About Holy Love

"Holy Love is:"

- "The Two Great Commandments of Love – to love God above all else and to love neighbor as self."
- "The fulfillment and the embodiment of the Ten Commandments."
- "The measure by which all souls will be judged."
- "The barometer of personal holiness."
- "The Gateway to the New Jerusalem."
- "The Immaculate Heart of Mary."
- "The First Chamber of the United Hearts."
- "The Purifying Flame of Love of Mary's Heart that all souls must pass through."
- "The Refuge of Sinners and the Ark of these last days."
- "The source of unity and peace amongst all people and all nations."
- "Holy Love is God's Divine Will."

"Realize that only evil would be opposed to Holy Love."

(Jesus – November 8, 2010)

THE TWO GREAT COMMANDMENTS OF LOVE

When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, they assembled in a body; and one of them, a lawyer, in an attempt to trip Him up, asked Him, "Teacher, which commandment of the law is the greatest?" Jesus said to him, "You shall love the Lord your God with your whole heart, with your whole soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and first commandment. The second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. On these two commandments the whole law is based, and the prophets as well." (Matthew 22:34–40)

THE VIRTUE OF LOVE

"I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. I have come to speak to you about the virtue of love. Holy Love is, as you know, the Two Great Commandments: love God above all else and your neighbor as yourself. It is the embrace of all Ten Commandments. Holy Love is the Immaculate Heart of My Mother. It is the Divine Will of God."

"Holy Love can be likened to the sun, which spills its rays over the earth enlightening the shadows of darkness. It is like the keys to the Kingdom I entrusted to My Apostle Peter. It is the door to My Sacred Heart and union with Divine Love."

"Holy Love is the harmony between man, nature, and the Creator. It is the interpretation of the Law and the means of all sanctification."

"The will of man must choose Holy Love. It is not open to debate, and stands undaunted in the face of discernment. Holy Love cannot be judged, for it is the judge."

"Holy Love is offered in every present moment and follows the soul into eternity." (June 28, 1999)

THE EFFECTS OF HOLY LOVE IN THE HEART

"I have come to you to speak about the effects of Holy Love in the heart."

- "Holy Love can transform the most mundane task into a powerful redemptive tool in the Hands of God."
- "Holy Love, when it is accepted in the heart, can transform darkness into the Light of Truth."
- "Holy Love can inspire victory over sin; therefore, Holy Love is the foundation of every conversion of heart."
- "Holy Love is the vehicle of surrender of free will to accept God's Divine Will."
- "It is Holy Love which helps the soul to recognize God's Grace in every cross."

"These are sound reasons for souls to accept these Messages and to support this Mission of Holy Love by living the Messages. To do so is to allow your heart to be transformed by Holy Love. To do so is to follow the pursuit of Holy Perfection." (St. Francis de Sales – January 14, 2012)

"Without Holy Love in the heart, good deeds, penance and reparation are hollow; for Holy Love is the foundation of holiness, righteousness and Truth. It is impossible for the soul to comply with the Divine Will of the Father apart from Holy Love, for God's Will is Holy Love."

"Holy Love leads the soul away from focus on self to focus on God and neighbor. This leads the heart into balance with the Divine Will. The soul gradually loses sight of how everything affects him – to focus on how everything affects God and neighbor. Such a soul is a jewel in God's Eyes and mounts swiftly up the Stairway to Holiness. This is the path to perfection." (St. Francis de Sales – January 16, 2012)

Comparison of Self-Love vs. Holy Love

Self-Love	Holy Love
Is motivated towards self-advantage in thought, word, and deed.	Is motivated in every thought, word, and action by love of God, and neighbor as self.
Sees only others' faults, not his own. Considers himself on the right path – perhaps even humble and virtuous.	Sees himself full of imperfections. Is always seeking to be perfected through love. Considers everyone more humble and holy than himself.
Holds a checklist in his heart of every wrong perpetrated against him.	Imitates Divine Mercy as best he can. Is compassionate and forgiving.
Is quick to anger and stands vigil over his own rights making certain they are not transgressed.	Is patient. Takes note of others' needs and concerns.
Hangs on to his own opinions refusing to surrender to another viewpoint.	Offers his own opinions but listens to others and lends them equal merit with his own.
Takes pride in his own achievements. May even take pride in his spiritual progress.	Realizes all things proceed from God; that without God he is capable of no good thing. All good comes from grace.
Sees himself and the world as the be-all/end-all. His only pleasure is thus achieved through the world.	Takes joy in storing up heavenly treasure, in growing closer to God and deeper in holiness. Knows the difference between earthly pleasures and spiritual joy.
Uses the goods of the world to satisfy self.	Uses the goods of the world to satisfy quest for holiness.
Objects to every cross. Sees trials as a curse. Resents others' good fortune.	Surrenders to the cross through love as Jesus did. Sees crosses as a grace to be used to convert others.
Prays only for himself and his own needs.	Prays for all in need.
Cannot accept God's Will. Becomes bitter over trials.	Accepts God's Will with a loving heart even when difficult.

Feast of Our Lady of the Most Holy Rosary

3:00 P.M. Service

(This Message was given in multiple parts over several days.)

Blessed Mother is here as Refuge of Holy Love. She says:
"Praise be to Jesus."

