January 5, 2002 / Monthly Message to All Nations

This message was given in multiple parts.

"I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. My brothers and sisters, My victory is composed of the Holy Love that is within each human heart. Therefore, anything that stands in the way of your complete surrender to Holy Love in each present moment opposes My victory. Perhaps it is unforgiveness or perhaps you have a doubting heart and, therefore, you cannot accept the truths I come to tell you. Perhaps you have some sinful habit you are unwilling to say 'no' to. Even idle gossip or impatience oppose your complete surrender and, therefore, My victory. You must love Me more to surrender more completely."

"Every heart holds sway over nations and the world. For what opposes complete surrender to Holy Love comes between the soul and Me—your country and Me—the world and Me. Understand then your surrender in the present moment has a universal effect."

"Do not be surprised, little lambs, when I tell you that your response to Heaven's call towards personal holiness carries with it universal impact. For it is each soul's response to love God above all else, and his neighbor as himself that determines the course of human history. Lack of Holy Love pulls the soul off course and creates an abyss between Heaven and earth. Then nature and the course of human events are changed forever."

"It is discord between the Divine Will of My Father in Heaven and free will which causes wars, cataclysmic events in nature, and moral apathy. Only through harmony between the Divine Will and free will can the decadent society become whole and prosper in the eyes of God and man."

"Then understand, if you do not choose personal holiness in the present moment, you are choosing not to be holy—not to love. It is always imperfections in Holy Love that pull you away from Me. Therefore, choose to be perfect—not for yourself alone, but for love of Me."

"I am extending to each one present today My Blessing of Divine Love."

January 7, 2002 / Public

"I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. My sister, I have come to speak to you about criticism of others. Criticism can be good or evil. Few take this to heart. It is good if it is spoken within the context of finding a solution to an ongoing problem. Then, the constructive criticism must be kept within the confines of the circle of people who can effect the change."

"Too often, however, criticism has its roots in evil. This type of criticism may speak of the sins and imperfections of others. This is a form of self-righteousness, for little effort is given to discovering faults within self, but much effort is spent on scrutinizing the imperfections of others."

“Pride takes yet another form in this type of criticism. Inability to bear with the imperfections of others reveals a flaw in Holy Love and Holy Humility. The one who picks and chooses whom he will tolerate and be gracious towards is prideful. Further, if you see an imperfection in Holy Love in another – or think you do - do not speak of it to him, but pray for him. To presume the role of spiritual advisor when you are not is arrogance.”

“Yet another pitfall in criticism is judging motives of others’ behavior. You do not know what is in another’s heart – whether it be innocence, ignorance or malice. Once again, avoid presumption.”

“Good constructive criticism builds up and unites. Evil criticism tears down and divides. Each one would do well to take to heart these points I have given you today.”

January 12, 2002 / Public

“I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. I have come to explain to you the difference between holiness and sanctity. The holy one is righteous in many ways. He tries to lead a virtuous life most of the time. When he remembers to keep Me in the center of his heart he practices Holy Love. But there are, nevertheless, small areas of his heart he does not surrender to Me. Perhaps he does not consider the source of inspirations that come to him and, therefore, speaks or acts uncharitably. Perhaps through inordinate self-love, he is attached to the world in some way—be it his reputation, his opinion or his appearance.”

“Now the soul who reaches sanctity leaves everything behind except his love for Me and for his neighbor. The difference between the one who is holy and the one who is saintly is that the saint practices heroic virtue. Heroic virtue is virtue that the soul perseveres in despite personal cost. Therefore, when he is patient he has no thought towards ‘poor me – I must be patient in the face of this annoyance’. He does not consider himself humble or holy, but regards all others as more virtuous than himself and constantly pursues a deeper perfection in virtue. He is always ready to ‘go the extra mile’ for Me.”

January 13, 2002/2nd Sun. Service to Pray against Abortion

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: “Praise be to Jesus.”

Jesus: “I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. Please understand, My brothers and sisters, that you have abortion, terror and war in the world because it is in hearts. When I return love will be victorious in every heart. My victory will be one of Holy and Divine Love. It is only through Holy and Divine Love that I will triumph.”

“We’re blessing you with the Blessing of Our United Hearts.”

January 14, 2002 / Conversation with Divine Love

“Child, I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. I have come to further describe to you perfect love—Divine Love. With this type of love there is no vestige of self-interest—self-advantage. The soul seeks only to love and serve God and neighbor. Therefore, in order to bring souls to God, he is willing to undergo any humiliation, any hardship to bridge any gap of miscommunication to endure all things. Perfect love does not allow the precious present moment to escape him. He searches out and finds the grace in every moment and in each situation.

The one who loves perfectly is always ready to forgive, to understand, to accommodate.”

“I tell you these things out of perfect Divine Love—a love each soul is called to imitate. To each one I say—abandon yourself to Me.”

January 14, 2002 / Public

St. Thomas Aquinas comes. He says: “Praise be to Jesus. I have come to introduce to the world the First Chamber of the United Hearts of Jesus and Mary. It is the Immaculate Heart of Mary—Holy Love. It is God’s Will.”

“Jesus described Heaven to us when He walked the earth, as a precious gem worth more than any—a gem so precious that we should give up all we own to possess it. That gem, indeed Heaven itself, is Holy Love. Yes, Holy Love is that precious—that important. For without our ‘yes’ to Holy Love there is no salvation.”

“Holy Love is the two great laws of love—love God above all else and your neighbor as self. These are the commandments Jesus said we must follow if we wish to reach Heaven. When you begin to read these messages—when you begin to live these messages—you will realize Holy Love is Heaven on earth.”

“The peace of the world was entrusted to the Immaculate Heart of Mary at Fatima. The peace of the world depends on your efforts to live in Holy Love and to propagate these messages. I will assist you.”

January 14, 2002 Mon. United Hearts Confraternity Service

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: “Praise be to Jesus.”

Jesus: “I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. My brothers and sisters, as you await with great anticipation My Mother’s next public appearance in June, do not throw away the present moment. Do not act impulsively, paying no attention as to where each inspiration comes from. Do not gossip nor should you criticize. These things follow closely on the heels of perfectionism. Take time to ALWAYS act out of Holy Love and speak with a heart of Holy Love. Then you will hasten My victory which is a triumph of Holy and Divine Love.”

“Tonight We’re blessing you with the Blessing of the United Hearts.”

January 17, 2002 / Public

St. Thomas Aquinas comes. He says: “Praise be to Jesus. I have come to confirm to you that there is a distinct difference between admonishing the sinner which is a spiritual work of mercy, and criticism. The first arises as a loving warning designed to build up the body of Christ. Criticism is a judgment which rises from a tumultuous heart and bears the fruit of disunity. Criticism forms in a heart not seeking the welfare of its target, but imagining motives of actions and accepting these as truth. The heart that does not recognize this negative criticism as an evil inspiration is easily deceived in believing his criticism is an admonition designed to build up rather than tear down.”

“There is a fine line of discernment here, but a vast difference in the fruits of each action. A loving admonition can be easily accepted and acted upon. A negative criticism wounds and fosters resentment.”

“This is why each soul must learn to act and speak only out of Holy Love.”

January 18, 2002 / Friday Rosary Service

Jesus is here with His Heart exposed. He says: “I am your Jesus, born Incarnate.”

“My brothers and sisters, how I long to draw you into the Fire of Divine Love that is all-consuming in My Heart which is the Flame of Divine Love. I desire that you find your peace; take up your rest. Oh! how I long that each soul come hither into My Heart that they may trust Me always in all things and in every way. Let My coming to you be a sign of My Love and Mercy present in the world.”

“Tonight I am blessing you with My Blessing of Divine Love.”

January 19, 2002 / Saturday MSHL Rosary Service

Jesus is here with His Heart exposed. He says: “I am your Jesus, born Incarnate.”

“My brothers and sisters, I have come to help you realize that Holy and Divine Love unite. It is those who cling to opinions and ideologies contrary to Holy and Divine Love that cause division. When I return love will triumph in these hearts, as well. Pray for such as these.”

“Tonight I am blessing you with My Blessing of Divine Love.”

January 21, 2002 / Public

St. Thomas Aquinas comes. He bows his head to greet me. He says: “I bow to you for the Living Christ dwells within the temple of your heart. All praise be to Jesus.”

“My sister, today there are many distractions in your life. Jesus desires that you consecrate your day to Holy Love. He sends me to repeat to you this prayer:

“Heavenly Father, I consecrate my heart in this present moment to Holy Love. Keep me mindful of this throughout the day so that all my thoughts and actions will proceed from Holy Love.”

“I cover this petition with the Most Precious Blood of Jesus, your Son, and surround it with the Tears of His Most Sorrowful Mother. Amen.”

“You see, when a sin is committed it is because the soul loves the sin more than God and neighbor. Through this disordered love of evil, the soul cooperates with evil. This is so in the sin of gossip, detraction and rash judgment, just as it is with any sin. The soul may have fallen into the secret habit of sin—that of negative criticism about others in his thoughts. In this way he cooperates with the evil spirit of criticism, and soon it is in his words and actions, as well.”

“The spirit of criticism often travels in clusters with the spirit of rejection, perfectionism, unforgiveness and others. This is why standing guard over your thoughts is so important. For what forms in your thoughts easily takes over the whole heart.”

He leaves.

January 25, 2002 / Public

“I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. I have come to tell you how much I desire the conversion of each soul. I hold a special place in My Heart, and a special place in paradise for every soul. It is the soul itself that chooses for or against what I desire for them.”

“When the heart becomes self-absorbed, he opens the door to the enemies of his soul. It is then that he becomes blinded to his own errors, and looks for flaws in others. The hallmark of such a one is self-righteousness. I continue to teach you about this, for today the majority of souls are torn away from Me by this path of inordinate self-love, apathy and arrogance. I give souls the grace of stripping away pride and seeing their hearts as I see them when they petition Me for it. Most, however, never ask. Most lack sincerity in their pursuit of holiness. This is because a sincere effort rises from a humble heart, not a self-satisfied heart.”

“My coming into the world to bring this message is not your salvation. It is each soul’s response to Holy Love that saves him. Make this known.”

January 26, 2002 / Public

St. Thomas Aquinas comes. He says: “Praise be to Jesus. My sister, this is the whole and the sum of sanctification—trustful surrender to the Divine Will of God in every present moment. In this trust is love. In this surrender is humility. In love, humility and conformity to God’s Will is self-denial.”

“The soul who reaches for sanctity must completely surrender what he wants for what God wants. He puts God in the center of his heart and roots out self. It is impossible for the one who is self-absorbed to reach the heights of this surrender, for he views everything as to how it affects himself. He looks for self-gain in everything. He trusts in himself more than in God, for his love of God is imperfect. His existence revolves around his own welfare and not what God wills for him.”

“The soul who pursues sanctification, however, tries to accept all things as from the Hand of God. He sees God’s Will in every situation. He understands that God is working with him, drawing him into sanctification. Therefore, he does not see God’s Will as a sharp edged sword, but as a blazing beam of light illuminating the path he is called to follow.”

“Inordinate self-love cannot choose Divine Love, for the two conflict just as the flesh opposes the spirit. But this message of the Chambers of the United Hearts calls each one to take off the old and put on the new. This is the essence of sanctity.”

January 27, 2002/ 4th Sun. Service to Pray for Unbelievers

Jesus is here with His Heart exposed. He says: “I am your Jesus, born Incarnate.”

“My brothers and sisters, the depth of your belief in this Holy Love message is reflected in your thoughts, words and deeds. If you truly believe, then you will obey all of the commandments, for this law of love embraces all of the commandments. Further, if you are Catholic, you will be obedient to the Magisterium and all Church law, and you will reverence My Real Presence in the Blessed Sacrament. My coming to you is not your salvation, My brothers and sisters. Listen and live the message.”

“I’m extending to you My Blessing of Divine Love.”

January 28, 2002 / Public

St. Thomas Aquinas comes. He says: “Praise be to Jesus. Today I have come to speak to you once again about sanctity. Very often the one thing that blocks the path to sanctity is an envious heart. This is because people generally do not recognize this form of evil in their hearts and, therefore, do not root it out.”

“Envy is just another form of self-love. The soul that is self-absorbed is consumed with feeding his own needs spiritually, physically and emotionally. He is insidiously filled with the desire to be the best looking, have the best clothes, best home, best family, best reputation. Often envy can be pinpointed through an ambitious spirit.”

“The type of envy most offensive to Jesus is spiritual envy. The person wants everyone to know about the graces he receives as though he were the author of each grace, and as though he deserved them.”

“But envy goes beyond wanting the best. Envy wants what his neighbor has. He is not happy at his neighbor’s good fortune—physical, spiritual or emotional, but wants everything his neighbor has for himself. So you see, ambition turns to greed, and greed to jealousy.”

“But at the root of all envy is the same self-consuming love that is at the root of all sin. If this self-absorption goes unchecked, it gallops away like a runaway horse holding the heart captive, insuring spiritual destruction.”

“The soul that gives in to envy does not understand his place before God. If he did, he would accept God’s Will in the present moment and desire no more - no less - than this portion for himself.”

January 28, 2002/Mon. United Hearts Confraternity Service

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here. Their Hearts are exposed. Blessed Mother says: “Praise be to Jesus.”

Jesus: “I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. My brothers and sisters, tonight I invite you not to be consumed with what you need in your thoughts, in your words, in your deeds. Surrender yourself to Me. Let the Father’s Provision satisfy you, for it is complete and perfect. In this way you will avoid such sins as anxiety, impatience and even envy. I’m calling you deep into My Divine Heart.”

“Tonight We’re extending to you the Blessing of Our United Hearts.”

TESTIMONIAL

On September 15, 2001, I realized that I had failed to take my medications for back problems for at least a week and also noticed that I had no symptoms. Then I also remembered I had been drinking Maranatha Spring water after visiting Holy Love Shrine. I waited a while then I went to my doctor and told her what had happened. She told me to discontinue the medication and so I claim a healing of my back after visiting Holy Love and drinking the Maranatha Spring water that Mary, Refuge of Holy Love told Maureen that this water was like a healing water from Lourdes, and I believe it. Praise be Jesus.

Our Lady's Next Promised Appearance

Come Celebrate With Us

The Sacred Heart of Jesus and Immaculate Heart of Mary Feast Days

Friday, June 7 - Saturday, June 8

You are Invited to Unite in Prayer at the United Hearts Field

Blessed Mother has indicated to the visionary, Maureen Sweeney-Kyle, that the next time she will appear to speak to all people and all nations will be at the midnight rosary between the Feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

"I will meet you once again in Our Field of Victory (United Hearts) at the apex between the feast of the Sacred Heart of My Son, and My own Immaculate Heart at the midnight hour when Jesus will allow Me to speak a consummate message to all people, all nations." Blessed Mother, January 1, 2002

Our schedule will be as follows:

June 7 (Feast of The Most Sacred Heart of Jesus)

- 7 p.m. Rosary (Joyful & Sorrowful Mysteries)
- 11:30 p.m. Midnight Rosary (United Hearts Chaplet & Glorious Mysteries)

June 8 (Feast of the Immaculate Heart of Mary)

- 7 p.m. Rosary (Joyful, Sorrowful, and Glorious Mysteries)

February 1, 2002 Friday Rosary Service

Jesus is here with His Heart exposed. He says: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate."

"My brothers and sisters, it is a generous heart who is willing to look into his own heart and discover the obstacles that block his journey into the Chambers of My Most Sacred Heart. Do not be afraid, but be steadfast and earnest in your pursuit of sanctity, and even union with the Divine Will of My Father. Allow My Father's Will to consume every portion of your heart."

"Tonight I'm blessing you with My Blessing of Divine Love."

February 2, 2002 /Public

"I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. I desire that each soul comprehend that just as they surrender to Me in Holy Love, I surrender to them in Divine Love. The more they open their hearts to Me, the wider I open My Heart to them. I am never reluctant to open the Chambers of My Heart, and it hurts Me deeply to see so much reluctance on the part of so many today to come to Me."

"Please make known this eager invitation of My Heart."

February 4, 2002 Mon. United Hearts Confraternity Service

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: "Praise be to Jesus."

Jesus: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. My brothers and sisters, continue to pray for the conversion of all people and every nation for I tell you, I reserve a place in Heaven for every soul which is created by My Hand."

"Understand that My Heart will not rest until every soul comes to Me through Holy and Divine Love for this is My victory. Therefore, make this message known."

"Tonight We're blessing you with the Blessing of Our United Hearts."

February 5, 2002 /Monthly Message to All Nations

This message was given in multiple parts.

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: "Praise be to Jesus."

Jesus: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. Today I have come to speak to all people and every nation about the sin that begets all sin. It is hedonism. This is the lie that Satan has nurtured in hearts so that belief is in pleasure, not in God's law. The soul grasps at the brass ring of whatever makes him happy in the present, thereby making any pleasure the law he forms his conscience around instead of God's law."

"Stop and think of the prevalent sins today: Abortion—because the life in the womb is unwanted, it does not bring pleasure; every sort of crime against the innocents for the sake of momentary pleasure; greed in the business world, and consumerism because money is held as a god."

"But I come to tell all people today that the law of Holy Love—love God above all else and your neighbor as yourself—is the law by which each one will be judged. It matters not if you believe in it, or if you do not believe in it. Holy Love is the basis of your salvation."

"The greatest portion of My Mercy falls upon those deepest in sin. All they need do is turn their hearts towards Me for an instant, and I will flood their hearts with My forgiveness, and draw them to Me."

"Do not make a god of pleasure or of your free will. To do so is to condemn yourself for all eternity. Turn to Me with a contrite heart. Love Me as I love you."

"I have come to you to correct the hearts of those who have been misled by Satan, and to correct the soul of the world. Do not think that because something gives you pleasure in the flesh that it is good and pleasing in the eyes of God. You must make all your moment by moment decisions according to My law of Holy Love, for when I return the Victory of the United Hearts will come through Holy and Divine Love. There will be no misfortune; souls will understand their place before God. Yes indeed, My Father's Kingdom to come is a Kingdom of Divine Love."

"Today I tell you that a contrite heart is more pleasing to Me than many fervent prayers, many Holy Hours, a rigorous fast or even almsgiving. While all of these are important to holiness, it is the repentant heart I cherish. True repentance rises from a heart of Holy Love."

"When you meditate upon My Passion and Death, you bring to Me contrite hearts. Never fail Me in this, then. Mercy begets mercy. When you give Me contrite hearts by your efforts, I will never fail you in My Mercy."

"We are blessing you today with the Blessing of Our United Hearts."

February 7, 2002 /Public

"I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. My sister, when you pray from the heart, your prayers rise as Veronica's veil to wipe the tears from My Face as I cast My gaze upon this generation. Comfort Me then, and do not fear. Practice every virtue to perfection for it is then I will lead you deeper into My Divine Heart. It is only in an ever-deepening surrender to perfection in love I am able to lead you to conformity to the Divine Will of My Father."

February 11, 2002 /Feast of Our Lady of Lourdes

"I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. When I sent My Mother to the humble grotto in Lourdes so long ago, it was to divert the world from the path of self-destruction that it was choosing to pursue. Let Me explain to you the nature of this self-destruction, for the world continues to pursue it despite Heaven's intervention."

"Each time a soul chooses sin over Holy Love, the heart of the world is affected. The abyss between Heaven and earth widens. The Cup of My Justice deepens. The soul itself is farther removed from the Divine Will. Peace and security—indeed salvation itself—can only come into the world through conformity to the Divine Will. This is why your moment to moment choices carry such weight."

"I will give you the means of expediting the propagation of the United Hearts revelation. Then you will please make it known."

February 14, 2002 /Public

"I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. When you can resolve yourself to meet the needs of My Heart before you satisfy the desires of your own heart, then you will be living in conformity to the Divine Will of My Father. It is so with each soul. That is how to sacrifice then during this penitential season. Always with a heart of Holy Love, consider My needs ahead of your own. It is not so much 'giving up' this thing or that, but doing the Will of God by fulfilling My needs first and foremost because you love Me."

"I never forget such a generous heart enclosed in humility. I make their needs My own. I give them 'other worldly' goals. I fill them with every good thing. Soon My desires become their only desires as Our Hearts unite. This is the kind of sacrifice I desire—the type I crave."

"You will please make this known."

February 18, 2002 /Public

"I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. I come to help you realize that the depth of love you feel for Me now is the depth of love I will return to you in Heaven. Only the purified soul can cross the threshold into paradise. The Flame of Love that consumes My Mother's Heart is the same purifying Flame that burns away all iniquity in purgatory. How much I desire that each soul be purified on earth instead of in the next life. How I desire to meet each soul in the Kingdom of Divine Love—eternal glory—the Kingdom of the Divine Will."

February 18, 2002 Mon. United Hearts Confraternity Service

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: "Praise be to Jesus."

Jesus: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. My brothers and sisters, the more you choose to love your neighbor, the more you will see My suffering image in them. The more you love ME, the more you will feel My love, both here and in eternity."

"Tonight We're blessing you with the Blessing of Our United Hearts."

February 19, 2002 /Public

"I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. Child, I have come to describe to you the Kingdom of Divine Love as it exists for all eternity. In this Kingdom there is no more free will."

All the choices have been made for or against eternal salvation. The souls in My Kingdom of Divine Love have been purified in the Flame of Holy Love, either on earth by choosing so, or after death in purgatory. So in Heaven there is only perfect love. The souls in My Kingdom love the Divine Will of My Father. They are in perfect union with His Will."

"There is no more illness or death. There is no longer the element of time or space. There is no threat of evil. There is only eternal joy—joy in praising the Trinity. Everything—everything reflects the beauty of God. The soul is secure in Love. Every heart in Heaven becomes a little flame of Holy and Divine Love."

"It is now in this earthly existence you must choose the Kingdom of Divine Love. Choose it with fervor. Choose it with trust and all of Heaven will assist you."

"Make it known."

February 20, 2002 /Public

St. Thomas Aquinas comes. He bows towards the Blessed Sacrament, turns to me and says, "Praise be to Jesus. I have come to elaborate on the Kingdom of Divine Love—Heaven itself—which the Lord has started to speak to you about."

"In this Kingdom all the senses that the body had in the world are attendant to the soul in Heaven. But in the Kingdom of Divine Love, the senses are purified just as the soul is purified. There is no more pain—no more impairment of any kind. The soul sees color in its purest form—colors he never knew existed. He hears and sees and speaks to the Holy Trinity, the angels and the saints. He can hold more than one conversation at a time for there are no constrictions of time or space."

"The soul can bi-locate, even be in multiple places in Heaven at one time. All knowledge is given each soul and is perfect. All truth is known and accepted. What was held fragile and vulnerable on earth is strong in Heaven. The best part of Heaven, however, is that love is perfect. Nothing interferes with your love of the Blessed Trinity. Each soul praises and adores God forever."

"Then of course, the soul has unlimited access to the Holy Mother of God. Do you desire Her tender embrace? It is given. Do you wish to speak privately to Her? Choose your time. Would you like Her to pray with you in intercession? She will never refuse you, just as She never refuses anyone now. In Heaven She will accompany you to the throne of Her Son and place your petitions at His Feet."

This is what perfect love is about. This is how beautiful perfection is. This is the paradise each one is called to and created for."

February 21, 2002 /Public

St. Thomas Aquinas comes. He bows to the monstrance and says, "Praise be to Jesus."

"I have come to invite all to understand that as the souls in Heaven are in union with the Divine Will of God, the souls in such union on earth possess the Kingdom of Divine Love within their own hearts. Always keep in mind that the Kingdom of the Divine Will and the Kingdom of Divine Love are one. The two do not exist apart."

"Make this known."

February 22, 2002 Friday Rosary Service

Jesus is here with His Heart exposed. He says: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate."

"Where are the others? Have we not invited all people and all nations to come here and pray, and accept and receive the grace that is offered? One of the thorns that pierces My Sacred Head is the indifference these messages and apparitions are received with in this area."

"Your prayers, My brothers and sisters, are the fortress that protects this mission and the force that moves it forward."

"I'm extending to you tonight My Blessing of Divine Love."

February 23, 2002 /Public

St. Thomas Aquinas comes. He says: "Praise be to Jesus. I come to help you understand the close alliance between the United Hearts revelation and the new dogma. First of all, it is important that you think of the Heart of Mary as a Holy and Sacred passageway between the Heart of Jesus and all of earth. No grace (that is, nothing good) comes to earth except through this passageway. Since the Immaculate Heart of Mary is Holy Love and Holy Love is God's Divine Will, it can be said that every grace God wills for the world is mediated through Holy Love. Therefore, it follows that Our Lady is Mediatrix."

