

A marble sculpture of Moses with a long, curly beard and hair, looking upwards with a stern expression. The sculpture is set against a light-colored, textured background.

The TEN COMMANDMENTS

1. I am the Lord thy God, thou shalt not have strange gods before Me
2. Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain
3. Remember that thou keep holy the Sabbath day
4. Honor thy father and thy mother
5. Thou shalt not kill
6. Thou shalt not commit adultery
7. Thou shalt not steal
8. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor
9. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife
10. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's goods

Holy Love is the embodiment of the Ten Commandments

Michelangelo's Moses (1513-1515)

Love is patient; love is kind; love is not envious or boastful or arrogant or rude.

It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice in wrongdoing, but rejoices in the truth.

It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.

(1 Corinthians 13: vs. 4 – 7)

"The ordinances by which I call you to live - My Commandments and the description of Holy Love (1 Paul to Corinthians 13:4-7) should be displayed prominently in every home. If you do not know the rules, how can you obey them?"