"Dear children, with your rosaries you can defeat Satan's lies and bring Truth to triumph. When Truth penetrates hearts, My Triumph will reign and My Immaculate Heart will be victorious. Be a part of My Victory by merit of your rosaries."

"Bring to fruition the grand scale of My Victory through your rosaries. You hold in your hands a weapon greater than any weapon of mass destruction when you hold your rosary. Carry it with you always as a sign to Satan that you are Mine."

"Most of all pray your rosaries. Satan cringes at the thought of a well-prayed rosary and does everything to defeat this prayer."

"When you pray your rosary, I am praying with you, capturing your prayers and carrying them to Heaven to the throne of My Son. Even the weakest prayer is made powerful by My efforts. Do not be discouraged or feel your prayers do not count. Every prayer combines with all the others around the world to create a formidable weapon against evil."

"Your devotion to the rosary is a sign of predestination in God's Kingdom to come."

"Dear children, the future of the world rests in your hands in your rosaries. Together, we can undo the most gruesome plans of the Antichrist. In the end, My Immaculate Heart will triumph."

"Through the rosary, I am yours and you are Mine. Remember this always. Together we can change the course of human events."

"Today, dear children, I invite you to celebrate with Me by uniting in your hearts with all the other souls who are consecrated to My Immaculate Heart. We are one in spirit."

"As often as a soul listens to or reads today's Message, he will receive My Blessing of Holy Love."

"I do not come to appease you, but to warn you that you must use your rosaries as weapons that Heaven intends you to do. My Victory is by your efforts and in your hearts."

"Do not consider My words to you today too simplistic to be important. Do not disregard My urgent request to pray your rosary."

"Dear children, today, you have come with many petitions in your hearts and on lips. Some will be answered in the way you want, but all will be answered according to God's Holy and Divine Will. Please accept what is given and what is taken away. Understand that I come to you as a loving Mother to caress you and to love you and to hold you deep in the folds of My Mantle. Today, My little ones, I'm imparting to you My Blessing of Holy Love."

How to Pray the Rosary

1. OPENING PRAYERS (Optional prayers may be added.)

(State the intention)

I/We offer this Rosary for...

(Then raise your rosary to Heaven and say:)

"Celestial Queen, with this Rosary, I/we bind all sinners and all nations to Your Immaculate Heart."

(Our Lady – October 7, 1996)

The Sign of the Cross

In the Name of the Father, and of the Son,
and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Prayer for the Conversion of Hearts

"Heavenly Father, during this time of world crisis, let all souls find their peace and security in Your Divine Will. Give each soul the grace to understand that Your Will is Holy Love in the present moment. Benevolent Father, illuminate each conscience to see the ways that he is not living in Your Will. Grant the world the grace to change and the time in which to do it. Amen."

(Mary, the Mother of God – September 28, 2001)

Prayer to Recite with the Rosary of the Unborn

"Divine Infant Jesus, as we pray this rosary, we ask you to remove from the heart of the world the desire to commit the sin of abortion. Remove the veil of deceit Satan has placed over hearts which portrays promiscuity as a freedom, and reveal it for what it is – slavery to sin. Place over the heart of the world a renewed respect for life at the moment of conception. Amen."

(Our Lady – August 27, 2005)

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Creator of Heaven and earth; and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, Our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended into Hell; the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into Heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God, the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body and life everlasting. Amen.

Our Father

(For the intentions of the Holy Father)

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy Name. Thy Kingdom come. Thy Will be done on earth, as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us, and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Amen.

Three (3) Hail Marys

(For an increase of the virtues of Faith, Hope and Charity)

Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee. Blessed art thou among women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

(All) Glory Be

(All) Glory Be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

(Our Lady of Guadalupe – September 21, 1995)

Fatima Prayer

O my Jesus, forgive us our sins, save us from the fires of hell, lead all souls to Heaven, especially those in most need of Thy Mercy.

Prayer for the Unborn

"Jesus, protect and save the unborn!"

(Mary, Refuge of Holy Love – May 19, 1998)

Hail, Holy Queen

Hail, Holy Queen, Mother of Mercy! Our life, our sweetness and our hope! To Thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve; to Thee do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this valley of tears. Turn, then, most Gracious Advocate, Thine Eyes of mercy toward us, and after this our exile, show unto us the blessed Fruit of Thy Womb, Jesus. O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary.

V. Pray for us, O Holy Mother of God.

R. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray. O God, Whose Only Begotten Son, by His life, death and resurrection, has purchased for us the rewards of eternal life, grant, we beseech Thee, that meditating upon these Mysteries of the most Holy Rosary of the Blessed Virgin Mary, we may imitate what they contain, and obtain what they promise through the same Christ, Our Lord. Amen.

The Sign of the Cross

In the Name of the Father, and of the Son,
and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Rosary Meditations

Meditations on the Fifteen Mysteries of the Rosary
Dictated by Our Lady
1986

JOYFUL MYSTERIES

1. Annunciation

"That night, so long past, I was alone – deep in prayer. A great light came into My little room illuminating it more than any lamp. From this light stepped an Angel of God – His goodness emanating from his being. I was taken aback, thinking at first he had come to reproach me, but his words were calming. I had found favor with God he told Me. His message to Me followed, and I could say nothing but 'yes', for since My earliest memory I was obedient to God in all things. He spoke of My cousin and then left, leaving My humble room quite empty and forsaken."