"Next, understand that because the Heart of Mary is united to the Heart of Her Son, She suffered integrally His Passion. She was not just an onlooker, but She suffered the Passion united to Jesus. Her wounds were mystical only because the union of the Two Hearts is mystical. Therefore, She is Co-Redemptrix."

"As Advocate, understand that the passageway of Mary's Immaculate Heart is a two-way passage. Every prayer and sacrifice that anyone gives to Jesus first passes through the Heart of His Mother. Within the Flame of Her Heart the Blessed Mother purifies each petition and sacrifice before sending it on to the Heart of Her Beloved Son. Therefore, She is Advocate."

"Meditate upon these truths. I will help you to understand them."

February 24, 2002 /4th Sun. Service to Pray for Unbelievers

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: "Praise be to Jesus."

Jesus: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. My brothers and sisters, the spiritually poor will always be with you. The spiritually poor are different from those who are spiritually deprived. The ones who are deprived have never been given the truth. But the ones who are spiritually poor are the ones who refuse to accept the truth. Continue to pray for them."

"We're blessing you with the Blessing of Our United Hearts."

February 25, 2002 Mon. United Hearts Confraternity Service

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: "Praise be to Jesus."

Jesus: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. My brothers and sisters, for a successful Lent you must allow the purifying Flame of My Mother's Heart to strip you of all anxiety, of all inordinate desires and allow yourselves to become one with the Divine Will of the Eternal Father."

"You can do this only by loving the Will of My Father in Heaven, and conforming to it. Do not allow any grievance that you hold in your hearts against any of your brethren to come between you and this Holy Divine Will."

"Tonight We're blessing you with the Blessing of Our United Hearts."

February 27, 2002 Conversation with Divine Love

Jesus comes walking towards me on what appears to be water. He says: "Let this image always conjure sentiments of trust in Me. I am your Jesus, born Incarnate."

"Today I have come to describe to you how to live in Holy Love. Make yourself very little in My Heart. Forget about yourself. Do not worry about how others regard you, but only concern yourself with pleasing Me in every present moment. So often sins are committed in thought, word and deed out of concern for the opinions of others. Put Me always at the center of your heart so that I am in your every thought, word and deed."

"Respect the poor. Have compassion for the downhearted. Lead the spiritually impoverished. Your greatest efforts to assist others are made greater through your love and trust in Me. It is only by grace you can accomplish any good. It is only in littleness your love of Me comes to perfection."

TESTIMONIAL

My husband attended a speaking engagement of Maureen Sweeney-Kyle's on October 28, 2001 in Bourne, Massachusetts. This is a testament of the physical healing he has experienced since that day. It has truly been a miracle.

For the past seven years, He had suffered chronic debilitating diseases resulting in decreased mobility, pain and depression. He was dependent on others mostly for everything.

Since October 28, which he called "a spiritual enlightenment," he is pain free, has been dismissed from his monthly steroid injections at a pain clinic in Boston, is mobile and walks our dog. He has no more swelling in his joints, and feels better about himself and what he can physically do now that he couldn't before that day. His doctors are baffled and all his family and friends see the miraculous difference. He has truly been blessed. And he spreads the Blessing of the United Hearts/Holy and Divine Love as it was given to him.

We hope to visit Maranatha Spring and Shrine in the spring and pray for continued health.

My husband had a dream that he should send an offering to Missionary Servants of Holy Love and enclosed you'll find a small one.

Thank you for the spiritual and physical enrichment my husband has treasured since October 28.

These messages which support the two great commandments--love God above all else and love your neighbor as yourself--are given by means of private revelation to Heaven's messenger.

Our Lady's Next Promised Appearance

Come Celebrate With Us

Friday, June 7 - Saturday, June 8

You are Invited to Unite in Prayer at the United Hearts Field

Blessed Mother has indicated to the visionary, Maureen Sweeney-Kyle, that the next time she will appear to speak to all people and all nations will be at the midnight rosary between the Feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

"I will meet you once again in Our Field of Victory (United Hearts) at the apex between the feast of the Sacred Heart of My Son, and My own Immaculate Heart at the midnight hour when Jesus will allow Me to speak a consummate message to all people, all nations." Blessed Mother, January 1, 2002

Our schedule will be as follows:

June 7 (Feast of The Most Sacred Heart of Jesus)

- 7 p.m. Rosary (Joyful & Sorrowful Mysteries)
- 11:30 p.m. Midnight Rosary (United Hearts Chaplet & Glorious Mysteries)

June 8 (Feast of the Immaculate Heart of Mary)

- 7 p.m. Rosary (Joyful, Sorrowful, and Glorious Mysteries)

March 1, 2002 /Public

"I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. I have come to help the souls of every nation to realize that I do not look at exteriors when I judge. I look only at the heart. The Holy Love or lack of Holy Love in each heart at the moment of judgment determines the soul's eternity. How foolish then to place the hope of your eternal salvation upon some invisible mark that you hope to receive by running here or there. Holy Love in your heart is the sign I look for."

"There are those who hear these messages, but the messages remain in their intellect and never reach their hearts. Hearing the messages and coming to the site will not save your soul. The message must come alive in your heart to bear fruit, for I do not look at the enormity of the intellect at the moment of judgment, either. This is why many devotions, visits to shrines or a holy exterior are unimpressive to Me unless they proceed from a loving and humble heart."

"Seek your salvation—each of you—by means of the interior grace My Mother puts in your heart, enabling you to come deeper into Holy Love. Make this known."

March 1, 2002 /Friday Rosary Service

Jesus is here with His Heart exposed. He says: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate."

"My brothers and sisters, surrender to Me completely, for when you surrender to Me I, too, surrender to you. When you trust in Me I, too, trust in you. Yes, the amount of trust that you have in Me is the measure of grace that I give back to you through the Heart of My Mother. Make it known."

"I'm blessing you tonight with My Blessing of Divine Love."

March 4, 2002 Monday United Hearts Confraternity Service

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: "Praise be to Jesus."

Jesus: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. My brothers and sisters, today the greatest thorn that pierces My Sacred Head are those who refuse to love. Pray for these."

"We're blessing you with Our Blessing of the United Hearts."

March 5, 2002 /Monthly Message to All Nations

This message was given in multiple parts.

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: "Praise be to Jesus."

Jesus: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. I have come once again as a voice crying in the desert to tell you that the source of all evil is the lack of Holy Love in hearts. The travail that earth finds herself in is not confined by geographical boundary, but will soon prove to be a worldwide epidemic of hate."

"This mission here of Holy and Divine Love holds the key to world peace, but first many events will occur. When it seems the heart of the world has become immune to righteousness, the victory is at hand. The victory will be Mine, and it will come through Holy and Divine Love. Each one who follows these messages must live them—not just know them. It is a responsibility you will be held accountable for at your judgment. Ask through prayer for the grace to be an apostle of love."

"Today there continues to be much controversy and misunderstandings about this message of interior formation. It is Satan who promotes this, for the messages attack his kingdom in the world. It is important that each one prays for discernment and avoids idle talk about any apparition, for this may lead to rash judgment. If your discernment comes from Heaven, you will accept and begin to live these messages of Holy and Divine Love at once."

"I invite each one to see that this same spirit of confusion that thwarts true discernment of these messages here has infiltrated the hearts of those who kill—supposedly in the name of God. There is only one God, and He is a God of Love. He commands that you shall not kill, but love thy neighbor."

"Remember that Satan always clothes himself as good. He confuses the proud-hearted to believe in his good, and not to see his hidden agenda of evil. This is how he has infiltrated the Church—convincing officials to hide evil so that what appeared to be a solution was only an open door to more confusion and controversy. Remember, God is a God of Truth."

"Today I have come to remind you that five years ago I sent My Mother to you with a profound warning of a pending disaster—a calamity unlike any other this country has known. Because of the faithful prayers of a few, the disaster was postponed and even mitigated. I tell you today, greater evils than this lurk in the hearts of men. Learn from history. The shadow of evil obscured in the radical hearts of a few can be thwarted by a sincere effort in prayer. Every present moment is a prayer opportunity. Grasp it!"

"My brothers and sisters, today I'm praying for the complete conversion of everyone present, and that once converted they carry this message of Holy and Divine Love to all that they meet. This is the greatest healing—the conversion of heart."

"Please understand that every prayer said from the heart, every Communion received and Mass attended reverently results in a weakening of Satan's kingdom forever. Each heart that is converted brings My Victory closer. Continue to pray from the heart."

"Today We're blessing you with the Blessing of Our United Hearts."

March 9, 2002 /Public

"I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. Once again I come to tell you that the fruit of love is trust. If the soul has only imperfect love of Me and does not seek perfection in Holy Love, he will be unable to trust Me. This is only because he has not surrendered to Me as the object of his love. To surrender means to forget himself and to focus on Me and his neighbor. Make it known."

March 10, 2002 /2nd Sunday Service to Pray against Abortion

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: "Praise be to Jesus."

Jesus: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. Today I come to ask your continued prayers so that the evil that lies hidden in hearts does not take action in the world for much is hidden in darkness—evils that destroy life in the form of abortion, wars and other evil plans."

"Continue to pray, My brothers and sisters, that hearts are illuminated and consciences are convicted as to the path they are choosing."

"Today We are extending to you the Blessing of Our United Hearts."

March 11, 2002 /Public

"I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. I invite you to understand that souls who take up their repose in My Heart find the world and all its allurements distasteful. This is because they recognize all the delights of the world as temporary—passing and unworthy of their affection. In My Sacred Heart rests all their security and well-being. The ones who find respite herein are at peace—unshakeable peace."

"By these words each one should recognize his place in My Heart."

March 14, 2002 /Public

"I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. I come today to discuss recent events in your Diocese, the universal Church and the world. Do not be mistaken in thinking these are separate. For I tell you, the same evil that influences world events has inspired the events that have taken place in the Church. You say—but Jesus, the Church is scandalized by pedophiles, the world by terrorism. How are they alike?"

"They are alike in this—they both cost Me souls. This is not about right and wrong in the eyes of the world, but in the eyes of God. A caring leader does not pompously safeguard his reputation in the world, and at the same time cooperate with evil under the guise of good. My Church—My Bride on earth—must not hide immorality under a cloak of darkness either, not for the sake of money nor for the sake of reputation. Souls and the salvation of souls is the business of any religion. I summarily withdraw My Grace from those who depend on their own efforts instead of Me."

"Once again I tell you that My Father is a God of Truth. Embracing the cross takes humility of heart. Humility, if it is true, is self-effacing. The terrorists think with a convoluted heart, believing murder a good—just as the abortionists think this. Those church officials who hide evil instead of rejecting it are no less guilty of injustice in My sight. Perhaps their guilt is greater for they have the benefit of the truth given to My Church.”

“Therefore, today I do not come to placate or to stroke egos. I come bearing the Light of Truth. I know it will take much courage for you, My messenger, to make this message public, but you must—morally, you must!”

“I do not confide to you controversy as some try to make it to be. Nor do I come to you to make you rich and famous as some have proposed in error. I come bearing the Light of Truth.”

“You will please make this known.”

March 15, 2002 /Public

“I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. Once again I remind you that it is consciences not formed around Holy Love that poses the greatest threat to the Church, your nation and the world.”

“Such a conscience is easily compromised by evil. It is this type of openness to evil inspirations that opposes Holy Love. This Mission is only made controversial by one who is imperfect in love. Yes, imperfect love is always the doorway Satan uses to enter each heart.”

March 15, 2002 /Friday Rosary Service

Jesus is here with His Heart exposed. He says: “I am your Jesus, born Incarnate.”

“My brothers and sisters, My Mercy falls abundantly into the remorseful heart, but the unrepentant heart estranges himself from Me. Therefore, see that it is necessary to have sorrow for any sin before it is forgiven, and this sorrow is the first step in any conversion.”

“Tonight I am blessing you with My Blessing of Divine Love.”

March 18, 2002 /Public

Our Lady comes as Refuge of Holy Love with many angels. They are bowing to Her. She says: “Praise be to Jesus.”

“I have come to show you this.” She shows me the Rosary of the Unborn wrapped around a beautiful gold crown.

“This is My Crown of Victory. See and understand that this Rosary of the Unborn is an integral part of My Victory, both in hearts and in the world.”

“Jesus desires that you make this known.”

March 18, 2002 /Monday United Hearts Confraternity Service

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: “Praise be to Jesus.”

Jesus: “I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. My brothers and sisters, tonight once again I ask you to understand that the road to salvation is Holy Love, and the door to My Sacred Heart is Holy Love.”

“When you travel this path, that is, when you decide to live this message of Holy Love, your lives will closely imitate My own life when I was on earth; that is, you will embrace many crosses. There will be detractors and those who rash judge your mission. Do not let any of this discourage you or cause you to doubt. For I tell you, doubting My Commandments of Love does not lead you to Heaven, but to perdition.”

“And so, My brothers and sisters, We extend to you the Blessing of Our United Hearts.”

March 22, 2002 /Public

St. Thomas Aquinas comes. He says: “Praise be to Jesus. Today I have come to help you understand this very basic tenet. This is what determines the soul’s destiny—indeed, his place for all eternity. What is held most dear and precious at the center of each heart is the god that he worships. This is the reason each soul must search his own heart daily and from moment to moment to determine the object or objects of his greatest affection.”

“Pray for the grace of truth to come into your heart today. Some people for all intents and purposes seem holy, but this is only on the outside. In their hearts they jealously guard their reputation. Others worship money and all it can buy—clothes, houses and even power.”

“But God searches out the humble, the simple, the unpretentious. He does not look for great intellects either. The intellect can be a great obstacle, I tell you, unless it is humbly submitted to the Will of God. It is only then God reveals His truths to the heart. Everything in the heart has to be purified in the Flame of Holy Love, stripped of self-interest and surrendered to God to use as He chooses. Everything has a purpose and a place in God’s All-Knowing plan, from the weather to the exposure of evil in hearts, to the greatest sacrifice—The Crucifixion.”

“Most often the fullness of God’s Will is not revealed to mere man. This is where each one is called to trust. Trust is the testing ground of love.”

March 22, 2002 /Friday Rosary Service

Jesus is here with His Heart exposed. He says: “I am your Jesus, born Incarnate.”

“My brothers and sisters, do not forget where you have been spiritually and where I am leading you; for I am leading you upon the path of triumph and victory in Holy Love. Allow this message to stir in your hearts and to transform your lives.”

“Tonight I’m blessing you with My Blessing of Divine Love.”

March 23, 2002 /Public

St. Thomas Aquinas comes. He says: “Praise be to Jesus. I thought you would never get here.” (I was delayed for various reasons.)

“When you are distracted by the affairs of the world or others’ problems, the Lord Jesus feels forsaken for He is no longer at the center of your heart.”

“But listen to what I have come to tell you. The intellect is a delicate thing. If it is governed by pride, it causes every kind of sin and error to come into the heart. This is how discernment crosses the line to judgment. It is how the guarding of reputation becomes more important than committing sin—sins of calumny, theft, abortion and manifold more.”

“The intellect must be tamed, just as a wild beast is tamed. The intellect must come under the rule of a humble, loving and simplistic heart. It is only in this way the soul which God created can be united to its Creator.”

“To advance in these virtues of humility, love and simplicity, the soul must ask the Lord for the grace of self-knowledge to see where he is failing in these virtues. Without the courage to do this, he will never conquer his disordered self-love which will motivate his thoughts, words and deeds.”

"It is only when the intellect and Holy Love in the heart work as one that the soul advances through the Chambers of the United Hearts."

March 24, 2002 /4th Sunday Service to Pray for Unbelievers

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: "Praise be to Jesus."

Jesus: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. My brothers and sisters, as this holiest of weeks during the liturgical year unfolds, I desire that you imitate Me by offering to Me your crosses, great and small."

"Take stock in what lies in the center of your heart. How do you spend most of your day? Am I a part of it? Open your hearts to Me completely and I will open My Heart to you completely. We're blessing you with the Blessing of Our United Hearts."

March 25, 2002 /Feast of The Annunciation

"I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. I am the Fortress of the righteous. I uphold the humble and the simple-hearted. In their every affliction I am their strength. My battle continues to be waged by truth and against Satan who is the father of all lies."

"Everything that hides in the darkness of hearts will be brought to the fullness of light. I was conceived by the Holy Spirit in the womb of My Mother who personified truth and so, too, humility and simplicity."

"I tell you this—to defend yourself with a lie for fear of reputation or loss of material goods strips the evil doer of Heaven's protection. In Holy Love place truth at the center of your heart for I am Truth. Let Me be your defense."

"Never call upon the powers of darkness through lies. Trust in Me. Though you see no solution, I have it. But you will never escape unscathed by embracing lies in any situation. Even the smallest untruth offends My Most Sacred Heart. Even when you sin by omission by not correcting evil, you embrace a lie. How long will you love the sin more than you love Me?"

"Pursue the path of Holy Love which is truth itself."

March 25, 2002 /Public

St. Thomas Aquinas comes. He says: "Praise be to Jesus. Understand that truth strips the soul of all pretense and sanctimony. Truth allows the soul to see himself as he stands before God. That is humility itself. Each one should pray for this grace daily. Never be puffed up—thinking yourself to be holy. That is one of Satan's lies."

March 31, 2002 /Easter Morning

"I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. Alleluia! I have come to bring you truth. Understand and know that the truth can take you to new depths in courage just as Good Friday, or to new heights of faith just as the Resurrection."

"Each wound I bore for you and for all sinners was the truth of man's cooperation with evil. The empty tomb is the truth of My power over evil and the redemption of mankind."

"Truth challenges the soul just as the message of Holy and Divine Love challenges each one to increase in holiness—to change evil to good—to bring light into darkness."

"The first apostles were challenged to deeper faith when they were told of the resurrection. Today I, the Risen Lord, challenge the world to live the message of Holy Love—the truth."

"Let it be made known. Alleluia!"

The Chambers of Our United Hearts

The Secrets Revealed

The official publication of

MISSIONARY SERVANTS OF HOLY LOVE

April, 2002

We are an ecumenical ministry seeking personal holiness in and through the Message of Holy Love. We seek perfection through the Chambers of the United Hearts. We spread the Revelation of the Chambers of the United Hearts whenever and wherever we can, thus ushering in the triumphant victory of the United Hearts.

April 1, 2002 /Monday after Easter Sunday

(Adoration was held during Lent)

“I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. Where are all My adorers? Do they not know I am still present here—very present?” (He was in the tabernacle today—no longer exposed.) “But you have come. I desire you transcribe what I told you on Holy Thursday when I am done here.”

“Holy and Divine Love is the new dogma—To Jesus through Mary. God’s Will is Love—it is Mercy. Love and Mercy can no longer be separated, just as Holy and Divine Love cannot and will not be separated. Nothing exists outside of the Will of My Father. Everything exists for My Father’s reason. He is a God of Truth. He has set Me upon the Throne of Truth where I expose and judge all lies.”

This is what Jesus told me on Holy Thursday. I came into the chapel and told Him I was sorry He was locked up today. He came and said: “I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. I have given you the key to My Heart.” He was holding a large key which had the words “Holy Love” on it. Then He said: “This is the new dogma—Holy and Divine Love.”

April 1, 2002 /Monday United Hearts Confraternity Service

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: “Praise be to Jesus.”

Jesus: “I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. My brothers and sisters, allow your hearts and your lives to reflect the joy of My Resurrection, for I am risen and you are redeemed.”

“Be a joyful people. Soon the earth and all that is under it will bring forth new life and you will see growth, both in nature and in the mission itself.”

“For tonight We are tenderly blessing you with the Blessing of Our United Hearts.”

April 3, 2002 /Public

St. Thomas Aquinas comes. He says: “Praise be to Jesus. I have come to help you understand that there is a common thread that runs through the tapestry of each one’s life. It is trust in God’s Will. Each soul is offered opportunities in his life to practice trust. Trust, remember, is the proving ground of love—the substance of love. The Lord stands back and patiently watches how each one deals with these opportunities to trust. The more the soul trusts in Divine Providence, the deeper he is drawn into the Chambers of the United Hearts.”

“Satan, of course, tries to weaken trust and presents doubts and fears to the heart. These anxieties pull the soul away from the path of holiness, and destroy the peace of each one who gives in to such worries.”

“Learn to recognize the enemy, then, when he attacks in such a way. All that opposes trust is from the adversary. Tighten the fabric of the tapestry God creates in your soul through trust. Do not allow the enemy to unravel this precious handiwork.”

April 5, 2002 /Monthly Message to All Nations

This message was given in multiple parts.

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: “Praise be to Jesus.” Jesus and Our Lady greet Father Kenney (Maureen’s spiritual director) by nodding Their Heads toward him, and a light came from Blessed Mother’s Heart onto Father Kenney.

Jesus: “I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. My brothers and sisters, do not languish longer in disbelief, for this is the compromise Satan presents to you, to keep you from living the Message of Holy and Divine Love. Nor should you allow your hearts to give in to the temptation of discouragement and fear. Trust in Me—trust in My Mercy. Await with joyful hope the coming victory of Our United Hearts.”

“I have come to bring peace to hearts—hearts that will trust in My Mercy. My Divine Mercy is from age to age and from horizon to horizon upon the repentant heart. My Mercy falls upon all mankind, not out of deservedness, but out of each one’s need.”

“Once again I remind you that those who love Me—trust in Me. To trust in Me is to trust in the attribute of My Mercy. It is the unrepentant whose hearts I have come to change. These are the ones who do not look into their own hearts. They do not try to earn their salvation through love. This is why the world is torn asunder with every kind of sin. The fruit of these sins is war. Because so little value is placed upon human life, the sins today far outweigh the sins of Sodom and Gomorrah.”

“This is why the Message and the mission here of Holy and Divine Love far exceed any in attempting to form hearts in love. This is why the messages lay bare Satan—his snares and his tactics. Do not be surprised at the inroads Satan has made where he is exposed, or the types of sins which are now coming to light. This could not remain under the cover of darkness longer. While it is bringing down those in high places, even within the Church, it is necessary in order that the festering sore be healed. Many consciences now will be stripped of their compromise. Just as the mission here is the salvation of souls, it must be so in My Church, as well. Reputation and money cannot be first. All must be surrendered to Me.”

“I tell you the greatest threat to mankind today is not terrorism, certain infamous and elusive leaders, or even nuclear weapons. The greatest threat is the evil hidden in hearts that would exceed any lengths to obtain its end. I tell you there is an evil alliance forming in certain hearts which will come to light soon. This is not a war over territories or boundaries, but a war between good and evil.”

“The mission here—though ecumenical—will continue as a strong link to orthodoxy and tradition. It will become even stronger and sought out as a spiritual refuge amidst blight. The boundaries of this mission will expand, both in hearts and in the world. The enemy’s tongue will be tied. He will be seen to trip over his own tail. He will be seen to be like a lion without teeth or claws—harmless in the face of the good My mission will accomplish.”

“The Rosary of the Unborn will become the weapon of choice, both in Heaven and on earth, in the war against abortion—so prepare for this. Take up your arms, children of God. Prepare! Stalemates which have affected My mission until now will be resolved. Projects will continue and begin anew. Those who defend and assist this mission, I will defend and assist. Those who make themselves your adversaries are My adversaries, as well.”

“Today We are blessing you with the Blessing of Our United Hearts.”

Jesus is here all in white with the rays coming from His Heart as in the Divine Mercy image. He says: “I am your Jesus, born Incarnate.” Now there is a brick wall to the front of Jesus, but the rays coming from His Heart knock it down.

“Once again I affirm in you that My Mercy is overcoming every impasse that has been in the way in the mission itself. Understand, My brothers and sisters, if you have followed this most powerful novena to My Divine Mercy, all guilt for past sin has been eliminated, as too, all punishment.”

“My Victory will come to you through Divine Love and Divine Mercy. You would be a greater part of My Victory if you imitate My Love and Mercy now in this present moment, and always in the future. Forgive yourselves as I have forgiven you.”

“I’m blessing you with My Blessing of Divine Love.”

Jesus: “I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. My brothers and sisters, please understand that unforgiveness drives a wedge between your heart and Our United Hearts. Any area of unforgiveness should be obvious to you, for the fruit of unforgiveness is anger. People that you have unforgiveness for in your heart are the ones you need to forgive. Sometimes whole bodies of people have caused situations in your lives and need forgiving. I implore you to forgive.”

