, will change the course of human events.”

“Here it is:”

“I choose with my free will to love God above all else, and my neighbor as myself. I choose this—Holy Love in the present moment—and seek God’s help in doing so in every future moment. Amen.”

“My brothers and sisters, I invite you to understand that the greatest grace, the greatest miracle given at this site is the grace to live in Holy Love in the present moment. Appreciate this; ask for it when you come here and it will be granted. You are given special angels to assist you.”

“We’re blessing you with the Blessing of Our United Hearts.”

Second Friday Rosary Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here. He greets everyone; then turns and blesses Father. He says: “My dear brothers and sisters, praise be to Jesus through the United Hearts.”

“Tonight I’m calling you to realize that the deeper you go into Divine Love, the harder it is for Satan to distract you and pull you away. Therefore, ask for a humble, loving heart. Priests who follow this dictate will have a more fruitful vocation.”

“I’m extending to you my Priestly Blessing.”

(To: Hispanic Pilgrims)

Blessed Mother says: “Praise be to Jesus.”

“Dear children, thank you for believing in Me as I believe in you. You have come many miles to be with your Sorrowful Mother at midnight. Your presence here consoles Me. I have chosen you to be My apostles of Holy Love—each one in his own country. Through you I can capture many souls and change many hearts.”

“Remain as little children—always trusting in your Mother. In this littleness lies your sanctity. I have not called you to be important, but to be humble—for through the humble heart I can change the course of human events.”

“Pick up your rosaries and use them. Your rosaries are your weapons against the forces of evil.”

“I am blessing your stay here, as well as your families at home.”

Public

(To: Korean Pilgrims)

Blessed Mother says: “Praise be to Jesus.”

“Dear children, you have come because you believe and will not be swayed by others’ opinions. This consoles Me. I will pray for your intentions and for the change of heart in all those who have set themselves against this Mission. The tongue can be used for good or it can be used for evil. We must always build up the Kingdom of God in hearts and in the world. Remember, Satan is the Father of Lies.”

“My children, embrace one another in Holy Love, not with your arms but with your hearts. Be united. I encourage you—be united as little children in your Mother’s Arms. Let your hearts overflow with love for one another. Do not let opinions separate and divide you. My Victory is alive in every heart today that embraces Holy Love. When you embrace Holy Love, you are embracing each other and My Triumph. You will not fail, My little children. Your Mother is supporting you.”

“I am blessing you.”

September 11, 2005

Public

(To: English-Speaking Pilgrims)

Blessed Mother says: “Praise be to Jesus.”

“Dear children, I have come to ask you to be united with one heart—a heart of Holy Love. When you embrace Holy Love, I, your Mother, embrace you. Alone you can accomplish no good thing. It is only through the grace of My Heart that good comes to you. I invite you to come to Me, then, and have no fear, for I am taking care of you.”

“Satan wants to scatter My flock and separate you, My children, so that you are weak and vulnerable. When you trust only in yourselves, it is easy for him to do this; but if you turn to your Heavenly Mother for help, the enemy will flee. Do not be tricked into thinking solutions come from human efforts alone. Every problem finds its solution when Heaven and earth work together.”

“I love you, My children, and I do not want to see you suffer at the hands of Satan’s deception. It is he alone who scatters. Holy Love unites. Holy Love is the solution. Do not be tricked into opposing the very solution I call you to.”

“I will bless all of your efforts in Holy Love.”

Second Sunday Service to Pray against Abortion

Jesus is here with His Heart exposed. He says: “I am your Jesus, born Incarnate.”

“My brothers and sisters, I desire that you recommend all your problems to the welfare of My Sacred Heart. I sorrow with you until the solution unfolds before you. My brothers and sisters, do not despair, but know that every good thing is forthcoming.”

“I’m blessing you with My Blessing of Divine Love.”

Monday United Hearts Confraternity Service

Angel Conchita came first; then she disappeared, and Jesus and Blessed Mother appeared. Blessed Mother says: “Praise be to Jesus.” Jesus says: “I am your Jesus, born Incarnate.”

Jesus: “My brothers and sisters, I desire that you come quickly into My Mother’s Heart—the Refuge you must seek to be safe. Do not look for refuge in the world, for the world does not understand faith or morals, or even love. If you are truly consecrated to My Mother’s Immaculate Heart, you will understand this. Seek only Her Spiritual Refuge—Her Heart.”

“Tonight We’re blessing you with the Blessing of Our United Hearts.”

September 15, 2005
Midnight Service at the United Hearts Field
Feasts of The Triumph of the Cross 9/14 and The Sorrowful Mother 9/15
(This message was given in multiple parts.)

Our Lady is here as the Sorrowful Mother. She has the seven swords in Her Heart. She says: “Praise be to Jesus.”

“Dear children, thank you for answering My call to be here. With a Mother’s Heart I have summoned you, and with a Mother’s Heart I call you to be united in Holy Love. When you are united with one another, you are also united with God. Then, all of nature is in harmony with God’s Holy and Divine Will.”

“If you allow animosities to bring disunity into your midst, this is reflected in the world around you; indeed, in nature itself. Sin destroys the delicate balance of peace, love and joy between God the Creator and all of mankind. It is then you experience freaks of nature such as the recent hurricane. Understand, then, it is not God, but man, that chooses this.”

“Dear children, have respect for one another because you love one another. Let this love open your hearts to respect for the unborn, the poor and indigent, the aged and all who live compromised lives. Let your love be boundless. Do not consider cost to self, but only consider the needs of others.”