"I would ask all mankind, then, to be obedient to God's Will in their lives in all humility. Praise be to God!"

2. Visitation

"I went quickly to My cousin Elizabeth's home after receiving the Angel's message. Though the journey was quite arduous, I knew in My Heart that upon seeing her I would receive confirmation of all the Angel had spoken to Me. Indeed, upon My arrival she told Me the babe in her womb had jumped for joy as I approached. So aged was she but yet with child. I had no doubt she had been given a great gift from God. Empowered by The Holy Spirit, I spoke from My Heart, speaking of generations yet to come and of the great miracle God was bringing to earth through the power of the Holy Spirit."

"My dear people, in praying this Mystery, I would ask that you reflect upon so great a God that He can answer all prayers. For it is through God all things are possible. Perfect your prayer lives and come to Him with expectant faith. He will always answer in His way, in His time. Praise be to Jesus!"

3. Nativity

"It is impossible to describe in terms of earth the joy and awe of that night. All things leading up to this joyous event caused anguish. The trip so long and arduous, the separation from our families, the lack of proper dwelling upon our arrival in Bethlehem. Yet, when My Eyes beheld My Infant Son's countenance, so fresh from Heaven, none of the trials could I remember. He was all holiness. In His Presence Our meager surroundings faded from sight. I felt the Presence of Heaven on earth. He could have chosen to come into the world in the palace of a king – sharing all the comforts of the world. Yet this was not His choice, for He was not of this world. His Kingdom was with His Father in Heaven. As He grew, He never chose the world or its pleasures but kept His Eyes ever on His Father's Kingdom."

"So I ask all who pray this Mystery of My Rosary, pray for this same spirit of detachment. This grace is indeed vital to salvation. Those who worship the things of this poor world cannot truly say My Son is first in their lives. In His omniscience He knows the hearts of all men and shall not welcome into His Kingdom those who place Him last in their hearts. Praise be to Jesus!"

4. Presentation

"When I recall this Mystery, the Presentation of My Infant Son in the Temple, I have mixed emotions. I recall the many days of prayer and sacrifice leading up to it. Joseph and I wanted our Son to be blessed in a most special way. Then we set out so that according to Jewish custom we would arrive in the Temple when He was of proper age. We took with us a simple offering of some birds. He was blessed having been presented to the priest. Several times while we were on the steps of the Holy Temple a man of some years approached us, his name being Simeon. At one point, he asked to hold My Beloved Son, and so doing spoke most prophetically. He thanked God for sparing him for that moment, then told Me that My Soul too would be pierced with a sword. Indeed, I knew at once of what he spoke, for My Cross throughout the rest of My life was the knowledge of Jesus' future. I knew He would suffer a torturous death, one that I would witness. I knew that His darkest hour would be brightened by His Resurrection. At once, I was saddened and peaceful knowing He, whom I held in My Arms, would redeem mankind. I held all these things in My Heart, pondering them as I cared for My Divine Son. Joseph and I set out for home, both of us reflecting quietly the events of the day. Later Joseph spoke to Me softly of what Simeon had spoken, hoping to calm My fears. But I, with the wisdom God had given Me, knew the day was coming when I would indeed suffer as too would My Son. It was the Cross I was to bear for thirty-three (33) years."

5. Finding of the Child Jesus in the Temple

"When Jesus was twelve years of age, Joseph and I took Him to Jerusalem for a holy day celebration. We were not alone but traveled with a large number of family and friends. It was on the way home I started to search for My Beloved Son among the group we were traveling with. At first, I felt sure I would discover Him tucked away in a corner asleep or speaking of God the Father to His cousins and friends. As the hours wore on, I grew more and more distraught. Joseph decided we should return at once to Jerusalem fearing He had been left behind."

"Now it was many days journey to return. The heat was overwhelming and added greatly to our burden. As we again approached Jerusalem, Joseph suggested that we search the Temple first as this was the place most pleasing to My Son."

"It was late in the afternoon. The shadows were already growing long. As we mounted the huge stone steps of the Holy Temple I felt a great sense of peace. Even from the top steps we could hear His voice echoing through the great stone chambers. Joseph found Him standing in the midst of several learned men speaking profoundly on writings of a prophet from ages past. My Heart was flooded with joy as He placed His youthful Hand in Mine once again."

"We told Him of the great concern He had caused us, notwithstanding the long trip back. He asked if we did not know He must be about His Father's business. I turned this over and over in My Heart for many years to come. Yes, He was about His Father's business, but it was not yet time. He, in His great and overpowering love of God, could not wait to share with others His infinite knowledge. It was an act of love that took place that day, not an act of disobedience."

"Jesus returned with Joseph and Myself to our humble home. He was never disobedient to us but humble in all things. He grew under our watchful eyes to maturity."

SORROWFUL MYSTERIES

1. Agony in the Garden

"While on earth, I was not present during My Divine Son's agony in the Garden, and I did not see His great anguish at the thought of His approaching death. As His Mother, however, I felt within My own Soul a pressing sadness which consumed My entire Being. I knew He thought of the injustices to befall Him often during the last months of His Life."

