

Priests United in Holy and Divine Love

May 12, 2006

Second Friday Rosary Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here. He says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"My dear brothers and sisters, you must realize the woundedness of the Church today. She is weaker than she has ever been before. She has been overwhelmed by confusion. It is by prayer and sacrifice that the Holy Mother Church will be able to recover. But at the same time, you must pray and sacrifice for all priests, that they have contrite hearts themselves and turn to God's Mercy, for His Mercy will refuse no one with a contrite heart. We have much work to do. I will join you in prayer."

"I am your Jesus, born Incarnate."

"It is quite easy for My Priests, Bishops and even Cardinals to remain long years in Purgatory. They are given great responsibility in this world of leading the flock in the Faith. Some are no longer even Catholic. Their consciences become dull through self-love. They believe what is most advantageous to believe."

"You were asking about the element of time in Purgatory. As you know, there is no time or space in Heaven. But that is Heaven. Purgatory and Hell are still caught in the realm of earthly time. Eternity in Hell is an eternity. In Purgatory the hundreds of years souls say they spend there are hundreds of years. The souls are bound there by time until they are released to Heaven."

"These are some of the sins Priests, Bishops and Cardinals (even some Popes), suffer Purgatory for:"

"Sins of omission:"

"--not encouraging Adoration, the rosary and devotion to the saints, to their flock."

"--not preaching against all sin, and especially abortion. It is their job to uncover darkness."

"--not acknowledging the existence and activity of Satan--some do not even believe in him."

"--not encouraging the sacrament of Reconciliation and extending the hours it is available."

"--not preaching against sacrileges perpetrated against the Holy Eucharist."

"--preaching against, acting against reported apparitions, even though they have never been investigated and offer many fruits. They are, in many cases, making themselves the adversary of Heaven."

"--not wearing priestly garb in public. They are not called to blend in with the general population, but to stand out so that sinners can seek them out."

"A great sin of omission in the Church these days is the failure to deal with pedophilia as it should be dealt with. It is a grave sin. The perpetrators need to be relieved of their priestly duties, no matter their importance in the Church. To deny this truth is as serious as the sin of pedophilia itself."

"Up until this time, I have spoken strictly about sins of omission. Here are other ways in which men fail Me in their religious vocations."

"They put the focus on social justice instead of personal holiness. Personal holiness must be first. Social justice is a fruit of personal holiness. Some preach often on social justice but never virtues, holiness, prayer or the sacraments."

"Those who have authority in the Church should lead as the Good Shepherd--not as one in control--but as one who loves. Souls are being lost every present moment because of these sins I have stated. The ones who do not slip to their perdition spend long years in Purgatory. Many, many add hundreds of years onto their Purgatory as they have not taken their duties to heart, and have consequently misled a multitude."

"I know you fear making this public. You fear censure by the very ones I come to correct. But you must not hold back. To do so would greatly displease Me and may cost souls their salvation. Everyone, in humility, needs constructive criticism. This message is for those who stand to gain much. If they object to it, it is because they see themselves within these words. I give you Holy Boldness to release this publicly."

St. John Vianney is here and says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"My brothers and sisters, I have come to help all priests realize that the success of their vocation does not lie in intellectual prowess, but in their personal relationship with Jesus. The spirituality here (Maranatha Shrine) returns the soul to the Tradition of Faith. You must encourage it amongst the priests. Some will never see Heaven without it.

St. John Vianney is here and says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"I have come to tell each one of you that anything you do without love in your heart is wasted. Priests in particular must pray for love of prayer, sacrifice and penance, for this is the way of conversion for their flock that they have been entrusted with. Do not hesitate to ask me to intercede for you, whether you are a priest or lay person. This is a special grace to love penance, prayer and sacrifice. I will help you with it."

Feast of St. John Vianney
TO PRIESTS

St. John Vianney says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"Today on my feast day, I have come to remind all priests that their vocation is the salvation of the souls under their charge. Towards this end, they need to place the distribution of the sacraments as their first priority, making Mass, the Eucharist and Confession generously available. They must be just stewards of any and all funds that come their way--not neglecting the poor in their needs, nor treating the affluent with greater respect than the simplest and lowliest under their charge."

"Any activity which could lead to debauchery must be discouraged. In the same way, sin must be exposed for what it is. Bishops cannot be placated because of rank, but must be open to suggestions--even constructive criticism. Seek always the reconciliation between God and His people. As priests, do not neglect your own prayer lives. You cannot lead if you do not move forward yourself first. Above all, avoid sin of any kind so that your relationship with God is the best and strongest it can be."

"If you listen and act on the words I have given you today, your Confession lines will be long, your Masses overcrowded, and many vocations will blossom in your midst. Make it known."

St. John Vianney is here. He smiles at the priest who is present, and blesses him. He says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"My brothers and sisters, if you do not recognize the portal that Satan comes through to reach the inner recesses of your heart with his temptations--if you do not recognize the path he draws you upon with his evil inspirations--then you are giving him free reign in your hearts and in your lives. This is especially true of priests who are the most popular targets of evil. You must pray for the wisdom to recognize and to know the enemy; then you will be ready for his next attack, and he will not trip you up."

St. John Vianney is here. He says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"Tonight I come especially to remind the Church hierarchy that they are priests first, and then Bishops or Cardinals. Understanding this, they must protect the truth of the TRADITION OF FAITH and pass this on completely and without compromise to their flock, the priests and the laity. Please pray for this to become a reality in today's world."

St. John Vianney is here and says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"My brothers and sisters, all priests must come to realize that they must imitate their Savior Jesus Christ. In this way, they should sacrifice everything for the conversion of their flocks, holding nothing back. Then, when they stand before the Judgment Seat of God, the Guardian Angels of those whom they have helped to save, will stand next to them. Remember this always, and make it known."

Second Friday Rosary Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here. He says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"My brothers and sisters, it is of urgent importance that priests be given this message concerning the path of trustful surrender which leads to the Divine Will of the Heavenly Father; for it is they who are most under attack, most likely to be pulled from the path by Satan's designs. Pray that priests accept the path and stay upon it."

"I have come to remind all my priest brothers that trust draws upon God's Mercy; if they have repentant hearts, they will be filled with His forgiveness. They need to trust in this and turn to Him. Do not live in the past through guilt. Remain in the present."

Jesus and St. John Vianney are here. Jesus says: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate." St. John says: "Praise be to Jesus."

St. John: "We have come here together tonight to stress the importance of this message. No builder, no matter his skill or reputation, can successfully construct a building without a foundation."

Jesus: "Yes. And it is the same way in the spiritual life. No one can skip the foundation of humility and love through God's mercy and still be truly holy. Such supposed holiness is only surface deep and will collapse under the slightest stress. Therefore, even the greatest and most humble priest must first be humble and loving, and open to God's grace.. Jesus blesses us with His Blessing of Divine Love--St. John Vianney with his Priestly Blessing.

St. John Vianney is here and says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"My brothers and sisters, today I have come to help all priests realize they must be self-effacing; that is, in every present moment in thought, word and deed, they should not regard cost to self, but only think the cost of one soul and offer everything they can to bring souls into the Kingdom of the Divine Will."

Second Friday Rosary Service to Pray for Priests

Blessed Mother and St. John Vianney are here. Blessed Mother says: "Praise be to Jesus," as well as St. John. They both look at the Bishop, and St. John says: "Welcome," and extends his hand upwards with two fingers extended. And Our Lady says: "Thank you for living in Holy and Divine Love."

St. John says: "Today, my brothers and sisters, vocations are lost and paralyzed because they are not offered to the protection of the Holy Mother. It is She who protects vocations and strengthens them in graces and virtue. My brothers and sisters, priests should always encourage devotion to the holy rosary in their parishes, as well as to their fellow priests who have no use for the rosary."

St. John gives us his Priestly Blessing and Our Lady says: "I'm blessing you with My Blessing of Holy Love."

Jesus is here with His Heart exposed. He says: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate."

"My brothers and sisters, anyone who wishes to be holy and lead a holy life must always live in the truth. It is especially so of priests. Priests must be able to define the difference between good and evil by means of the truth of Holy Love. Tonight, My brothers and sisters, I'm asking you to live only in the truth so that I can use you more fully as instruments of Holy and Divine Love."

"I'm blessing you with the Complete Blessing of the United Hearts."

"I am your Jesus, born Incarnate."

"I am sending My Mother to you now to give you a series of messages to all the priests who follow this spirituality of the United Hearts. They will be united in spirit and answer My call to propagate this spiritual journey amongst their flock. They will have one heart, but be scattered throughout the world. They will win for Me many souls. I will call these priests--priests united in Holy and Divine Love. I will call all alike--Eastern Rite, Latin Rite and Orthodox."

Blessed Mother says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"My Son sends Me to unite the hearts of priests in the propagation of this spiritual journey through the United Hearts. I, Myself, am binding together those who will answer My call with My Rosary of the Unborn. I seek their fidelity to the basic journey shown to them in the Messages and their commitment to the propagation of the Messages and My Rosary of Life. They must be the light on the path for others to follow."

"As in any journey, the first step is the all-important one, for it entails the decision to take the journey. While this commitment must be renewed over and over, it is the first decision to enter My Immaculate Heart that purifies the soul and empowers him to persevere."

I am your Jesus, born Incarnate."

"As there are many priests coming here, both Orthodox and Roman Rite, I desire at this time to address them."