“Dear children, the reason I come here tonight is to help you find the path to your salvation. This path is Holy Love. Without Holy Love in your hearts, you cannot come close to Jesus, and you do not deserve to share Heaven with Him.”

“With a Mother’s Love, I come to you to call each one of you deeper into My Immaculate Heart, where Satan cannot persuade you from the path of righteousness.”

“Today there is worldwide starvation. It is a starvation, not for food, but for Holy Love. When I come to offer this food of love, My children do not accept it. Instead, they wait for approvals and authorizations to take what I offer. These things will come in time, little children. But, if you wait, you may starve to death in the meantime. Take what I offer with Motherly Love. Accept the path of Holy Love and you will be given salvation. I desire you have eternal life.”

“Tonight, My dear children, I invite you to realize that you must allow God to reign over your hearts in every present moment. This way, He will become part of your decisions and part of your lives. When you make plans without God, He steps back and watches you fall. He does not impose His Will, but awaits your invitation. My Son desires to forgive the past, to reign in your hearts in the present and eagerly waits for your ‘yes’ in the future. If you have Holy Love in your hearts, all of this is possible. Then My Victory and the Triumph of Our United Hearts will usher in the New Jerusalem.”

“If Holy Love is chosen by more hearts, this hemisphere will renew the Church and many calamities will be avoided. Faith and religion will once again be revered and respected. Lives will be saved and many diseases will be eradicated, but you must pray much and work hard, My children. God will not hold back His Justice much longer.”

“My dear little children, tonight you see I am here as your Sorrowful Mother, but you have the power and the way, My little children, to change My sorrow into joy. You must live these Messages of Holy and Divine Love and become My apostles. It is difficult for the sophisticated to pray much, but if you are as little children, you will accept all that I tell you, and you will act upon it.”

“My dear little children, tonight I am sending angels amongst you to touch you, to bless you, to change hearts and to transform lives through Holy Love.”

“I’m extending to you My Blessing of Holy Love.”

Feast of The Sorrowful Mother
(This message was given in multiple parts.)

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Our Lady is here as Refuge of Holy Love. She says: “Praise be to Jesus.” Jesus says: “I am your Jesus, born Incarnate.”

Jesus: “Today I have come to help the world rediscover the pricelessness of every present moment. The choices each soul makes in each present moment affects the future of the world. If the soul chooses Holy Love, the heart of the world is strengthened and drawn closer to God. It is not just your own personal holiness that depends on your choices, then, but comprehend that the future of the world depends on each of you.”

“The world stands precariously on the precipice of My Justice. Only Love and Mercy hold it back. Therefore, I come today seeking your assistance in strengthening the Remnant of Holy Love—the Remnant Faithful. Be apostles of Our United Hearts. Spread the Confraternity. Do not linger in doubts, but believe with your whole heart. I have chosen you. You must choose Me.”

“I tell you, the perfect way to spend the present moment is to live the Messages of Holy and Divine Love. This is also the only way to fulfill your responsibilities towards God and neighbor.”

“I am charging you with a grave, yet awesome responsibility here today—not only the future of your country or of this hemisphere, but of the world itself. You can make a difference if you remember to enlist the assistance of My Mother’s grace-filled Heart. There is no one who can say they have nothing to give, for everyone has the present moment. Relinquish it to Holy Love.”

“My brothers and sisters, please understand that it is the love in your hearts that purifies and strengthens every prayer, every sacrifice, every present moment. Therefore, I urge you, with intense love, to always have Holy Love in your hearts. This is the way to win souls towards their salvation.”

“We are blessing you with the Blessing of Our United Hearts.”

Friday Rosary Service

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: “Praise be to Jesus.” Jesus says: “I am your Jesus, born Incarnate.” They both nodded a greeting to those in the apparition room. Now, they motion towards Their Hearts.

Jesus says: “My dear brothers and sisters (addressing now the people in this room), you have been chosen to stabilize the Remnant Faithful and to transform hearts through Holy Love. Carry back with you to your points of origin this mission.”

Now, Jesus says:

“Tonight I am speaking to all people and all nations. You must take up the cross; you must take the shield of Holy and Divine Love upon yourselves. There is not much time left, My brothers and sisters, and we need to change hearts rapidly, quickly, through these Messages. Return to your points of origin and spread the Messages. Each of you will, then, be an apostle of Holy Love, and I will use you to the fullest.”

They both bless us with the Blessing of the United Hearts.

Monday United Hearts Confraternity Service

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: “Praise be to Jesus.” Jesus says: “I am your Jesus, born Incarnate.”

Jesus: “My brothers and sisters, I welcome all of you here tonight, and I thank you for your faith and your dedication to this Mission.” Jesus and Blessed Mother greet the priests and the sisters in the apparition room.

“Tonight I desire that you understand the proper prayer posture interiorly to have when you pray for a petition. When you desire that a petition be answered, My brothers and sisters, cast the petition upon the altar of My Sacred Heart. Place all your faith and hope and trust in the goodness of My Sacred Heart.”

“Say to Me, ‘Jesus, You are my strength. Alone, I can do nothing. Only You can fulfill this petition.’ And then leave the petition in My Heart. Every time it comes to mind, surrender it again in this manner. This pleases Me.”

“Tonight We’re blessing you with the Blessing of Our United Hearts.”

Jesus says: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate."