"Now in Heaven, I possess all knowledge and can relate to you the events as they took place. My Son, aware of the violent death He was to suffer for all mankind, took His eleven Apostles into a nearby garden, the purpose being to pray. Now Judas was not present as he was already about his dirty work. The Apostles were very weary and fell asleep, but My Beloved Son noticed nothing of His surroundings once He became enveloped in prayer. He saw each blow of the scourging. He felt the weight of the Crossbeam on His Shoulders. He knew each Muscle and Nerve that would be severed by the nails. He saw the sinfulness of mankind not only at that time but in the future as well. He saw atrocities of war and terrorism, the degradation of the human body, the hate man would hold in his heart for his brethren. At last He saw the many lukewarm souls who were acquainted with Him at some point in their lives but chose, and continue to choose, the world over Him. At this point,

He addressed the Father and asked for the cup of suffering to pass Him by. But finally with a deep resignation to the Will of the Father, He said, 'Not My will but Yours be done'."

"I tell you – none of earth have or will suffer mental anguish as did My Son in the Garden of Gethsemane."

2. Scouring of Jesus at the Pillar

"I witnessed this Myself. My Beloved Son was led by the soldiers to the courtyard. Their treatment of Him was particularly rough. They chained His Wrists high up on a pillar so that His Flesh was pulled taut, thereby making it more easily lacerated. He was stripped of His garments. The whips that were used were not ordinary whips. They were so designed to tear and gouge at the victim's flesh. A soldier stood on each side of Jesus and took turns assailing His Sacred Flesh. In all, He sustained over 5000 Wounds. When all was done, He was left standing in a pool of Blood. For modesty's sake, He again covered Himself and was led away leaving behind bloodied footprints. By this time, His Head throbbed from dehydration. How I longed to comfort Him. I was so grief-stricken at the sight of Him. The soldiers, knowing well their craft, had stopped just short of rendering Him unconscious. So now in His Divinity, He knew well each pain that still awaited Him."

"I would ask, that you console Him in prayer and penance. Thank you."

3. Crowning of Jesus with Thorns

"The soldiers were not content with the brutal scourging they inflicted on My Beloved Son. Now they draped His Body with a garment as for a king, all done with a gesture of mockery. They knew not that they had before them the King of Kings. They fashioned a crown for Him of thorns which grew close by. These thorns were much longer than what you imagine. They placed His crown upon His Sacred Head and proceeded to bow before Him, mocking His royalty. They struck the crown of thorns with long sticks, thereby forcing these instruments of torture into His Sacred Head. This caused the Precious Blood to flow down His Face into His Eyes and in so doing blocked His vision. But He loved them so.

Yes, He loved deeply even these who tormented Him. With great humility He bore all. He could have, with one sigh, beckoned all the Legions of Angels to His aid, but He chose to suffer in humility for all mankind."

4. Jesus Carries His Cross

"My Beloved Son, His Flesh torn and pulled from the Bones, was now given in His weakened state the Crossbeam of the Cross to bear upon His Shoulders. His whole being trembled with weakness. His vision was now blurred from the ceaseless flow of Blood rendered by the crown of thorns. He later told Me that He continually saw passing before Him, as He bore the weight of the Cross, the millions of lukewarm souls that His sacrifice would mean so little to."

"But He was prodded on, both by the soldiers and by His eternal love for all humanity. There were the agonizing falls until another was pressed to assist Him. When I met Him, I could barely look Him in the Eye, not wanting Him to see My great distress, though he felt it, I'm sure. His look was one of resignation and at the same time compassion for Me. He fell many times on this road of atonement for sinners, each fall rendering Him more and more debilitated. Finally He reached His destination. There He sat Himself down and with great anguish offered a prayer to the Father. In all that He suffered, He showed great patience."

5. Crucifixion of Jesus

"They put a type of harness about My Son that He might be led like an animal. This girdle aggravated the Wounds He sustained during the scourging. The great Crossbeam was given to Him to bear upon His torn Shoulders and with much disgust and contempt He was led to Golgotha."

"Once there, He was unleashed and allowed to sit upon a rock while the Cross was prepared for Him. Now He was wringing His Hands and looking towards Heaven as though desperate for assistance. At one point, He was laid upon the Cross still on the ground so as to fit it to His Sacred Body. The holes for the nails were then bored into the wood. This accomplished, they called Him back to lay upon the Cross and have His Sacred Flesh pierced by the nails."

"Now He felt the blows of the mallets before they were even struck, and long after. Some adjustment was made with two of His Limbs, which did not reach the prepared nail holes. He also suffered as though upon the rack as His Arm and Leg were dislocated from their Sockets."

"Now the Cross was erected. It was not very tall, I being able to touch His Feet. But I could not bring Myself to lay a finger on His tortured Flesh. As He hung in agony, the unknowing soldiers cast lots for His poor piece of clothing. They were so detached and unaware of their deed."

"Now the sky darkened. Many onlookers began to take their leave. My Son spoke little but each word carried great weight. He addressed St. John and Me. I knew as He spoke to Me that it was not just John He gave Me to Mother but all of mankind. This I accepted gladly."

"Towards the last hour of His life, He was little able to move, to breathe, and His speech was quite hoarse, though still clear enough to understand. As He took on the sins of mankind, He felt abandoned by the Father. At last, He gave up His Spirit."