St. Thomas Aquinas comes. He says: “Praise be to Jesus. I have come to you today to speak about recent scandals within the Church. Some heretics use these unfortunate scandals as a platform to promote married priests and women priests. They neglect the fact that the Holy Father has already made decisions against both of these. CELIBACY IS NOT THE CAUSE OF THESE PROBLEMS. IT IS THE EVIL THAT IS IN HEARTS WHICH IS THE CAUSE.”

“You would never legalize theft because many people steal. Why change the laws set down by the Holy Father because some are too weak and open to evil to obey the laws! Remember that the cause of every sin is failure in Holy Love. The sinner places love of the sin above love of God and neighbor.”

“In the case of these scandals, just as guilty if not more, are the enablers—the ones who covered up the crime. Asking forgiveness in retrospect is not much consolation for the lost innocence of the victims.”

“We must pray for the Church to be healed from the inside out. We must pray that as She is stripped and purified, the remnant faithful will cling to their faith.”

Mission Statement – Dictated by Mother Teresa

“Our mission as Missionary Servants of Holy Love is to serve the poorest of the poor—those who do not know Holy Love. We will do this by living and being the Message of Holy Love—that is, to love God above all else and our neighbor as ourselves.”

“We intend to feed and clothe the poor, fight abortion by establishing homes for unwed mothers, and disseminating pro-life information and the Rosary of the Unborn. We will also propagate the messages of Holy and Divine Love along with the Revelation of the Chambers of the United Hearts to all peoples and every nation.”

April 25, 2002 /Conversation with Divine Love

“I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. I tell you – the fulfillment of My words to you lies in your trust. When your trust is deepest, your love of Me is deepest. Deep in your trust of Me is your surrender. It is only in surrender that every part of My mission is fulfilled in you.”

“I am awakening a new era in this mission. Even now it is burgeoning forth—awakening life around it, and blooming with unseasonable love.”

“You ponder the atmosphere of the Fifth Chamber—Union with the Will of God. Every moment is like the first step into paradise. Every moment is like being reunited with loving memories—loving souls who await on the other side of the veil between life and death. Every moment in the Fifth Chamber radiates love, joy and peace to the souls who enter herein. These souls know no fear, anger or unforgiveness. They have no enemy. They only have knowledge of souls who oppose God’s Will and need prayer.”

“If you can imagine the joy with which I mounted My Throne when I ascended into Heaven, you can taste then the flavor of the Fifth Chamber.”

IN SEARCH OF THE TRUTH

Jesus: “I am Truth. I know Mine and Mine know Me. I do not lead by confusion, but by Truth. Truth is the light by which I lead. My Truth proceeds from Divine Love.”

Definition of Truth:

The quality or state of being true. Loyalty/ Trustworthiness/ Sincerity/Genuineness and Honesty.

The following talk was dictated to visionary Maureen Sweeney-Kyle of Cleveland, Ohio by St. Anthony and St. Catherine of Siena, and reflects Maureen’s views.

“We live in a very complex and perplexing time—a time when it is difficult to sort out truth from compromise. But Jesus is a God of Truth. He does not want confusion to exist within the Church or within His flock. There are a couple of confusing issues I’d like to comment on tonight.”

“No. 1 – We are an ecumenical ministry. Ecumenism embraces all faiths including Catholicism. The Bishop himself embraces ecumenical efforts and made headlines last year by forming an ecumenical relationship with the Lutherans and Episcopalians. Yet we have received information that the Diocese discourages Catholics from coming here because we’re ecumenical. I have trouble finding the truth in that.”

“No. 2 – Another area of confusion is the organization called ‘Future Church’. How many here tonight are Catholic? How many know what the Bishop’s stand on Future Church is? This is what Future Church stands for:

- Women Priests
- Married Priests
- People elect Bishops
- Conscience is supreme, no matter what Church says.”

“These concepts are heresy. *(Definition of Heresy: ‘The formal denial or doubt by a baptized person of any revealed truth of the Catholic faith. Anyone guilty of the crime of heresy incurs excommunication.’) Perhaps the Bishop is dealing with them quietly. We don’t know. But my point is—WE NEED to know where he stands on Future Church. In my opinion such a group should not exist within the Church. Once again their existence opposes truth.”

“The third area of confusion within the Church is the latest scandals concerning pedophilia. We’re told that these cases were mishandled, even possibly methodically covered up. From media reports we’re told that the statute of limitations was allowed to expire so that the Church could not be held financially responsible.”

“This leaves us wondering what is most important to the Church—money, safeguarding a sanctimonious reputation or—as it should be—the salvation of souls? Once again—where is the truth?”

“In my opinion the role of Bishop needs to change from a distant, absolute monarch over his Diocese to a loving, caring father image who cares for the salvation of his flock and is answerable to them.  (Pope Clement I— ‘It is to the humble that Christ belongs, not to those who exalt themselves above His flock. Our Jesus Christ, the scepter of God’s Majesty, did not come in the pomp of pride or arrogance—though He could have done so—but rather in humility.’)”

“But I also believe that the Bishop’s concept of us as his flock must be changed. We are not a bunch of mindless sheep that jump at the word ‘obedience’ under any cost. We are obedient to the one true faith, and all it stands for.”

“But we cannot support untruths. We reserve the right as children of God to search out the truth in the midst of confusion regardless of whose reputation is at stake.”

Quotes from the Saints by Thigpen

(Conclusion of Talk – St. Catherine of Siena)

“My dear friends in Christ: As a practicing Catholic, I believe that the concepts of our faith and the integrity of our Church leaders should not, and must not be obscured by compromise, confusion and hidden agendas.”

“Our Lady is forming in Her Heart and in the world the remnant faithful who will remain faithful to the faith as handed down to us through Heaven’s instrument, John Paul II. We stand firm in this truth.”

TESTIMONIAL

I had taken a cloth that I touched to the Blessing Point, and gave to a friend who touched it to the head of a friend’s child who had a brain tumor. On the next visit to the doctor, the brain tumor was gone.

I also gave my son some of the material. My granddaughter had a high fever that wouldn’t come down. Put material all over her and the fever went down immediately.

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here. Their Hearts are exposed, and they are framed with the Rosary of the Unborn. Blessed Mother says: "Praise be to Jesus."

Jesus: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. Your prayers tonight, My brothers and sisters, have assuaged the grieving Heart of your Savior and of your Heavenly Mother. Many hearts of mothers who were considering abortion have been changed because of your prayers on this rosary tonight. Many unborn children assuredly have been saved from this terrible death."

"Continue to pray this way as We bless you with Our Blessing of the United Hearts."

May 5, 2002 /Monthly Message to All Nations

This message was given in multiple parts.

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: "Praise be to Jesus."

Jesus: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. I have come once again to tell the world that it is error in hearts which causes every kind of problem you face today. All of these errors proceed from lack of Holy Love."

"These days the future of the world teeters on the brink of disaster. Yet, mankind arrogantly ignores My call to conversion through these Messages of Holy Love. Apathy and compromise have consumed the hearts of important government leaders and a majority of the world's population."

"And so, I am calling the remnant faithful whom I have formed in the Heart of My Mother, to arms. There is in the world a grim anticulture of selfish love that we must combat by prayer and sacrifice. Pick up your rosaries and pray for Holy Love to be victorious in hearts and in the world. Holy Love is the victory and the defeat of Satan."

"You must realize, disordered self-love is a spiritual disease which is eating away at the heart of the world and has riddled the heart of My Church upon earth. My Mother, who so grieves the loss of souls and the destruction man calls upon himself, has taken this petition—the victory of Holy Love in hearts—to the Holy Souls in purgatory. They are praying with you, along with the Church Triumphant in Heaven."

"I tell you solemnly, the will of man and the will of the world will never be fixed on the Divine Will of God until the disease of selfish love is eradicated from their midst. The cure—the medicine—for this disease is Holy Love. The cost of this inoculation is surrender of self-love. It is only in complete surrender that the world will be drawn back into harmony with the Divine Will of My Father."

"My brothers and sisters, do not be surprised when I tell you that the solution to all of mankind's problems—the problems in the Church and in the world at large—rests in conversion through Holy Love. For what ails the world is a spiritual blight, and the only solution is a spiritual renewal and conversion through Holy Love."

"Today We extend to you the Blessing of Our United Hearts."

May 6, 2002 /Public

"I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. I have come to help you realize that pride—which is disordered self-love—keeps you from cooperating with your own salvation."

"Pride is the enemy of the soul—distorting objectives and compromising goals. It is through pride every sin is committed."

"These same precepts can be applied to the problems within the Church today. Sin and compromise are swept under the carpet, so to speak. Human judgments are placed ahead of the divine. Many thousands of sacrileges against My Real Presence in the Blessed Sacrament occur daily. This is so, for people desire a good reputation with men and place this desire ahead of good standing with their God."

"My people will never maintain their faith by appearances alone. The remnant will be upheld and maintained by true holiness of heart."

"While Church officials scramble to save their reputations and their pocketbooks, I will raise up the true remnant who maintain a strong tradition of faith in their hearts. Our United Hearts will be victorious through this remnant faithful—through the hearts in which the battle is already won. You will please make this known."

May 6, 2002 /Talk given by Maureen Sweeney-Kyle

IN DEFENSE OF TRUTH

Self-Love

- Guards reputation (attacks reputation of those they see as rivals.)
- Is holy for appearances' sake.
- Is willing to compromise the precept of Holy Love for the sake of money.
- Considers own opinion and authority always right and above anyone else.

Holy Love

- Is concerned with only his reputation in God's eyes.
- Strives to be holy for holiness sake—not to impress others.
- Uses money to further God's kingdom, does not love money.
- Patiently considers all opinions—does not flaunt any authority, turning it to control.

We have a history of being fair game for the Diocese' innuendoes. Tonight I'd like to address some of them:

1. The Diocese expresses concern that we collect money. We cannot pay salaries, bills and maintain property on grace alone—just as the Church cannot do so.
2. We say Catholic prayers though we claim to be ecumenical. Ecumenical includes Catholic and Christian Churches as a whole promoting unity amongst Christian Churches.

Our Lady comes here for all people—all nations. In none of Our Lady's apparitions—Lourdes, Fatima, etc.—did Our Lady say, "Pray the rosary if you're Catholic." The rosary is a universal prayer. Neither has Our Lady ever said, "I have come to convert Catholics." Rather, She says, "I have come to convert sinners." We are all sinners. Mary is the spiritual Mother of all people.

The Message of the Chambers of the United Hearts is formation of the soul in holiness—not only Catholics, but all people.

Next, we are accused of assuming various 'guises'. Here is our history:

There is no subterfuge or hidden agenda in this mission. First we were Our Lady Protectress of the Faith. The Diocese chose not to approve this title that Our Lady asked for saying, "There are already too many devotions to Our Lady and to the saints." I have that statement in a letter at home from the Diocese. The letter further states that Our Lady does not need that title because the Holy Spirit is the Guardian of the Faith.

I guess Our Lady didn't agree because three months later She appeared to Patricia Talbot in Ecuador and said, "I am the Guardian of the Faith." The title was approved in Ecuador by the local Bishop.

Because the Diocese objected to that title, we assumed the name of Project Mercy, and attempted to pray in Churches against abortion. I say 'attempted'. We were told by a Bishop that we couldn't do that because their insurance didn't cover it.

Under Mary's direction we have formed a lay ecumenical apostolate. Our Lady started appearing as Mary, Refuge of Holy Love. Subsequently, we were given the Revelations of the Chambers of the United Hearts of Jesus and Mary. This is a Message of interior formation.

We are not in competition, nor do we seek anything from the Diocese. According to the teaching of the Second Vatican Council, the laity are encouraged to present their concerns to the Bishops. The laity are no longer to be the silent majority.

Consequently, I have a question: Where do you stand on Future Church? This is a group of heretics under the guise of Catholics in your Diocese. They are in dissent of historic Church teaching. It was formed during your tenure. Are you for it or against it? I am not a theologian, but I know this: Not to take a stand is to take a stand.

Jesus is here with St. John Vianney. Jesus says: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate." St. John says: "Praise be to Jesus."

St. John: "We have come from Heaven to call all priests, all Bishops, all Cardinals into a brotherly commitment with the Lord Jesus Christ. This brotherhood of love will help you to lead with a loving heart, not with hearts drunk with power. I'm extending to you tonight My Priestly Blessing."

Jesus: "I extend to you My Blessing of Divine Love."

May 10, 2002 /Public

"I have come to speak to you about the Rosary of the Unborn. I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. My Mother prepared My manger with love—directing St. Joseph to cushion it with humble straw. The Rosary of the Unborn which She presented to the world through you is today like that straw in a manger for the unborn. The prayers said on these rosaries are protection and comfort for the unborn. These same prayers are welcoming new life into the world with love."

"Continue to see, then, the importance of prayer upon this special rosary—this gift from Heaven given through this ministry."

May 11, 2002 /Eve of Mother's Day

Blessed Mother is here as Our Lady of Fatima. She says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"My children, you must learn to offer to My Immaculate Heart and the Sacred Heart of My Beloved Son all the indignities, oppression and uncertainties that surround this mission. For I tell you, a great threat awaits the world—a chastisement greater than you suffered in this country in September. It is coming, My children, unless the Heart of My Beloved Son can be appeased for the great sin of abortion."

"Therefore, it is necessary and important that you disseminate the Rosary of the Unborn as quickly, and in as many ways as possible. My Son deems that this Message can be made public on this eve that you celebrate Mother's Day. For I, the Mother of all nations and the Mother of Love, cooperate always with My Son's Heart and the Will of the Eternal Father."

"And so, My children, remember it is the remnant faithful that will find their true peace in these last days."

"I'm blessing you with My Blessing of Holy Love."

IN DEFENSE OF A TRUTHFUL MISSION

(James 3: 13-18)

Tonight, my brothers and sisters, I'm speaking to you as friends. I'm speaking to you from the heart. It has never been otherwise.

This mission is about prayer—first and foremost. We pray for world peace, the Blessed Mother's intentions, priests and against abortion. We are also beginning charitable works—I might add—without funds, but trusting in Divine Providence.

It is hard to believe that with this as our agenda, we would have so many opponents. What is harder to believe is where the opposition originates from. But I guess that should not surprise us. If our Savior could suffer crucifixion at the hands of those He came to save, why should we expect no opposition?

Jesus looks only into the heart. He does not judge by exteriors. We have to try and imitate Him. We should not think that because someone is standing in front of a TV camera or speaking from a big office downtown, or even because he may be privileged to wear a roman collar, that what he says is true. How unfortunate!

The spirits of jealousy, insecurity, lying, control and ambition know no boundaries. They can reach any one of us if we do not let Holy Love stand guard over our hearts. If we want to find the truth, we must ask the Holy Spirit to fill us with His gift of discernment. Discernment does not come from the intellect, but from the heart. We will not be able to discern unless we have the heart of a child—that is, we have no hidden agenda, no guile or deceit. Everything we think, say and do, glorifies God. Then God will fill us with His Truth.

Discernment looks at the fruits of a person's life or the life of a ministry. This ministry has tenaciously persevered in prayer despite opposition. When we were not allowed to pray in churches, we prayed in woods, parks and schools. Now that through Divine Providence we have a place to pray, people say, "Oh, but they collect money." We, once again, cannot maintain the property God has given us on grace alone. But I'll tell you this—if the thrust of our mission was money, the ceiling here in the prayer center would not be falling down on us.

How can anyone attack the Rosary of the Unborn—a beautiful gift from Heaven? Let our opponents prove that Our Lady lied when She said it would stop abortions. They can't! When we were in Connecticut last week people told us that the unborn babies in the teardrops on their rosaries were turning pink. Thank you, Jesus! Someone had a one-decade rosary there laying on a counter that was broken apart and in need of repair. When we picked it up to fix it, it was already in one piece. Thank you, Jesus! (Read Luke 6: 37). We must forgive.

When Our Lady told us to look for property some years ago, I asked Her if we could look outside this Diocese. I told Her, "You know, Blessed Mother, we are not well-liked here." She said, "Like it or not, we are here, and we are praying."

So I say to all our opponents tonight, like it or not, we are here and we are praying.

(James 3: 13-18) "Who is wise and understanding among you? By his good life let him show his works in the meekness of wisdom. But if you have bitter jealousy and selfish ambition in your hearts, do not boast and be false to the truth. This wisdom is not such as comes down from above, but is earthly, unspiritual, devilish. For where jealousy and selfish ambition exist, there will be disorder and every vile practice. But the wisdom from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, open to reason, full of mercy and good fruits, without uncertainty or insincerity. And the harvest of righteousness is sown in peace by those who make peace."

"I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. Sister, forgiveness is the fruit of a loving heart. It is the soul's cooperation with My grace and mercy. The soul who cannot forgive is failing in Holy Love. When resentment and bitterness consume your heart, there is no space in your heart for love."

"Some people passionately bear grudges instead of passionately loving Me. It is such a heart that brings destruction upon himself and others. Each one must let Me be the Just Judge. Never presume you know more than Me."

"An unforgiving heart is at war within. A forgiving heart is at peace. An unforgiving heart constantly renews old wounds. A forgiving heart is healed. An unforgiving heart does not seek holiness, but its own imagined justice."

"Do not waste the present moment on unforgiveness, but spend it on Holy Love. Ask and I will help you."

May 24, 2002 /Friday Rosary Service

Jesus is here with His Heart exposed. He says: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate."

"My brothers and sisters, tonight I have come to speak to you about grace-filled opportunities. Each present moment is such an opportunity, offering each soul a unique blend of graces to lead him deeper into My Divine Heart."

"But you do not look for these graces so often, My brothers and sisters, and you do not ask for specific graces that My Mother stands ready to give you. Ask for the grace always to come deeper into My Heart where I love you and where I desire to hold you. I'm extending to you tonight My Blessing of Divine Love."

May 25, 2002 /Public

"I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. Today, there is every reason to hope—every reason to despair. There is every reason to trust and every reason to doubt. You live in the midst of plenty and in the midst of want. But I have come to help you see that it is grace that tips the scale towards the positive. If you count on your own efforts alone, you can easily give in to despair, doubt, and feel overwhelmed by all your needs."

“But as true apostles of Holy Love, you must surrender everything to the Heart of My Mother. In Her heart every need comes to fruition, every hope is fulfilled, and trustful surrender bears the fruit of patient perseverance in faith.”

“Pray for your persecutors and forgive your enemies. For these are the ones who have made themselves My enemies. These are the ones who will be stripped. Their illumination of conscience will be in the public eye.”

“I have come to help you see that victory is at hand and indeed within your own heart. I am blessing you.”

May 25, 2002 /Saturday MSHL Rosary Service

Jesus is here with His Heart exposed. He says: “I am your Jesus, born Incarnate.”

“My brothers and sisters, every present moment is the Will of the Eternal Father, but you can only discover His Will through simple surrender. When you have a humble heart, this simple surrender comes quite easily, for you are willing to accept whatever the present moment holds for you. This is the way to true sanctity. Tonight I’m blessing you with My Blessing of Divine Love.”

May 26, 2002 /Fourth Sunday Service to Pray for Unbelievers

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: “Praise be to Jesus.”

Jesus: “I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. My brothers and sisters, it is PRIDE which always takes the form of inordinate self-love that keeps the soul from conversion. This Message of the Revelation of the United Hearts is an interior formation and the soul must surrender completely all forms of inordinate self-love.”

“Therefore, when you pray for people to believe and for people to be converted to this Message, pray that they recognize and overcome their disordered self-love. Today we are blessing you with the Blessing of Our United Hearts.”

May 27, 2002 /Public

“I am Mary, Ever Virgin. Praise be to Jesus.” (She is framed by the Rosary of the Unborn.)

“I gave this rosary to My mission (Holy Love) here in Ohio. The rosary you produced and that you offer here has many promises attendant to it. Copies do not.”

May 29, 2002 /Public

“I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. I have come to speak publicly about the Rosary of the Unborn. This is a great gift given from Heaven in and through this mission of Holy Love. My Mother has designed this rosary Herself, and with Her approval it is now being reproduced. Many and important promises are attendant to this unique rosary of Her design.”

“In the world there are those who have set about to counterfeit this special rosary. I am asking the faithful—do not be fooled. It is the rosary given here at this mission of Holy Love that carries with it the promises from Heaven. Make it known.”

May 31, 2002 /Friday Rosary Service

Jesus is here with His Heart exposed. He says: “I am your Jesus, born Incarnate.”

“My brothers and sisters, tonight I beseech you to pray for My Church upon earth, the Church Militant who are suffering the throes of the purification God has sent them. Pray that their illumination of conscience will be swift and complete, and we will rebuild upon the structure of Our United Hearts.”

“I’m blessing you with My Blessing of Divine Love.”

The Chambers of Our United Hearts

The Secrets Revealed

The official publication of

MISSIONARY SERVANTS OF HOLY LOVE

June, 2002

We are an ecumenical ministry seeking personal holiness in and through the Message of Holy Love. We seek perfection through the Chambers of the United Hearts. We spread the Revelation of the Chambers of the United Hearts whenever and wherever we can, thus ushering in the triumphant victory of the United Hearts.

Blessed Mother's Next Promised Appearance (September 14-15)

Blessed Mother has promised to appear once again to Maureen Sweeney-Kyle just after midnight at the Sorrowful Mother Shrine located at the Lake of Tears. Our Lady requested we gather to pray the Holy Rosary at 11:45 pm on September 14 (Feast of the Triumph of the Cross). Our Lady further advised Maureen that She will appear just after midnight (Feast of the Sorrowful Mother) during the Sorrowful Mysteries of the Most Holy Rosary. Additional rosaries will be prayed on Saturday, September 14 at 7 pm at the Lake of Tears.

June 3, 2002 /Public

"Please take this down. I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. Today the battlecry of all mankind needs to be 'God's Will be done'. This is the way to surrender every event—every aspect of life. Holy Love does not insist on its own way (1 Corinthians Chap. 13), but asks for God's Divine Will to triumph in every situation. When you pray this small prayer, 'God's Will be done', the good angels align themselves against any evil that is affecting the present moment."

"These few words alone call the grace of My Mother's Heart into your petition. My Heart cannot resist such a cry of complete surrender to the Will of My Father. It tells Me you offer no resistance to God's Eternal Plan. Make this well known."

June 3, 2002 /Monday United Hearts Confraternity Service

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: "Praise be to Jesus."

Jesus: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. My dear brothers and sisters, I have called you from the moment of your conception to be My apostles of Holy Love. Through this apostleship, you will embrace the cross of oppression, persecution and disbelief. You will need to be My Hands and My Feet, and you will need to speak for Me. But it is in this way, My brothers and sisters, that the Kingdom of God will come to fruition in your hearts and in your lives."

"We're blessing you with the Blessing of Our United Hearts."

June 5, 2002 /Monthly Message to All Nations

This message was given in multiple parts

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here. Their Hearts are exposed. Blessed Mother bows towards the priests and Jesus raises His Hand and blesses them. Blessed Mother says: "Praise be to Jesus."

Jesus: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. Today I have come to help you understand that the world will not find peace apart from Me—apart from the Divine Will of My Father Who sends Me—apart from Holy Love."

"At the same time, mankind will not engage in war or acts of terrorism unless he cooperates with evil. The fruits of the Spirit are love, peace and joy. The fruits of evil are hatred, war and every type of anxiety and agitation."

"Knowing this to be true, you may wonder why so many choose evil over good which is love. It is because the evil one knows how to clothe himself in goodness. He makes his choices seem attractive, pleasurable, secure. But once the evil choice is made, all of the pomp vanishes like so much dust in the wind, and the reality of his deceit is all that remains."

"So many sink to their perdition or spend lengthy imprisonment in purgatory because they make hasty choices trying to make themselves look good to others. These motives are at the very core of war, violence and terrorism."

"I tell you, mankind will continue to misuse the elements and resources of earth that My Father created and has given freely. This selfish misuse of God's creation will be humanity's downfall and disastrous destruction unless he redirects his free will and allows Holy Love to govern his heart."

"This is why Heaven continues to pour out grace upon this Mission of Holy Love. This is why Satan has been foiled in his plans to destroy this mission under the guise of good—even discernment. This is why I will continue to shield you from the attacks and arrows of evil Satan aims at you. The arrows will be deflected and turn on the bowsmen."

"My brothers and sisters, today once again I invite you to patient perseverance in the face of every opposition. You will be able to overcome obstacles in this way. Do not reject your crosses by complaining about them, but accept everything for the glory of God and His Kingdom. It is in this way that the triumph of Our United Hearts will be hastened. Today We are blessing you with the Blessing of Our United Hearts."

June 7, 2002 /Feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus

Jesus is here with His Heart exposed. He says: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. I welcome you here this evening and I ask your continued prayers for the TRIUMPH of Our United Hearts."