"My brothers, in this present moment, I desire that you rededicate your lives and your vocation. Consecrate yourselves to My Eucharistic Heart through the Immaculate Heart of My Mother. Then, through the Eucharistic Heart of your Lord and Savior, be consecrated to the Divine Will of the Eternal Father. Through this recommitment, you will live in Divine Love."

"Pray this:"

"My Jesus, Divine Good, accept my heart as Your instrument in the world through Holy Love, which is the Immaculate Heart of Mary. I consecrate my vocation in this present moment to Your Eucharistic Heart. I will dedicate my life to bringing the Holy Eucharist to those You lead me to, and to whom I am led."

"I desire union and faithfulness to the Will of the Eternal Father through consecration to Your Eucharistic Heart. Amen."

"My daughter, I desire that all priests receive and recite this prayer every day from the heart. It will strengthen vocations and boost sagging spirits."

"Dear Jesus, I place myself under the Complete Blessing of the United Hearts. With this Blessing, I desire a deep understanding of my faults. With your help, I will not defend myself, but by Your assistance, work to overcome every obstacle and weakness that holds me back on the path of holiness."

"Impress on my heart a great love for the virtues, most especially Holy Love and Holy Humility, so that every virtue can increase in me. I desire to be holy, and I desire sanctification by living in God's Divine Will. Amen."

"Priests who faithfully recite this prayer will receive My special protection over their vocations. By My Hand, they will be led to the Heart of the Paternal Father."

TO PRIESTS

"Blessed Mother says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"In order for My priest sons to advance in holiness, they must first, like anyone, discover what areas of their hearts are given over to inordinate self-love. These are the same areas where there is a lack of humility. The present moment will only be surrendered to personal holiness insofar as the soul is humble and loving."

"This is why self-knowledge is so vital to spiritual growth and a deeper journey into Our United Hearts. Unfortunately, some are misled to believe that their vocation in and of itself makes them holy. But I tell you, no one is exempt from making free-will choices to become more holy—most of all My priests. Therefore, self-knowledge should be welcomed—no matter the source."

"Child of Christ, here are some guidelines for priests—not only the ones who come here, but also the ones who are deciding about the Messages or the Confraternity."

1. "Frequent confession after much soul-searching."
2. "Pray for discernment. An opinion or a judgment is not discernment. Realize that today some dioceses are compromised by error—by liberalism."

3. "Use your guardian angel. Develop a love for this angel God has given you."
4. "Love the souls in your charge, and do all in your power to bring them to salvation."
5. "Be humble and childlike. Avoid intellectual pride. Give all credit to God from your heart."
6. "Pray for the Poor Souls. They have much power. Put them to use."

"If priests follow these guidelines, Jesus promises a strengthening of their vocations."

"My brothers and sisters, priests must not be pressured into honoring the dead as already reaching their sainthood. "These are the ones that pierce the heart of Our Savior over and over. These are the ones that He cannot bear to look upon. It begins with the priest trying to fit in with the secular society until he becomes more and more compromised and does not recognize sin in his own heart. Pray for these.”

Monthly Message to All People and Every Nation (... Includes message to Priests and Bishops)

“Once again I come to remind those who will listen, that to oppose this Mission of Holy Love is to oppose My Father’s Eternal Divine Will. The souls that do not understand this do not understand the two great commandments of love. You cannot oppose Holy Love and still think you are progressing in holiness. Do not confuse obedience with righteousness. I ask you to follow the truth in obedience.”

“In My Mercy, in My Love I have come to correct the conscience of those who oppose Heaven’s Mission here. Do not listen to those who say, ‘Jesus would never address hierarchy like that!’ If I do not correct, who will?”

“My brothers and sisters, those within authority freely give themselves license to cast aspersions and gossip about everything that goes on in this Mission, wasting the present moment, wasting precious time that could save souls. I corrected the Pharisees, and now I come to correct consciences here.”

“There is no disobedience here at Holy Love. The only disobedience is on the part of those who try to destroy innocent reputations, who try to discourage prayer and sacrifice. These are the ones that must repent. Do not doubt that I am here in your midst. Listen to My words! Act on My words!”

“Many priests, religious—even Bishops, even Cardinals—have compromised the Tradition of Faith. Their hearts are not centered on God but on self. They no longer work for Me but have become instruments of evil. The flames of perdition lick at their feet. Satan uses obedience as his weapon of control and power too often. Thus he has gained access to the heart of My Church. These truths need to be stated so that My innocent ones are not such easy prey to evil.

I desire that you trust priests, religious, Bishops and Cardinals who follow the Tradition of Faith—those who are close to the Eucharist, the Holy Rosary and personal holiness—those who are faithful to the Holy Father. Then you will be safe. These are the ones who recognize the intrinsic value of these Messages.”

“My brothers and sisters, while some caution you about accepting the truths of My Mission here, I, your Jesus, caution you about accepting innuendos just because they come from sources within the Diocese, who should be trustworthy. Many have let Me down—not fulfilling the positions Providence has placed them in—but protecting their own power and authority just as the Pharisees did. If I had waited for approval from the Pharisees, the entire gospel message would have been lost forever. Here, just as in My public life, I have come to proclaim the good news of living in the Will of My Father through Holy Love.”

“Today I am blessing you with My Blessing of Divine Love.”

“Tonight, once again, I invite all priests to realize that their function is to win souls to Christ. They await spirituality such as given here. But they are not fed. They are not at peace. They do not have sound leadership but leaders who block genuine apparitions such as this. [A personal Message was given to Maureen].

"My brothers and sisters, please realize, and I tell you this with great sadness , that many priests have betrayed their vocations due to allurements of the world and sin itself. Therefore, it is imperative that you pray for priests daily; sacrifice for them that they will be strengthened in the face of temptation. They must go back to simple lives and not be attracted to things of the world, power, money or control.

Public TO PRIESTS

Holy Thursday - A. M.

"Blessed Mother says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"My daughter, the holy priesthood has been the object of Satan's attacks for over a hundred years. While priests have always been his target, the attacks have never been so intense and diversified as in this last century."

"Many are the heretics and apostates amongst the priesthood. Sad to say, their opinions carry much weight in the world, for they are clothed exteriorly in righteousness; but God does not look at exteriors--He looks only at the heart. Having a vocation to the religious life is not your salvation; living in Holy Love is your salvation. Holy Love dictates that you live in the truth."

"Priests such as these--priests who have betrayed their vocations by living lies--have led many astray. Many are the souls that have fallen to their perdition because of liberalism and feminism within the Church."

Holy Thursday - P.M.

Jesus says: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate."

"I desire the people understand My Love and Mercy more. I do not measure failure; I count successes. I see very lovingly each moment that the soul gives his heart over to Me. I care deeply for such unselfishness that motivates frail human love. That is why I cry out in this age of self-centeredness. Because people place all their trust in human effort, I must step back and allow them to make free will mistakes."

"But I call out from the tabernacles of the world seeking your acknowledgment, if only a fond glance. Do not pander to title, money or love of reputation. Console Me and I will console you. Trust in Me and I will not fail you."

"Fill My Heart with your trust, for It feels empty without it. Together, you and I are all-powerful. Do not doubt it. Oh, if only the heart of the world would come to understand this! Love is the solution to the world's woes. Trust is the fruit of the love you have for Me."

NOVENA TO THE UNITED HEARTS FOR HOLINESS OF PRIESTS

St. John Vianney says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"My little daughter--child of God--I have been sent to dictate to you this novena for all priests. It is given to me at the command of the Eternal Now to be prayed for the strengthening of the Church from within through the intercession of the United Hearts. It will return many priests who are compromising their vocations to the path of righteousness--the path of Holy Love."

"Each day the following prayer should be recited:

[Prayer for each day:]

"I beseech You--Blessed United Hearts of the Most Holy Trinity, together with the Immaculate Heart of Mary--help me in all of my weaknesses and imperfections. Remind me always that my vocation is a gift from you. Assist me in being an image of Divine Love to all those I minister to. Give to me the gift of touching even the most hardened souls. Amen."

Day 1

"Through the intercession of the Immaculate Heart of Mary and the infinite power and grace of the United Hearts, I ask for the grace of desiring to be holy. Strengthen this desire in every present moment so that I can inspire deep personal holiness in those I minister to. Increase my love for you, dear United Hearts. Amen."

Day 2

"Most Holy United Hearts, through the intercession of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, help me to inspire those entrusted to my care with this desire towards personal holiness. Give me Holy Boldness to fill the hearts of my flock with this desire. Help me to inspire them by my own example. Amen."

Day 3

"Most Worthy United Hearts, through the intercession of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, never allow me to forget, that as a priest, it is my duty to make the sacraments available to my flock, for it is the sacraments [especially the Eucharist and Confession] that protect and encourage personal holiness, and which strengthen whole parishes. Knowing this, I must encourage frequent confession, as well as Eucharistic Adoration. I must never limit their availability out of selfish use of my own time. Help me, dear United Hearts, to place others' spiritual welfare ahead of my own ease. Amen."

Day 4

"Most Holy United Hearts, through the intercession of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, as a priest, help me to help my flock to grow in virtue, for the virtues are the building blocks of personal holiness. Help me, dear United Hearts, to educate my flock as to the importance of Holy Love in the present moment, for all virtue is based on Holy Love. Amen."