"Please understand that in mercy and love, I turn no one away. With joy I accept every petition which is surrendered to Me. The perfect surrender, however, not only waits for Me to act, but also accepts God's Holy and Divine Will as it affects the outcome. My Father's plan is far greater than the human mind can fathom. It is as deep as the deepest sea, and as high as the greatest summit. It is always the culmination of surrender in Holy Love."

Friday Rosary Service – Feast of St. Pio of Pietrelcina

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: "Praise be to Jesus." Jesus says: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate." They greet the priests and sister in the apparition room and motion towards Their Hearts.

Jesus: "My dear brothers and sisters, I have come to advise you that it is folly to regard only the opinion of others and their esteem in the world. To do so greatly compromises the law of Holy Love and the path I call you upon. Only have regard for what I think of you, and for how much you appeal to My Heavenly Father. In this way you will be drawn deep into the Chambers of Our United Hearts."

"Tonight We're blessing you with the Blessing of Our United Hearts."

Ecumenical Prayer for Unity Amongst All People

Jesus is here with His Heart exposed. He says: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate."

"My brothers and sisters, please understand that the people who do not believe in this apparition site and these Messages of Holy and Divine Love are the ones who find it too difficult to change; for these Messages dictate a change of heart that is based upon tolerance and forgiveness and love. If they find these Messages too complicated or difficult, it is because they do not love enough."

"Please make this known."

"I'm blessing you with My Blessing of Divine Love."

Monday United Hearts Confraternity Service

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: "Praise be to Jesus." Jesus says: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate."

Jesus: "My brothers and sisters, tonight once again I invite you to share in the Victory and Triumph of Our United Hearts now in this present moment. Yes, it is possible, My brothers and sisters, when you say 'yes' to Holy Love. It is then that I am already triumphant within your hearts; and My Mother, as well, awaits your 'yes', for She shares every victory with Me."

So, My brothers and sisters, you will please make this known. We can win this battle between good and evil if more will listen."

"I am your Jesus, born Incarnate."

"Child, I call you 'child' for I see clearly your heart. Look at Me." (He is showing me the wounds in His Hands.)

"The first nail was driven in by a pharisaical spirit—a spirit of self-righteousness and sanctimony. The second nail was driven in by a lying spirit—a spirit of convoluted truth." (Now He shows me the wounds on His Feet.)

"This wound on this (r) foot was inflicted by a spirit of arrogance. My other Foot was pierced by a spirit of rash judgment, which is the same as false discernment."

"Knowing this, how can your crucifixion be different than My own?"

"Did I mention the wound on My Side—the wound which pierced My Heart?" (He pulls back His garment to show Me His Heart.) "This wound was given to Me by those who believed the false opinions of the Pharisees. They were led astray by falsehood. They saw only the authority of those who spoke against Me, and not the error of their opinions versus the good news I came to preach."

"This should give you hope in persevering, for My message was proclaimed worldwide despite obstacles."

“I am your Jesus, born Incarnate.”

“Please understand that as I described My wounds to you in the previous message, that it was what people accepted in their hearts that crucified Me. Satan’s line of attack is always to change peoples’ perception of the truth. He does this by convoluting good and making it appear as evil, and vice-versa by twisting evil to appear as good. This is why it is so important that consciences are formed in the righteousness of Holy Love.”

September 30, 2005
Friday Rosary Service

Jesus is here with His Heart exposed. He says: “I am your Jesus, born Incarnate.”

“My dear brothers and sisters, I am calling each of you deeper into the Chambers of Our United Hearts. Many of you are held back by some insignificant grudge that you harbor in your hearts against an acquaintance, a relative, a sibling or a parent. If you stop and think, I will enlighten you because this unforgiveness is a great obstacle between you and Me, and prevents you from becoming more holy—even from becoming a saint. My brothers and sisters, Holy Love demands you forgive.”

“Tonight I’m blessing you with My Blessing of Divine Love.”

October 1, 2005
Feast of St. Therese of the Child Jesus

St. Therese says: “Praise be to Jesus.”

“Write down what I have come to tell you, child. This is the recipe for a good sacrifice.”

“First and foremost, the sacrifice should arise from a heart full of love. Otherwise, what is surrendered to God is given half-heartedly. The sacrifice is only as worthy as the depth of love with which it is offered. To put it another way, if the sacrifice were a delicious morsel of food, it would only be as good as the ingredients used to prepare it.”

“Any sacrifice done impatiently, angrily or with little Holy Love, merits the soul little consolation in this life, reward in the next life, and perhaps even a longer stay in Purgatory.”

“Always serve God and neighbor as a little child whose sole purpose is to please his parents out of love.”

October 3, 2005
Monday United Hearts Confraternity Service

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: “Praise be to Jesus.” Jesus says: “I am your Jesus, born Incarnate.”

Jesus: “My brothers and sisters, tonight I have come to remind you that it is not enough to strip yourself of inordinate self-love. You must allow your hearts to be filled with Holy Love once they are emptied of self; for to do otherwise is to perform charitable acts, still and all, out of self-love to make yourself feel good or to appear good in the eyes of others. These are empty acts and do not reflect a love of God in your hearts.”

“My brothers and sisters, tonight We’re blessing you with Our Blessing of the United Hearts.”

St. Thomas Aquinas comes. He says: “Praise be to Jesus.”