"Now the earth began to tremble and heave as though sighing over its loss. Still, I waited as a foreigner came to claim His Body for burial. As His limp form was loosened from the Cross and lowered to My Arms I wept in sorrow. I could not hold Him as long as I wished because of the lateness of the hour. They took Him from Me."

GLORIOUS MYSTERIES

1. Resurrection of Our Lord

"I felt deep within My Soul that My Son would rise from the dead. Yet on that first Easter Sunday, I was still steeped in the miseries of Good Friday and My Heart ached for His Presence. We set out for the tomb early as the sun was rising. Some carried oils hoping to better preserve His Body, as He had been prepared for burial with great haste on the previous Friday. My companions moved past Me as we were passing Golgotha. I paused at the spot marked by the Cross He had been taken from. There was an empty hole to mark the place where it once stood, nothing more."

"My Heart burned inside of Me; so much did I long to see Him. I was deep in prayer when a Hand reached out to Me. It was His Hand, wounded by His enemies. His Face shown in Heavenly brilliance. He smiled as My tears filled His Wounds. He said, 'Victory is Ours'. He remained but a few more moments. I understood He yet had a mission to fulfill. He vanished as quickly as He came. My Heart was gladdened as I proceeded on My way to the tomb filled with the joy of the Resurrection. All praise to the living and true God. All Praise to Jesus Christ. Alleluia!"

2. Ascension into Heaven

"The Ascension was accomplished in a quiet manner, as are all of God's miracles. There was no great fanfare, nor tearful farewells. We were walking towards the town of Bethany. Christ stopped and turned to face us. His Body seemed radiant as the sun. His Wounds gleamed with the glory of God. He raised His Hand in a final blessing and gazed on us with much love. Slowly, He drifted away from earth. As He ascended to the Father a cloud gathered beneath His Feet. It appeared luminescent. We could see His outstretched Hands that seemed to embrace all of earth as Heaven opened for Him. The Father, I know, received Him with victorious joy. We, that were left behind, did not feel sadness at that moment but joy and peace of heart. We were all at once in the presence of two Heavenly beings. They urged us to continue on our way, and we did."

3. Descent of the Holy Spirit

"We were all assembled in a large room – the Apostles, friends of Jesus, and Myself included. Many were frightened fearing the same fate awaited them that Jesus underwent. There were many confused hearts and hearts that simply missed His physical Presence."

"We were in prayer when the air in the room began to stir, though the air outside remained quite still. This breath of air became a gentle breeze and began to move through the crowd there assembled. Some that it touched fell over as though asleep. As this Breath of the Spirit approached each Apostle, tongues of flame appeared over their heads, and then they sank to the floor as though dead. I, Myself, slept in the Spirit for quite some time, and as I rested, I saw My Beloved Son smiling down at Me, seated on His throne at the right hand of the Father. My Soul was so steeped in love for Him I could not move."

"As we all started to come back to ourselves, we realized that this was the gift My Son had promised to send us – the Holy Paraclete, My Divine Spouse. Those, who had been grieving for His Presence, arose filled with joy. All confusion vanished in the presence of wisdom and knowledge, for Truths were now revealed that were heretofore hidden. The Spirit now enlivened the hearts of the Apostles devouring their fear. They burst into the streets proclaiming the good news. When they spoke, all understood the message no matter what their native tongue. Such was the beginning of Christ's bride, the universal Church. All Praise to Jesus Christ!"

4. Assumption of Mary into Heaven

"Now while at table with many of Jesus' friends, I felt as I often did, a great longing to be with Him. This time the feeling was much stronger than ever before. I could not hear or speak, for My Soul yearned for His Divine Presence. At last, I felt a great peace come over Me, and I fell asleep in the Spirit, this time never to awaken. My Soul ascended quickly to His Heavenly Kingdom, and once again, I was able to rejoice in the light of His Presence."

"Now My dear Son was not about to allow My undefiled Body to suffer the ravages of the grave. He summoned the Archangel Gabriel and My beloved Guardian Angel to His side and instructed them to collect My bodily remains and escort it to Heaven. Such joy, such elation I experienced in My Soul as I saw My resting Body borne on the wings of Angels to Heaven. At Heaven's gate, Saint Joseph and Jesus stood instead of the Angels and brought this Virginal Sanctuary through the Gates of Paradise. There, amidst the praise of all, My Soul and Body were once again made one."

"What a grace, what a sublime gift He gave Me. Now do I appear both Body and Soul throughout the earth, carrying Messages of reconciliation and peace, Messages My Son places on My Lips for all mankind. All Praise to The Most High."

5. Coronation of Mary as Queen of Heaven and Earth

"Since God the Father so deemed My Immaculate Conception in His great majesty, I was given many graces. I was His obedient Daughter finding any wrong repulsive. I was to Christ the Son an Immaculate dwelling, a loving Mother. The Holy Spirit found in Me a most willing Spouse ready to accept God's designs for Me."

"So then upon My Assumption into Heaven, God in His great goodness chose to crown Me Queen of Heaven and earth. I am the Mediatrix of all His Grace. I am Co-Redemptrix of humankind. I lead all to My Most Beloved Son, so that they may share in His Kingdom. None that come to Me with sincere hearts shall be left wanting. All Praise to Jesus Christ!"