(On 5/20/09 St. John Vianney gave the following message and prayer for Day 5:)

St. John Vianney says: "Praise be to Jesus. Through the intercession of the Immaculate Heart of Mary and the United Hearts of the Holy Trinity, priests must pray to please God and live in harmony with the Will of God. This is the dictate of Holy Love--Holy Humility. These two virtues are companions; one cannot exist in the soul without the other. The depth of either is dependent upon the depth of the other. Each day priests are tested in these two virtues."

"Let this be the priests' prayer:"

Day 5

*"Through the intercession of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, * Most Holy United Hearts, let me not fail in any test of Holy Love or Holy Humility. I must realize that the test is the opportunity God gives me to practice every virtue. I pray to accept the graces I am given to succeed in every test. I pray to be able to teach others to do so. Amen."*

 Recite the prayer given to priests by Blessed Mother on Aug. 18, 2007.

Day 6

"Most Holy United Hearts, through the intercession of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, today I pray that any disordered desire to be popular with people be taken from my heart. I will not place love of money ahead of shepherding my flock. I will trust in God's Divine Provision. I pray for courage and Holy Boldness to speak out against all sin, even the sins that have been carried by Satan into the political arena, such as abortion, same sex marriage, euthanasia and embryonic stem cell research. Lord, give to me a righteous tongue. Amen."

Day 7

"Most Worthy United Hearts, through the intercession of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, as a priest, help me always to realize the value of self-effacement and poverty of spirit. Help me never to place myself first--my own needs or my own feelings. My personal holiness depends upon my efforts to place God and others first. Assist me, dear United Hearts, in detaching from the false gods of reputation, material gain and intellectual pride, for these are all doorways that liberalism uses to destroy vocations. I petition you, United Hearts, protect me from these traps. Amen."

Day 8

"Most Holy United Hearts, through the intercession of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, help me always to speak and to teach through the Spirit of Truth. In this age of compromise, I need your assistance in combating all heresy against the Tradition of Faith. Help me to stand firm in all that the Catechism teaches, and never to alter my views to please others. Amen."

Day 9

"All Worthy, All Loving United Hearts, through the intercession of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I, your faithful priest, beg your assistance in preparing my flock for the triumphant return of Jesus. I understand that Jesus' Victory will be a Victory of Holy and Divine Love. Assist me in any effort of propagating these messages of Holy and Divine Love, for I see they are scripturally sound and based on truth. I must encourage others to live in Holy Love, for this is the Gateway to the New Jerusalem, and the path of salvation. Safeguard my heart against discouragement. Fill me with Holy Boldness. Amen.

Public To Priests

St. John Vianney says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"I have come to help you understand the significance of this novena I just dictated to you. Encapsulated within these words is the directive to becoming a good priest. Such a priest places his own personal holiness and the holiness of his flock first. This is the embrace of Holy Love. The priest cannot do this with sincerity and still enjoy the roles of social director, financial director or embrace liberalism. Everything else becomes secondary, even miniscule, to his own journey in holiness and the holiness of all those in his charge."

"When Jesus looks into the heart of a priest, this is what He searches out. How many priests today live in such simplicity?"

Second Friday Rosary Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here and says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"My brothers and sisters, as the year of the Priesthood is about to begin under my patronage, I have come to ask that you multiply your prayers for holy priests. Priests can become holier if they perform a self-examination of conscience nightly. Then they will see the importance of the Sacrament of Penance, and they will promote it to their flock. Pray very hard, for priests are very much under attack on all sides. Tonight I'm extending to you my Priestly Blessing."

Thursday - Prayer for Priests

St. John Vianney is here and says: "Praise be to Jesus." [He raises up both hands like he's blessing the priests here.]

"My brothers and sisters, tonight these priests represent all priests to me. I desire all priests surrender their hearts totally and completely to the Chambers of the United Hearts. This is why I have come-- why Jesus has asked that this night [Thursday] be prayed for priests. It is through the United Hearts, priests, like all those who follow these Messages, will come deeper into holiness and can greatly assist the spirituality of their flock. Tonight I am blessing you with my Priestly Blessing."

Friday Rosary Service

St. John Vianney is here and says: "'Praise be to Jesus.' My brothers and sisters, each time before you begin to pray, recall in your heart how much God the Father loves you, that He gave His Only Begotten Son to be given up to death for you. Then recall how much Jesus loves you, that He surrendered everything on your behalf. Always return love to Him Who is All Love."

[The Cure motions toward the Crucifix.] "Priests should remind their flocks of these truths before they begin to pray. I'm imparting to you my Priestly Blessing."

Thursday - Prayer for Priests

St. John Vianney is here and says: "'Praise be to Jesus.' My brothers and sisters, I tell you solemnly that each priest has the solemn duty of speaking out against abortion to the general public. Not to do so offends God and causes many sins in the world that the priest is then responsible for. Do not let concerns for popularity, money or esteem keep you, my brother priests, from doing this."

"I'm imparting to you tonight my Priestly Blessing."

Public

Blessed Mother says: "Praise be to Jesus. My daughter, here now is the prayer I promised you to be prayed for priests detained in Purgatory."

"Dear Jesus, in Your Infinite Mercy, mitigate the sufferings of all Your priests detained in the prison of Purgatory. Relieve the pain of those priests who were unfaithful to their vocations; those priests who lost faith in Your Real Presence in the Holy Eucharist; those priests who did not encourage devotion to the Eucharist or frequent Confession. Quench with Your Divine Love the flames surrounding those priests who were priests only to serve self and not You, Jesus; those priests who adored power and control and who opposed the truth. Deliver all priests in Purgatory closer to the doorway to Heaven. Amen."

TO ALL PRIESTS

St. John Vianney says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"My brothers and sisters, as the Year of the Priesthood draws to a close, I have come to offer this parting advice to all priests":

'My brothers, be simple and holy. Do not forsake any part of your duty to the truth. Be loving shepherds - not quick to condemn the actions of the Holy Spirit within your flock, but always willing to carefully consider and listen. Encourage prayer and frequent confession. Encourage devotion to the Holy Eucharist. All of these bring about unity. Where there is disunity, there is Satan. Do not discount Satan's efforts to snatch souls away from salvation, for every soul is vulnerable. Encourage Holy Love, for Holy Love is the fulfillment of the law and the scale upon which each soul is weighed. Trust in God's Providing Will, and do not allow worry or avarice to consume your heart.'

"If you follow my instructions to you today, you will see God's grace take hold in your life. I am blessing you."

Wednesday Service - The Propagation of the Holy Love Messages and the Confraternity of the United Hearts

Feast of St. John Vianney

The Cure d' Ars is here and says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"Tonight I am speaking to my dear priest brothers whom I invoke - keep your hearts centered on what is above. [He points upward with his finger.]"

"Let your lives be centered on prayer and sacrifices especially the Holy Mass and the Holy Eucharist. Do not get caught up in trendy practices such as yoga or reiki for these are evil. Lead your flock in Holy Love and all arguments and dissension will disappear."

"I am imparting to you tonight my Priestly Blessing."

October 7, 2010

Thursday Service - Conversion of all Priests, Religious, Bishops and Cardinals that they are convicted in and live in the truth

St. John Vianney is here and says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"My brothers and sisters, all priests should have as their priority the administration of the sacraments to their flock, but second and also very important, is that they should be devoted to the holy rosary and spread this devotion. If priests would follow this agenda, there would be no bad priests."

"I'm extending to you my Priestly Blessing."

August 4, 2011

Feast of St. John Vianney

St. John Vianney says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"Today I have come to address all priests, Bishops and Cardinals. I bid them to humbly accept my advice. You, my dear brothers, have a great responsibility in the Eyes of God. When you come to your judgment, you will be held accountable for all the souls whose lives were touched by you - directly or indirectly. Woe to you if a soul in your charge was lost because of your indiscretions, false discernment or misguided priorities. Woe to you if you opposed prayer or placed love of money ahead of love of souls. Woe to you if you regard pomp above humility.

"Realize this and be loving, good shepherds."

"Always see the greatest good as the salvation of each soul. Pray and sacrifice for the salvation of your flock. Your prayers and sacrifices are like the sheep dogs of your flock - leading them in the way they should go. Every shepherd needs a good sheep dog."

"I warn you, my brothers, do not summarily dismiss my words to you today for shallow reasons; you don't like the way they came to you; they have not been endorsed by 'important' people or worst of all, you think they don't apply to you. Look for yourselves here in this message today. Pray for my help. I will give you the grace of self-knowledge passed down through our Mother's Heart."

Thursday Service - Conversion of Priests, Religious, Bishops and Cardinals that they are convicted in, and live in the truth

Feast of St. John Vianney (Cure of Ars)

St. John Vianney is here and says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"My brothers and sisters, tonight I have come to tell you that there are many vocations which die in the heart. These are good vocations, but they never come to fruition. Why? Because there is so much confusion and controversy in the Church today. Forgive my pragmatic comments, but this Ministry supports the TRUTH, does it not?"

"Tonight I'm imparting to you my Priestly Blessing."

May 9, 2012 – Public

"I am your Jesus, born Incarnate."

"I have come to describe to you the most desirable traits of a shepherd, be he a minister or clergy. The good shepherd is solicitous after the physical, spiritual and emotional well-being of his flock. He is open to the promptings of the Holy Spirit both in his own heart and in the hearts of those he is given to lead. The good shepherd prays for discernment of God's Will in all decisions. He has no hidden agenda towards personal gain, such as money, power or popularity."