“Listen closely as I impart these truths to you. The will is influenced by the spirit that embraces the heart and soul. If the spirit is loving and kind, the decisions that the heart makes with its free will are most likely loving and kind. In a similar way, if the spirit is evil, the will follows and chooses evil.”

“This is why the spirit must be protected and nurtured so as to embrace good. Everything that the spirit comes in contact with influences it, though some are more easily influenced than others. The environment, the people one comes in contact with, the spiritual weapons—such as prayer, sacrifice that the soul uses—all of these influence the spirit, and so, too, the choices of the free will.”

“You can see, then, that neighborhoods, families and even nations have a spirit that affects the free will choices of the people and the governments as a whole. Therefore, you have abortion, euthanasia, embryonic experimentation and much more as a result.”

“The spirit must be protected by Holy Love. That is why Heaven speaks here—to influence the spirit of the world.”

October 5, 2005
Monthly Message to All People and Every Nation
(This message was given in multiple parts.)

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: "Praise be to Jesus." Jesus says: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate."

Jesus: "I come to you, as I always do, to change the heart of the world through Holy and Divine Love. This, indeed, is My sole purpose for being in your midst. It is the reason Heaven communicates with earth at this site. It is the cause of all the miracles and graces here at this site of predilection—to change the thoughts, words and actions of all humanity into Holy Love."

"There is no sound moral argument against this Mission if you are truly a Christian, or if you say you love God and neighbor. Holy Love opposes no Christian value or teaching—no moral stand or theological doctrine. Why, then, does anyone oppose it, speak or act against it? Do not stand back and wait. I, your Jesus, am calling you."

"The Eternal Father grants these special favors to those who come here during an allotted time of grace. Many who journey here will experience an illumination of conscience. Some will live out their Purgatory in the world, thus coming directly to Heaven upon their death. These are known only to Me."

"The length of this time of extended grace is known only to My Father. During this time many miracles will occur here, and many more will give strong witness to the truth of these messages. When the extended hour of grace draws to an end, all of earth will weep and mourn. But I will remain with you, and those who live in Holy Love will be under My Mother's Mantle of Protection. Therefore, do not fear, but make the most of the time you have."

"During these times there are many hearts given over to an arrogant spirit. These are the ones who think, speak and act as though they are not answerable to Me. Remember, if you are not with Me, you are against Me. If you are in a position which influences the spirituality of others, you are answerable to Me for many souls. Do not think otherwise."

"The righteous heart cannot condone nude statues in My churches, the practice of the occult such as reiki or any New Age encounter. To speak against something, but not to take action against it when you are able to stop it, is the same as condoning it. The duplicitous heart is guilty in My Eyes. If you are sensitive to My words, it is because you recognize your own guilt. I have come to heal the sinner and bring him into Holy Love."

“Some have come here with petitions in their hearts—questions that they wish to ask My Mother or Myself. Understand that when they pray, they will have the answers in their own hearts. Those who petition for good health or financial success will need to accept My Father’s Divine Will. Some will be healed—some problems remedied, but not all is according to man’s will.”

“Please understand that Satan’s design is total destruction of the planet, of the faith, and of life itself. But I have come to you with the solution which is a network of Holy Love around the world. This will give you strength to overcome evil, to renew faith, strengthen the Remnant Faithful, replace the culture of death with life and avoid major disasters that could destroy whole areas of the planet.”

“So, it is up to you. You have this favor of time on your side. We do not know for how long, but you must use it to the best of your ability. Here on this site, I am strengthening the Remnant Faithful—and so, come here.”

“We’re blessing you with the Blessing of Our United Hearts.”

Friday Rosary Service – Feast of Our Lady of The Rosary

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here. Their Hearts are exposed. Blessed Mother says: “Praise be to Jesus.” She’s holding the Rosary of the Unborn. Jesus says: “I am your Jesus, born Incarnate.”

Jesus: “My brothers and sisters, each one of you has been invited individually to be here tonight. Each one of you has been invited to be part of the larger group of Holy Love. My Mother is leading this group with the Rosary of the Unborn. You are being led forward, never to trip, never to be overcome by obstacles.”

“It is because of your devotion to the Holy Rosary, My brothers and sisters, that many graces come here, and it is the site of Heaven’s predilection.”

“Tonight We’re blessing you with the Blessing of Our United Hearts.”

Our Lady's Message to The Remnant Faithful

Blessed Mother says: “Praise be to Jesus.”

“It is necessary that the Remnant Faithful be tried in the crucible of love. For this reason, I am drawing the Remnant through the purifying Flame of My Heart so that the spirit of love can be carried throughout the world.”

“The laity and clergy alike must be united now in this effort to bring Holy and Divine Love to every segment of My holy Remnant. I am bringing the Remnant to your doorstep—to this blessed site of favor. Here, My Son will allow Me to speak once again from time to time in order to unite and strengthen the Remnant. My Son sees how they are struggling and are confused by what is happening within the Church. He knows the Remnant needs a Mother’s embrace and encouragement to be one in spirit.”

“Do not be anxious about anything. With joy, look to a new horizon where all will have one heart—a heart of Holy Love. I will not allow the flock to be scattered, but will bring each one into My Heart. I will bring truth to light and show you where darkness obscures My plan. Do not worry. Your Mother is with you. I will not allow you to be misled by the powers of darkness.”

October 9, 2005
Our Lady's Message to The Remnant Faithful

Blessed Mother says: “Praise be to Jesus.”