"When you return to the field tonight to await My Mother's visit, please allow your hearts to be lifted above concerns with the world. Do not think about who sees what or who says what—or even who believes what. But allow My Divine Love to take sovereignty over your hearts. In this way My Father's Will will be accomplished in you." (Jesus stretches out His Arms over the people here.)

"My brothers and sisters, My Sacred Heart mourns the loss of life that sin brings about. Even more do I mourn the ones who say they love Me, but by their attitudes condone abortion, birth control, euthanasia and suicide. Do they not see the choices they are making by their inaction?"

"The way to surrender completely to My Sacred Heart is to say 'yes' to the law of Holy Love in every present moment. Do not say 'yes' with part of your heart and hold onto self-love with the other part. I desire all—in every moment. Do not think of yourself—how you are affected by events or people around you. Keep your heart centered only on Me—because you love Me. Let Me direct each present moment. Then I will be part of you and bless you."

"Tonight in this present moment I impart to you My Blessing of Divine Love."

June 7, 2002 /Midnight Service at the Field of the United Hearts - Feasts of the Sacred Heart of Jesus/ Immaculate Heart of Mary - Our Lady's Message to the World
(Given in multiple parts.)

Blessed Mother is here all in white with Her Heart exposed. She says: "Praise be to Jesus. Tonight I come to speak to the world with an impassioned plea to return to love. Peace is held hostage by those who serve false gods. I speak specifically of the god of disordered self-love. The fruits of this type of love are pride, ambition, distorted thinking and speaking, fear and terror."

"I do not come to bring anxiety into hearts about future events which hang in the balance. Once again I come to call the heart and soul of the world into the Heart of My Son through My Immaculate Heart. I invite My children to realize that My Heart is ready to prepare the most hardened sinner to meet My Son. When souls are thus prepared they are at peace. They do not seek what is not theirs for they possess all."

"Dear children, your Mother weeps for you. I weep for the ones who are My victim souls and carry the weight of the cross in their hearts. I weep for the ones who choose ignorance as to the path they take. I weep most bitterly for those who hear My impassioned plea to choose Holy Love, but reject it. I am the Sorrowful Mother of all nations and every heart."

"Dear children, the greatest miracle is the heart that returns to the path of righteousness leaving sin and error behind. These are the ones that all of Heaven rejoices for. Each one who comes here receives the grace he needs to become more holy. Many today trust only in themselves—in human effort—in weapons of destruction."

"My children, I have come here tonight to help you to trust only in the grace of My Immaculate Heart for this is a source of power no human effort can match. It is through the grace of My Heart that mankind can discover the evil that lies hidden in hearts before it takes place in the world. But you must pray, My children—pray and ask for evil in hearts to be laid bare. Pray and forgive one another. Then I will protect you."

"Remember always, violence begets violence. When you kill life in the womb you give Satan power both in hearts and in the world. This fact bears out in truth in the forms of disease, terrorism and natural disasters. How much will you suffer before you understand?"

"My dear, dear children, do not be anxious or afraid, for your Heavenly Mother is here and I am listening to your prayers."

My precious children, make of your hearts oblations of Holy Love, and I will take your petitions to Heaven. Pray with Holy Faith, Holy Love, and persevere in every virtue towards the end of the terrible sin of abortion."

"I am protecting you, My children, in the Refuge of My Heart, and tonight I am blessing you with My Blessing of Holy Love."

June 8, 2002 /Feast of The Immaculate Heart of Mary

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: "Praise be to Jesus."

Jesus: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. My brothers and sisters, today the world is rocked by insecurity and lack of peace. I have come to tell you that true peace and genuine security lies only within Our United Hearts."

"Therefore, I have come to ask you to make known Our United Hearts around the world. Spread the devotion of the Chaplet, the Confraternity and the Blessing. Much merit is to be gained by this. This will hasten My return—My VICTORY will be made complete."

"My dear brothers and sisters, I am taking all of you into My Heart tonight through the Heart of My Most Holy Mother. I desire to lead you deeper into the Chambers of Our United Hearts and make you SAINTS."

"And so tonight, We're blessing you with the Blessing of Our United Hearts."

June 9, 2002 /2nd Sunday Service to Pray against Abortion

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: "Praise be to Jesus."

Jesus: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. My brothers and sisters, today I have come to gather hearts into the Chambers of Our United Hearts. Most especially I have come for your heart - your surrender. Surrender your will, for the United Hearts of Jesus and Mary are the Divine Will of God. The only thing that holds you apart from these Sacred Chambers is your own will."

"Today We bless you with the Blessing of the United Hearts."

June 12, 2002 /Conversation with Divine Love

Maureen: "When I got to the chapel I surrendered everything to Jesus—naming each petition."

Jesus said: "And I surrender to you all My Love—My Heart Sublime—My Mercy on past and future sins. I surrender to you all you need to fulfill God's Holy and Divine Will in you. I give to you everything I have to fill the wounds of your heart—to strengthen the innermost fiber of your being. I am your strength and direction. I am the path you must follow. I am your Jesus, born Incarnate."

June 14, 2002 /2nd Friday Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here. He has tears in his eyes and says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"My brothers and sisters, today I have come to you begging your prayers and your continued sacrifices for Holy Mother Church. The SOUL of the CHURCH has been laid BARE, and that which was hidden in darkness has been brought into the light. And you know, my brothers and sisters, that what has taken place in the past is still wounded in the hearts of many in the present moment. Therefore, I ask you to pray for the victims of these crimes. Priests must realize that their vocation was given to them to save souls through the sacraments of the CHURCH."

"And so tonight I'm taking all your petitions with me to Heaven, and I am imparting to you my Priestly Blessing."

June 15, 2002 /Public

"I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. I am helping you to understand that the soul can only move deeper into the Chambers of My Heart with the pass keys of deeper love—deeper humility; for it is the deepening fulfillment of these two virtues that draws the soul to sanctity."

"So, with a movement of his free will, the soul must desire to be more perfect in Holy Love and Holy Humility. When this desire comes from a sincere heart, the way will be shown. No one can sincerely desire to be more holy and not be given the grace to achieve deeper holiness. Therefore, I tell you, desire holiness with your whole heart, and I will help you find it."

June 17, 2002 /Conversation with Divine Love

"I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. Child, I created you in the womb as I create each one to be a reflection of My Flame of Divine Love. I alone know how to call forth the inner beauty of the jewel of your soul. With My own Hand I chisel away the rough nature which influences the beauty I created. You often do not recognize My tools, though you feel their sharpness. My tools are temptation and trials. Every test of virtue that you pass becomes a new facet on the face of the jewel of your heart."

"Finally, when I am finished I look with eagerness to bring My jewel into Paradise—to reveal My handiwork amongst the angels and the saints. The perfect setting awaits the jewels that I refine. It is My Mother's Heart. Within Her Immaculate Heart every jewel reflects the elegance of the Flame of My Fire of Divine Love. It is My call to each soul."

June 17, 2002 /Monday United Hearts Confraternity Service

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: "Praise be to Jesus."

Jesus: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. My brothers and sisters, I invite you with all My Heart to become like little children, for little children trust with ease. Little children HOPE with ease, and little children LOVE most perfectly. When you ask for these graces of FAITH, HOPE and LOVE as a little child has FAITH, HOPE and LOVE, I will assist you. You will become as a little child and I will take you into My Eternal Heart."

"Tonight We are blessing you with the Blessing of Our United Hearts."

June 21, 2002 /Friday Rosary Service

Jesus is here with His Heart exposed. He says: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate."

"My brothers and sisters, this Message—this Revelation of the Chambers of Our United Hearts—is the medicine sent from Heaven to heal the soul of the world. As My apostles I ask you to take this medicine to as many souls as possible. This is the way Our United Hearts will triumph and reign."

"Tonight I'm blessing you with My Blessing of Divine Love."

June 21, 2002 /Conversation with Divine Love

"I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. Allow Me to embrace your heart. Let Me be your Portion. Your enemies are falling around you. They are disarmed by their own compromise. Take My Hand and I will gently and assuredly lead you around every encumbrance. My Kingdom is in every heart that embraces Holy Love."

June 23, 2002 /4th Sunday Service to Pray for Unbelievers

Jesus is here with His Heart exposed. He says: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate." (Jesus' wounds are visible.)

Jesus: "My brothers and sisters, today I have come to ask for your prayers for all unbelievers and especially for the Church Hierarchy who do not accept this Revelation of the Chambers of Our United Hearts. Pray that they accept in their heart the Message of Holy Love, for in order to do this, they must cooperate with an inner conversion and an illumination of their conscience. It is only in this way that they will begin to live in Holy Love in every present moment."

"I'm blessing you with My Blessing of Divine Love."

June 24, 2002 /Monday United Hearts Confraternity Service

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: "Praise be to Jesus."

Jesus: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. My brothers and sisters, I am calling you to a more perfect state of grace and a more complete state of holiness. Understand that through Holy and Divine Love you can accomplish all things. You do not recognize MY VICTORY when it comes in the form of a CROSS. You do not celebrate My TRIUMPH when I ask for your sacrifices. But I tell you, everything that is accomplished in Holy and Divine Love is My VICTORY and My TRIUMPH."

"We are blessing you with Our Blessing of the United Hearts."

June 27, 2002 /Public

Jesus comes towards me. He takes a Flame out of His wounded Side. He says: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. This is the Flame of My Divine Love. Just as you see Me draw it through the Wound of My Side, I desire all know that the way to this Flame of Love is through My Passion and Cross. Each soul enters upon his own passion at conception. It is denial of the Cross as the soul matures that holds him back on his spiritual journey. Be accepting of all that comes to you in each present moment. Do not complain, but trust Me. I, the Lord, know how much to give and how much to take away."

"My Benediction rests upon you."

June 28, 2002 /Public

"I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. Child, if you were to ask Me the cost of trust I would tell you there is none. Trust begets courage. Courage begets perseverance. So then, when you are called to trust in the present moment embrace the call, for you have nothing to lose. Cast your concerns upon the Throne of My Heart, for it is only by providence all things are gained. In Heaven every moment is perfected by grace, and there is no element of time – only perfect grace. On earth it is the Will of My Father that brings the moment into perfect grace. The Will of My Father is Holy Love. When your love moves towards perfection, you can more perfectly accept My Father's Will, for trust and love are always one."

June 28, 2002 /Friday Rosary Service

Jesus is here with His Heart exposed. He says: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate."

"My brothers and sisters, the seedling of love that begins in each heart when they turn to Me can only be fed and watered by merit of deep trust. When the soul trusts he does not feel forsaken when adversities come, but he is willing to lovingly wait in patience as God's Eternal Plan plays out. Understand that God's Holy Will is in each present moment, My brothers and sisters. Therefore, have much hope in your hearts."

"Tonight I'm blessing you with My Blessing of Divine Love."

June 29, 2002 /Saturday MSHL Rosary Service

Jesus is here with His Heart exposed. He says: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate."

“My brothers and sisters, when you turn your hearts over to Me, do so with great love and not with regret. When you surrender, regretting having to leave your old ways of life, it is with a remorseful heart—a heart envying the old and reluctant to put on the new. Do not be so superficial in your surrender, My brothers and sisters, but come to Me with love and I will fill you with My Love.”

Tonight I'm blessing you with My Blessing of Divine Love.”

June 29, 2002 /Public

“I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. I have come to help you understand the scripture passage, ‘Not everyone who says – Lord, Lord – will enter the Kingdom of Heaven.’ The passage goes on to say that it is those who do the Will of the Father who will enter paradise. I tell you, there are many who practice many devotions, have many gifts of the Holy Spirit, but it is all an exterior effort. Salvation is an interior process within the human heart. Souls that do not make the effort everyday to improve in Holy Love are cheating themselves, and being deceived by Satan. Such spirituality could be compared to eating a sumptuous meal, but not digesting the food. The entire purpose of the act is missed.”

“Holy Love embraces every virtue, just as humility does so. Without furthering the depth of these virtues, the spirit lies stagnant. Deepening of virtue can only be accomplished in the present moment and by a movement of the free will. If you desire a deeper holiness, it will be given to you. You will be shown where you need to love more—where you need to be more humble.”

“It is the souls who do not look within their own hearts that I fear for. Salvation is a moment to moment challenge in Holy Love—Holy Humility.”

June 29, 2002 /Public

St. Thomas Aquinas comes. He bows to the Monstrance and says: “Praise be to Jesus.”

“Beware the self-satisfied soul. Such a soul who does not seek a deeper spirituality is a lukewarm soul. His self-satisfaction threatens his very salvation; for the Lord offers and he rejects, thinking he need no more self-knowledge—he has all the grace he needs. This is the same as self-righteousness. It is such sanctimony in hearts that rejects private revelation, presuming they need no new devotions, and certainly no ‘alleged’ advice from Heaven.”

“Such as these think they have the answers and believe they are saved. But in the same breath, they overlook the obvious—the chance to become holy and to enter the Kingdom on the wings of love and humility. Yes, it is a very dangerous thing to be self-satisfied—to be spiritually smug. It is a sign to Heaven that you are only interested in salvation on your own terms.”

“Beware each one of this trap Satan lays for you.”

TESTIMONIAL

I had taken a cloth that I touched to the Blessing Point and gave to a friend who touched it to the head of a friend's child who had a brain tumor. On the next visit to the doctor, the brain tumor was one.

I also gave my son some of the material. My granddaughter had a high fever that wouldn't come down. Put material all over her and the fever went down immediately.

The Chambers of Our United Hearts

The Secrets Revealed

The official publication of

MISSIONARY SERVANTS OF HOLY LOVE

July, 2002

We are an ecumenical ministry seeking personal holiness in and through the Message of Holy Love. We seek perfection through the Chambers of the United Hearts. We spread the Revelation of the Chambers of the United Hearts whenever and wherever we can, thus ushering in the triumphant victory of the United Hearts.

Blessed Mother's Next Promised Appearance (September 14-15)

Blessed Mother has promised to appear once again to the visionary and mystic, Maureen Sweeney-Kyle, just after midnight at the Sorrowful Mother Shrine located at the Lake of Tears. Our Lady requested we gather to pray the Holy Rosary at 11:45 pm on September 14 (Feast of the Triumph of the Cross). Our Lady further advised Maureen that She will appear just after midnight (Feast of the Sorrowful Mother) during the Sorrowful Mysteries of the Most Holy Rosary. Additional rosaries will be prayed on Saturday, September 14 at 7 pm at the Lake of Tears.

July 1, 2002 /Public

St. Thomas Aquinas comes. He says: "Praise be to Jesus. Today the conscience of the world has become obtuse—that is, spiritually blind. It is as though a force has a stranglehold on the heart of the world preventing it from discerning evil."

"All that grabs media attention—terrorism, violence, abortion, pedophilia, homosexuality, and even liberal feminism are evil spirits. Those who practice these things are cooperating with Satan. You will not read this in newspapers or hear it on TV, for the thrust is today to deal with the problem (if it is viewed as a problem), and not the cause which is evil itself."

"How can the people of God combat the evil that has wrapped its tentacles around our society—even our churches and seminaries? Call it what it is. Do not be compliant with the evil by being silent or accepting terminology Satan inspires, like: alternate life style, planned parenthood, inclusive language, freedom of choice and more. Expose evil for what it is."

"Pray the rosary—the weapon of choice against Satan. It is no accident that many who embrace these evil spirits also oppose the rosary. Make holy hours of adoration. Each holy hour weakens Satan's kingdom. Have Masses said for those who cooperate with evil. The Mass is the most powerful prayer."

"Most of all, do not be silent. Be a vocal force against Satan in the world today."

July 1, 2002 /Monday United Hearts Confraternity Service

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: "Praise be to Jesus."

Jesus: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. My brothers and sisters, do not fear these times which are apocalyptic, but have faith and hope that My grace is more powerful than any opposition. You are receiving more grace now in your daily lives than ever before; even now, We are blessing you with Our Blessing of the United Hearts."

July 5, 2002 /Monthly Message to All Nations

(This message was given in multiple parts.)

Jesus is here with His Heart exposed. He says: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. It is the Divine and Perfect Will of My Eternal Father that I come to you today in order to increase, unite and strengthen the Remnant Faithful. From this day forward ALL My public messages to you will be under the title: DIVINE LOVE SPEAKS TO THE REMNANT FAITHFUL. It is this REMNANT that perseveres in the TRADITION OF FAITH despite all obstacles."

"I come, My brothers and sisters, to bring you into the richness of My Sacred Heart. I desire to share with you the bitter grievances of My Heart. I ask that you reflect upon these grievances and assuage My Heart with your love—your Holy Love."

"First and foremost, I grieve for the loss of innocence in the world. Because of modern communications and travel, this loss of the virtue of chastity is more widespread than ever before. Innocent little children are used and exploited by a pleasure-seeking segment of the population."

"Closely adjoined to this grievance is the taking of innocent lives through artificial birth control and abortion. Artificial contraception is most often just another form of abortion. The innocent lives I give are destroyed before they can flourish in the womb. Couples prefer the pleasure, but not the new life."

"I also grieve for the worship of false idols by so many. The gods of money, power and unnatural sins of the flesh have consumed the heart of the world."

"I come to you today to ask you, not only to soothe My aching Heart, but the Heart of My Mother who suffers intimately along with Me. The only solution for all of these grievances of My Heart is Holy Love; for Holy Love alone can heal all wounds."

"I desire the welfare of your souls which can only come to you through love. Therefore, I call you into the spectrum of Holy Love which is holiness and salvation itself. This alone is the solution to man's desensitization towards God and His commandments. Holy Love dictates an end to terror in the womb and in the world. Holy Love calls all humanity to unite and to step into the First Chamber of Our United Hearts. Outside of Holy Love, you are not living in harmony with God's Divine Will."

"I am blessing you today with My Blessing of Divine Love."

July 6, 2002 /Public

"I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. I have come to tell you that My Mother's Heart is the Eternal Refuge of the Remnant Church, for it is in Her Heart the Faith is protected. It is from Her Heart every grace pours into the world which allows souls to persevere in love and faith. She is calling now all those who embrace the true tenets of Faith into Her Heart where She will tenderly nurture each one and lead them into Divine Love.”

July 6, 2002 /Saturday MSHL Rosary Service

“I come as Jesus, born Incarnate to address My Remnant Faithful.”

“My brothers and sisters, some hearts question the message that was given yesterday on the 5th of the month. They question why I would place the destruction of innocence and chastity in young ones ahead of abortion. Babies who are aborted receive a baptism of blood and they always choose the light when they see it and are saved. But the innocent children whose chastity and purity is destroyed by others often receive spiritual harm and some, because of the crimes perpetrated against them, choose damnation when they do come to Me later in life; and this is why it is a greater abomination to Me than even abortion itself.”

“Here you see, My brothers and sisters, the soul is of the utmost importance; and so, that is why I urge you to pray against pornography and any kind of molestation of the young.”

“Tonight I am blessing you with My Blessing of Divine Love.”

July 8, 2002 /Monday United Hearts Confraternity Service

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: “Praise be to Jesus.” (There are five to six angels in the room and they are ringing bells. The angel to the left of Blessed Mother has prostrated itself before Them.)

Jesus: “I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. My brothers and sisters, I have come to you tonight to lead you deeper into Divine Love. Do not allow your free will to choose any other path than Holy Love. This is the way and the truth to a deeper holiness.”

“My brothers and sisters, I long to share Paradise with you. Humble yourselves then, and follow this smallest and most humble path of Holy Love.”

“We’re blessing you with Our Blessing of the United Hearts.”

July 11, 2002 /Public

“Would you begin to write, please? I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. I have come to tell you many things.”

“Each priest who comes to the property is given an extra angel to guard his vocation and move more rapidly through the Chambers of Our United Hearts. But the angel will not remain with them if they give any indication of disobedience to the Holy Father and/or Church Tradition. He (the angel), at the sign of schism, returns to Heaven.”

“The Chambers of Our United Hearts and the simplistic holiness embraced herein are open only to those souls who are in grace or willing to embrace grace through Holy Love. They cannot place ideas or false theology in their hearts and find a place in the First Chamber.”

“Therefore, understand it is those who embrace the ideals of the Remnant Faithful that find a place in the deeper Chambers of Our United Hearts.”

July 12, 2002 /Friday Rosary Service for Priests

St. John Vianney is here. He bows toward Fr. Patrick. Then he looks at me, smiles and says: “Now you can tell them how raggedy I look.”

“Now, my brothers and sisters, I have come to give praise to Jesus, born Incarnate. I have come to ask ALL PRIESTS to come before the EUCHARISTIC LORD, His TRUE and REAL PRESENCE in the tabernacles of the world—there to be stripped of all compromise and deceit—their hearts to be laid bare so that HE can make them His true and real priests.”

“Tonight I’m blessing you with My Priestly Blessing.”

July 13, 2002 /Saturday MSHL Rosary Service

Jesus is here and He is holding His Heart in His Hand. He says: “I am your Jesus, born Incarnate.”

“My brothers and sisters, I have come to share with you the sweet taste of the victory of My Heart. I am drawing the world deep into the Chambers of My Heart through Holy and Divine Love. This is the victory that is the Will of My Eternal Father—the victory that is sweet and everlasting. Search out no other.”

“Tonight I am imparting to you My Blessing of Divine Love.”

July 14, 2002 /Second Sunday Service to Pray against Abortion

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: “Praise be to Jesus.”

Jesus: “I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. My brothers and sisters, I have come to call you into deeper humility, for it is only in this way that you can more clearly see your trespasses against Holy Love—that is, all your sins. True humility puts on no pretense to impress others. True humility does not seek the limelight. True humility realizes the great error in abortion and prays against it sincerely from the heart.”

“So today, My brothers and sisters, We’re extending to you the Blessing of Our United Hearts.”

July 15, 2002 /Public

“I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. I have come to address the topic of spiritual pride. Pride is inordinate self-love. Spiritual pride would be a patting of yourself on the back for gifts God has given. The spiritually proud want everyone to know just how powerfully God is working in their lives. They crave the limelight. They seek to impress people with their holiness. Often the virtues they practice are superficial—false for others to see.”

“But I choose the little and least likely. I choose the insignificant so that My words resonate with importance and do not have to compete with the soul’s own need for importance.”

“Spiritual pride is a trap Satan lays for all who seek holiness. This snare is covered by the soul’s own self-love so that he never sees, nor even suspects it. He is so enamored with what he sees as his own favor in God’s eyes, that he never sees the hidden trap.”

“Humility does not seek to be important in God’s eyes or in the eyes of man. Humility only seeks to love God more intensely and to do His Will.”

July 15, 2002 /Monday United Hearts Confraternity Service

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: “Praise be to Jesus.”

Jesus: “I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. My brothers and sisters, humility is the hand that turns the key in the lock that opens the door to the First Chamber of Our United Hearts. It is humility that strips away all pretense and reveals truth. It is humility who gives true self-knowledge. Therefore, rather than to pray for great gifts and even greater missions, making yourself important in the eyes of people, My children should be praying for humility.”

“Tonight We are blessing you with the Blessing of Our United Hearts.”

July 17, 2002 /Public

Jesus comes. He takes a diamond out of the wound in His Side. He says: “Child, this jewel which is covered with the Blood and Water of your Jesus, born Incarnate, is this Mission itself. Though many may challenge it, compete with it and disbelieve in it, I will uphold it through the power and protection of My Precious Blood.”

July 18, 2002 /Public

"I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. I have come so that you might know and understand the intimacies of My Heart. Each present moment My Heart sees victory and defeat. Each moment I am victorious in hearts that embrace Holy Love. Each moment righteousness is defeated in those who accept abortion and artificial birth control, in those who violate the innocence of children, those who through pride accept apostasy, schism and heresy. Each moment I am consoled by the simple and humble, and grieved by the ambitious and proud. Many think they are saved who slip to their perdition. I do not ask that souls surrender to Me once, but always and in every present moment."

"Sacrileges against My Real Presence in the forms of bread and wine begin in the heart that opens itself to arrogance. Arrogance accepts its own truth rather than any authority. So you see, as I am respected and esteemed by many in the Holy Eucharist, I am at the same time blasphemed."

"These and many more reasons are why I need your prayers in the present moment."

July 19, 2002 /Public

"I am your Jesus, born Incarnate."

"My child, the soul that seeks only to please Me will not be led astray. It is when people try to appeal to those in the world around them that they are easily led astray. Self-love takes over their heart and the virtues I desire them to have become shallow, false and practiced to impress others. Such souls are consumed with their reputation and their own position of importance. Then it is easy for error and every type of hypocrisy to sneak in and take over their hearts. The goal of genuine holiness eludes them which this is the loftiest goal a soul can have. Each one must pursue holiness first and not take so much account of the gifts they receive spiritually."