"The good shepherd always supports the Truth. He does not embrace compromise of the Truth for any reason. He never forms opinions based on the opinions of others, but always bases his opinions on the Truth as inspired by the Spirit of the Truth."

"If these guidelines would only be followed with simplicity today, whole segments of society would be united to the Will of My Father. Rebellion would be overcome, and there would be peace."

August 4, 2012 – Feast of St. John Vianney

St. John Vianney says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"Priests these days need to reset their priorities. First of all, and tantamount to their vocation, is their own personal holiness. If they are not holy, how can they lead their flock along the path of holiness? Their vocation was given to them to save souls. Therefore, every priest must realize he is responsible for the salvation of every soul under his charge."

"The priest must not ignore his own personal prayer and sacrificial life. If he is committed to prayer and penance, he will be given Holy Wisdom to lead others. He will then minister the sacraments accordingly - using them as the powerful spiritual weapons that they are. He will be better able to instruct the faithful and guide them according to the laws of Holy Love."

TO PRIESTS ON 'DELIVERANCE'

St. John Vianney says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"Today I have come to speak to you specifically about deliverance. There is great need for this today, but not all are given this gift or are called to such a ministry. It is attractive to many through spiritual pride. Deliverance seems to carry with it the pride of being 'in the know' and above others in the spiritual realm. But, I tell you, just reading a book, hearing a talk or desiring to be in the deliverance ministry does not give you the gift of deliverance. Deliverance ministry is a gift from God. Many are thrown off track by those who claim to be deliverance ministers, but are really looking for self-importance."

"Those who really are called to the deliverance ministry are chosen by God to help others; not to be in the spotlight themselves. They are humble, self-effacing and not looking for identity through titles.

"Most priests have the gift of deliverance if they are living in the Truth of Holy Love. There are few lay people who really have such a gift - but there are many who think they do, and profess that they do. Be wary of anyone who proclaims that he has any gift."

"In short a deliverance ministry is more than reciting a formula prayer or placing a label of 'Deliverance Ministry' upon yourself. It is more than intellect. It is spiritual - an interaction between human and Divine. Never presume to be more than God chooses for you. Let God decide what gifts to give you."

January 11, 2013 – Public

St John Vianney - the Cure d' Ars says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"I have come to offer these prayers that every priest can recite daily towards healing and strengthening of his vocation. This is needed more today than ever before."

"Dear Jesus, I place all of these petitions on the Altar of Your Most Sacred Heart. Please look with favor upon them."

-- "Please strengthen my vocation by strengthening me morally and spiritually by living in uncompromised Truth."

-- "Please help me always to conform to the Will of God."

-- "Please help me to forgive all others, and to forgive myself of any wrongs I have committed against others."

-- "Please strip from me love of money, status or popularity."

-- "Please help me to forgive the misuse of authority, and do not allow me to misuse any authority I may have."

"Dear Jesus, please strengthen my vocation by walking closely with me in every circumstance. Increase in me every virtue through Holy Love. Open my heart to the Holy Spirit and help me to see His Actions in the hearts of others. Jesus, today I surrender my heart and my vocation to You. I am Your humble instrument."

January 19, 2013 – Public

St. John Vianney - the Cure d' Ars says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"Today I have come to ask the laity to pray for holy priests. Petition the Sacred Heart of Jesus in this way:"

"Dear Jesus, place all vocations and every priest in Your Most Sacred Heart. We pray:"

- "All priests value their vocation and pursue personal holiness by living in Holy Love and going deeper into the virtues."

- "Please strengthen the Tradition of Faith in all priests."

- "Protect Your priests from all scandal and exploitation."

- "Help Your priests to know their first obligation is to minister the Sacraments to the laity."

- "Strip Your priests of attachments to the world - all concerns for power, money, popularity or corporal desires - just as You, Jesus, were stripped at the Tenth Station of the Cross."

- "Bring all priests into the Divine Will of Your Father. Amen."

July 20, 2013 – Public

St. John Vianney says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"I have come, as Jesus sends me, to remind all priests that the fruit of their vocation is the salvation of souls. Therefore, their job is the distribution of the sacraments to their flock. It is not their calling to collect money, be popular or to transform their church from a religious sanctuary to a social club."

"Sin, Purgatory and Hell must be preached from the pulpit. It is doctrine. Abortion, same sex relationships and fetal stem cell research must be renounced. These are moral issues and should not cost any religious group a tax-free status."

"If the Church can grow up into what Jesus expects, it will thrive. But, if it cannot, it will continue to fragment."

September 3, 2013 – Feast of Mary, Mother of the Good Shepherd

Blessed Mother says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"I address now those who have pursued vocations in the priesthood or religious life. Remain faithful to your call to save souls. Do not redefine laws and doctrine to suit your personal agendas. Do not allow your hearts to become ambitious, turning your vocation into a career."

"God has not called you into your vocation to be important or to impress others. It is through you, God must shepherd those under your influence into the Truth. Educate in the Truth without an eye as to consequences to self."

"Bring God's Commandments to the forefront again. Be aware of the iniquity in your own hearts so that God can assist you to help others recognize their own iniquities. Lay bare the reality of sin."

"Follow My lead, and your vocation will be strengthened."

James 3:14-18

"But if you have bitter jealousy and selfish ambition in your hearts, do not boast and be false to the truth. This wisdom is not such as comes down from above, but is earthly, unspiritual, devilish. For where jealousy and selfish ambition exist, there will be disorder and every vile practice. But the wisdom from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, open to reason, full of mercy and good fruits, without uncertainty or insincerity. And the harvest of righteousness is sown in peace by those who make peace."

September 15, 2013 – Feast of Our Lady of Sorrows

To: PRIESTS

Our Lady comes as Our Lady of Sorrows. She says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"Today, on the Commemoration of My Sorrowful Heart, I have come to invite all clergy here to this site. You will feel My Presence and My Peace here apart from the confusion of the world. You must realize that Satan is the enemy of every vocation. He puts people in your life and creates situations which are great distractions. Place all of your spare time in My Immaculate Heart. Ask Me to protect your faith, your purity, your holiness - and I will."

"Your vocation comes from God and must be used by God for the salvation of souls, as well as your own soul. Amongst you there must be no jealousy, rivalry or ambition. Reveal sin for what it is. Your call is not to be popular but to stand for the Truth. Those who stand for the Truth must not be punished by those in authority. Reprisals are not part of Holy Love or of any vocation."

"Unite in the Truth and help Me to save souls. Daily examine your hearts. Ask Me to reveal to you any iniquity - any transgression against Holy Love. Always make the Sacraments your priority. Make them readily available to all. The numbers of penitents each week reflects the strength of your vocation."

"Do not look to please people above pleasing God. If you listen to My words today, your vocation will be under My Mantle of Protection and I will bless you."

September 16, 2013 – Public

TO: THE HIERARCHY

"I am your Jesus, born Incarnate."

"In the past, I have gingerly tiptoed around this topic due to sensitive egos; but, I must speak out. Souls slip to their perdition, for there is no introspection. I must tell you, and I speak to all Church hierarchy that title does not guarantee your salvation."

"All hierarchy, no matter their sect or affiliation, need to convey a loving concern for their flock. Control is not love. Do not hold yourselves above reproach and beyond error in every matter and all opinions. This is not part of the human condition. Understanding and open communication need to be your hallmarks."

"Do not resent or deny the power of the Holy Spirit in and amongst your flock. Acknowledge the inspirations of the Holy Spirit even in the humblest. If you are fortunate enough to have an apparition (which is a direct intervention from Heaven) in your diocese, pray for fair, open-minded discernment. Do not try to do everything in your power to squelch it. Pay attention to what Heaven asks. Be a follower, first, before you discern. Otherwise, you may rash judge and mislead many. You are responsible for many good prayers left unsaid if you mislead."

"Be open to My Constructive Criticism today. Do not allow Satan to discount this spiritual growth in your hearts. Lead with Holy Love. Do not mislead with your egos."

September 26, 2013 – Public

St. John Vianney, the Cure d' Ars says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"I have come to tell the world that Holy Love is the safeguard of vocations and, for that matter, all personal holiness. Vocations are vessels of grace, as is each soul that embraces Holy Love. When the virtue of Holy Love is transgressed, the doorway to evil is opened."

"Every soul has the solemn duty to uphold Holy Love in his heart, but this is especially true of a soul who has a religious vocation or who influences the souls of others. The evil one uses the defeat of Holy Love in hearts to gain a foothold in vocations and, therefore, his evil influence in the world."

"This is why you have so much opposition here."

"The Chambers of the United Hearts are a pathway of power and Satan's defeat."

November 7, 2013 – Public

St. John Vianney says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"The priest must realize that his vocation is to save souls - not to please people. Often, he must hurt egos by standing up for the Truth; but this is always towards the soul's salvation. Priests must never be at odds with what Heaven desires in favor of what man wants. Any power or authority given over to a priest must be used towards the welfare of souls, not towards any self-advantage or popularity."

"Truth must not be a commodity of convenience. Faith and Truth cannot coincide with compromise. There can be no gray lines where Faith and Truth are concerned. Respect of authority also means holding authority accountable to the Truth."

November 10, 2013 – Public

"I am your Jesus, born Incarnate."

"Today, I have come to help you understand the difference between conservative and liberal faith."