“My daughter, it is with sadness and joy I come to you today to address My holy Remnant; sadness, because the true Tradition of Faith has been betrayed by so many; joy, because at this site Jesus allows Me, His humble servant, to address the Remnant Faithful. It is at this site a holy nation of faithful will be raised up to strengthen the heart of the Church.”

“I desire the Remnant come into the Chambers of Our United Hearts, thereby averting many obstacles and deceptions on the path to the Divine Will of the Father. It is with certainty the flock will be led here—one by one—two by two, as if searching out an ark of safety from the flood of compromise and deceit which weighs upon those who should be leaders. But here, the ark is Holy and Divine Love. I will draw the battle-weary into My Immaculate Heart. I will sustain them and protect their faith.”

“St. Michael’s Lake has been set aside to hold special blessings for the Remnant, for he is the vanguard of a new era. Come and partake of the blessings, and be strengthened in the truth.”

October 9, 2005
Second Sunday Service to Pray against Abortion

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here. Their Hearts are exposed. Blessed Mother says: “Praise be to Jesus.” Jesus says: “I am your Jesus, born Incarnate.”

Jesus: “My brothers and sisters, abortion is a grave crime. Unless you can reverse this crime against life, you will continue to see many forces of destruction around the world, both in the form of war and natural disasters.”

“I’m inviting you now to do all in your power—prayer, sacrifice and speaking out against abortion, artificial birth control, the morning-after pill—all of these are sins against life. Please help Me to bring righteousness back into the heart of the world.”

“We’re blessing you with Our Blessing of Our United Hearts.”

October 10, 2005
Monday United Hearts Confraternity Service

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: “Praise be to Jesus.” Jesus says: “I am your Jesus, born Incarnate.”

Jesus: “We come to you tonight on the wings of truth. As I speak to you, I will clarify the truth. Satan has tried to gain entrance to this Mission through hearts, most especially through the heart of My messenger, but he has been unsuccessful in his attempts.”

“Now he is attempting to dilute the Message through false prophets and through statements by those in high places. But I tell you, he will not succeed here either, because this Mission has its roots in Heaven. There is only one messenger, and there is only the Message that is relayed through her. All others are false, and their sole aim is to dilute the truth and to throw you off guard.”

“We are not connected here with any other visionary—any other city. And I am not raising up other messengers to support this one, though she (Maureen) might like it.”

“So, digest these words and let them become a part of your heart and your understanding.”

“We’re blessing you with the Blessing of Our United Hearts.”

October 14, 2005
Second Friday Rosary Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here. He says: “Praise be to Jesus.”

“My brothers and sisters, I have come to encourage and protect my brother priests. I desire that they know that their Faith is being protected by our Holy Mother under the title ‘Mary Protectress of the Faith’ and ‘Refuge of Holy Love.’ These two titles belong together as one. Further, they should realize that they must continue to be devoted to the rosary, most especially the Rosary of the Unborn, for it is every person’s treatment of God’s weakest creatures that determines his stand on Holy Love.”

“Tonight I’m extending to you my Priestly Blessing.”

October 16, 2005
Our Lady’s Message to The Remnant Faithful

Blessed Mother says: “Praise be to Jesus.”

“My daughter, I have come to tell you that the battle is intensifying. Many souls are at stake. In some areas the existence of the Church itself is at stake, though in the end, good will win out. It is important that you understand that what you have been given here—the Revelation of the Chambers of the United Hearts and My title, Protectress of the Faith and Refuge of Holy Love—is the solution to the evil that pervades hearts, and so, too, the world.”

“My adversary comprehends this and knows that the weapons given here are his defeat if they are accepted by many. This is why you struggle to win over one heart at a time. Every heart that opens to the graces here weakens Satan and strengthens My Remnant Faithful. The battle is waged in every present moment. So, you must always stand ready. Be certain that My Heart is the Refuge of all the Remnant Faithful and My Mantle of Love surrounds all of you.”

“Tell My children they are never abandoned by My Holy Love, but rather I stand with them, securing each victory.”

“You will tell them this?”

Maureen: I said, “Yes.”

Blessed Mother smiles and leaves.

October 17, 2005
Monday United Hearts Confraternity Service

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: “Praise be to Jesus.” Jesus says: “I am your Jesus, born Incarnate.”

Jesus: “My brothers and sisters, I have come to ask you—do not be afraid of your own personal sanctification. When you are afraid of suffering, you fear sanctity itself.”

“Understand that the past blends into the present—the present blends into the future. In Heaven’s eyes, all is one. So, then, you can sanctify all your past moments, your present moments and your future moments by surrendering them to Me in Holy Love.”

“Tonight We’re blessing you with Our Blessing of the United Hearts.”

St. Thomas Aquinas comes and says: “Praise be to Jesus.”

“I am going to put this spirituality into terms you will understand. Say a chef is making a cake. The chef represents the free will since he decides what goes into the cake. The ingredients of the cake are the various virtues that the soul accepts or rejects. The flavor of the cake would be the spirit of the person, because it is the sum total of all the ingredients the chef chooses to use.”

“Now, when the soul decides with his free will to become a martyr of love, he is surrendering everything—all the ‘ingredients’ to Holy Love—to the Immaculate Heart. In other words, he empties the bowl of all that goes together to make the delicious cake, and asks the Lord to make it into a cake of ‘love’ in whatever way he chooses. So, you see, even the spirit must be surrendered in order to be a true martyr of love.”

“Do you understand this now?”