"I do not call souls to be great in the eyes of men, but great in the eyes of God. This is the path of salvation and holiness."

July 19, 2002 /Friday Rosary Service

Jesus is here with His Heart exposed. He says: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate."

"My brothers and sisters, the Flame of My Heart which is Divine Love reaches into every generation, enlightening souls where they are in darkness. I am calling each soul and every nation into the Flame of My Heart. Oh, how I desire that they would surrender to Me, for this Flame is their sanctification."

"I'm extending to each one tonight My Blessing of Divine Love."

July 20, 2002 /Saturday MSHL Rosary Service

Jesus is here with His Heart exposed. He says: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate."

"My brothers and sisters, once again I have come to address My little ones, the Remnant Faithful. You are the ones, My dear little children, who have clung to the TRADITION OF FAITH despite loss of reputation through humility of heart. You have endured. I am protecting you in the Flame of My Heart which is Divine Love. Cling to the true message and spirituality of the Chambers of Our United Hearts, and I will continue to bless and protect you—even now as I am blessing you with My Blessing of Divine Love."

July 22, 2002 /Monday United Hearts Confraternity Service

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: "Praise be to Jesus."

Jesus: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. My brothers and sisters, tonight I encourage you to allow transforming virtue to come into your hearts. Such virtue can only take root in a heart that is humble and full of Holy Love. All other virtue that does not transform you into My Likeness is false. Tonight We are blessing you with the Blessing of Our United Hearts."

July 24, 2002 /Public

St. Thomas Aquinas comes. He is standing next to a ladder. He says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"I have come today to give you this illustration of a soul's journey into the Fourth Chamber of Divine Love. The ladder represents the Third Chamber of the United Hearts which is the perfection of virtue. Each step is a virtue. The side railings that the soul must cling to in order to climb up this ladder represent humility and love. Every virtue is fastened to Holy Humility—Holy Love. If it is not, it becomes unsteady and weakened. The virtue itself becomes false. The soul who is trying to climb, easily slips backwards."

"I give you this graphic to show you how important humility and love are in the spiritual life. God, you know, is never fooled by exterior pretense. He sees clearly into every heart. Indeed, humility is knowing that you are nothing more than you are in the Eyes of God. True Holy Love is loving God's Divine Will in the present moment. Neither of these virtues can be acquired through the intellect, but only in the heart; that is, you are not loving and humble by thinking that you are. These virtues come through the soul's cooperation with the action of the Divine Will in their lives. Both of these virtues require a lessening of self-love. The more the soul loses sight of self, the more God fills the void."

"These two virtues work together in the heart to lead the soul into the Fourth Chamber. One cannot work apart from the other. Without them the other virtues do not enter the heart."

"I reveal this to make the climb easier. Pray to be open always to God's Will for you."

July 24, 2002 /Public

St. Thomas Aquinas comes. He says: "I have come to continue my lesson on Holy Love—Holy Humility. Consider once again the ladder whose steps are the virtues and whose side rails are love and humility. When the step breaks away from the side rail, it is no longer strong. It may resemble a step, but in fact, lacks the strength of a genuine step. So it is with any virtue. The virtue is only as deep as love and humility are deep in the soul. Virtue that is not grounded in love and humility soon gives in, as it is false."

"Every virtue must be supported by Holy Love and Holy Humility. If it is not, the soul will not advance on the ladder of holiness, but slip and fall. Think of the virtue of patience. The soul that is not supported by love and humility easily becomes impatient. He begins to think of 'poor me' and how all things affect him, rather than on God's Divine Will in the present moment. The same is true of a failing in perseverance, meekness, and more."

"It is always an inordinate self-love that pulls the soul away from love and humility. Self-love, therefore, is the antithesis of the entire spiritual quest for holiness and advancement through the Chambers of the United Hearts."

July 26, 2002 /Public

St. Thomas Aquinas comes. He says: "I have come in praise of Jesus, born Incarnate."

"In order for the soul to make a steady ascent up the ladder of virtue, he must have his hands firmly planted on both hand rails—Holy Love and Holy Humility. As he ascends, he reaches up higher on each side to pull himself to the next step. This action represents the soul's deeper commitment to love and humility."

"I will describe for you the loving, humble soul as a goal to aim for. Such a soul always places God first, ahead of self and neighbor. To do so, his thoughts, words and actions are towards pleasing the foremost object of his love. Through love of God, the soul loves his neighbor—seeing God's creation in his neighbor. For love's sake, he tries to overcome disordered self-love. This action embraces humility."

"The humble soul regards all others as holier than himself. He knows his place before God and tries to please God. He does not look for faults in others, but looks for good. He is submissive to God's Will in all things and in every way. He uses the goods of the world to give glory to God. In so doing, he does not consider cost to self. This means he does not look at how everything affects him. His thoughts, words and actions are turned towards God, not towards himself and the world. In essence he loses sight of himself. He is not concerned for his reputation in the world, but only for his relationship with God."

"These hand rails of Holy Love and Holy Humility are not always easy to maintain a hold of. Satan tries to grease them with his temptations so that the soul loses his grip. It is only with the assistance of grace from the Heart of Our Heavenly Mother the soul can even begin the climb. If the hand should slip from one side or the other, Our Lady is there, placing the hand—finger by finger—back where it belongs."

July 26, 2002 /Friday Rosary Service

Jesus is here with His Heart exposed. He says: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate."

"My brothers and sisters, once again I come to draw all humanity into the Chambers of Our United Hearts. It is only through love and humility that you can enter and advance through these Chambers. And so, lose sight of your selfish goals and your misdirected love. Do not focus on your needs, but on My needs. I am calling you to a deep surrender."

"Tonight I am blessing you with My Blessing of Divine Love."

July 27, 2002 /Public

"I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. I stand before you, Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity—My Sacred Heart exposed to you. I tell you these words: The Fifth Chamber of Our United Hearts is united to the Benevolent Heart of the Eternal Father through His Divine Will. There is no other revelation outstanding beyond this Divine Truth. Be in union with the Divine Will."

July 28, 2002 /Fourth Sunday Service to Pray for Unbelievers

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: "Praise be to Jesus."

Jesus: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. My brothers and sisters, there is not one of you here today who does not slip in some area in Holy Love. Pray that your faults be revealed to you, for this is the only way that you can come deeper into the Chambers of Our United Hearts. You cannot improve until you see the areas that need improving. Pray that what is in darkness will come into the light."

"Today We're blessing you with the Blessing of Our United Hearts."

July 29, 2002 /Monday United Hearts Confraternity Service

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: "Praise be to Jesus."

Jesus: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. My brothers and sisters, just as We have been your safe harbor during this storm (there were heavy winds and rain), learn to surrender everything to My provision and My Mother's protection during every difficulty of life. Learn to do this as you retire at night, and once again when you arise in the morning."

"Tonight We're blessing you with the Blessing of Our United Hearts."

Mondays, Fridays and Saturdays at 7 pm

Wednesdays and Thursdays at 7 pm (Vespers)

2nd and 4th Sundays at 3 pm

5th of the month: Noon Stations, 2 pm Rosary of Tears,

PRAYER VIGIL TO END ABORTION

On the Feast of the Holy Rosary - October 7, 2002

7 PM to Midnight

P L E A S E J O I N U S

August 3, 2002 /Public

"I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. Please write this down."

"Divine Heart of Jesus, in this present moment help me to live more deeply in Holy Love and Holy Humility. Give me the grace and the courage to look deep into my heart to see where I am failing in these virtues. I know it is only in overcoming these faults I can come deeper into the Chambers of Your Divine Heart. I beg Your strength in perfecting these virtues. Amen."

"Make it known."

August 4, 2002 /Feast of St. John Vianney

St. John Vianney comes. He says: "Praise be to Jesus. It is a sad thing that has befallen the Church today—these scandals! It is all because of lack of belief in the True Presence of Jesus Christ in the Holy Eucharist. Yes, this belief alone would stop such heinous crimes. This belief, coupled with devotion to the Holy Madonna, would stop any serious sin. No one, let alone a priest who loves these devotions, would even entertain such thoughts."

August 5, 2002 /Monthly Message to All Nations

(This message was given in multiple parts.)

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here. They are all in white with golden rays all around them. Blessed Mother says: "Praise be to Jesus."

Jesus: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. My brothers and sisters, you gather today at this site of Heaven's favor for many reasons. Some come to honor My Mother; others are seeking the answer to sought-after petitions. Some come here out of curiosity."

"But today I have come seeking your assistance. The world suffers many conflicts due to selfish motives in hearts. Whenever man puts himself ahead of God and neighbor, the harmony between the Divine and the human suffers. This is why you have unusual weather—often costly, both to property and life. This is why you suffer violence and wars at the hands of a few. Now you are only beginning to realize the hidden agendas that have been in the darkness of hearts in government leaders, Church leaders and even economists."

"I come today to ask of each soul complete conversion through Holy Love. Do not listen to those who belittle holiness. Do not be swayed by any who berate this message given here, for to do so is to berate the gospel itself. You do not need high-powered approvals to accept love of God and neighbor in your hearts. But you do need this spiritual journey of Our United Hearts. I need you to spread the message—believe in the message—live the message."

"The world has been given every resource, capability and grace by which to live in peace and in harmony with God's Divine Will. Too many people—people in high places who could re-direct the course of the future—continue to make choices contrary to love. Therefore, the abyss between Heaven and earth widens."

"I come today to call each soul into the light of the truth. Allow Holy Love to illuminate your hearts. Come into the light."

"I have come especially to ask you to pray and make acts of reparation. Do this especially to and for the poor souls in Purgatory, for these are the souls that pass into the Fifth Chamber of Our United Hearts."

"I invite you to have courage when you return to your homes and points of origin to spread this message of Holy and Divine Love."

"We are blessing you with the Blessing of Our United Hearts."

August 7, 2002 /Public

"I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. As I drew in My last breath on the cross—My dying prayer—My last thought was for My Church upon earth. I knew the time would come when values would be so convoluted that good would be seen as evil, and evil as good. Those times are here now. I have confided to My Mother's Immaculate Heart, not only the peace of the world, but the victory of My Eucharistic Heart. It is through this victory that world peace will be realized. When you begin to see tabernacles restored to their rightful place in the Churches, and Eucharistic Adoration esteemed by all, you will know My victory is at hand."

"But first, the world must suffer great trials. Every evil must come to light; even in the Church itself, this is so. Continue devotion to the Holy Rosary, for it is the weapon that will ignite the Purifying Flame—the chain of events I now speak of."

"Make this known."

August 9, 2002 /Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

The Cure D' Ars, St. John Vianney is here. He says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"My brothers and sisters, when the Lord places a vocation in the heart, it is there forever. It is never lost, but it is betrayed. It is betrayed when the priest does not stay faithful to the Magisterium of the Church—when he is not devoted to the Holy Eucharist or to the Holy Madonna."

"Priests must persevere in these devotions and in obedience or else they will give in to doubts. Pray for all priests."

He blesses us.

August 12, 2002 /Monday United Hearts Confraternity Service

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: "Praise be to Jesus."

Jesus: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. My brothers and sisters, your efforts to live in Holy and Divine Love glorify Me. When you feel your feet slip from the path, you doubt or fear, call on My Mother PROTECTRESS of the FAITH, and She will restore your faith. She will place your feet firmly back upon the path of righteousness."

"Tonight We're blessing you with Our Blessing of the United Hearts."

Mary of Agreda comes and sits next to me. She says: "Praise be to Jesus. My sister, I have come to share with you certain things about the Blessed Virgin Mary—specifically, Her life of virtue, and how She most perfectly lived certain virtues."

"First, I invite you to understand that on the surface, She was much like you and I —unassuming, always happy to be in the background, ready to take on the lowliest task. The difference is She did everything to perfection. She perfectly fulfilled God's Divine Will because She wasn't a fallen creature."

"You (and me when I was alive) have trouble sometimes knowing God's Will. But Mary always made the perfect choices. She was childlike in simplicity, humble in Her bearing, trusting in Her nature. Though She was often overlooked for certain 'important' tasks, She was satisfied and accepting of this. The love She had for creatures was always based on Her profound love of God. She saw everything and everyone as God's creation."

"I will be coming to you now to describe Our Mother's life in certain virtues; I will come quietly and lovingly."

August 15, 2002 /Public

Mary of Agreda comes. She says: "Praise be to Jesus." I throw holy water on her. She smiles and vision brightens.

"I have come to speak to you about Mary's Glorious Assumption. Our Lady chose to undergo death although Her Son did not ask it of Her. As Her immaculate soul took leave of Her body, a bright light shone around the little house where She had been living. Many angels escorted Her soul into Heaven. Many more angels returned some time later with the sacred mission of escorting Her body to Heaven."

"As they moved through the heavens with Her pure and virginal body which lay resting in their arms, the firmaments parted. The Gates of Heaven opened. The spirit of St. Joseph called the angels through the Gates, and there in the presence of the Holy Trinity and all the Heavenly Court, Mary's body and soul were reunited."

"All of the angels fell prostrate in front of the Holy Trinity, and Mary, our Heavenly Mother, was seated on a throne in their midst. Her song of praise rose above all the rest—and to this day, still does."

August 16, 2002 /Public

"I am Michael, who stands before the Throne of God. All praise, honor and glory be to Jesus."

"We are attacked, but never defeated—under siege but always upheld. Though the smoke of Satan may rise as dense fog around us, my sword quickly cuts through it and purifies the air around the mission."

"Our enemies strengthen us as we combine our efforts to defeat them. Therefore, persecution turns to strength, lies accentuate the truth, and the false gives way to the genuine."

"My breastplate is Divine Love—my helmet the righteousness of the message. My sword is your surrender to God's Will."

August 16, 2002 /Public

Mary of Agreda comes. She says: "Praise be to Jesus. I have come to begin my discourse with you concerning the virtuous life of Mary, Queen of Heaven and earth."

"Because Our Lady was immaculately conceived, She was not of a fallen nature. Every virtue was perfect in Her and each one based on Holy Love which was Her very Heart."

"Through the deepest virtue of humility ever known to one of God's creatures, Mary always accepted God's Divine Will. This is made apparent in Her words to the Archangel Gabriel at the Annunciation: 'Be it done unto Me according to Thy Word'. Though She sorrowed many times, it was a sorrow that did not proceed from self-love. She sorrowed at the sight of sin in the world and at the sight of Her Son's suffering. She always preferred to be a loving support in the background."

"If the women in Her company began to gossip, Our Lady always found good to say about the person in question. She, in perfect humility, never argued to defend Her opinion, and never gave the least thought to others' opinions of Her. This is because She was humble in thought, word and deed."

"The world today should be consoled at the thought of such a loving, humble Mother up in Heaven."

August 16, 2002 /Public

Mary of Agreda comes. She says: "Praise be to Jesus. Dear little sister, it would be a mistake to compare what I revealed to you last night with what I had written when I was in the world. To do so would be to say one is right, the other wrong. Prophecy is never perfect. And so...accept what I have come to offer. For who is to say, perhaps you are a better recorder of facts than I was. Be humble enough to just pass on to the world what I reveal to you."

August 19, 2002 /Monday United Hearts Confraternity Service

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here. Their Hearts are exposed. Blessed Mother says: "Praise be to Jesus."

Jesus: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. My brothers and sisters, the more generous and forgiving you are to your neighbor, the more merciful and forgiving I am to you. Therefore, you have nothing to lose and everything to gain by living more deeply a life of Holy Love."

"Tonight We are blessing you with Our Blessing of the United Hearts."

August 22, 2002 /Public

"I am Mary of Agreda. Praise be to Jesus. I have come to describe to you the Coronation of Mary as Queen of Heaven and Earth."

"Our Lady was invited upon Her arrival in Heaven—Body and Soul—to be seated upon a magnificent Throne. She accepted only as She knew it pleased Her Beloved Son. Immediately, myriads of angels fell prostrate at Her Feet. The Most Blessed Holy Trinity placed themselves behind Her, though They were elevated a little higher than Mary. Mary was given this honor because the Love in Her Heart was always Holy and Perfect—She being immaculately conceived."

"She obeyed the Father as an obedient daughter. She cared for Her Son as only a loving Mother could. She was the humble, willing spouse of the Most Holy Spirit. Now and always, a bright Heavenly Light forms a Crown over Mary's Head. The Crown is the reward given to Mary as Mediatrix, Co-Redemptrix and Advocate."

August 23, 2002 /Friday Rosary Service

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here. Blessed Mother says: "Praise be to Jesus."

Jesus: "My brothers and sisters, if you desire to come deeper into My Heart, pray and ask for My assistance. I will help you to trustfully surrender to My call. Thus, when you trust more, you will be able to pass quickly through the Chambers of Our United Hearts."

"We're blessing you with the Blessing of Our United Hearts."

August 25, 2002 /Fourth Sunday Service to Pray for Unbelievers

Jesus is here. He says: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate."

"My brothers and sisters, everything that earth needs to move towards world peace is attainable through the resource of Heaven's grace. Alone, no good can be accomplished. It is when man trusts too much in himself that grace is withdrawn and the abyss between Heaven and earth begins to widen."

"And, so that all things might be in harmony with God's Divine Will, trust in God's Provision. Trust in Heaven's grace and you will be at peace."

"I'm extending to you the Blessing of My Sacred Heart."

August 26, 2002 /Monday United Hearts Confraternity Service

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: "Praise be to Jesus."

Jesus: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. My brothers and sisters, I desire to take each one of you into the depths of My Heart—into a happiness that you cannot buy and have never known in the world. But I can only do this if you surrender completely to Me your joys, your sorrows, your crosses—yes, and even your unforgiveness—most of all your unforgiveness, for that is what keeps you far from Me. My brothers and sisters, if you ask I will help you with this surrender."

"Tonight We impart to you the Blessing of Our United Hearts."

August 26, 2002 /Public

"I am Mary of Agreda. Praise be to Jesus. I have come that you might know the perfect composite of virtue that abides in the Immaculate Heart of Mary."

"Her Heart is perfect Holy Love. Since Her Love is perfect, every virtue is perfect. Since Our Lady's Heart is perfect in all virtue, She exemplifies the perfect balance between Holy Love and Holy Humility."

"The Holy Mother knew well Her humble place before Her Creator. She never presumed to be more than She was before the Eyes of God. In this, Mary's Heart was the simple reflection of truth."

"The Holy Mother gave Glory to God in everything—even the Cross itself."

August 30, 2002 /Public

St. Catherine of Sienna comes and sits in front of me. Then she stands and recites the Divine Praises. She says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"Dear child, listen to what I have come to say. The image that many and most have of Church officials today is not what it should be. Setting aside the recent scandals, the feeling that Diocesan authority evokes in hearts is one of control, reprimand and retaliation towards those who cross them. The Church should be like a loving parent figure—ready to listen, understand and support. Correction should be gentle and loving, not vindictive."

"Today—sadly, many in the Church do not lead in Holy Love, but rather rule with an iron fist. Further, there is a general spirit of denial which has become apparent in the scandals recently revealed—denial to the degree of not assuming responsibility for their own wrongdoing—denial in the sense of continuing to try to lead despite loss of credibility—denial in regards to Heavenly interventions in the form of apparitions."

"But, what no one can deny is their responsibility before God—their accountability to Jesus for their lives here in the world, and the fulfillment of their vocations given them."

"A dark curtain has fallen over the Church, sealing off the majority of Church leadership from the people, and from the movement of the Holy Spirit. This has been the choice of those who choose power and money over Holy Love."

"You will please make this known."

August 30, 2002 /Friday Rosary Service

Jesus is here with His Heart exposed. He says: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate."

"My brothers and sisters, pray always and plead for the grace that hearts which are convoluted, both in the world and in the Church itself, become converted in the TRUTH. The convoluted heart believes evil to be good, and good to be evil. It is a threat to security and to peace, and a threat to faith itself."

"My Mother is praying with you."

"Tonight I am blessing you with My Blessing of Divine Love."

August 31, 2002 /Saturday MSHL Rosary Service

Jesus is here with His Heart exposed. He says: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate."

"My brothers and sisters, the message of the Chambers of Our United Hearts is the path you must follow in order to be sanctified, and the path you must pursue for salvation—for no one enters the Kingdom outside of Holy Love."

"The message itself is like the staff that prods the wandering sheep back into the flock. But woe to those—woe to the ones who hear the message and refuse to believe, and do not accept it into their hearts. They are like the chaff that blows away in the wind."

"Tonight I am blessing you with My Blessing of Divine Love."

TESTIMONIAL

I was sitting in a tent with Fr. Frank Kenney, Maureen's spiritual director. I had my leg propped up because it was swollen and full of blood clots. I also had a pinched nerve in my spine for which the doctor was treating me with epidural treatments. He said that is all that could be done for me. I was told just to endure it.

Fr. Kenney noticed my distress and he placed the relic of the strand of Blessed Mother's hair on my ankle. Immediately my ankle became quite warm then very hot. I knew it was a healing because I have read about this.

When the rosary began, I saw flashes of light. Then the ground under me began to undulate like an earthquake. I thought I must check this out to make sure this is really happening. It was only happening to me when I looked around, no one else.

I did see my doctor after this. He knows my pain is gone in my back and the blood clots are gone. I have been most grateful ever since.

Jesus' Messages to the Remnant Faithful

The official publication of

MISSIONARY SERVANTS OF HOLY LOVE

September, 2002

We are an ecumenical ministry seeking personal holiness in and through the Message of Holy Love. We seek perfection through the Chambers of the United Hearts. We spread the Revelation of the Chambers of the United Hearts whenever and wherever we can, thus ushering in the triumphant victory of the United Hearts.

Blessed Mother's next promised midnight visit will be on the Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe.

We will gather on Wednesday, December 11 at 11:45 p.m. at the Field of the United Hearts.

See Page 5 (second column) for our Schedule of Services.

September 5, 2002 /Monthly Message to the Remnant Faithful

This message was given in multiple parts.

"I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. I have come to you to shepherd each and all into the Divine Will of My Father. For you, there is no other choice if you seek salvation. I tell you solemnly, the more the heart of the world moves counter to the Will of God—the more you will witness unnatural weather, hatred and violence—bizarre diseases and every type of economic crisis. The cities and empires that you build will not withstand that which the world rapidly moves towards."

"Therefore, I tell you, it is each one's duty to choose Holy Love in the present moment. Choose Holy Love for love's sake, not out of fear. Perfect love begets trust in Divine Providence. Trust does not know fear."

"Selfish love is the creation of pride. Selfish love creates a paganistic heart. Such a heart, in seeking its own advantage, abandons moral values in its quest for happiness. The result is every kind of convoluted thinking."

"In every present moment remember that Satan is the father of lies. He can even draw the holiest person off the path of righteousness by making evil to appear good. It is the wise heart that does not trust his own discernment, but wisely evaluates each decision with the measure of Holy Love."

"Once again I warn you that false gods—the gods of money, power, reputation and every form of sensuality—beget false virtue, false peace, and false security."

"But more insidious than any of these is the division Satan causes within My Remnant Faithful. You must understand that spiritual pride is Satan's weapon to divide and weaken My Remnant. No grace is given to you to destroy another's reputation. Therefore, do not judge in the name of discernment; nor should you flaunt any gift you may think you have. True gifts of the Spirit take root in the humble, loving heart."

"Many of My Remnant believe I am using them in certain instances when really they are being duped by Satan. The fruit their efforts bear is empty and false, just as the path they presume to follow is endless and without meaning."

"But you will not be tricked if all your gifts, all your efforts and the path you pursue begins and ends in Holy Love. I seek out the little souls that desire to remain hidden—that do not prefer the spotlight. To these I confide the innermost thoughts of My Heart. These souls are the strongest fiber of My Remnant Faithful. These are My prayer warriors, My victims of love."

"Please understand that it is adherence to Holy Love that allows each one to be part of My Remnant Faithful; for My Remnant is bound together with the living cord of Holy Love."

"If you give in to spiritual pride or spiritual envy (which invokes a mimicking spirit) you will surely slip from the grip of Holy Love. These two—spiritual pride and spiritual envy—leave division in their wake and have undermined some of My greatest works. A sign that those may be present in the heart is the soul's desire for self-importance—for recognition—for any gift he desires or presumes he has. This is the point at which the soul stops being My instrument and becomes Satan's tool. It is spiritual pride and spiritual envy that cause the misuse of genuine gifts."