LUMINOUS MYSTERIES

1. Baptism of Jesus

"When I was about to begin My public ministry I received a baptism in the river Jordan. The sky opened and the Holy Spirit descended upon Me. Today, the Heavens are opening once again. This time the Fire of Divine Love is pouring down upon earth seeking to engulf every heart with a Pentecost of Love. Each one should make it his personal mission to spread this Flame."

2. Wedding at Cana

"My Mother holds no petition in Her Heart that She does not turn over to Me and place in My Sacred Heart. In all things Mary is the Perfect Intercessor and Advocate. When the soul turns to Her with a need She adds Her own prayer to it and gives it to Me. See this sign I worked at the wedding feast as a sign that Our Hearts are, indeed, united."

3. Proclamation of the Kingdom

"My Mercy and My Love are one; they are Divine, Perfect and Eternal. They never fail. The soul that trusts in My Love and Mercy is the one I am able to forgive. The Kingdom begins in every heart that begins to believe in My Love and Mercy. This is how a conversion of heart takes place. This is My Victory."

4. Transfiguration

"The joy of the miracle of the Transfiguration took place so as to anchor the Apostles in faith. At My Mother's authentic apparition sites, such as the one at Holy Love, miracles abound so as to support the Message that is given. Those who are bold enough to doubt a bodily apparition must wonder, then, at the account of the Transfiguration where Moses and Elijah appeared on either side of Me. Have faith!"

5. Institution of the Eucharist

"I gave My Body and Blood in the first Eucharist, and I give them continually today in every Mass throughout the world. This sacrament is strength for the journey through the Chambers of Our United Hearts. Too often My Love and Mercy go unattended. I am ignored and set aside in Churches. I am blasphemed by those who receive Me unworthily. I am received lukewarmly by most, and even some priests. Pray this Mystery in atonement to My Eucharistic Heart."

Meditations on the Twenty Mysteries of the Rosary Centering on the Divine Will
Dictated by Ezra (The Angel of Mercy and Love)
December 5-8, 2008

The angel Ezra comes. He says: "Praise be to Jesus." Then he said that Jesus sends him (Ezra) to dictate new Meditations on the Mysteries of the Rosary centering on the Divine Will.

JOYFUL MYSTERIES

1. Annunciation

"Through Mary's complete and perfect union with the Father's Eternal Divine Will, the Archangel Gabriel saw in Her a perfect dwelling place for the Incarnation of Divine Love. St. Gabriel recognized Mary as the one God had chosen to be the Mother of God. And so, he approached Her. Mary, who always acted in and through Divine Love, accepted God's Will for Her."

2. Visitation

"The Divine Word implanted deep within Her Womb, Mary sets out in response to the Archangel's message to visit Her cousin Elizabeth. Wherever Mary goes, whatever She says, thinks or does, She is in complete union with God's Divine Will. Now, even more so, with the Divine Will alive within Her Womb, She never questions even though She encounters many hardships along the way."

3. Nativity

"Mary gives birth to the Incarnate Word – the Divine Will of God – in the humblest of surroundings – a stable. She and Joseph suffer rejection when trying to find more suitable dwelling. How often in today's world the Divine Will is rejected by free will. The only adornments the Divine Will seeks in the world is a loving heart of every person. But how often the door of the human heart rejects God's Will."

4. Presentation

"It was God's Divine Will that Simeon and Anna, present in the Temple that day, recognized the Infant Jesus as the long-awaited Savior. Open to God's Providing Will, they welcomed Him as such, and Simeon prophesied as he held the Eternal Word in his arms."

5. Finding of Jesus in the Temple

"God's Will is sometimes a cross – sometimes a victory. Mary and Joseph suffered the cross of losing Jesus for three days. They were not angry, but surrendered to the cross by accepting it. They patiently waited on God's Will to be shown to them in its entirety. The victory came when they found Jesus in the Temple."

LUMINOUS MYSTERIES

1. Baptism of Jesus

"Jesus submitted with humility to being baptized by John. John's mission was to call the people to repentance so as to prepare the way for Jesus' coming. Today it is God's Will that people repent once again and make reparation for all the evil in the world. God offers the world, through this Mission, a covenant of Divine Love, which opens the way to Divine Mercy and prepares the way for the Lord's Second Coming."

2. Miracle at Cana

"At the request of His Mother, Jesus performed His first miracle by changing the water into wine. Holy Mary is so perfectly united with God's Divine Will, She knows what to ask of Her Beloved Son and how to ask for it."

3. Spreading of the Gospel Message

"God's Will accompanies these Messages of Holy and Divine Love wherever they are taken. These Messages are the essence of the Gospel message – to love God above all else and neighbor as self. These Messages are God's Will for all mankind."

4. Transfiguration

"God, in His Infinite Wisdom, allowed the miracle of the Transfiguration so as to secure the faith of the Apostles there present – in difficult times ahead – and their faith was sorely tested. Today God has given the doubting world Mary, Refuge of Holy Love and Protectress of the Faith, as a Refuge and Shelter during profoundly evil times."

5. Eucharistic Heart of Jesus

"More than any truth, the world needs to accept the Truth of Jesus alive in the Holy Eucharist. For herein lies God's Divine Will, which is All-Truth."