Maureen: “Maybe.”

St. Thomas: “Ponder it. You don’t have to understand for it to be so.”

Friday Rosary Service

Jesus is here with His Heart exposed and says: “I am your Jesus, born Incarnate.”

“My brothers and sisters, I have come to remind you that it is the humble heart that is most easily given over to patience. It is only with great patience that you can await Heaven’s Provision. Everyone who awaits some type of Divine Provision, whether it is a particular grace, a conversion of a family member or guidance along the path of holiness—each one must practice humility and patience as you await what Heaven offers. Do not jump to conclusions. Wait on My Provision, and I will show you where to go, what to do, when to speak and when to be silent.”

“Tonight I’m blessing you with My Blessing of Divine Love.”

Our Lady's Message to The Remnant Faithful

Blessed Mother says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"My daughter, I come to you once again to address the Remnant Faithful—those who live fully the Faith as handed down from the apostles. I speak the truth, which does not oppose faith or morals, but only serves to uncover Satan's lies."

"Today there is division amongst the faithful. Some cling to the true Tradition of Faith; others cling to their own opinions which serve to fulfill their own agendas. These are the ones who promote women priests, married priests, the primacy of conscience over Church teaching, and the error that they can be gods themselves. These falsehoods have brought disharmony to the very core of the Church, and must be overcome before unity can be restored."

"Homosexuality and birth control cannot be placated. You cannot have a 'live and let live' attitude where sin is concerned. Begin to see that it is Satan who presents these ideas to you as temptations—temptations to sin and disunity. You must love God and neighbor more than the sin."

"As Protectress of the Faith and Refuge of Holy Love, I have come to help you—to reunite you with each other and with God. Come closer to Me by desiring it. I will help you distinguish good from evil. I will help you contend with the adversary. Jesus has sent Me here to be with you during this final battle. I will not abandon you. You must not abandon Me. Together we will reunite the heart of the Church in the spirit of truth."

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: "Praise be to Jesus." Jesus says: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate." They greet the people here and smile.

Jesus: "Thank you for answering My Mother's invitation to be here today. Please understand, My dear brothers and sisters, that the cause of abortion and every type of sin is lack of love in hearts. You must be reconciled with your Creator through Holy Love. Spread the Message of Holy Love, which is scripturally sound, and you will begin to see a change in many things, weather—all sorts of catastrophes will lessen and be mitigated."

Our Lady's Message to The Remnant Faithful

Blessed Mother says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"My daughter, today the heart of the world has become very cynical concerning matters of Faith. Faith is believing in something which you cannot see or prove with reason. It is a gift from God. But just as the gift of life in the womb is rejected, so, too, the human heart is open to Satan's suggestions which threaten the Faith."

"I have come to protect the Faith. Do not be surprised that no one has been able to paint the image of Me as Protectress of the Faith. It is because both images come together in the title, Refuge of Holy Love."

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: "Praise be to Jesus." Jesus says: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate."

Jesus: "My brothers and sisters, Our coming to you is a sign that Heaven is bending towards earth seeking to close the abyss between Heaven and man. You must see that your Creator desires that this abyss be vanished; therefore, surrender. Decide to meet Me in an effort of grace, for I send My Mother to you, strengthening you in your weakest efforts to overcome sin."

Friday Rosary Service

Jesus is here with His Heart exposed and says: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate."

"My brothers and sisters, untether your hearts from the affairs of the world. With a movement of your free will, fly into My Divine Love where I can use you to save souls. Bring to Me your unworthiness, all your sinfulness. I do not look at that—I look at the love in your hearts. Give to Me your love, as well."

"Tonight I'm blessing you with My Blessing of Divine Love."

“I have come once again to call you along the way of perfection through the Chambers of Our United Hearts. Please understand that to be perfected in this way, you must surrender to the Will of My Father in every present moment. My Mother is given to you to assist and to help you to be perfected in God’s Will.”

Our Lady’s Message to The Remnant Faithful

Blessed Mother says: “Praise be to Jesus.”

“I have come to you today to strengthen the Remnant Faithful. I desire that untruths be uncovered, as these are presented to My children by those who are leaders—leaders who have been misled themselves. As Mother and Protectress of the Remnant Church, I cannot allow the true Tradition of Faith to fall prey to Satan’s lies.”

“Certain practices are being presented to you, My children, as favorable—even Vatican approved. The time after you receive the Sacred Eucharist is the special time between you and the Lord. Remember, in Holy Love we must love God above all else. This means He must be first. After My Son comes into your heart, it is a time for union with Divine Love. The Holy Father never asked you to stand and sing and be united with each other at this special moment of grace. These are all distractions. Do not be tricked into thinking otherwise. Do not relinquish this most cherished time with My Jesus to some avant-garde practice.”

“Furthermore, there are certain ‘New Age’ practices that some dioceses support as generally acceptable—reiki is one of them. Anything ‘New Age’—such as reiki, yoga, tarot cards, ‘New Age’ massages and music—is occult! Do not be fooled because someone important claims otherwise.”

“I have promised to you the Holy Refuge of My Heart during these confusing times. I will not forsake you. I will nurture your faith with the truth—always the truth. Your faith in Me will be rewarded, dear children.”

Monday United Hearts Confraternity Service

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. They are smiling and nodding at Father C. in the apparition room. Jesus raises His Arm and extends a blessing to Father C.

Blessed Mother says: “Praise be to Jesus.” Jesus says: “I am your Jesus, born Incarnate.”