"So you can see how the virtues of love and humility are important fibers, not only in every soul but in My Remnant Faithful as well."

"My brothers and sisters, today I come to inform you that each soul is given a moment of grace in which he knows in the depths of his heart that Holy Love is the path to salvation. He may not know it by name, but he understands the meaning of Holy Love in his heart."

"I'm blessing you with My Blessing of Divine Love."

September 6, 2002 /Conversation with Divine Love

"I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. Child, always seek to be the least in the eyes of men, and I will make you great in My Heart. Seek to be the least admired, the least regarded and sought after. Let all your gifts and good works be credited to the glory of God. Those that seek to be important in the world cannot be drawn into the deepest Chambers of the United Hearts."

“Do not, then, look for acknowledgment from men, but out of Holy Love seek only to please Me; nor should you be disheartened by criticism or opposition. See these as a sign that consciences which are in error feel the need to defend themselves in the face of this good Message.”

“Bring all decisions into the Light of My Heart and they will be made clear.”

“When you do not seek recognition in the world, I recognize you all the more as My apostle and servant. Then, all the more, I shower you with My grace for I cannot resist the humble heart.”

September 6, 2002 /Friday Rosary Service

Jesus is here with His Heart exposed. He says: “I am your Jesus, born Incarnate.”

“My brothers and sisters, My Divine Love and Divine Mercy transcend time and space to come to you to offer you entrance into the Chambers of Our United Hearts. As I have so lovingly and mercifully offered these Chambers to you, so you must go forward in the world and offer them to your brothers and sisters around you. I will refuse no one, even the hardest sinner if they would turn to Me with remorse.”

“And so, My brothers and sisters, tonight I bless you with My Blessing of Divine Love.”

September 7, 2002 /Public

“I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. Please realize in the depths of your heart that all sin proceeds from a proud heart. Pride is a disordered self-love. The soul chooses sin because he loves the sin more than God and neighbor. Sin is self-serving, you see.”

“The sins most prolific and wounding to My Heart of Love today are those sins against chastity, life and innocence. If all the sins of every generation were combined, the sins of this generation would still outnumber them. But My Love is patient and full of Mercy. I smile with favor upon My Remnant Faithful. They alone withstand My Wrath and hold back My Arm of Justice with the help of My Mother.”

“The Holy Mass and the Holy Rosary together hold a great impact on the scale of justice. Devotion to Our United Hearts is third in this order of power against evil. The spirituality of the Chambers of Our United Hearts is great enough to pull the world back onto the path of righteousness.”

“Therefore, along with the Rosary of the Unborn, propagate the little Chaplet of the United Hearts which will serve to lead many into the depths of these Chambers.”

“I will bless you.”

September 7, 2002 /Public

St. Thomas Aquinas comes. He recites the Divine Praises; then he says: “All praise be to Jesus.”

“I have come to ask those who hear these messages on the Chambers of the United Hearts to stop judging the messenger and to live the Message. Who among you, after all, deems himself worthy to receive such a Message. In truth, no one is worthy. Yet, this Message has been freely given to the world through God’s Love and Mercy. The choice He made as His messenger—though seemingly unlikely—nevertheless was God’s choice.”

“If you want to know the Heart of God, listen to and follow these messages that lead you into His Heart. If you wish to know how you will be judged for all eternity, read the messages. If you wish to become a saint, adhere to these messages until your heart is one with them.”

“No one can truly follow this spiritual journey without being drawn into the Divine Will of God, and without being drawn into a deeply sacramental life.”

“Look past any flaws you perceive in God’s choice as His messenger. After all, God cannot be mistaken. Look past the lack of high-powered approvals that, in truth, are not necessary for your belief in this Revelation. In the future when approvals come, you will have missed a golden opportunity to become holy—even a saint.”

September 8, 2002 /Liturgical Feast – Birth of Our Lady

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here. They are both in white with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: “Praise be to Jesus.”

Jesus: “I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. My brothers and sisters, today on the liturgical feast of My Mother’s birth, I invite you to see the difference between She who was conceived without sin and the proud and sinful man. The proud man trusts only in himself, his own opinions and his own judgments. He does not want God’s Will to interfere with his plans and agendas.”

“But My Mother who is the picture of humility and the essence of love, always remains in the background living God’s Will in the present moment, and perfectly executing it. Meditate on this in your own lives.”

“We’re blessing you with the Blessing of Our United Hearts.”

September 9, 2002 /Public

“I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. I have come so that you may know your greatest gift to Me is your trust in Me; for in your trust is your love for Me. The depth of your trust in Me is in direct proportion of the depth of your love of Me. Therefore, when you pray the little prayer—‘Jesus, I trust in You’—with profound love in your heart, My merciful gaze rests upon you. My Heart opens and the torrent of grace within It floods your soul. I can refuse no one My attentive gaze when they pray thus.”

“Please make this known.”

September 9, 2002 /Public

“I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. I have come to show you the wealth of meaning in the Scripture passages: ‘Perfect love casts out all fear’, and ‘Fear is useless—what is needed is trust’.”

“The relationship between love and trust is extraordinary. The more you know Me—My Heart, My Ways—the more you will love Me. The more you love Me, the more you will trust in Me. So then, when you face a difficulty beyond your own capabilities, instead of fearing the outcome, you will entrust it to My Care. You will trust Me—the One you love—to bring good of it.”

September 9, 2002 /Mon. United Hearts Confraternity Service

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here. Their Hearts are exposed. Our Lady is dressed as Our Lady of Fatima. She says: “Praise be to Jesus.”

Jesus: “I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. My brothers and sisters, today I have come to tell you that there is still time to make peace—peace that is firmly rooted in hearts—firmly rooted in Holy Love—peace that does not find its origin in fear.”

“Tonight, My brothers and sisters, we are blessing you with Our Blessing of the United Hearts.”

September 10, 2002 /Public

St. Pio of Pietrelcina comes. He says: "I believe in Jesus, born Incarnate. Praise be to Jesus."

"In truth I have come to tell you, Church leaders must not sit on the fence on major issues. To do so is to placate—not to lead. Jesus allows them their positions within the Church to lead His flock, not to make friends and influence people—nor to accumulate great sums of money. Every Church leader is responsible for the souls under his charge."

"You have my permission to make this known."

September 13, 2002 /Public

"I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. I wish to describe to you the Remnant Faithful. The true member of the Remnant Faithful is not defined by the time period in which the person lives. Rather, the Remnant is comprised of the ones who tenaciously persevere in the tradition of faith handed down through John Paul II."

"The Remnant Faithful does not accept birth control, euthanasia, married priests or women priests. The conscience of the Remnant Faithful is formed in the dogma of faith of the Church. Such a conscience does not oppose the Church teachings, holding his own opinion in supremacy over the Magisterium.

"So you see, the Remnant Faithful are defined by what they hold in their hearts. Make it known."

September 13, 2002 /Second Friday Rosary Service for Priests

Jesus is here with St. Padre Pio and St. John Vianney. They both say: "Praise be to Jesus."

Jesus says: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate." Jesus now greets the PRIESTS who are here and says: "I'm pleased to see so many of My brother priests here today. I invite them to come back often." (A private message was then given to Maureen.)

Jesus continues: "My dear brothers and sisters, I invite you to pray every day for your priests and your bishops, and ALL the Church Magisterium. You, My dear brothers, must cling tenaciously to your vocations. Realize that there is so much evil in the world, for there is so much evil in hearts. I desire that you cling fiercely to the Heart of My Mother. She will press your every need to Her Immaculate Heart."

"Tonight We are extending to you Our Priestly Blessings."

September 14, 2002 /Feast of TRIUMPH of the CROSS

Jesus is here with His Heart exposed. He says: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. My brothers and sisters, I have come to help you embrace your crosses. For it is in your embrace of the Cross that we are VICTORIOUS, both in hearts and in the world. I am opening a floodgate of graces onto the Mission, and into hearts, and into the world."

"And I am blessing you with My Blessing of Divine Love."

September 15, 2002 /Midnight Service at the Sorrowful Mother Shrine/Lake of Tears—Feasts of The Triumph of the Cross 9/14—The Sorrowful Mother 9/15

Message was given in multiple parts over the last two days.

Blessed Mother is here as Mary, Refuge of Holy Love. She says: "Praise be to Jesus. My dear children, please pray an 'Our Father' and 'All Glory Be' with Me so that evil that lies in hearts may be revealed."

"From the beginning of time God has foreseen the shadow of evil that would overtake hearts and the world if they did not choose the Divine Will. Each nation that has become hedonistic in the past has fallen to ruin. But your Nation today has become arrogant. Do not think that to unite against terrorism is enough—or the solution. You must be united in Holy Love. For only spiritual union can defeat this spiritual evil."

"Because of advances in communications, travel and weaponry, the most remote areas of the world are at your doorstep. Territories that are fought over on the other side of the globe yield a worldwide threat. Beliefs and ideals that promote hate and violence once seemed worlds away. Now, they are in your midst."

"Never has there been a more crucial hour in human history. Never has there been a greater need for conversion of hearts through Holy Love."

"It is not enough to rely on diplomacy or to amass great weapons. These rely on human effort and promote false security. You must put your trust in God through Holy Love. When you bring God into the equation, He will act on your behalf. He will thwart the enemies of those who trust in Him. He will bring true peace to your hearts and to the world."

"Today, My dear children, there is the threat of germ warfare and you fear the spread of certain diseases. But a greater threat than any disease that attacks your body is the spiritual disease that already is present in epidemic proportions. The symptoms of this disease are apathy, death of innocence, abortion and paganism. While this spiritual disease invades all walks of life—even the Church itself—it goes unchecked, destroying the soul's relationship with his Creator."

"But you can be inoculated against this deadly, spiritual disease—pray, fast, come close to My Beloved Son in the Eucharist. Then you will progress in trust and love, and the enemy of your soul will be warded off."

"I invite your country to unite once again under God. Put your trust in God. He will then be with you in every battle and through every conflict."

"Heaven is watching the unfolding of events in the troubled Middle East. Once again, I remind you that Satan is the father of lies. Do not believe in him. Sometimes it is necessary to choose the greater good—to lose some lives in battle in order to prevent the loss of many. Such was the case with St. Joan D'Arc."

"Be united under the Flag of Refuge of Holy Love. Your victory will then be sealed in Heaven and on earth. I continually intercede on behalf of your good president. To those who would oppose him because of the risk of loss of life, I say—oppose abortion, instead. This, too, is a battle. More Americans lose their lives on this battlefield than in any of your wars."

"I am taking the petitions in the hearts of those here tonight to Heaven with Me to present them to My Son."

"My dear, dear children, tonight I invite you to understand that the Refuge of My Immaculate Heart is your port in any storm. Tonight I am pressing all of your needs into My Heart. Come to Me, My children. When you return to your homes and points of origin, and you remember the miracles of this evening, remember the greatest miracle is the Message itself. Begin the journey through the Chambers of Our United Hearts. I love you, My dear children, and I am always with you."

"I'm blessing you with My Blessing of Holy Love."

September 16, 2002 /Mon. United Hearts Confraternity Service

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: "Praise be to Jesus."

Jesus: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. My brothers and sisters, thank you for persevering through the inclement weather Saturday evening. The heavy rain represented the torrent of tears that My Mother sheds for the unborn that are lost through abortion. It also represents the flood of grace that is coming into the world through this Mission.”

“Please make it known.”

“We’re blessing you tonight with Our Blessing of the United Hearts.”

September 19, 2002 /Conversation with Divine Love

“I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. I have come to help you realize that every victory that is won is accomplished through your surrender to the Divine Will; for without Me, you can do nothing—with Me—all things.”

“The greatest measure of My grace comes to those who trust. It is trustful surrender that enables Me to draw souls into the deepest Chambers of Our United Hearts.”

“Make it known.”

September 20, 2002 /Friday Rosary Service

Jesus is here with His Heart exposed. He says: “I am your Jesus, born Incarnate.”

“My brothers and sisters, I am pleased with the prayers that are offered here on this property. I am heartened by the love that is in your hearts. In order to strengthen you as a Remnant Faithful, My Mother will return to you just after 12:00 a.m. on December 12th once again this year. She will carry with Her a message for all the Remnant Faithful. You will be encouraged.”

“And so tonight, My brothers and sisters, I am blessing you with My Blessing of Divine Love.”

September 20, 2002 /Public

“I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. I have come that you might understand certain truths. Finding fault with others when it is not your position to do so is contrary to Holy Love. It is the path by which many find themselves in Purgatory.”

“But, if God places you in a position of authority and there is a need for correction, then this is a corporal work of mercy. Many times people are given certain insights into others’ defects simply so that they can pray for them. At other times the faults of others will need to be discussed with a sympathizer so that a path of action can be determined.”

“Thinking about flaws in others is sinful if it is not aimed at a solution. Speaking of others’ faults must be under the conditions I have stated.”

“Please make it known.”

September 21, 2002 /To the Confraternity

Our Lady comes with two angels. She bows towards the Blessed Sacrament. She says: “Praise be to Jesus. My dear little daughter, Jesus allows that I return to the property on our Feast Day, December 12th. At that time I will summon the Remnant Faithful and fortify them by means of My grace.”

“There are many threads that—woven together—comprise the Remnant, but the needle I am using is Holy and Divine Love. I am calling from out of the world all of the Confraternity of the United Hearts to meet at the property on December 11-12. I am calling them together to be united on this spiritual journey through the Chambers of Our United Hearts. We will have a spiritual retreat during which special talks will be given on this spiritual journey. This will be the first of many such spiritual revitalizations. Many graces will be given.”

“Bring My apostles to Me by means of this message. Make it known.”

September 21, 2002 /Public

“I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. You see My Heart all aglow. The Chambers are open now to all mankind—awaiting each one—inviting every soul along this spiritual journey that leads to union with the Divine Will.”

“Today, I come to tell you that to begin this journey is to embrace the Cross and to enter My Passion. But, even so, I am with you, sharing every affliction and every sorrow. In this shared suffering, every burden is lightened. I also share with each one who makes this journey, the glory of the Resurrection. Every victory is all the sweeter when shared with Me.”

“The ones who do not choose this spiritual journey often miss the glimpse of My victory, and allow the Cross to overshadow it. We must always make the journey into the Divine Will together. It is a call to grace.”

September 22, 2002 /4th Sun. Service to Pray for Unbelievers

Jesus is here with His Heart exposed. He says: “I am your Jesus, born Incarnate.”

“My brothers and sisters, do not allow the Holy Love in your hearts to grow stagnant. In every situation trust in My Provision, and My Mercy will fall upon you, both in victory and in defeat. I am always with you. Love Me and trust in Me.”

“I’m blessing you with My Blessing of Divine Love.”

September 22, 2002 /Public

St. Thomas Aquinas comes. He bows to the tabernacle saying: “Praise be to Jesus. I have come to help you understand the difference between presumption and hope. They are opposites.”

“Presumption takes for granted—grace. The presumptuous person thinks he has what he does not have. He does not allow in his heart space for the action of God’s Divine Will. He would be like a ship caught in a turbulent sea that thinks he is safely docked.”

“Hope, on the other hand, is a virtue that practices expectant faith. The hopeful person believes God can accomplish anything if it is His Will to do so. He entrusts his needs and petitions to the Lord, and allows Him to answer as He wills. In hope, he may even thank God ahead of time for whatever the Divine decision may be. The difference is—he does not presume the answer to his petition. His would be the ship lost at sea—praying with expectant faith to find a safe harbor.”

“It is quite important to realize that Satan can mimic any gift of the Holy Spirit. The presumptuous person believes every inspiration to be from God, and does not test the spirit. Remember, the only virtue Satan cannot imitate is humility, for he does not even understand it. So, in humility, be certain that you do not presume you have a certain gift or virtue.”

September 22, 2002 /Public

St. Thomas Aquinas comes. He bows towards me saying: “Praise be to Jesus ever present in your little heart when you are embracing Holy Love.”

“I have come once again to discuss with you the difference between hope and presumption.”

“The virtue of hope proceeds from a heart full of Holy Love, Holy Humility and Holy Trust. Such a heart is able to hope based on the faith that God desires only that which is best for him.”

“Presumption is based on pride. The presumptuous soul regards all things through the eyes of disordered self-love. He may presume he will be saved even though he leads an unrepentant life of sin. He believes he will receive salvation on his own terms, not God’s terms. Such a soul trusts only in himself and makes no allowance for God’s Will.”

“There are those in the world today—indeed in places of prominence—who believe they have certain virtues or even certain gifts of the Holy Spirit. But, once again I tell you that which is not based on humility of heart is Satan’s counterfeit.”

September 23, 2002 /Mon. United Hearts Confraternity Service

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: “Praise be to Jesus.”

Jesus: “I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. My brothers and sisters, cling always to the maxim of Holy Love in every difficulty and test—and most especially every victory, and give thanks for this Message. Allow it to consume your hearts.”

“We’re blessing you with the Blessing of Our United Hearts.”

September 25, 2002 /Public

St. Thomas Aquinas comes and says: “Praise be to Jesus.”

“I have come to help you better understand trustful surrender. Once again I remind you, humility and love are the foundation of trust. When you trust, you believe no harm will come to you outside of God’s Will. You understand God’s Will for you is always your salvation. When you surrender to God’s Will, this means you give up your will. So, in trustful surrender you trust that God’s Will is always for your best, and you surrender your wants and opinions concerning the outcome of any situation—that is, you leave it up to God.”

September 27, 2002 /Public

“I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. I seek each soul’s continual ‘yes’ to Holy and Divine Love. Once is not enough, for every soul faces his own imperfections from moment to moment. Self-knowledge is the enlightenment that turns the key to the doors of the Chambers of Our United Hearts. Self-surrender is the key—never clinging to your own desires, but trusting in My solutions.”

“Entering the Flame of Holy Love in My Mother’s Heart is the first step. It is then much is revealed to the soul—flaws he must overcome. The Flame of Holy Love gives way to the Flame of Divine Love as the soul cooperates with this grace of self-knowledge.”

September 30, 2002 /Mon. United Hearts Confraternity Service
Eve of Feast Day - St. Therese of the Child Jesus

Jesus, Blessed Mother and St. Therese are here. Blessed Mother says: “Praise be to Jesus.” St. Therese bows her head and says: “Praise be to Jesus.”

Jesus: “I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. My brothers and sisters, tomorrow you will celebrate the Feast of our great Saint of Love. I invite you to see and to understand in your hearts that her spiritual journey was complete because she gave completely of her free will, surrendering with all her heart to Holy Love. Tonight, I come seeking a similar surrender from each of you.”

“We’re blessing you with the Blessing of Our United Hearts.”

September 30, 2002 /Public

Mary of Agreda comes. She says: “Praise be to Jesus. My sister, take this down.”

“I am here to speak to you about the virtue of patience in the life of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Our Lady, who was perfect in every virtue, never allowed time to become Her enemy. In this way She never thought about the past in a negative context—nor did She worry over the future. This allowed Her to patiently live out the present moment in patience and humility. She did not consider how many times She performed a simple task in the past or how long She would need to wait for something in the future. She did not fault others for their sins—thus showing impatience with them. Instead, She prayed for them.”

“When She saw Her Son suffer She did not have a bitter Heart, but was patient with God’s Will for Her and Jesus in the present moment. She endured patiently every separation from Jesus—even His Ascent into Heaven.”

“Humility and love were the basis of Her patience, and they shone through Her like sun shines through crystal.”

“Imitate Her.”

TESTIMONIAL

I was diagnosed as having thyroid cancer in July 2002, after having a biopsy.

Prior to meeting with the surgeon, a very dear friend of mine gave me water from Maranatha Spring and Shrine along with rosaries that were taken to the Blessing Point.

Every day I blessed myself with the water and kept the rosaries with me at all times.

I was operated on in August 2002. After waiting seven days for the biopsy, the report showed that all tissues were benign and I was fine. There was absolutely no cancer.

I am thankful to God for my healing and thankful that he sent my friend to me. I believe there are angels on earth sent by God and I believe my friend is definitely one of them.

3 p.m. Divine Mercy Chaplet, United Hearts Chaplet, Spiritual Talk on Fourth and Fifth Chambers.

Never made a pilgrimage before? Check out our website (www.holylove.org) to help you with the preparation for your pilgrimage. Don't forget to bring your rosary, umbrella, flashlight, folding chair, camera, and water jugs so that you can bring home the miraculous water of Maranatha Spring. Make sure you wear warm clothing, comfortable shoes, or boots for inclement weather. We have many nice churches and restaurants nearby. Check those out on our website as well. We want your journey to be a pleasant one.

What should I do between scheduled prayer services and talks? Why not make a spiritual journey as described in Blessed Mother's following message.

December 12, 1999 /Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe Maureen Sweeney-Kyle's birthday (Visionary)

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here. Their Hearts are exposed. Blessed Mother is Refuge of Holy Love. She says: "Praised be Jesus." Jesus: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate."

Blessed Mother says: "Today I invite you to follow the Light of My Heart which is Holy Love, just as the shepherds followed the star to the manger. I will lead you to the Heart of My Son, which is Divine Love. Just as the Magi brought gold, frankincense and myrrh to the Infant Jesus, give Him your surrender - your surrender - your surrender. Just as Joseph and I had to flee with Jesus to Egypt, I will help you flee the Herod's of this world. The path of Holy and Divine Love is miraculous when you choose it."

"My daughter, the course of My Mission is going to change, for many will come to see the certain sign I left at the Lake of Tears last night. The face on My image there will be viewed by many (not all) as alive and vibrant - flesh-toned. This will be photographed; but when My children move close to the image it will appear as any statue; from a distance they will see My skin, which will draw them closer."

"Next year I will return to you on your birthday once again, but I do not reveal to you as yet if it will be a public visit, as was the case this year. Let My Call come deep into your heart and soul. Thank you for your obedience over this last year - your trust and your faith."

"There will be more miracles today and in the year ahead."

"Please understand, My children, that the layout of this property represents the soul's journey into holiness and Our United Hearts."

"The soul is first drawn into My Sorrowful and Immaculate Heart [represented at the Lake of Tears], where he is purged of many of his most flagrant faults. Then he travels along guided by the angels - as is represented on the property by the Lake of Angels. He receives many graces to move deeper into My Heart and into Divine Love, the Heart of My Son. This is represented by Maranatha Spring on the property. Finally, in conformity to the Divine Will of God, he arrives at the Field of Victory, Our United Hearts and the Triumph. Understand that every triumph and victory is surrounded by the Way of the Cross. And thus you have the back of the property - the Stations of the Cross."

"My dear children, come deep into Our Hearts as I am leading you - as My Son desires....."

REGULAR MONTHLY ROSARY SERVICES

Mondays, Fridays and Saturdays at 7 pm

Wednesdays and Thursdays at 7 pm (Vespers)

2nd and 4th Sundays at 3 pm

5th of the month: Noon Stations, 2 pm Rosary of Tears,
3 pm Chaplets and Rosary

The Blessing of the United Hearts, or Holy Love, or Divine Love are given at all Prayer Services and if you receive one of them, you receive the benefits of all. These powerful Blessings are transferable to others, by extending it vocally, or by prayerful intention. We extend it to you as you read this. PASS IT ON!

Jesus' Messages to the Remnant Faithful

The official publication of

MISSIONARY SERVANTS OF HOLY LOVE

October, 2002

We are an ecumenical ministry seeking personal holiness in and through the Message of Holy Love. We seek perfection through the Chambers of the United Hearts. We spread the Revelation of the Chambers of the United Hearts whenever and wherever we can, thus ushering in the triumphant victory of the United Hearts.

October 4, 2002 /Friday Rosary Service Feast of St. Francis of Assisi

Jesus is here with St. Francis. St. Francis says: "Praise be to Jesus."

Jesus: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. My brothers and sisters, I have come to help you realize it is often difficult, at best, to live in Holy Love; for the soul must lose himself in Holy Love, placing God and neighbor ahead of himself, as this Saint did. And, at the same time, he must get to know himself better, correcting areas that have become doors of temptation to his soul."

"And so, it is only through Heaven's grace you can progress through the Chambers of the United Hearts. Ask for Heaven's help and you will receive it."

"I'm blessing you tonight with My Blessing of Divine Love."

October 5, 2002 /Monthly Message to the Remnant Faithful This message was given in multiple parts.

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: "Praise be to Jesus."

Jesus: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. I have come to address My Remnant Faithful, for I know My sheep and My sheep know Me. You are the ones who tenaciously cling to the tradition of faith handed down through the ages in the face of compromise and deceit."