SORROWFUL MYSTERIES

1. Agony in the Garden

"Even the Son of God surrendered completely – perfectly – to His Father's Divine Will. In the Garden at Gethsemane, Jesus surrendered His Will to the Eternal Divine Will, not begrudgingly, but with Divine Love. He was not above asking the Father to suspend the fateful suffering that lie ahead. But in the end, Jesus accepted His Father's Will. God's Will, though it may seem bitter at times, is never without consolation. In the Garden after Jesus accepted His Father's Will, an angel came to comfort Him."

2. Scourging

"Once Jesus accepted His Father's Will in the Garden, he did not look back with regret. He accepted the biting blows of the scourging, knowing many souls depended on His surrender to God's Will in the name of Divine Love."

3. Crowning with Thorns

"Humiliation such as Jesus endured as He was crowned with thorns can only be endured without complaint through deep humility. In this Mystery, humility and love are most evident together, as Jesus could have stopped this persecution at any time. His love for His Father's Will would not permit Him to do so."

4. Carrying of the Cross

"Jesus knew every fall, every pain was used by His Father in Heaven for the good of souls. Under the weight of the Cross, Jesus became an instrument of His Father's Divine Will. Every step was a step into deeper Divine Love."

5. Crucifixion

"It was not the nails that held Jesus to the Cross, but His love for His Father's Will in the present moment. He could have come down from the Cross at any time. But He held in His Heart a depth of love for the Eternal Divine Will beyond all telling."

GLORIOUS MYSTERIES

1. Resurrection

"The Lord's triumphant rising from the dead was His visible Victory over sin and death. He opened the Gates of Heaven at that moment to all people – all nations. He could have appeared in His Resurrected Glory to all those who opposed Him in His public ministry. But it was the Father's Divine Will that He show Himself to the ones who loved Him. The Divine Will always honors and is present in the hearts of those who love Jesus."

2. Ascension

"The Lord's Ascension was His glorious return to Heaven in Victory. This Victory was in and through the Divine Will of the Eternal Father. The Eternal Now embraced His Son in a pure love such as no man has known or ever will know. The cycle of Divine Love was completed – the humble birth, the obstacles to the Gospel message, the Passion and Death, the Resurrection and finally Jesus' triumphant return to Heaven. Every moment was God's Divine Will."

3. Descent of the Holy Spirit

"Suddenly the early Church was strengthened through the Divine Will by the power of the Holy Spirit. Fear left the hearts of the Apostles, and they were not afraid to proclaim the good news. The Divine Will is reaching out now through these Messages to a world drowning in self-love. Yet many reject the outstretched hand asking for others to first approve it."

4. Assumption

"Mary, who lived most completely and perfectly Divine Love, was allowed by the Will of the Eternal Father to be assumed into Heaven Body and Soul. She was already so intimately united with the Father's Will, that Paternal Love could no longer bear to be separated from Her by time or space."

5. Coronation

"In Heaven Mary mounts the throne – Her rightful inheritance as Queen of Heaven and earth. Her crown is the Father's Eternal Divine Will – Her throne the union of Her Immaculate Heart with the Heart of All Love – the Heart of God the Father."

VISION OF THE ROSARY OF THE UNBORN

Our Lady comes in white. In front of Her and suspended in the air is an unusual rosary. The Our Father beads are droplets of blood in the shape of a cross. The Hail Mary beads are light blue teardrops with unborn babies inside of them. The cross is gleaming gold. Our Lady says: "I come in praise of Jesus, My Son. I come as Prophetess of these times."

"The rosary you see is Heaven's way of describing to you the weapon that will overcome this evil of abortion. Heaven weeps for the cost of this great sin. The history and the future of all nations has been changed because of this atrocity against God's gift of life."

"Today, sadly, much responsibility must be placed on the laity who are consecrated to Me. I cannot depend on Church leadership to unite in an effort to vanquish the enemy through the Rosary. Even My Apparitions have caused division by Satan's efforts to thwart My plans."

"So today, on My feast day, I am calling all My children to unite in My Heart. Do not allow pride to divide you according to which Apparition you will follow. Become part of the Flame of My Heart. Be united in love and in the prayer weapon of My Rosary. The evil of abortion can be conquered by your efforts and through My Grace."

"Propagate the image I have shown you today."

(October 7, 1997 – Feast of the Holy Rosary)

Promises for Praying the Rosary of the Unborn

1. "Praise be to Jesus. I see you are using the new Rosary of the Unborn. I affirm to you, My daughter, that each 'Hail Mary' prayed from a loving heart will rescue one of these innocent lives from death by abortion. When you use this rosary, call to mind My Sorrowful Immaculate Heart which continually sees the sin of abortion played out in every present moment. I give to you this special sacramental* with which to heal My Motherly Heart."

Maureen asks: "Blessed Mother, do you mean any 'Hail Mary' or just one prayed on the Rosary of the Unborn?"

Blessed Mother: "This is a special grace attached to this particular rosary. It should always be used to pray against abortion. You will please make this known."

(Our Lady as the Sorrowful Mother – July 2, 2001)

Note: Catholics believe that, in order to be a sacramental, the rosary must be blessed by a Catholic Priest.