Jesus states:

Conservative:

- Uses authority to lovingly shepherd and guide.
- Upholds Truth no matter the consequences.
- Outlines sin and its consequences openly and clearly.
- Upholds Dogma & Doctrine.
- Forms conscience in righteousness according to the Tradition of Faith, and thus makes sound decisions as to good versus evil.
- Believes in Satan's actions to destroy souls and seeks God's Protection.

Liberal:

- Abuses authority to own advantage without regard to salvation of souls.
- Compromises Truth to suit personal gain or agenda.
- Portrays sin as 'gray areas' of behavior thus causing confusion.
- Challenges Dogma & Doctrine.
- Loosely formed conscience based solely on free will choices.
- Does not allow Tradition of Faith to determine good or evil. Thinks his conscience is the ultimate reference.

-May not even believe in Satan or Hell.

"It is important that people realize these differences and choose accordingly."

St. John Vianney, the Cure d'Ars comes. He says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"I know this Ministry is ecumenical - open to all people and all nations. Understand that Catholics can be ecumenical, as well. This is a murky point, at best, in many hearts. But today, I come to speak specifically to parish priests since I am their patron.*

"Understand, my brothers, that you are a priest, not for yourselves, but for all others. Your vocation is a gift from God towards saving souls including your own. As such, your focus needs to be on taking the sacraments to the people. Do not let your hearts be focused on friendships, gratuities or frivolous concerns of the world. Do not love money or popularity. If you are called to any rank, do not be consumed with love of power. Do not rule, but shepherd - without a bent towards control, but to lead to salvation. Never discourage prayer, especially the prayer of the Holy Rosary. Build up, do not tear down the Kingdom of God."

"Your own hearts must be well-formed in Tradition and centered upon the Real Presence in the Holy Eucharist. Spend time with Jesus. Allow Him to be your Confidante and your All."

"God has given you souls to lead to salvation. Take this call seriously. God holds you accountable, not just for your own salvation, but for what you do - or do not do - to lead others. Define sin as sin from the pulpit, even if these sins have become political issues. Call all people to live the Ten Commandments. Take the education of your charges seriously - more seriously than income or esteem."

"Finally, be responsible for feeding your flock with the Truth."

* During the Year of Priests (2010), Pope Benedict XVI declared St. John Vianney to be patron of all priests (parish & religious).

St. Thomas Aquinas says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"I have come to help all to see that Holy Love and the Truth are always together. When Truth is compromised, it is always an occasion of sin and, therefore, in opposition to Holy Love."

"Truth is the basis of Holy Love. Deception is founded on disordered self-love. If the heart is compliant with God's Will, which is Holy Love, it follows that thought, word and deed will be truthful."

"When priests do not preach against sin, by omission they are misleading their flock and promoting untruth. This is the bad fruit of the desire for popularity. But how do you prosper if your pews are full and your coffers overflowing when your flock is not spiritually healthy? Recognize your call to save souls by leading your flock in the Truth."

"Every soul has the responsibility to live in the Truth of Holy Love."

TO ALL CLERGY FROM ST. JOHN VIANNEY, THE CURE D'ARS

Introduction to Remonstrations to All Clergy

"St. John Vianney, the Cure D'Ars says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"My brothers, I come to you by command of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. I carry to your hearts loving and constructive criticism. Constructive criticism builds up, strengthens and, if well received, never tears down."

"If you take offense at my words, it is you who most need correction. I do not come with any inclination to suppress the Truth, but, rather, to lay bare the Light of Truth."

"Recognize the Spirit of Truth in what I am sent to say."

Daily Prayer

"Dear Jesus, help me to remember that my vocation must be based upon Holy Love. This will be the protection and strength I need to be holy, for I know my vocation is only as strong as I am holy. Help me, dear Jesus, to be selfless in the use of my time and always solicitous after the spiritual needs of my flock. Give me courage to proclaim the difference between good and evil. Never allow me to abuse my authority or to compromise the Truth. Assist me in seeing You in every soul."

"Encourage me to pray when I am weary - to love when I feel no love and to open my heart to the spiritual needs of others always. Amen."

1st Remonstrations

"My brothers, Heaven is not blind to the good you are accomplishing and the spiritual progress you are making with some souls and in some Dioceses. At the same time, the evil hand in the midst of you is also witnessed by Jesus and His Mother."

"You may shrink at these words and see them as divisive. But, in fact, these words must inspire you to look within your hearts and your ranks to eradicate sin and error. I remind you, you are not infallible. It is only through a cleansing of your iniquities you can best fulfill your vocations; each of you. Then you will be strengthened and your vocations will be more secure."

"First and foremost, you must define sin clearly from the pulpit. Do not try to compromise any sin to appease or to accommodate any one person or special interest group."

"Do not suppress the Truth - not to gain or maintain power or elite authority, reputation or economic advantage."

"Do not regard your vocation as some regard a secular career. Do not be jockeying in position to gain favor or higher status, thus disregarding the foundation of your vocation - the salvation of souls."

"Do not ever engage in sexual activity thus destroying your own soul and others. This is an evil spirit; the spirit of homosexuality and lust."

"I am closing for now. Jesus will ask me to return with much more."

Read 1 Timothy 6: 11-18

"But as for you, man of God, shun all this; aim at righteousness, godliness, faith, love, steadfastness, gentleness. Fight the good fight of the faith; take hold of the eternal life to which you were called when you made the good confession in the presence of many witnesses. In the presence of God who gives life to all things, and of Christ Jesus who in His testimony before Pontius Pilate made the good confession, I charge you to keep the commandment unstained and free from reproach until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ; and this will be made manifest at the proper time by the blessed and only Sovereign, the King of kings and Lord of lords, who alone has immortality and dwells in unapproachable light, whom no man has ever seen or can see. To Him be honor and eternal dominion. Amen."

2nd Remonstrations

"My brothers, guard against being offended by or blind to this constructive criticism. Jesus sends me to you to strengthen your hearts and vocations for days ahead. Do not discount what I say by reproving the source. I tell you solemnly, it is I who come to speak - the Cure D'Ars."

"If you are given the grace of a heavenly apparition in your Diocese or given charge of reviewing such a spiritual phenomenon, you have the solemn obligation to regard this with an open heart. So many, so many have been suppressed and the graces attendant to them left unattended. These heavenly apparitions and messages too often are regarded as interference and competition by the local ordinary. Consequently, every visible and invisible step is taken to discredit the visions and the visionary."

"If an 'investigation' is done, it is very often not done with the honest motive of discovering the Truth, but rather with the hidden motive of going through the motions of investigating in order to claim Heaven's grace as unauthentic."

"Further, to say there is nothing super-natural going on is never true anywhere. The Holy Spirit and Satan do battle in every present moment, everywhere, in each soul to gain a dominance."

"Heaven acts as It will. No one can dictate when or where Heaven will speak or for how long. Perhaps this is the point most difficult for hierarchy to accept. In fact, I know it is. You do not have control over what Heaven will say or do. You do not Trust Heaven to strengthen you and the laity. You try to limit the Holy Spirit."

"Pray for the humility of heart to accept what I am telling you today."

Read Ephesians 4: 10-16

"He who descended is He who also ascended far above all the heavens, that He might fill all things. And His gifts were that some should be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, some pastors and teachers, for the equipment of the saints, for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ, until we all attain to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to mature manhood, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ; so that we may no longer be children, tossed to and fro and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the cunning of men, by their craftiness in deceitful wiles. Rather, speaking the Truth in love, we are to grow up in every way into Him who is the head, into Christ, from whom the whole body, joined and knit together by every joint with which it is supplied, when each part is working properly, makes bodily growth and upbuilds itself in love."

Read 1 Thessalonians 5: 19

"Do not quench the Spirit."

3rd Remonstrations

"Today, I remind the hierarchy that they are priests first, then Bishops and Cardinals. All priests must work on their personal holiness. There is no holiness outside of Holy Love. They must be examples of Holy Love in word and deed to their flock. This speaks to the absence of any hidden agenda towards self gain or abuse of authority."

"First and foremost the priests' job is to make the Sacraments available to the people. Reception of the Holy Sacraments needs to be promoted from the pulpit. One half hour of confession offered per week shows little concern for the spiritual welfare of any priest's flock. This is the bad fruit of the neglect or reluctance to preach about sin."

"A priest needs to safeguard his vocation through prayer and sacrifice. He needs to let the Lord fill his heart and his spare time. He needs to be a spiritual leader, not a social director."

"The parish that encourages Eucharistic Adoration will be greatly blessed. Many vocations will come out of parishes where this is encouraged. You cannot expect vocations to bud and blossom in parishes wrought with scandal."

"The Church needs to embrace personal holiness once again - first, through the hierarchy and the priests."

"I will return."

4th Remonstrations

"My final exhortation to priests is as follows. Your vocation will only be as strong as you are holy. The only way to be holy is through the embrace of Holy Love, for Holy Love is the embodiment of the Ten Commandments. Through Holy Love you will find your way to a deeper prayer life and be open to small and great sacrifices."

"The Lord desires your spiritual prowess, for it is through your strengths He is strong. It is by your efforts in personal holiness He can and will reach others."

"None of what I have said here to priests and hierarchy can or should be modified. I did not come to stroke egos but to call all clergy back into the Truth. If you do not make a sincere effort to search out and live in the Truth, your vocation is compromised. If you use your authority to oppose the Truth or to manipulate people and situations towards any self gain, you are not an instrument of God but of Satan.