"Today, the future yawns before you. You must not be fooled by titles or positions of esteem in the eyes of the world, but always search out the truth. Satan, who was once waiting in the wings, is now on stage and accepting the accolades of many. He will rise to power in the name of peace, but his peace will be based on lies. Even many of My flock who have been faithful will be tricked into following him."

"This is why you must be cautious in every present moment. Base your decisions on Holy Love, for herein lies the truth and your eternal security."

"Some of My lambs will make decisions based on financial security. Whole nations will be led astray by this means. As My remnant, you must choose truth in the face of leaders who chase false promises. I tell you, the greatest threat today is Satan's action within hearts, for it is under the guise of good that he hides and accomplishes evil in the world. Just as he appears to be winning, the United Hearts will come in triumph, and evil will be confounded once again as in ages past."

"Satan thought himself victorious at My crucifixion, but was confounded when I rose from the dead. In this age he will be seated in power—but fall—when I return in glory and truth."

"In the future, My little lambs, you will need to cling to the truth of the tenets of your faith with courage—tenacious courage. Do not be discouraged by apostasy and heresy which will abound all about you. Realize that this is part of the Cross that My remnant is asked to carry. Prayer and sacrifice are the means by which you will find courage to accept your crosses. The Cross is My Victory."

"When you cooperate with the Cross, you are part of My Victory. It is only through the Cross that true victory comes."

"My brothers and sisters, it is true that you are living in the world during uncertain times. You do not know what God will require of you in the next present moment. But be assured of My Mother's assistance, for Her Immaculate Heart is the Refuge of the Remnant Faithful. Do not become fearful, then, but live in Faith, Hope and Love, and always trust. Seek your refuge in My Mother's Heart which is Holy Love."

"We're blessing you with the Blessing of Our United Hearts."

October 7, 2002 /Public

St. Thomas Aquinas comes. He bows before the tabernacle and says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"The Holy Mother has sent me to talk to you about the Rosary. Some people—even Church leaders—make light of it, you know. But the power of the Rosary has not changed over the centuries. If more would pray it, abortion would be recognized for what it is. The acceptance of abortion by any country's leaders places the country in jeopardy; for this sin alone brings about wars, natural disasters, political confusion and economic collapse."

"Devotion to the Holy Rosary places the soul under the Blessed Mother's protection—certainly a place anyone should seek to be during these times. Carrying the Rosary with you is a sign to Satan that you belong to Mary."

"Meditation upon the mysteries of the Rosary brings the soul closer to Jesus, and leads him away from sin. The Rosary is a decisive weapon against Satan's kingdom in this world."

"Once the soul begins daily recitation of the Rosary, the Blessed Mother pursues him—seeking his sanctity and deeper commitment to prayer."

"Make this known."

October 7, 2002 /Mon. United Hearts Confraternity Service Feast of The Most Holy Rosary

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. They are both in white and Blessed Mother has a beautiful luminous Rosary in Her Hands. They are both surrounded by the Rosary of the Unborn. Blessed Mother says: "Praise be to Jesus."

Jesus: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. My brothers and sisters, your nation's currency is as valuable as the gold that you have stored up in vaults. The value of your prayers, My brothers and sisters, is based on the amount of Holy Love that is stored in the vault of your heart. Remember this as you pray."

"We're blessing you with the Blessing of Our United Hearts."

October 11, 2002 /2nd Friday Rosary Service for Priests

St. John Vianney is here. He says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"My brothers and sisters, I desire that each of you make some small sacrifice daily for the conversion of priests and the Church hierarchy. Pray that they are always open to seeing their own weaknesses and shortcomings, and the areas of temptation where Satan enters. Pray and sacrifice that they receive strength through Heavenly grace to overcome these shortcomings."

"I'm extending to you my Priestly Blessing."

October 13, 2002 /2nd Sunday Service to Pray against Abortion Feast of Our Lady of Fatima

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother comes as Our Lady of Fatima. She says: "Praise be to Jesus."

Jesus: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. My brothers and sisters, when My Mother appeared in the world in 1917, abortion was not a legal option anywhere in the world. Through this message of Holy and Divine Love, you are required to oppose abortion both in hearts and in the world, for this is what living in Holy Love dictates. Pray against abortion, and pray for those who even consider it in their hearts."

"Today, We are extending to you the Blessing of Our United Hearts."

October 14, 2002 /Public

"I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. I have come to ask the Remnant Faithful to console Me where I reside in the tabernacles of the world. Console Me as I am maligned and ignored. Console Me as though you were present with Me in the Garden at Gethsemane. For when I suffered in the Garden, it was for the crumbling of the Church from within during these times."

"Faith crumbles because it is not based in Holy Love. The soul puts himself and his own opinions first. His faith is not grounded on rock, but on the sand of self-love. My Church is being stripped to its foundation, but I am the foundation and will not allow My Church to fall."

October 14, 2002 /Mon. United Hearts Confraternity Service

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: "Praise be to Jesus."

Jesus: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. My brothers and sisters, tonight I have come to remind you that as members of the Confraternity of the United Hearts, you have promised to embrace every cross and cherish every grace that God so deems to send you. It is in this way that you embrace and cherish the Divine Will of My Father."

"Make it known."

"We're blessing you with the Blessing of Our United Hearts."

October 16, 2002 /Public

St. Margaret Mary Alacoque comes. She says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"Child, once again I repeat and affirm what has been told to you before. True discernment comes to the humble and childlike heart. It is not given to the intellectually proud. In fact those who think they have discernment and take pride in it are most often brought low by their own mistakes. Discernment is not about just finding negatives and judging, but recognizing in the heart the spirit that is being dealt with."

October 16, 2002 /Feast of St. Margaret Mary Alacoque

When I entered the chapel the United Hearts came out of the Host and floated towards me. It actually seemed to envelope me and take my breath away. Then I saw St. Margaret Mary Alacoque standing in front of the United Hearts.

She says: "Praise be to Jesus. My little sister, years ago on my feast day, Jesus revealed to you the many Chambers in His Heart of Hearts. Today, I have come to help you understand that as the soul progresses through the Chambers, spiritual growth in each one is ongoing; for the soul can only advance as his depth of Holy Love deepens. He cannot embrace holiness or perfection in virtue unless he begins to love more.

"As the First Chamber is conversion and Holy Love, it is also the introduction and key to all the other Chambers which are Divine Love."

"Make it known."

October 16, 2002 /Public

"I am the Angel of Mercy and Love—the one who protects the Mission. Praise be to Jesus."

"Have I seen you before?"

"From a distance. I am Ezra. I have come to dictate this Prayer of Submission to Divine Love:

"Dear Jesus, pin my heart next to Your Most Sacred Heart on the Cross. Help me to die to the world as You did. Make my heart impervious to the arrows of slander and false accusations."

"Collect my heart and all its emotions and immerse it in the Flame of Divine Love—the Flame of Your Heart. There, protect me from the allurements of the world. Preserve in my heart all that is pleasing to You, and strike far from it any seduction of Satan. Amen."

"Repeat this prayer daily."

He leaves.

October 16, 2002 /Public

St. Martin de Porres comes. He says: "Praise be to Jesus. I have come to help you understand that discernment is not an intellectual gift, but a spiritual gift. The one that thinks discernment comes from the intellect has a spiritual illness. He is too dependent upon himself. Though the intellect may interplay with the spiritual in discerning, it is the spiritual enlightenment in the heart that discerns."

October 18, 2002 /Public

"I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. I have come to help you to see that your peace and security must not be in the world—that is, people, places or things. This is a false peace, for your enemies are capable of acquiring more power, more riches and more weapons than you."

"True peace can only be obtained in your efforts towards your own salvation, holiness and sanctification. It is then you are able to take up your rest in Me, and to trust in Me. Once again I remind you that the whole of your salvation rests upon the measure of Holy Love in your heart."

"Make it known."

October 18, 2002 /Public

As I was walking toward the chapel, Jesus and Mary greeted me on the path. Jesus said: "Look, Mother, I believe she is doing a good deed." Blessed Mother just smiled and nodded.

In the chapel Jesus appeared. He said: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. I desire you realize that no good deed, no charitable word or loving thought that is based on Holy Love goes unrewarded by Me. I never forget any thought, word or deed that comes from Holy Love. I store such as these in My Sacred Heart forever."

"When the soul comes to Me at judgment, I see all that he has accomplished in Holy Love, and all that he has not accomplished from a motive of love. His life is played back like a story book. All his sins were flaws in Holy Love. If he has sought My Mercy, they are forgiven and forgotten forever."

"But his loving accomplishments are remembered by Me for all eternity."

October 18, 2002 /Friday Rosary Service

Jesus is here with His Heart exposed. He says: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate."

"My brothers and sisters, tonight I am placing My Special Anointing upon this Mission, as it is about to move rapidly forward. It will become a strong beam in the support of the TRADITION OF FAITH, both in hearts, in the Church and in the world."

"I'm extending to you My Blessing of Divine Love."

October 21, 2002 /Mon. United Hearts Confraternity Service

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here. Their Hearts are exposed. Blessed Mother says: "Praise be to Jesus."

Jesus: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. My brothers and sisters, please understand that fear begets fear, trust begets trust. Beyond this, when you give in to temptations to fear as Satan would have it, a breach forms between your heart and Divine Love. I desire that you seek the refuge of My Mother's Immaculate Heart, and do not let Satan trouble you about what may be in the future. Trust Me."

"We're blessing you with Our Blessing of the United Hearts."

October 21, 2002 /Public

St. Thomas Aquinas comes. He says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"Let's talk about fear. If the heart is filled with Holy Love, there is no room for fear. Scripture has it: 'Do not fear; only believe.' (Mark 5). The depth with which one loves God is the depth of his trust. Then, see that imperfections in Holy Love open the door to fear."

"Today, those who depend on themselves and the world around them have every reason to fear—for of themselves they are capable of no good. Rather, all good comes from God. Souls that do not love deeply enough cannot understand the ways in which God answers prayers, and grow impatient in waiting for God's timing."

"The souls that do not pray and do not see God's hand in any turn of events are the ones who fear, who blame and who cannot forgive. Perhaps you have known some such as these."

"Therefore, understand everything in the spiritual realm revolves around the depth of Holy Love in the heart."

October 25, 2002 / Friday Rosary Service

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: "Praise be to Jesus."

Jesus: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate."

(They greet everyone here.)

Jesus says: "My brothers and sisters, come to understand that Holy Love is My grace in the present moment. The more you understand this, the more you will be able to live the Message of Holy Love in each present moment—therefore, being a more perfect instrument in My hands."

"Tonight We're blessing you with the Blessing of Our United Hearts."

October 26, 2002 /Public

"I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. Today, child, you see all of nature aflame with the colors of change. Let it be a reminder of the resplendent glory of the Flame of My Heart—Divine Love itself. For it is with this Flame I intend to change hearts and, so too, the world."

"As the leaves on the trees wither and die, let it be a sign to you that each and every soul is being invited into the deepest Chambers of My Heart; thereby, shedding the old ways of thinking, speaking and acting, and putting on the new."

"The trees themselves do not die, but remain as stark sentinels awaiting the spring and new growth. So too, hearts remain dormant that do not seek to grow deeper in Holy Love. When they choose to come deeper into Divine Love, I give them all they need to grow. Like the trees that await My assistance, souls must await the moment of My grace, and act upon it. My grace is the nourishment of every soul."

October 27, 2002 /4th Sunday Service to Pray for Unbelievers

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: "Praise be to Jesus."

Jesus: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. My brothers and sisters, abandon yourselves completely to Me, for this is the way to accept My Father's Will for you in every present moment. This is the building block and the foundation of your holiness in every present moment. It is in this way I call you to perfection."

"We're blessing you with the Blessing of Our United Hearts."

October 28, 2002 /Feast Day - Sts. Simon & Jude, Apostles

Sts. Simon and Jude come. They say: "Praise be to Jesus."

St. Jude has a dark complexion and is balding; he is holding some type of breastplate over his chest. They both have small flames over their heads.

St. Jude says: "There are many factors that make up courage. The soul must be deep in faith, hope and love, for these three beget trust. Trust bears the fruit of courage.”

“Make it known.”

October 28, 2002 / Mon. United Hearts Confraternity Service

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: “Praise be to Jesus.” There is a great light around them.

Jesus: “My brothers and sisters, I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. I have come today because I realize that the path I draw you upon is often discouraging. It is not smooth and without obstacles. It is often undulating and strewn with many deceits and pitfalls of the Adversary. But I am giving you the grace that you need to move forward. I desire your courageous prayers.”

“Tonight We are blessing you with the Blessing of Our United Hearts.”

THE IMMACULATE HEART OF MARY, JUNE 27-28.
MEET AT THE FIELD OF THE UNITED HEARTS ON JUNE 27 AT 11:30 PM.

November 1, 2002 /Friday Rosary Service Feast of All Saints

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with many saints— St. Pio of Pietrelcina, St. Agnes, St. Bernadette, St. Catherine of Sienna and others. They all say: "Praise be to Jesus" with the Blessed Mother.

Jesus: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. My brothers and sisters, your sanctification lies in the sincere pursuit of the journey through Our United Hearts. Do not be discouraged if you find yourself slipping backwards from one Chamber to another, for in the next moment you could advance rapidly into the Fifth Chamber. Ask for Heaven's assistance in this journey, for we are more than willing to assist."

"We're blessing you with the Blessing of Our United Hearts."

November 2, 2002 /Public

St. Thomas Aquinas comes. He says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"Little sister, hear and understand that the substance of what is in the spirit of the heart is always Holy and/or Divine Love; or it is all that opposes it. What opposes love of God and neighbor always is rooted in excessive love of self. The person gives in to temptations because he sees it will benefit him in some way. Therefore, he loves the sin more than God and neighbor, and he places himself first ahead of Holy Love."

"So, when you are asked to pray from the heart, you must pray with Holy Love in your heart."

"Make it known."

November 2, 2002

The Luminous Mysteries of the Rosary

Jesus says: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate."

Jesus then dictates meditations for the Luminous Mysteries.

THE LUMINOUS MYSTERIES

Baptism of Jesus

"When I was about to begin My public ministry I received a baptism in the river Jordan. The sky opened and the Holy Spirit descended upon Me. Today, the Heavens are opening once again. This time the Fire of Divine Love is pouring down upon earth seeking to engulf every heart with a Pentecost of Love. Each one should make it his personal mission to spread this Flame."

Wedding at Cana

"My Mother holds no petition in Her Heart that She does not turn over to Me and place in My Sacred Heart. In all things Mary is the Perfect Intercessor and Advocate. When the soul turns to Her with a need, She adds Her own prayer to it and gives it to Me. See this sign I worked at the wedding feast as a sign that Our Hearts are, indeed, united."

Proclamation of the Kingdom

"My Mercy and My Love are one; they are Divine, Perfect and Eternal. They never fail. The soul that trusts in My Love and Mercy is the one I am able to forgive. The Kingdom begins in every heart that begins to believe in My Love and Mercy. This is how a conversion of heart takes place. This is My Victory."

The Transfiguration

"The joy of the miracle of the Transfiguration took place so as to anchor the apostles in faith. At My Mother's authentic apparition sites, such as the one at Holy Love, miracles abound so as to support the Message that is given. Those who are bold enough to doubt a bodily apparition must wonder, then, at the account of the Transfiguration where Moses and Elijah appeared on either side of Me. Have faith!"

The Institution of the Eucharist

"I gave My Body and Blood in the first Eucharist, and I give them continually today in every Mass throughout the world. This sacrament is strength for the journey through the Chambers of Our United Hearts. Too often My Love and Mercy go unattended. I am ignored and set aside in Churches. I am blasphemed by those who receive Me unworthily. I am received lukewarmly by most, and even some priests. Pray this mystery in atonement to My Eucharistic Heart."

November 4, 2002 /Mon. United Hearts Confraternity Service

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: "Praise be to Jesus."

Jesus: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. My brothers and sisters, do not allow Satan to discourage you from your prayer and sacrifices. For it is by these means that I am able to extend grace into the world through the Heart of My Most Holy Mother.

Understand that My Victory is coming through Holy and Divine Love, and when I reign it will be with the Heart of My Mother beside Me and united to Me."

"We're blessing you with the Blessing of Our United Hearts."

November 5, 2002 /Monthly Message to the Remnant Faithful

This message was given in multiple parts.

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: "Praise be to Jesus." (Blessed Mother gave a personal message to Fr. Kenney.)

"I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. I have come once again to address My Remnant Faithful. Today, the woes of the world can be summed up in one word—greed. This greed is founded on selfishness—an inordinate self-love. I have come into the world at this site as Divine Love—My Mother as Holy Love. This Love is juxtaposed to greed which brings hatred and unforgiveness into the heart."

"The more the human heart is centered on self, the less he can surrender to Divine Love. The first step in surrender is to give up and give to Me all your wants. The second step is to give Me all your needs. The last step is to trust Me and My plans for you."

"But when you look at the problems of the world today, you can see that, for the most part, people and nations trust only in themselves and their human efforts. This is why there is an escalated arms race, an unequal distribution of resources, abortion and embryonic experimentation, and every possible sin against human decency."

"The world has not learned from its own history—that it cannot exist apart from God—that it cannot thrive outside of love. Indeed, earth is separating itself from the Divine, seemingly unaware of its dependence on the Divine Will."

"Today, I am lifting up My Remnant Faithful as an army of love. You are My prayer warriors and My brigade of victim souls. It is only by merit of your efforts that the Arm of Justice is withheld."

"The sacred journey of the Chambers of Our United Hearts has been reserved for this hour of tribulation; for this journey is the way out of violence, war and sin. This journey is the road to salvation, holiness, perfection and sanctity. I caution you, no one can make the journey without looking into his own heart. This is what holds many back."

"It is only by Divine Love and Divine Mercy that the world has not seen even greater chastisement than it has. It is the foolhardy that do not see that. Earth must hasten to her conversion through Holy Love. My Mother weeps bitter tears for lives that will be cut short because of hatred in hearts."

"In days to come the arrogant nation will be brought to its knees. What is hidden in darkness will be brought into the light. The just will cry out and be shown My Mercy. Indeed, the sun is setting on this age of hypocrisy, and rising on the age of truth."

"My dear Remnant Faithful, in you is My hope. In you rests the security and the peace of the world at large. I am depending upon, and relying upon your relentless prayers and sacrifices; for it is by this means I can extend grace—extraordinary grace—to souls and to the world—graces that can change history forever."

"I am asking you, My little lambs, to go amongst the wolves and propagate the Chambers of Our United Hearts. Do not fear the ways in which it is received. Some will accept it for what it is—the way of salvation, holiness and sanctity; others will doubt. Still others will reject what you offer completely. Do not lose heart. Persevere!"

"We extend to you the Blessing of Our United Hearts."

November 8, 2002 /Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here. He says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"My brothers and sisters, pray that all priests become detached from material goods, reputation and all worldly allurements. Let their only attachment be the Eucharistic Heart of Jesus. In this way their vocations will be safeguarded."

"I'm blessing you with my Priestly Blessing."

November 9, 2002 /Saturday MSHL Rosary Service

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here. Blessed Mother says: "Praise be to Jesus."

Jesus: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. My brothers and sisters, cling with all your might to the Divine Will of God in every present moment, for God brings good from every situation. Accept all this as from the Hand of God, for if it is not His Ordaining Will, it is His Permitting Will; and He will see you through every trial and every crisis."

"Tonight, My brothers and sisters, accept Our Blessing of the United Hearts."

November 10, 2002 /2nd Sunday Service to Pray against Abortion

Jesus is here with His Heart exposed. He says: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate."

"My brothers and sisters, do not allow Satan to rob you of the present moment by carrying you into the past. The past cannot be relived. All the grace of those present moments is gone. But now in every present moment surrender to Me everything, for this is simplicity itself, and this is the essence of Holy Love."

"I'm extending to you My Blessing of Divine Love."

November 11, 2002 /Public

Many times after saying the Chaplet of the United Hearts, I see the United Hearts with rose petals falling from them. This time during the vision I heard a voice say, "I am Yahweh. I Am Who Am. I tell you it is by means of this devotion the hardened heart can be made suppliant and touched by grace."

November 11, 2002 /Mon. United Hearts Confraternity Service

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: "Praise be to Jesus."

Jesus: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. My brothers and sisters, let My coming to you so often at this site be a certain sign of Heaven's favor and protection upon this property and this Mission. Understand that when you place God and neighbor ahead of yourselves, and Heaven's needs and your neighbor's needs ahead of your own needs, you progress rapidly through the Chambers of Our United Hearts."

"Make it known."

"We're blessing you with the Blessing of Our United Hearts."

November 11, 2002 /Public

St. Thomas Aquinas comes. He says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"I have come to help each one see that the true enemy is that which opposes Holy Love in the heart. It is always insidious—even clothed in righteousness at times. But the culprit is always self-interest, self-love—above and ahead of God and neighbor. It may come into the heart as negative criticism of others—soon spawning unforgiveness—then bitterness. Self-love invites the soul to criticize others thus holding himself up in higher esteem. It may be love of material goods, sensuality or even love of his own opinion that drives Holy Love from the heart."

"But where the cancer that consumes Holy Love begins is always inordinate self-love. This is why the conversion process always begins with loving God more than self. It is this love that opens the heart to the Flame of Holy Love."

November 13, 2002 /Public

St. Thomas Aquinas comes. He says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"Please understand, small one, Holy Love—that is, the Immaculate Heart of Mary—is the Gateway to the New Jerusalem. Then comprehend that the New Jerusalem is Divine Love—the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Divine Love—the Heart of our Savior—is the Kingdom to come."

"These truths remain far above you. Perhaps in this life you will never grasp it. When you pray for the Kingdom to come 'on earth as it is in Heaven', you are praying for each heart to come into Divine Love. Taking this one step further—Divine Love is oneness with the Divine Will of God. So the Kingdom to come is the establishment of the Divine Will of God reigning in every heart."

"Here is yet another precept. You cannot separate Divine Love from the Divine Will of God. That would be like trying to separate the white from the yolk after the egg is scrambled."

"The human heart that lives in concert with Divine Love spiritually is consumed by the Flame of Divine Love until they are one. Perhaps you could liken the notes of a symphony to the heart living in Divine Love. The whole orchestration is God's Will and it would be impossible to separate the notes from it."

"So, I have given you much to contemplate."

He blesses me and smiles.

November 15, 2002 /Friday Rosary Service

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: "Praise be to Jesus."

Jesus: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate." (Both Jesus and Blessed Mother nod toward the priest in the apparition room, and Jesus has His first two Fingers extended on His right Hand.)

Jesus: "My brothers and sisters, I have come to encourage you; for even as you embrace the Cross, grace surrounds each of you. Remember always that nothing happens outside of the Divine Will of God."

"We're extending to you the Blessing of Our United Hearts."

November 16, 2002 /Public

"I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. I invite each soul to see that their home is in Heaven; that is also where their heart should be. The soul is at peace that lives this way. It is in this attachment to eternal bliss that the soul begins his conformity, and then union with the Divine Will of God."

"The reason souls do not pursue such a sublime goal is spiritual blindness; that is, the soul does not see introspectively. He does not attempt to see his faults nor Satan's snares. He misses the grace of each present moment. He places himself above neighbor and ahead of God."

"Let My coming to you be a call to the world to analyze their own hearts by means of this Message."

November 22, 2002 /Public

"I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. I have come so that all may be reconciled in love, for I am the Perfection of Love."

"Please know and understand that no cross comes to a soul without the grace needed to embrace it. Indeed, every present moment carries with it the grace to be perfected in love. Just as the Cross is embraced by grace, hidden within many graces is the Cross. The two work together to help each soul towards his own sanctification."

"Make this known."

November 24, 2002 /4th Sunday Service to Pray for Unbelievers

Jesus is here with His Heart exposed. He says: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate."

"My brothers and sisters, thank you for your presence here today and for praying for the conversion of unbelievers. All I need to convert a soul is a movement of each soul's free will. If they but open the door to their heart a crack, I will enter and make every effort to set their hearts aflame with Divine Love. Continue to pray for this."

"I'm blessing you with My Blessing of Divine Love."

November 25, 2002 /Public

"I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. My brothers and sisters, when you gather around a bountiful table this week in thanksgiving, thank God first for helping you to forgive those in your life who have opposed you, accused you or otherwise injured you in any way. This is a great gift, for without forgiveness the soul cannot proceed deeper into the Chambers of Divine Love."

"When the illumination of conscience comes—as it will—each one will see clearly whom he must forgive, and unforgiveness will be seen as a huge barrier between the soul and God. Pray for the gift of forgiveness daily."

"I will bless you with My Blessing of Divine Love."