2. "Please tell the world that each 'Our Father' recited on the Rosary of the Unborn assuages My grieving Heart. Further, it withholds the Arm of Justice." (Jesus – August 3, 2001)
3. "The greatest promise I give you in regards to this rosary is this: Every Rosary prayed from the heart to its completion on these beads mitigates the punishment as yet withstanding for the sin of abortion ... When I say the punishment as yet withstanding for the sin of abortion, I mean the punishment each soul deserves for taking part in this sin. Then too, I also refer to the greater punishment that awaits the world for embracing this sin." (Jesus – August 3, 2001)
4. "If a group is gathered who are praying for the unborn from the heart and only one person has in their possession the Rosary of the Unborn, I will honor each 'Hail Mary' from each person in the group as if they were holding the Rosary of the Unborn themselves." (Jesus – February 28, 2005)

VISION OF THE CHAPLET OF THE UNBORN

Blessed Mother says: "I have come with yet another important weapon in the fight against abortion. As you know, abortion is the one crime which, if conquered, would change the future of the world. The weapon I now hand off to you is the Chaplet of the Unborn."

Blessed Mother holds out a chaplet with five sets of three Hail Marys and one Our Father – like the Chaplet of the United Hearts. The beads are like the beads on the Rosary of the Unborn. (March 24, 2013)

Promises for Praying the Chaplet of the Unborn

1. "Every time the Chaplet is prayed from the heart, some soul contemplating abortion will have a change of heart."
2. "Each time the Chaplet is prayed from the heart, some soul will be reconciled with the Truth of what abortion really is – the taking of a life."
3. "The Chaplet is a means of reconciliation between the heart of man and the Heart of God, which is so greatly wounded by the sin of abortion."

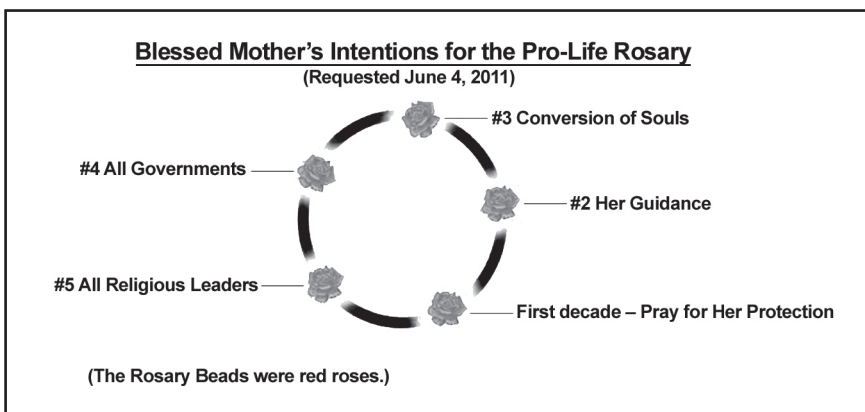

(Blessed Mother – March 25, 2013)

"My Chaplet of the Unborn is important as it points out the error of abortion, the importance of life in the womb, and petitions a healing of heart for all who participate, in any way, in abortion. Pray it daily." (Blessed Mother – January 29, 2014)

PRO-LIFE ROSARY INTENTIONS
Requested by Our Lady June 4, 2011 - A.M.

Our Lady appears holding a rosary made of all red roses. She says: "Praise be to Jesus. I have come to help you see that many parts make up the whole. When all these roses or Hail Marys are put together, they can equal one prayer and one prayer intention."

Then Blessed Mother shows me a picture which outlines Her requested intentions for the rosary.

"I invite you to see that each of these intentions is pro-life:"

"No. 1 You seek My protection over the unborn."

"No. 2 You pray for guidance for all involved in the abortion industry and mothers considering abortion."

"No. 3 You pray for the conversion of anyone who supports abortion."

"No. 4 You pray for government leaders who support abortion."

"No. 5 You pray for any religious leader who does not speak out against abortion."

"So you see how all the parts make up a pro-life rosary."

June 4, 2011 - P.M.

Blessed Mother says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"My Son graciously allows His Most Sacred Heart to be touched by those who pray the Rosary of the Unborn from the heart. For this reason, and because He has much compassion on the human condition these days, He allowed Me to visit you earlier today with the meditations or intentions I gave you."

"In the First Mystery, you pray for My protection. This can be My Motherly protection over the unborn."

"The Second Mystery invokes My guidance which would be inspiration for mothers not to abort their babies, government leaders to oppose abortion and religious leaders to act against it."

"The Third Mystery is for the conversion of souls. No one can be converted or should believe in his conversion if he still supports abortion."

"The Fourth Mystery is for all government leaders. It is paramount that legalized abortion is overturned. The future of the world depends upon it."

"The Fifth Mystery is for all religious leaders to take a stand against abortion. Not to oppose it – is to support abortion."

"My Motherly Heart is intercessor for these needs, My children, when you pray from the heart. I am ever ready to assist you. Pray this way often."

The Blessed Virgin Mary says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"Dear children, once again, I ask you to be faithful to the recitation of the rosary. Pray the Rosary of the Unborn* with faith that this most heinous of sins – abortion – will be recognized for what it is. The longer you slaughter your unborn, the farther your nation and the world drift away from Papa God. The abyss between Heaven and earth is already wider than even in the days of Noah or Sodom and Gomorrah."

"The Rosary of the Unborn has the potential to stop this crime and to mitigate the damage that has been done between Heaven and earth. Your prayers on this rosary are healing."