Jesus: “My brothers and sisters, this Mission of the United Hearts is a shining jewel on the Crown of Victory that is the Triumph of the Kingdom to come. You are called to be apostles of this Triumph. It is an arduous path, but Our grace is ever-present to help you and assist you along the way. I await your ‘yes’ in every present moment. Do not turn away from Me, but always towards Our United Hearts through Holy and Divine Love.”

“We’re extending to you tonight the Blessing of Our United Hearts.”

“Humility will only be as deep as Holy Love is pure in the heart. In fact, the purity of love in the heart determines the depth of every virtue in every soul. Pray each day that the love in your heart becomes purer—less centered on self. Love of money and power contaminate Holy and Divine Love.”

“Especially in this season of Advent, make your hearts pure—a secure dwelling place for My coming to you on Christmas.”

Monthly Message to All People and Every Nation

“I am your Jesus, born Incarnate.”

“Today, as I address all people and all nations, you may wonder at My choice of topics. I see all the sin and injustice in the world. Yet, I tell you, much can be accomplished if you listen to Me today. I have come to speak to you about forgiveness.”

“Wars are visited upon many nations when people cannot tolerate one another’s opinions. Be gentle in your thoughts, words and deeds. Do not bear grudges against one another. This is buried unforgiveness. It serves to separate you from Me. When we are separated in the least, you become easy prey for Satan—a tool in his hands.”

“To forgive is Holy Love in action. To overcome the poison of holding a grudge is Divine Love in action. Unforgiveness is a form of anger. You, My brothers and sisters, are called to love. Yes, love your enemies. As I forgave My enemies from the Cross, I challenge you to do likewise. If each one would take this message of mercy to heart, many problems would disappear.”

“Famine, natural disasters, wars—all of these are symptoms of the injustice man holds in his heart. Overcome the temptation to hang on to the past with bitterness and turn towards Me with love. I will send you the help you need to do so.”

“Some do not fully realize the power of forgiveness. You may not understand that when Satan is able to manipulate one heart, his strength around the world is increased. This is true, because one person influences so many others around him and the pattern continues to be repeated.”

“So it is, I come to you today seeking your help. Increase the flow of grace from Heaven by breaking the chain of grudges and unforgiveness Satan is binding you with.”

Remember, when I came to you on the first Christmas, I came as Prince of Peace. Prepare your hearts during this Advent season by being signs of love and peace to one another.”

(Note from Maureen)

He leaves, and there is a lighted cross in His place for a couple of seconds.

Feast of The Immaculate Conception

Our Lady comes in white and gold. She says: “Praise be to Jesus.”

“I invite you to rejoice today. I am sharing this day with all of those consecrated to Me. I am shedding many graces upon these, My children.”

“This day be triumphant, as I am victorious in you.”

December 9, 2005
Feast of St. Juan Diego

St. Thomas Aquinas comes. He says: “Praise be to Jesus.”

“Are you feeling better?”

Maureen: “Yes.”

“God is with you. I desire to share further insight with you. There is a difference between being holy and being a saint. The holy person has entered the First Chamber—the Immaculate Heart of Mary. He hungers for God, but has many areas of self-love still in his heart. One trap that Satan lays for such a one is the soul's desire to be known as holy. Of course, each soul in the First Chamber has unique temptations. He should pray every day that they be shown to him. Only in this way can he be perfected."

"The Second and Third Chambers are the ones that deepen holiness and perfect the soul in Holy Love. As this occurs, his spirit becomes peaceful. As the soul advances to the Fourth Chamber—Conformity to the Divine Will—he slowly moves towards sanctification. He thinks less about how people, places and things affect him. His focus is on the Divine Will of God the Father."

"There is no fanfare—no outward sign—announcing the soul's personal sanctification. It is between the soul and God. Unless the soul is first holy, he does not desire sanctification with a sincere heart."

"Many desire to be known as saintly, but few attain this goal in truth. Sanctity does not come with title, position or vocation, but with simplicity and humility, such as Juan Diego had."

December 12, 2005
Midnight Service at the United Hearts Shrine
(This message was given in multiple parts.)

Blessed Mother is here as Our Lady of Guadalupe. She says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"Dear children, I come to you bearing the light of truth. If you keep your eyes on the world, you are allowing Satan to blind you. Then you cannot recognize the path of righteousness, which is Holy and Divine Love; nor can you recognize sin and error in your own hearts. Jesus has sent Me to lift the scales from your eyes, and to help you to live in truth."

"I desire your happiness—not your demise. Therefore, My dear, dear children, I encourage you to accept both cross and victory as one, with a peace and joy only Holy Love can give. In this way, you will see the abyss between Heaven and earth made smaller and smaller. You will see peace come into families, governments and whole nations. This is the way to bring to defeat ideologies which destroy life, and which do not respect the rights of others. You see this surrender to both cross and victory as small—even unimportant."

"Please comprehend, dear children, what I, your Heavenly Mother, am telling you. Each heart holds the key to My Son's mercy upon the world. Each heart that embraces Holy Love enlightens the path of Jesus' return in triumph and glory. Each heart that embraces evil calls upon God's Justice."

“In each present moment, you are given the grace to choose God’s Victory over His Justice. But you, My little children, must unite your efforts with the grace of My Immaculate Heart. Please understand that this is the way triumph will unite your heart to Mine, and then to the Divine Heart of My Beloved Son.”