November 29, 2002 /Public

"I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. Once again I come seeking your cooperation in the conversion of each soul and every heart. Do not let Satan discourage you and cheat you out of precious prayers and sacrifices. He knows all too well the portal of each heart and the perilous times in which you live.”

“Turn to Me in trust and you will receive all the grace you need to help Me.”

“I will bless you with My Blessing of Divine Love.”

TESTIMONIAL

My friend and I arrived at the property for the December 12th prayer service. This was my third or fourth visit since 1996. In February, 1996, I had open-heart surgery to replace a heart valve. The surgery was unsuccessful and my health continued to deteriorate. My cardiologist advised me to have a second surgery to correct the first surgery. I was instructed not to fly, but I wanted to come to Holy Love. I decided to take my chances and fly. It was such a cold day and I was in a lot of pain. The volunteers were so wonderful in administering to my needs. I went into the hospital four days later for the corrective surgery. My family was crying and thought I was going to die, but this time the surgery was a huge success. My surgeon remarked, “It went the way all operations should go.” I felt like God carried me around on a pillow. I was released from the hospital in four days (as opposed to 12 days after the first surgery) and am doing very well. I walk one mile every day. I was able to come back to Holy Love in December, 1999, February and September, 2000.

While here, I took pictures with two hearts on it. My friends took pictures and it looks like rays coming from the hands of Jesus.

"I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. I come today to help you understand that My Sacred Heart and My Eucharistic Heart are One. Since My Eucharistic Sacred Heart is Divine Love, each time you receive this Sacred Species, you are receiving a little Spark of the Flame of Divine Love. How I desire to keep this Spark alive in each heart always!"

December 2, 2002 /Mon. United Hearts Confraternity Service

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here. Their Hearts are exposed. Blessed Mother says: "Praise be to Jesus."

Jesus: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. My brothers and sisters, the coming of My Kingdom will be the establishment of Divine Love in every heart. It is in this way that earth will conform to the Divine Will of My Heavenly Father."

"Make it known."

"We're extending to you the Blessing of Our United Hearts."

December 5, 2002 /Monthly Message to the Remnant Faithful
(This message was given in multiple parts.)

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here. Blessed Mother says: "Praise be to Jesus."

Jesus: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. I have come once again to strengthen and unite My Faithful Remnant. My Remnant will be as strong as the Holy Love in each one's heart. Holy Love is the winnowing fan in the hand of the harvesting angel which separates the wheat from the chaff. Do not concern yourselves with timetables of events. The Father alone knows the unfolding and realization of My return. Rather, in each present moment be My Faithful Remnant—living and spreading Holy and Divine Love."

"The closest any soul can come to Me is in the reception of the Holy Eucharist. Let every Mass be an advent then, in anticipation of My coming. Your perseverance in prayer and sacrifice has the power to defeat Satan and draw the human will back into harmony with the Divine. Never before in history has Heaven needed this cooperation between human effort and Heavenly grace as it does today. It is you—My Remnant—that holds back the Arm of Justice."

"My Remnant, all around you is fear and uncertainty. But to those who strive towards living in the present moment in Holy Love, God grants peace. Peace does not come to you through a person, but from God who bestows peace to the loving heart."

"Many favors have been granted at this site (Maranatha Spring and Shrine), and this will continue until My return. But today especially, clarity is being given to hearts that have been obscured by confusion, and solutions will be given to problems that have been rendered to prayer."

"Therefore, My brothers and sisters, today I invite you to see that your peace and reconciliation with God is through the living of the Holy Love Messages in every present moment. For this is your surrender to Me in thought, word and deed, and your surrender to the Divine Will of My Eternal Father. Lose sight of yourselves and live to be HOLY."

"We're blessing you with the Blessing of Our United Hearts."

December 6, 2002 /Friday Rosary Service

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here. Their Hearts are exposed. Blessed Mother says: "Praise be to Jesus."

Jesus: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. My brothers and sisters, as you await My arrival at Christmas, prepare your hearts as though they were the stable in Bethlehem. Place in your hearts many straws of sacrifices and prayers, rosaries and Masses. Then, step back as My Immaculate Mother did and the good St. Joseph, and await My arrival in the manger of your hearts."

"I will bless you, as now We are blessing you with the Blessing of Our United Hearts."

December 7, 2002

"I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. Thank you for loving Me enough to come here today (adoration)."

"My needs are simple. I need the love of each soul. Through this Holy and Divine Love will come the Victory; but before the Victory must come the surrender. I speak of the surrender of the human will to the Divine. Lack of peace—even war—is the consequence of lack of this surrender."

"Centuries ago and days before My Mother appeared to Juan Diego as Our Lady of Guadalupe, the Bishop was praying and agonizing over the bitterness between the Aztecs and the Christians. He prayed many hours for the miracle of the conversion of the pagan Aztecs. The miracle came in the image of Our Lady of Guadalupe."

"Today Heaven awaits the humble prayers of the Remnant. Many signs and miracles have been sent to earth—this time in an effort to convert those within the Church who are lukewarm, even apostates—this time to reconcile Christian and Muslim."

"I am asking My Remnant to pray long and hard that the signs Heaven sends evoke recognition and faith upon the Church hierarchy. Pray that Heavenly signs and communications fall upon accepting hearts. Pray for the conversion of the proud and cynical. If My own do not believe, how can those outside of My flock?"

December 8, 2002 /2nd Sunday Service to Pray against Abortion

Jesus is here with His Heart exposed. He says: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate."

"Today, once again I invite you into the Flame of My Heart—the Flame of Divine Love. Understand that when I was born, I came into the world in the poorest and humblest of conditions. And so today I invite you to pray for all expectant mothers, that they accept the conditions in which Providence has placed them, and that they trust in Heaven's provision in their every need. Thus, they will safeguard the life within them."

"Today I am extending to you My Blessing of Divine Love."

December 9, 2002 /Mon. United Hearts Confraternity Service

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: "Praise be to Jesus."

Jesus: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. My brothers and sisters, I welcome you here this evening, My Holy Remnant, and I desire to draw you deep into the Chambers of Divine Love where you will be transformed through the grace Heaven gives. Please understand that My Remnant is only as strong as you are holy. My brothers and sisters, I long to embrace you in the Fifth Chamber of Divine Love."

"We're blessing you with the Blessing of Our United Hearts."

December 12, 2002 /Midnight Rosary Service at the United Hearts Shrine - Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe

(This message was given in multiple parts.)

Blessed Mother is here as Our Lady of Guadalupe. She says: "Praise be to Jesus." Our Lady wishes Maureen a Happy Birthday—then says:

"My Son permits Me to bend towards earth once again—not to impose, but to invite. My Maternal Heart aches for the apathetic nature of mankind's relationship with his God. Today, money, power and technology have won the affection of hearts.

Understand that all these things come from God, but the ways in which they are used is determined by what value is held in the human heart."

"In this country technology is far advanced, but spirituality has not grown with it. The result is paganistic goals and use of science in ways that are not pleasing to My Son. I weep for the souls that slip to their perdition as they congratulate themselves on their cleverness."

"I would be remiss as your Heavenly Mother if I did not address the woeful situation within the Church itself. There are many in positions of prominence who should step aside. This is Satan's smoke that has risen to great heights within the hierarchy. My children, do not be confused. Keep your hearts centered on the Eucharistic Jesus—still ever present in the tabernacles of the world. He is not altered or changed by any scandal that rocks the human element of the Church. His Love and His Mercy reach from age to age. My Son has promised—the gates of hell shall not prevail against His Church. Therefore, have hope—have patience. Most of all, have love."

"I come to you to reconcile Muslim and Jew—Muslim and Christian—God and man. Beliefs based on hatred are from My Adversary. The final battle—Armageddon—will be waged between hatred and Holy Love. But the Victory will be won by Holy Love. My Son will triumph through Holy Love. Indeed, the heel that will crush the head of the serpent is Holy Love."

"Today, dear little children, you live in troubled times. Fallen angels are all around you, in all walks of life and according to God's Divine Plan. You do not see trials as liberation, just as you do not see freedom in the Cross. I have come so that you may be strong in acceptance of the Cross."

"Certain events will unfold in time which will usher in a new age of Holy and Divine Love. My dear children, you do not face this desperate hour alone, but safe in My Immaculate Heart—Refuge of Holy Love. It is here I shelter you, reveal certain dangers to you and console you."

"I have come to tell you that My Victory and My REMNANT will be bound with the same cord which is the CONFRATERNITY OF OUR UNITED HEARTS. The Eternal Father so deems that His lowly handmaid should share the VICTORY with Jesus King and Redeemer."

"Pray your rosaries often and with much love for this is the path that Satan cannot follow you upon. This is the path of love—the pursuit of salvation. My children, while there are many obstacles and perils around you, I have come to protect you in My Immaculate Heart, and to offer you hope and the Light of VICTORY."

"I am taking your petitions to Heaven with Me tonight, and I'm blessing you with My Blessing of Holy Love."

December 12, 2002

Blessed Mother is here. She says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"Ask the pilgrims to return tonight to the Lake of Tears at 8:00 p.m. St. Joseph, the Infant and I will impart a Special Blessing upon families. Ask them to pray the Chaplet of the Two Hearts."

She leaves.

December 12, 2002

Blessed Mother is here as Refuge of Holy Love. She says: "Praise be to Jesus."

“My dear Remnant Faithful, allow your hearts to be illuminated and transformed through the Message of Holy Love. Then you will fear nothing and you will pray unceasingly.”

“I am with you in every need, and blessing you with My Blessing of Holy Love.”

December 12, 2002 The Lake of Tears – 8:00 P.M.

Blessed Mother is here holding Baby Jesus. St. Joseph is standing next to Our Lady. She and St. Joseph both say: “Praise be to Jesus.”

Jesus says: “Carry the Confraternity into the heart of families.”

Then He blessed us with His little Fingers.

December 13, 2002 /2nd Friday Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here with two angels. He says: “Praise be to Jesus.”

“My brothers and sisters, tonight I request your prayers for all priests that they may sacrifice themselves for the holiness of others. Pray that priests are open to the truth which is the Divine Will of God.”

“And I’m extending to you tonight my Priestly Blessing.”

December 16, 2002 Mon. United Hearts Confraternity Service

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here. There are five angels surrounding them. Blessed Mother says: “Praise be to Jesus.”

Jesus: “I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. My brothers and sisters, I have come to help you realize that when you surrender your heart to Holy Love in the present moment, you are doing the most that you can in God’s Eyes towards completing My Victory. The love in your heart makes perfect your acts of contrition, your sacrifices, your rosaries and prayers—all your thoughts, words and deeds. For it is what is in your heart that makes worthy or unworthy the present moment in My Eyes.”

“We’re extending to you the Blessing of Our United Hearts.”

BLESSED MOTHER’S TREATISE TO HER REMNANT FAITHFUL AND THE CONFRATERNITY OF THE UNITED HEARTS

(Given by Blessed Mother to Maureen.)

Not Previously Published – Made Public on December 12.

October 9, 2002

Our Lady comes. She says: “Praise be to Jesus. Today, My messenger, we begin the task of pronouncing a treatise to My Remnant, and in particular the Confraternity of the United Hearts. It is through this Confraternity that I will weave together a strong vestment of traditional faithful. This vestment will withstand the wind of controversy, and the floods of compromise that have begun and will continue to sweep through the Church.”

“Because the Church was built on ‘rock’, it will not succumb. But for all intents and purposes, it will seem to crumble. There will be much confusion in the hearts of the leaders and in the laity, as well. Even now, it has begun.”

“It is the Confraternity that will lead souls on the sure path during this age of darkness which descends upon the Church. The spirituality of the Remnant will remain strong and uncompromised, for it will be protected in Our United Hearts. Faith will return as in ages past when the darkness is overcome.”

October 14, 2002

“I am Mary, Virgin Mother of God. Praise be to Jesus. I come to fill your heart and the world with My grace. I come to tighten the threads of the Remnant Faithful. I come to unite the Confraternity in Holy and Divine Love.”

“Please understand, My children, these perilous times in which you live, Satan is fighting his last battle. It is a decisive battle waged against Holy Love. The final victory will be a Victory of Love. But until the Triumph, My little ones will suffer much persecution. I speak not only of a persecution in the body, but in spirit, as well. In the spiritual battle which lies at hand, you will be able to persevere only through Holy Love.”

“Do not succumb to the lukewarm spirits around you; nor can you allow yourselves to be discouraged by the heresy and apostasy which abounds around you. You must be My warriors in this battle of good against evil. If you surrender to complacency or to popular opinion which may oppose Holy Love, you have chosen sides with My Adversary. Persevere, My children—be My martyrs of love.”

October 17, 2002

Our Lady comes as Refuge of Holy Love. She says: “Praise be to Jesus. My daughter, today in this present moment you feel the peace and security of My Heart. The time approaches when you and all those in the world will be challenged as never before. It will be a time of great perplexities, such as the world has never known. Plenty will give way to want. Necessities will be redefined. Economic systems will be extorted by those seeking power. More importantly, in this darkest of hours faith will be put to the test by My Adversary who will take religion into his own hands as a means of rising to power.”

“It is only through an outpouring of grace from your Heavenly Mother’s Heart that My children will be brought to safety. Through the grace of this Heavenly refuge, the impossible will be made possible.”

“Perhaps you see some of these signs I speak of as already in your midst. Perhaps you believe the darkest hour is at hand. I desire My children realize it is only beginning.”

“Let My Message of Holy Love be your mainstay. Let the certainty of the Refuge of Holy Love—My Immaculate Heart—undermine the enemy’s plans to unsettle your peace. Take refuge in the Holy Love Message, for this is the embrace of My Heart.”

“Today, I am raising up the Confraternity of Our United Hearts as a mighty army against Satan’s plans. In the end, love will be victorious.”

October 27, 2002

“Praise be to Jesus. My daughter, you recognize Me under this title ‘Protectress of the Faith’. It is by merit of this title—evil flees and the Tradition of Faith lies protected beneath My Mantle of Love.”

“Had your country abandoned itself to Me under this most powerful title, whole segments of her populace would have been saved and faith upheld. As it is, error has scattered the true Tradition of Faith to the four winds. Hypocrisy and heresy go unchecked.”

“But I have returned to you under this title of ‘Protectress of the Faith’, and I ask that you begin once again to propagate it. Essentially, it is approved by another Bishop in another country. I am inviting you not to await approvals from high places at this time. The trials are too profound and numerous against the faith. My little ones are overwhelmed with controversy.”

“I come that you might have this weapon—‘Mary Protectress of the Faith’—with which to wage war against the enemy who seeks to destroy your faith. Make it known.”

November 7, 2002

Our Lady comes framed in the Rosary of the Unborn. She says: “Praise be to Jesus.”

“Dear children, please understand I am here today much as I was at Fatima. The full energy of Heaven exhorts your prayers and sacrifices. When I appeared in Fatima the world was engaged in war. Today, My children, it is still so—and the war has intensified. It is fought in every human heart. It is the battle between good and evil. When evil wins over a heart, sin is the result. This is why you have abortion, terrorism and every form of human indecency.”

“The great apostasy of faith which I revealed to the children at Fatima is within the Church today. People that seek their own agenda were easily won over by My Adversary. The Holy Father who has already won the crown of sanctity suffers to a great degree. This apostasy, you see, reaches even the highest positions within the Church itself. So, My little children, understand that because this apostasy remains clothed in goodness, it is an even greater threat to the faithful.”

November 25, 2002

“Praise be to Jesus. My angel, this Message must be carried into the world. Historically, the Church has been slow to move on private revelation, apparitions and the like. Discernment is good and necessary, but it should not stand in the way of the genuine. The Church needs to be open to the positive aspects of such phenomena instead of groping to find the negative.”

“Many important events and revelations have been squelched and defeated by this attitude. One of these was My title ‘Protectress of the Faith’ which was so timely and necessary. This title carried with it the grace to overcome the crisis of faith your country now faces. Under this title I was ready to overcome Satan in hearts, in families, in communities and in the priesthood.”

“Now I come to you under a new title ‘Refuge of Holy Love’. My faithful children have the power to carry this title into the world along with the title ‘Protectress of the Faith’. Do so! When you repeat ‘Mary Protectress of the Faith’ and ‘Refuge of Holy Love’, the enemy will flee. It will be your spiritual refuge in the troubles which lie ahead.”

“Your enemy is not a certain maniacal dictator, but Satan himself who seeks to destroy this planet and all on it. Therefore, you need your Heavenly Mother’s protection. Do not wait for sanctions and approvals. There is not enough time. Spread this Message wherever you go.”

December 18, 2002

St. Catherine of Siena comes. She says: “Praise be to Jesus.”

“Please begin to understand that every good thing comes from love. God is Love. This is why Christ’s victory will be a Victory of Love.”

“Every effort to evangelize must arise from a heart filled with Holy Love. When others can see and feel your love, they begin to desire to be close to you and to be like you. This is how fruitful evangelization begins—with Holy Love.”

December 20, 2002 /Friday Rosary Service

Jesus is here. He says: “I am your Jesus, born Incarnate.”

“My brothers and sisters, the gift I offer you this Christmas is the grace to go into the Fifth Chamber of Divine Love—the Fifth Chamber of Our United Hearts. Your gift to Me is your surrender to this grace. I’m extending to you My Blessing of Divine Love.”

December 21, 2002

“I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. As each soul prepares the manger of his heart for My Birth, ask St. Joseph for his assistance. He so lovingly arranged the straw in that first manger. Ask him to help you construct the manger in your heart with the wood of Holy Love, and to fill it with the straw of humility.”

“The more this is so—the stronger My Presence in your heart on Christmas.”

December 22, 2002 /4th Sunday Service to Pray for Unbelievers

Jesus is here with His Heart exposed. He says: “I am your Jesus, born Incarnate.”

“My brothers and sisters, I have come to earth during these times and at this particular site to establish in each heart a new ARK—a refuge of Holy Love. It is in this way that My Father’s Kingdom of His Divine Will will be established in every heart, and My Victory will be complete.”

“I’m imparting to you My Blessing of Divine Love.”

December 23, 2002

“I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. I have come to establish the Kingdom of Divine Love in every heart—for this alone is the sum and total of My Life, Death and Resurrection. This will be My Victory and Triumph—that every heart discovers the Kingdom within. I came into the world through love. I will return through love.”

“See that My Father’s Will is fulfilled through surrender to Divine Love. The first three Chambers of My Heart are preparation for this victory.”

December 23, 2002 /Mon. United Hearts Confraternity Service

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed. Blessed Mother says: “Praise be to Jesus.”

Jesus: “I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. My brothers and sisters, as you prepare for the commemoration of My Birth in the manger, once again I ask you to surrender to My Father’s Divine Will. For this is Christmas—the true meaning of Christmas—the complete surrender to the Divine Will. For that night so long ago, the Divine Will was born Incarnate.”

“We’re extending to you tonight the Blessing of Our United Hearts.”

December 24, 2002

"I am your Jesus, born Incarnate."

"You ask in your heart how to explain to someone the process of surrender to the Divine Will. Here it is in a priceless nugget of truth. The soul must accept all things as from the Hand of God. What he cannot accept remains under the reign of his own will."

"Perhaps the reason God allows certain crosses is not apparent in this life. But My Father, who knows all things, sees the reason. It may be that a cross comes into a soul's life towards his own conversion or the conversion of a soul he does not even know. But My Father permits it in His great plan to share Heaven with everyone."

"I come to ask that all souls make of their hearts a little refuge of Holy Love. My Mother, in humility, would never ask this. I come on Her behalf petitioning each one to imitate Her Immaculate Heart through Holy Love. Make it known."

December 25, 2002

"I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. I desire you know that My Kingdom to come is Divine Love according to the Will of My Father. In this Divine Love, there is no half-truth, no partial surrender—indeed, no holding back in any portion. As I desire this Kingdom in every heart, ask for the grace to move towards My goal for you."

"Make it known."

December 27, 2002

"I am your Jesus, born Incarnate."

"Know and comprehend that it is the goal of the Confraternity and My goal, as well, to establish in each heart a Chamber of Holy Love. As the human heart is transformed into a refuge of Holy Love, My Victory draws nearer. Every heart transformed through Holy Love becomes a sanctuary of peace in turbulent times, and a part of My Victory."

"As the heart takes on the Heart of My Mother through Holy Love, it is no longer fearful of looking at its iniquity or of standing up for righteousness. As part of My Victory, each heart embraces the truth. Make this known."

December 27, 2002 /Friday Rosary Service

Jesus is here with His Heart exposed. He says: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate."

"My brothers and sisters, My Father's Divine Will is all around you, embracing you and awaiting your embrace. It is in the air you breathe, the prayers that you say, and He even permits—through His Will—the distractions that are in your heart according to your human weakness. Accept all things as from the Hand of My Father towards your own sanctification and those around you, for this is your surrender."

"I'm extending to you the Blessing of My Divine Love."

December 30, 2002

"I have come to you, your Jesus, born Incarnate. We are about to enter upon another year. During this coming year there will be wars on many fronts. But the greatest war continues to be the war that is waged in hearts. This is the war that generates war amongst people and nations if evil wins out."

"If hearts choose God and His commandments of love, you will have peace. It is for this reason Satan opposes these Messages with such vehemence and under the guise of good. He does not want the world to love, but to hate. The Adversary seeks your destruction."

"But I have come to you seeking your assistance. I need each one's cooperation with grace. Pray your rosaries and ask for peace in hearts. Make holy hours of reparation before My Real Presence."

"Here are the benefits of one holy hour well-made:"

"When you lay your petitions at the foot of the altar, angels carry them to Heaven."

"When you make a holy hour and then recite an Our Father, Hail Mary and All Glory Be for the intentions of the Holy Father, the punishment due your sins is remitted. Or, if you offer these same prayers, but give the graces earned to a poor soul in purgatory, he will be released."

"The practice of making a daily holy hour brings truth to light and scatters darkness."

"I draw into My Sacred Heart those who esteem My Real Presence. They will be drawn quickly through the Chambers of the United Hearts. I will convict their consciences, making it difficult for them to resist Me. Make these things known."

December 30, 2002 /Mon. United Hearts Confraternity Service

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here. Blessed Mother says: "Praise be to Jesus."

Jesus: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. My brothers and sisters, be strong enough spiritually to look into your own hearts and to discover your areas of weakness. If you cannot accept your own weakness and work to improve, you will never increase in holiness. For it is only in discovering where you need to improve that you can become more holy."

"This year coming, pray for the grace to be as holy as I desire you to be."

"We're blessing you with the Blessing of Our United Hearts."

December 31, 2002 /New Year's Eve Prayer Service

Jesus is here with His Heart exposed. He says: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate."

"During the year in which we are about to embark, I request that you resolve in your hearts, My brothers and sisters, to live in Holy Love. This will take much courage as you will need to go against popular opinion and the allurements of the world."

"But, if you are living in Holy Love which is the Will of My Heavenly Father, you will have the desire to be holy out of love for Me."

"Tonight I am blessing you with My Blessing of Divine Love."

TESTIMONIAL

My name is Janet T. and I live in Cincinnati. I am sending this picture to you to put in the books of testimonies. I came to Elyria to Maranatha Springs on December 11 and 12th of 2002 for the first time to honor the apparition and feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe. I came with my Aunt Shirley and her sister, Marilyn. We came to the apparition site at midnight and prayed together with all the others attending. Shortly before the apparition, my aunt and I saw like an aura around the statue of Mary. After we all knelt upon the appearance of Mary to Maureen, the lights began to move in and out of the people there. They appeared low and shooting and winding through the people. My aunt and I both witnessed this, however, Marilyn did not see any of this even though she was looking up and around her. After the rosary and the ending of the apparition, I decided to go up closer to the statues and take a picture of Jesus and Mary. I took one picture and decided to go all the way up to Mary's statue, as there were about 4 to 5 people standing there around it. As I stood right next to the statue on the left side, I could see that the statue was crying tears from the left eye only. I placed my hand on the statue and was overwhelmed by the experience. I then remembered that I was holding my camera and took several pictures of the statue of Mary. By this time, more people were coming up and it began to get crowded. Some were trying to wipe the tears and others were telling them not to touch the tears. More tears continued to come. I was standing at the left side only because others were in front of the statue. I was able to get the teardrop on Mary's chin better from the side view anyway. This all took place in the United Hearts field shortly after midnight. This is truly a holy place and I pray that many others will find their way to visit and experience the special healings and graces received to those who come and visit. I pray that this picture will touch the hearts of many who view it. Thank you and God bless the special efforts involved in this ministry.