"No, I will not modify my words. I must give you the Truth as I have been sent to do without compromise. I must be unyielding in my call for the unity of all clergy in the Truths of the faith without nuance or compromise and without slandering Vatican II."

"Study all I have passed on to you without tongue in cheek, but with sincere hearts."

Read Ephesians 4: 2-7; 11-16

"...lead a life worthy of the calling to which you have been called, with all lowliness and meekness, with patience, forbearing one another in love, eager to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called to the one hope that belongs to your call, one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of us all, who is above all and through all and in all. But grace was given to each of us according to the measure of Christ's gift."

"And his gifts were that some should be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, some pastors and teachers, for the equipment of the saints, for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ, until we all attain to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to mature manhood, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ; so that we may no longer be children, tossed to and fro and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the cunning of men, by their craftiness in deceitful wiles. Rather, speaking the truth in love, we are to grow up in every way into him who is the head, into Christ, from whom the whole body, joined and knit together by every joint with which it is supplied, when each part is working properly, makes bodily growth and upbuilds itself in love."

April 2, 2015 – Holy Thursday

"I am your Jesus, born Incarnate."

"At the root of all weakened vocations is disordered self-love. Priests, Bishops, Cardinals who seek self-fulfillment through their vocations are easily thrown off track. Every vocation is given by God towards God's end - His purpose. The vocation is the personification of Holy Love. When the vocation weakens, it is because Holy Love in the heart weakens."

"The fact that there are factions within the ranks of professed religious these days does not personify Holy Love - but Satan's attacks. I long for My Church to be united in Holy Love."

"Lose sight of self - you who say you serve Me. Lose sight of ambition, personal agendas, greed for power or money. In humility, serve Me - your God. Thou shalt not have false gods before thee."

April 23, 2015 – Public

Our Lady comes as Mary, Refuge of Holy Love. She says: "Praise be to Jesus. My Son desires these rules of conduct for a good vocation be passed on to you today. These are not suggestions, but rather commandments for fulfilling a vocation as God desires. They are meant for all: Cardinals, Bishops and priests."

"This has been a long time coming, but the hour is here when straight forward talk is needed. No one can say they weren't aware of what was weakening their vocation once they digest this. These rules of conduct unravel the abuse of authority, the compromise of Truth and, if closely adhered to, unite the heart of the Church which is greatly needed today."

"Pay attention to what I am saying today by way of the Grace of My Immaculate Heart."

1. "You must not think that your rank or title is your salvation. Work and pray for your own personal holiness."
2. "You must work towards the salvation of your flock, not towards any political advantage within the ranks of the hierarchy."
3. "You must realize that the future of the world rests in your hands now, for every soul you lead to godliness changes the future of the world."

4. "You must make it known that Jesus' Mercy does not mean His acceptance of sin but His forgiveness of sin. Imitate His Mercy."

5. "You must clearly define good from evil and identify sin as sin. Never remain silent in the face of sin."

6. "You must never remain silent about sin to gain popularity or approval from others."

7. "You must never use obedience as a means of control, manipulation or retaliation. Rather, earn the loving respect of your followers."

8. "You must never make the acquisition of money, or worldly goods or popularity your priority, but always put the salvation of souls first."

9. "Private revelation, apparitions and Heavenly intervention must be discerned fairly - not with the preconceived attitude of curtailing belief in such things out of jealousy and the need to control. You must never say there is nothing supernatural going on, for the Holy Spirit is everywhere. Spiritual warfare takes place in every heart. You are responsible for all the souls you mislead about genuine apparitions and all the prayers you stop. See these graces as an aid and not competition."

"If you follow these, My instructions to you today, your vocation will be solidly safeguarded. If you compromise these Truths in any way, you will be giving Satan his foothold."

April 24, 2015 – Public

Our Lady comes as Mary, Refuge of Holy Love. She says: "Praise be to Jesus. These 'commandments'* for a sound vocation are given to nourish and to support the existing vocations in hearts, and thereby the faith of those whom they lead. Vocations are not given solely for the recipient, but for the faithful in general. If a vocation is weakened by any of the points I mentioned, the community of faith around the vocation is weakened."

"In the same way, every sin weakens the general state of the heart of the world. While those of spiritual leadership have a greater influence, every soul affects the greater good. This is why personal holiness plays such an important role in the future of the world. This is why the ongoing struggle between good and evil has been obscured by Satan, who nourishes a spirit of complacency in hearts."

"You, My children, have been given the Truth. In your hearts, is the Light of Truth. Do not give in to the sentiments of accommodating sin, but always stand for God's Truth. Salvation is not about making sin comfortable and acceptable. It is about avoiding sin and speaking out against it. In today's world this is not popular, but you need only to be popular with God."

"I, your Heavenly Mother, pray for your courage. I pray for the steadfastness of every vocation."

* The 'commandments' refer to the rules of moral conduct for a good vocation. The term, "vocation", as defined in the "Webster Dictionary" (1985) is a specific "call from God to a distinctive state of religious life in which the person can reach holiness through faithful adherence to the Ten Commandments and teachings of the Church, and witnessed in the person's service to God and the Church." A vocation can be to the priesthood (by males) and religious consecrated life (by males and females). In these Messages, the term "vocation" refers more specifically to those in religious life who are leaders in the Church - bishops, cardinals, priests, abbots, pastors.

 Reference Message given April 23, 2015.

Read Titus 1:7-9+

Synopsis: Description of moral conduct and responsibility to magisterial teaching attributable to a bishop.

For a bishop, as God's steward, must be blameless; he must not be arrogant or quick-tempered or a drunkard or violent or greedy for gain, but hospitable, a lover of goodness, master of himself, upright, holy, and self-controlled; he must hold firm to the sure Word as taught, so that he may be able to give instruction in sound doctrine and also to confute those who contradict it.

June 21, 2015 – Father's Day

St. John Vianney, the Cure d' Ars and Patron of all priests says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"I feel I must speak out about this. These days, every priest has the solemn obligation to speak out on behalf of the Truth. The Truth must be based upon the Ten Commandments and Holy Love. This is the sound direction the priest must pass on to his flock. He should be encouraged to do so by his Bishop and not fear retribution. This is the Bishop's responsibility."

"Never before has Truth been so compromised to please human agendas. When sin is not called sin and evil is not identified as evil, those who lead are responsible for this neglect. You cannot fulfill your vocation by pleasing man - only by pleasing God. God, Who is the Source of all Truth and all good, gave you your vocation. It is up to you to build up the Kingdom of God, not co-operate in tearing it down. Use your leadership to encourage holiness amongst your flock. Do not dilute the Truth to please anyone."

July 14, 2015 – Public

St. John Vianney, the Cure d' Ars and Patron of all priests says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"You ask how a soul can become more holy. The more God is the center of their life, the more holy the soul will be. It is then God is a part of every decision, every victory, every disappointment and every defeat. Such a soul interacts with grace and is never far from God's Provision."

"This is so important for priests who, too often, feel alone and make poor decisions based on free will and not the Divine Will."

"It is as though the journey in personal holiness were a ladder. The only way up the ladder which reaches to the Divine Will is to reach for the next rung. In the spiritual realm, you reach the next rung through your efforts in prayer and sacrifice and self-abandonment. These efforts make God the center of your existence."

"Allow God to take dominion over your heart in this way."

July 21, 2015 – Public

St. John Vianney, Cure d'Ars and Patron of all priests says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"I tell you, souls who cannot distinguish good from evil or Truth from untruth number in the majority these days. This is so due to the fact that leadership has chosen such compromise and abuses their authority by propagating it. You are now beginning the second generation of this mass compromise of Truth."

"People fall into Satan's trap of trying to please people rather than God. Once this priority is set, it is very difficult to reverse it. The problem becomes more complex when any criticism is judged as disrespectful to authority. No one should hold himself above criticism."

"Good leadership bears the fruit of respect - not control. The sound leader gently leads his flock into the arms of righteousness. A good leader recognizes the Truth and easily chooses good over evil. If the leader does so, his flock will follow. Hearts will change. The more people God gives you to influence, the greater your responsibility. This responsibility begins in families and ends in government and church leaders."

Read 1 Peter 5:2-4 +

Synopsis: Presbyters (religious leaders) are to shepherd their flocks, not under constraint by lording their authority over those in their care; but gently leading them in the way of righteousness by being models by which their flocks pattern themselves after. Then when the Prince of Shepherds appears, they will receive the unfading crown of glory.

Tend the flock of God that is your charge, not by constraint but willingly, not for shameful gain but eagerly, not as domineering over those in your charge but being examples to the flock. And when the chief Shepherd is manifested you will obtain the unfading crown of glory.

August 4, 2015 – Feast of St John Vianney

St. John Vianney comes and bows towards me. He says, "Praise be to Jesus."

"Today, I come to speak, yet again, to all priests. Jesus regards the Holy Father, Bishops and Cardinals as priests first. He looks at their hearts and judges the fulfillment of their vocations as to first and foremost the holiness of their priesthood. So many fail Him - so many! Sadly, those in power do not want these disappointments ever mentioned or brought to light; yet, they are real!"

"The priest must first and foremost be in love with the Truth of the Faith. He must be committed to making the sacraments available to his flock. He must realize that he is responsible for leading his flock to salvation. He must support Church dogma and doctrine. He must not call Dogma and Doctrine by any other name hoping to minimize their importance. The priest is the link between Heaven and earth for his flock. He must rid himself of self-interest and live for others."

