June 2015

March 25, 2005

Good Friday

"I am your Jesus, born Incarnate."

"On this day so many hundreds of years long past, salvation mounted the Cross. . . ."

"My consolation as I hung dying was the knowledge of the Divine Mercy devotion in these latter days, and the spread of the Confraternity of the United Hearts. The Confraternity opens the font of Divine Love that is My Heart for all to share. . .

The Confraternity of the United Hearts

"THE CONFRATERNITY CALLS ALL PEOPLE AND ALL NATIONS INTO OUR UNITED HEARTS"
Blessed Mother - September 16, 2003

"I desire that the entire Confraternity—the entire journey into Our United Hearts—be made ecumenical, uniting all people and all nations to Our United Hearts; for this a journey into personal holiness that all are called to. It is a path of salvation, unity and peace."

St. Joseph's Vestibule

"The Vestibule where I stand is a place of decision where the soul decides to either pass through the Doorway of God's Mercy or return to the world. The grace of conversion is given, but the decision is weighed on the scale of free will."

"If the soul accepts the grace of conversion and, with a repentant heart passes through the Doorway of Divine Mercy, he finds himself in the Immaculate Heart of the Virgin, therein to prosper in holiness."

- St. Joseph December 7, 2013

April 2, 2003

“At the beginning, the Will of My Father acts as a sieve - filtering out iniquity and self-will, and helping the soul to hang onto the Will of God. With each successive Chamber more of the soul's own will slips through the 'sieve', and more of the Divine Will fills the soul.”