“When you accept all that the Will of God sends you in each moment, then we are united and the victory is in your heart. This is how you abandon yourselves to the Will of God.”

“You must remember, dear children, it is not wealth or power or important status amongst men that secures your salvation. My Son looks into each heart at their judgment to determine their response to the commandments of love which comprise Holy Love itself. You must embrace Holy Love on earth, for the Gates of Paradise are Holy Love, and swing open for the heart enveloped in Holy Love.”

“Tonight, as I appear to you, Jesus grants that the souls of certain priests who have touched your lives in a decisive way be immediately released from Purgatory and enter Heaven. It is not necessary that you speculate which priests I refer to. You will know in Heaven.”

“I urge you, do not be self-absorbed. Do not seek pleasure for pleasure’s sake. Let everything—thought, word and deed—flow from a heart which overflows with love—love of God and neighbor.”

“Dear children, tonight I have come to warn you that if you continue on the path of removing God from all public places, your country will see breaches in national security and an increase in natural disasters. God will allow these things, for you have not united in an effort for Him to be honored and recognized as He has been in the past. Dear children, you must be united and avoid apathy. I tell you these things, for these are perilous times.”

“Tonight, My dear children, I’m blessing you with My Blessing of Motherly Love.”

“When you pray, pray that souls are set on fire with a zeal for evangelizing the Chambers of Our United Hearts. I desire that those who choose this path—this spiritual journey—be united in making the Message known. We must work together, realizing the importance of one soul at a time. Realize, as well, that each one’s spiritual journey is one step at a time.”

“To love Me, as I call you to, is to be drawn apart from all things in the world. Do not love money, power, reputation. These are all passing just as time passes. Each present moment passes and is gone forever. Be a reflection of the love I hold in My Heart for you. Trust always in My Provision. This relieves your anxiety and allows you to live in peace—a true reflection of Divine Love.”

St. Thomas Aquinas comes. He says: “Praise be to Jesus.”

“I have come to help you understand how to make the present moment valuable in God’s Eyes. You give the present moment eternal value when you hold the love of God in your heart. This is not always on a conscious level; that is to say, thinking, ‘I love you, Jesus.’ Rather, it is a love rooted in the heart—in the spirit—that motivates thought, word and deed.”

“The present moment that is spent on impatience, unforgiveness, anger or any emotion that opposes love of God is wasted. This is why the soul needs to practice every virtue for love of God. Never try to impress others with your holiness. This arises from false virtue. Ask the holy angels to keep you on course. When you arise in the morning, ask the angels to flood your heart with love of God and neighbor. Do not underestimate the power of this practice. The Triune God desires that you have every advantage to lead you towards sanctity.”

Conversation with Divine Love

“I am your Jesus, born Incarnate.”

“Deep in My Heart are all your concerns. You do not see how I am going to act or the outcome of God’s Will for you. You contemplate problems with only a human perspective. Worry affects your spirit, as does any negative emotion. I desire your joy and peace. Reserve your concerns for Me. I am the One who helps you.”

December 25, 2005
Christmas Day

“I am your Jesus, born Incarnate.”

“I come to you bearing the gift of peace, just as I came as Prince of Peace in the manger at Bethlehem. Peace does not come into the heart with great pomp and fanfare. Rather, peace engulfs the heart in quietude, simplicity and humility. My attempts at shedding peace upon the world must be met with the surrender of free will; for unless free will cooperates with grace, the graces of Heaven cannot act in the heart and spirit.”

“Further, I tell you, that peace and truth are companions. This is why I am also Lord of Truth. Untruths come from Satan, the enemy of peace. Untruths bear agitation, unrest and anxiety. Therefore, do not be swayed by any compromise or any heresy that calls your heart away from the true Tradition of Faith. Be on guard. Ask Me, and all truths will be revealed to you. A lying spirit cannot stand up to the test of truth.”

“As Prince of Peace and Lord of the Truth, I am the Light that pierces all darkness.”

“I am your Jesus, born Incarnate.”

“Hide yourself in My Wounds. I have come to address all people about the spirit of perfectionism. This spirit is what promotes intolerance amongst people and opposes Holy Love. Perfectionism carries with it negativity which seeks out error in every situation and in all others. It breeds self-righteousness, judgmentalism and false discernment.”

“I desire souls look into their own hearts and recognize when they are slipping into acceptance of a perfectionistic spirit. Pray for a generous spirit that embraces humility of heart—a spirit that accepts others and prays for them—only correcting them when it is their duty to do so. The perfectionist tends to hang on to grudges, being unable to accept that he sees error in the hearts of others. This is when prayer for self is important.”

“So often people forget to pray for their own holiness and sanctification. My Mother has so many graces to give you, if you but ask. She wants to ‘mother’ you and lead you away from tendencies which block your path into the Father’s Will. Open your hearts.”

Friday Rosary Service

Jesus is here with His Heart exposed. He says: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate."

"Tonight, My brothers and sisters, I invite you to understand that when you have Holy Love in your heart from moment to moment, all your prayers, all your sacrifices and every virtue become deeper and more meritorious. This is how, then, that you can progress rapidly through the Chambers of Our United Hearts. From time to time, each hour of the day, recall the mutual love we have for one another."

"Tonight I have come to announce that I will appear at 12:00 a.m. on the Feast of My Divine Mercy, when I will address all people and all nations."

"I'm blessing you with My Blessing of Divine Love."