"He is not a social director or a financial director. These things must be left for others."

"What I see missing in priestly vocations today is a genuine interest in the spiritual well-being of each one in their flock. Vocations within parishes would flourish if this would change! As it is, many vocations are lost due to the poor example given by priests."

"I can come here* and speak, but if the ones I am addressing do not listen and believe, the grace of my words is lost forever."

He bows again and leaves.

August 5, 2015 – Feast of Dedication of Basilica of St. Mary Major – Blessed Mother's True Birthday

Our Lady comes as Our Lady of Grace. She says, "Praise be to Jesus."

"The good Cure (Cure de Ars) spoke to you yesterday concerning the qualities of a good priest. Some things he did not tell you are much more sobering."

"Every day there are priests, bishops and or cardinals that slip to their perdition. Most lose their souls for what they did not do! They did not provide sound spiritual leadership to their flock. Oh yes, there are few - not many - popes in the netherworld as well, and for much the same reason. This Message will be frowned upon by Church leaders. But why? They, of all people, need to be perfected in personal holiness in order to lead others in this regard. I would not be a loving Mother if I allowed religious leaders to think that their vocation saved their soul. It is their response to their vocation which saves or condemns them. No one should believe himself to be above condemnation!"

She pauses and I (Maureen) wish Her a Happy Birthday. Her appearance then changes to gold and white. She nods and says, 'thank you.'

"Today I wish to celebrate all life from conception to natural death. It is mankind's lack of appreciation of life that is destroying the innocent beauty of the world as you know it. All the technology that God has enlightened man with has not deepened mankind's' relationship with his Creator. Rather, it is touted as a human effort apart from God. Incredibly, this same technology has led to new kinds of sin."

"As your Mother, I use the occasion of My Birthday to warn and admonish a failing society and a disordered leadership to repent and to return to the Will of God. Choose to please God and not yourselves. If all would do this as at Nineveh, God's Justice could still be mitigated. As it is, God's Justice cries out for fulfillment."

Read Jonah 3:1-10+

Then the word of the Lord came to Jonah the second time, saying, "Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and proclaim to it the message that I tell you." So Jonah arose and went to Nineveh, according to the word of the Lord. Now Nineveh was an exceedingly great city, three days' journey in breadth. Jonah began to go into the city, going a day's journey. And he cried, "Yet forty days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown!" And the people of Nineveh believed God; they proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them to the least of them. Then tidings reached the king of Nineveh, and he arose from his throne, removed his robe, and covered himself with sackcloth, and sat in ashes. And he made proclamation and published through Nineveh, "By the decree of the king and his nobles: Let neither man nor beast, herd nor flock, taste anything; let them not feed, or drink water, but let man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and let them cry mightily to God; yea, let every one turn from his evil way and from the violence which is in his hands. Who knows, God may yet repent and turn from his fierce anger, so that we perish not?" When God saw what they did, how they turned from their evil way, God repented of the evil which He had said He would do to them; and He did not do it.

August 31, 2015

Our Lady comes as Our Lady of Grace. She says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"In the world today there seems to be an unwritten code of ethics which forbids criticism of spiritual leadership. In particular, I am speaking about Bishops. These Bishops have souls and are responsible for the souls of their flock, as well. But so many see their role strictly as authoritarian, financial managers and garnering prestige. God places them in the role of Bishop to nurture the spiritual well-being of their flock. If a Bishop discourages any form of prayer - be it the rosary, adoration or communal prayer, he is derelict in his duties."

"The Bishop's office is not that of a CEO over a business venture. It is one of fatherly concern and care for his flock. He must provide great opportunity for spiritual growth through generous availability of the sacraments and encouragement in listening to the Holy Spirit. This is how vocations bloom and increase."

"Instead I see too often the silencing of the inspirations of the Spirit in an attempt to control. I see limited hours for reconciliation - sometimes not even one hour a week is offered."

"There is much talk about Church 'vibrancy', but it is all talk. It falls short under dogmatic control. Bishops must be consecrated to the Truth and not spread untruth in an attempt to control or discredit anyone or any group."

"Churches and schools are closed without regard for the spiritual well-being of the flock but only with regard to finances."

"What is taught in a parochial setting should be in-line with the true faith. This is something the Bishop must control."

"I have waited many years and prodded gently, but today I have permission from My Son to speak forthright. I propose to you the ones who object the most to My words to you today are the very ones who see themselves in what I am saying."

"I am your Jesus, born Incarnate."

"Yesterday, My Mother addressed the difficulties within the ranks of Bishops - a subject pressing on My Mournful Heart. The Bishop's job is the salvation of his flock - a grave responsibility. I cannot hold them above reproach, as has been an acceptable practice in the world. I must speak My peace."

"The salvation of souls is always the cooperation of the free will with grace. Therefore, no Bishop should stand in the way of this. He is obliged to encourage grace. He must generously offer the sacraments as 'food' for the journey. If he is fortunate enough to have an apparition site in his diocese, he has the grave responsibility of encouraging openness to what Heaven offers. The Bishop must never proceed with a trumped up investigation with the sole purpose of issuing a negative review. He is cooperating with untruth in doing so, and is responsible for all the graces left unattended, all the prayers left unsaid and all the souls lost as a result of his actions."

"This has happened so often around the world but most pointedly here at Holy Love*. People are discouraged in participating in Heaven's intervention here and partaking of the graces offered. This is clearly an abuse of authority and a compromise of Truth."

"But I encourage the continuation of this Mission which has become so important to so many. I urge your cooperation with the graces offered, all of which lead to your salvation. I call you to pray for this Bishop and all others, for vocation and rank do not guarantee salvation."

"At no other site and through no other messenger have I spoken thus. The fact remains souls are at stake. I cannot remain silent any longer."

"Make it known."

Read Wisdom 6:1-11+

Listen therefore, O kings, and understand; learn, O judges of the ends of the earth. Give ear, you that rule over multitudes, and boast of many nations. For your dominion was given you from the Lord, and your sovereignty from the Most High, who will search out your works and inquire into your plans. Because as servants of His Kingdom you did not rule rightly, nor keep the Law, nor walk according to the purpose of God, He will come upon you terribly and swiftly, because severe judgment falls on those in high places. For the lowliest man may be pardoned in mercy, but mighty men will be mightily tested. For the Lord of all will not stand in awe of any one, nor show deference to greatness; because He Himself made both small and great, and He takes thought for all alike. But a strict inquiry is in store for the mighty. To you then, O monarchs, my words are directed, that you may learn wisdom and not transgress. For they will be made holy who observe holy things in holiness, and those who have been taught them will find a defense. Therefore set your desire on my words; long for them, and you will be instructed.

You can imagine then how many demons are assigned to every priest, and even more to those in the hierarchy."

"This is the Age of Great Apostasy. Now, more than ever before, faith is under attack. Yet the attacks are insidious, not obvious. Little by little sin is not so much of an issue and is rarely defined from the pulpit. A whole generation has lost the sense of right and wrong."

"My Mother came to you as Protectress of the Faith. This devotion could have saved countless souls and was earmarked for this generation, but the confusion of this age went into motion and her title was deemed unnecessary."

"I come now to call you back to a firm faith - a faith secure under the protection of My Mother. Do not be tricked by Satan to think your faith should be based upon reason. Faith is Heaven's gift. It is the belief in something you

"Listen carefully and believe in what I say. Those with religious vocations must not believe that their vocation saves them. It is a virtuous life which saves every soul. Title and authority in the world carry no weight at your judgment. However, you will be judged according to the fulfillment of your obligations to your flock."

"You must be examples of holiness in the world. Many a one held in great esteem during their earthly journey, now suffer the eternal flames of hell. They did not endeavor to define sin as opposed to good. They brought politics into the religious world. In so doing, they made popularity with some a goal and distanced themselves from many a holy comrade in faith. They used their vocations for human purposes and rewards not to please God. They misused their authority not towards fulfilling God's Will but to control and manipulate."

"I can see the good that has been bypassed by the ill use of vocations. I know the souls that have been poorly influenced and lost by such as these. I also see the ones who will not benefit from My words today and who will even take offense. Believe Me. It is your Heavenly Mother now speaking and calling you into the Light of the Truth."

"Search your hearts. Do not mistakenly think that social justice fulfills God's Call to you. True justice enlightens every heart to recognize the difference between good and evil. Every soul has the right to be instructed in this. This is your call."

St. John Vianney, Cure d'Ars and Patron of Priests says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"The things I am about to say should never have to be spoken. As it is, confusion has taken up its reign within the Church. The sacraments are what sets the Catholic Church apart from all the rest. Church leaders have the solemn responsibility of defining, administering and protecting the sacraments. Sacrileges and indifference towards the Holy Eucharist must be safeguarded against - never, never encouraged. The soul must be in a state of grace - that is free of mortal sin - to receive the Eucharist. Otherwise, the Eucharist is defiled. This is where the definition of mortal sin must be clearly defined and not open to debate."

"I speak this way today as many Catholics follow this Ecumenical Ministry. They are fed the Truth here which is so obscured in the world."

May 24, 2016 – Feast of Mary Help of Christians

Our Lady comes as Mary, Refuge of Holy Love. She says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"Unless a conscience is formed in Holy Love, the soul cannot possibly form the right opinions in the Eyes of God. Such a conscience rationalizes his erroneous choices and cannot calculate the poor consequences of his decisions. This is why Truth is so under attack and Satan's lies readily accepted."

"Consciences have been compromised in the dim light of rationalization which has affected whole nations and ideologies. God did not create such confusion. He did create the key to discovering the Truth, which is Holy Love."

"There is a grave responsibility on the shoulders of religious leaders these days to clearly define sin as sin and not to make the sinner feel comfortable with his error. Every citizen of this nation has the responsibility of electing a president who would appoint pro-life Supreme Court Justices. Many innocent lives hang in the balance."

"I come as I am sent - for your welfare. Take to heart My words."

St. John Vianney, Cure d'Ars and Patron of Priests says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"In the world today, there is no sense of sin. This is the bad fruit of a lack of knowledge between good and evil. A person in sin who dies suddenly without a chance for repentance has no chance for salvation. The fact that sins are now culturally acceptable denies the necessity of being in a state of grace in order to achieve salvation. Every priest should teach about sin from the pulpit. This is his opportunity to lead his flock along a road of sound spirituality."

"This topic of sin and of a state of grace must never be compromised to please man. It is the priests' job to steadfastly hold his followers to the uncompromised Truth between good and evil. It is necessary also for a soul to be in a state of grace - that is without unrepentant grave sin - in order to receive the Holy Eucharist. Catholic priests have the responsibility of making this known."

St. John Vianney, Cure d'Ars and Patron of Priests says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"I have come once again to address all Bishops. My brothers in Christ, to you has been given the yoke of leadership. Draw your flock under the wing of righteousness. Do not seek to be popular first or to gain money above all else. Your flock will increase if you teach sound doctrine. You will have sufficient funds if you trust first and foremost in God's Provision. You must stand for the Truth and oppose compromise and confusion."

"These days, people long for structure, although they do not realize it. You, dear brothers, are in a position to give guidelines and principles which have been long-standing and Church approved. Do not try to redefine sin or Church doctrine to suit the people. Rather, try to recommit hearts which are compromised to the Truth."

"People look to you for sound leadership. Unfortunately, this trust in title and authority is not always warranted. Jesus placed you in the position you're in to bring conformity to the Truths of the Faith. Are you leading in this way or not?"

Read 1 Peter 5:2-4+

Synopsis: Encouragement to shepherds of the Church (priests and bishops) to tend their flocks in the pattern of the Chief Shepherd (Jesus) - not dominating over others by constraint of obedience or for self-gain but by being examples of servanthood.

Tend the flock of God that is your charge, not by constraint but willingly, not for shameful gain but eagerly, not as domineering over those in your charge but being examples to the flock. And when the chief Shepherd is manifested you will obtain the unfading crown of glory.

August 4, 2016 - Feast of St. John Vianney, Cure d'Ars and Patron of Priests

St. John Vianney, Cure d'Ars and Patron of Priests says: "Praise be to Jesus." (St. John Vianney is dressed like he is in his statue.)

"Please understand that these days the priesthood has, for the most part, been given over to rationalization. Priests spend their vocation on pleasing man first and foremost ahead of God. There are those within the priesthood who serve evil purposes, though they be clothed in goodness. Some never had a vocation. There are some good and dedicated priests that too often are persecuted through the envy of those around them. It is often difficult for a sincere lay person to find a priest of sound moral teaching - one of Traditional Faith."

"If I were on earth today, I would exhaust myself again hearing the confessions of the confused and compromised. As a priest, I always put the conversion of souls ahead of any personal need of my own. How many priests today can say the same? How many place popularity, money and power ahead of the salvation of souls? Bishops need to be Bishops - fatherly leaders - not dictators. Every vocation needs to be grounded on the Truths of the Faith. If this were true, the Church would offer the peace and security as in days past. People would not have to search for and reinvent their own false peace."

"I am your Jesus, born Incarnate."

"If I could show humanity the door to pass through to avoid future tragedies, I would show him the door to My Mother's Heart which is Holy Love. As it is, mankind is complacent in his choices and is not interested in change. He sees no error in his ways and does not consider the consequences before God as to his choices. This is all spawned by his inability to distinguish good from evil or to even care about this."

"But I continue to come here* seeking to strengthen the Remnant Faithful both in numbers and in spiritual well-being. Holy Love sorts through the confusion of the day and helps the soul to choose good over evil. I desire spiritual leaders believe in My efforts here and define sin as sin. If they do not, they do not lead but confuse. Spiritual leaders should be parental in their advice to their flock - not condemning but lovingly correcting. What a difference that would make!"

St. John Vianney, Cure d'Ars and Patron of Priests says: "Praise be to Jesus."

As St. John Vianney says this, a light pulsates around him.

"The moral problems of the day: abortion, same-sex marriage, gender identification, are not being addressed from the pulpit as sin. The world tries to define these sins in the light of legal rights. It is Cardinals, Bishops and priests who must lead spiritually and not relegate the definition of sin to the likes of mass media and popular opinion and legal systems."

"The main problem in this country and in the world at large is the inability and, or disinterest in the general population to distinguish good from evil. This is reflected in your political choices. Poor leaders are the ones who do not embrace honesty and therefore, do not lead with honesty. If a clear line is not drawn between right and wrong - good and evil - leadership fails you."

"The election fast approaching in this country will be determined by mankind's ability to determine good from evil - Truth from untruth."

Mary, Refuge of Holy Love says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"I am praying that the Holy Spirit - the Spirit of Truth - enlightens the heart of the world as to the real dangers that threaten mankind today. The greatest danger is the inability to recognize Truth. This feeds the spirit of confusion and obstructs the soul's understanding of good versus evil. Many lies are presented as Truth by politicians who are self-seeking and ambitious. So many in the general public either do not recognize this or summarily excuse it."

"You must expect the Truth from your leaders and accept nothing less. You need to make your leaders accountable to the Truth. This is so not only in the secular realm, but in religious leadership, as well. Good leaders keep their followers on course, without regard for their own popularity. Good leaders lead in accord with the welfare of their flock. They do not condone sin as a means of being popular or to attract more followers."

"The best leader is not always the one with the most money or influence. The best leader leads according to the Truth - God's Commandments - and Holy Love."

September 21, 2016 – Public

Mary, Refuge of Holy Love says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"These are the times when liberal morals are spreading rapidly around the world. This is aided by the fact that Satan has made moral issues into political issues. Worse still, is the reluctance of most leaders - religious and secular - to speak out in favor of sound Christian morals for fear of hurting someone's feelings. What about God's feelings?"

"These days, those who believe in God's Commandments and Holy Love have the moral responsibility to make their voices heard. The liberals are not shy in voicing their convoluted opinions. Those who choose righteousness must not be reticent either. Morals cannot change until attitudes change. Attitudes can only change in the Light of Truth."

"Therefore, I impart to you these Messages* - Messages of Truth and hope. You, My children, must be the Light of Truth in the world - the Light that dispels the darkness of liberal thinking - the Light that gives hope to a world which embraces error."

Read Ephesians 4:25+

Therefore, putting away falsehood, let every one speak the Truth with his neighbor, for we are members one of another.

Read 2 Corinthians 4:1-4+

Synopsis: In discharging the Mission and Ministry of Holy Love do not lose heart. On the contrary, renounce actions which shame conceals in the dark, avoid unscrupulous conduct and do not corrupt the Word of God; but make known the Truth of Jesus Christ, which is Holy Love, commending yourself to your examination of conscience according to the Ten Commandments in the sight of God. If the Truth is concealed, it is only to those who are perishing; for in their case they have been blinded to Truth by their unbelieving hearts and minds - not seeing the Light of the Gospel of Christ Who is the Truth and the Image of God.

Therefore, having this ministry by the mercy of God, we do not lose heart. We have renounced disgraceful, underhanded ways; we refuse to practice cunning or to tamper with God's Word, but by the open statement of the Truth we would commend ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God. And even if our gospel is veiled, it is veiled only to those who are perishing. In their case the god of this world has blinded the minds of the unbelievers, to keep them from seeing the Light of the Gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the likeness of God.

St. John Vianney, Cure d'Ars and Patron of Priests comes. He, as usual, looks very unkempt and emaciated. He says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"Today I come to remind priests that their duty is to define good from evil from the pulpit. Many souls are lost because this is not done. Not to do this is to enable evil and to cause confusion. The salvation of the souls in your charge must be your only purpose in life."

"I am the Father of all people."

"Every priest has been or is challenged in his faith, for this is the way to weaken good in the world and the way Satan attacks everyone the priests influence. I come to earth today to offer you My strength. Stay close to My Son in His Real Presence in the Eucharist. Depend on His intervention in your needs. No priest is a priest of his own choosing. He is called to serve. Be reconciled with this Truth. This is a key to your peace of heart. Keep your hearts on Heaven and on leading others to Heaven."

Read Colossians 3:1-10+

If then you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth. For you have died, and your life is hid with Christ in God. When Christ who is our life appears, then you also will appear with him in glory. Put to death therefore what is earthly in you: immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry. On account of these the wrath of God is coming. In these you once walked, when you lived in them. But now put them all away: anger, wrath, malice, slander, and foul talk from your mouth. Do not lie to one another, seeing that you have put off the old man with his practices and have put on the new man, who is being renewed in knowledge after the image of his creator.
