About Holy Love

"Holy Love is:"

- "The Two Great Commandments of Love – to love God above all else and to love neighbor as self."
- "The fulfillment and the embodiment of the Ten Commandments."
- "The measure by which all souls will be judged."
- "The barometer of personal holiness."
- "The Gateway to the New Jerusalem."
- "The Immaculate Heart of Mary."
- "The First Chamber of the United Hearts."
- "The Purifying Flame of Love of Mary's Heart that all souls must pass through."
- "The Refuge of Sinners and the Ark of these last days."
- "The source of unity and peace amongst all people and all nations."
- "Holy Love is God's Divine Will."

"Realize that only evil would be opposed to Holy Love."

(Jesus – November 8, 2010)

THE TWO GREAT COMMANDMENTS OF LOVE

When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, they assembled in a body; and one of them, a lawyer, in an attempt to trip Him up, asked Him, "Teacher, which commandment of the law is the greatest?" Jesus said to him, "You shall love the Lord your God with your whole heart, with your whole soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and first commandment. The second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. On these two commandments the whole law is based, and the prophets as well." (Matthew 22:34-40)

THE VIRTUE OF LOVE

"I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. I have come to speak to you about the virtue of love. Holy Love is, as you know, the Two Great Commandments: love God above all else and your neighbor as yourself. It is the embrace of all Ten Commandments. Holy Love is the Immaculate Heart of My Mother. It is the Divine Will of God."

"Holy Love can be likened to the sun, which spills its rays over the earth enlightening the shadows of darkness. It is like the keys to the Kingdom I entrusted to My apostle Peter. It is the door to My Sacred Heart and union with Divine Love."

"Holy Love is the harmony between man, nature, and the Creator. It is the interpretation of the law and the means of all sanctification."

"The will of man must choose Holy Love. It is not open to debate, and stands undaunted in the face of discernment. Holy Love cannot be judged, for it is the judge."

"Holy Love is offered in every present moment and follows the soul into eternity." (June 28, 1999)

THE EFFECTS OF HOLY LOVE IN THE HEART

"I have come to you to speak about the effects of Holy Love in the heart."

"Holy Love can transform the most mundane task into a powerful redemptive tool in the Hands of God."

"Holy Love, when it is accepted in the heart, can transform darkness into the Light of Truth."

"Holy Love can inspire victory over sin; therefore, Holy Love is the foundation of every conversion of heart."

"Holy Love is the vehicle of surrender of free will to accept God's Divine Will."

"It is Holy Love which helps the soul to recognize God's grace in every cross."

"These are sound reasons for souls to accept these Messages and to support this Mission of Holy Love by living the Messages. To do so is to allow your heart to be transformed by Holy Love. To do so is to follow the pursuit of Holy Perfection." (St. Francis de Sales - January 14, 2012)

"Without Holy Love in the heart, good deeds, penance and reparation are hollow; for Holy Love is the foundation of holiness, righteousness and truth. It is impossible for the soul to comply with the Divine Will of the Father apart from Holy Love, for God's Will is Holy Love."

"Holy Love leads the soul away from focus on self to focus on God and neighbor. This leads the heart into balance with the Divine Will. The soul gradually loses sight of how everything affects him – to focus on how everything affects God and neighbor. Such a soul is a jewel in God's Eyes and mounts swiftly up the Stairway to Holiness. This is the path to perfection." (St. Francis de Sales - January 16, 2012)

Comparison of Self-Love vs. Holy Love

Self-Love	Holy Love
Is motivated towards self-advantage in thought, word, and deed.	Is motivated in every thought, word, and action by love of God, and neighbor as self.
Sees only others' faults, not his own. Considers himself on the right path—perhaps even humble and virtuous.	Sees himself full of imperfections. Is always seeking to be perfected through love. Considers everyone more humble and holy than himself.
Holds a checklist in his heart of every wrong perpetrated against him.	Imitates Divine Mercy as best he can. Is compassionate and forgiving.
Is quick to anger and stands vigil over his own rights making certain they are not transgressed.	Is patient. Takes note of others' needs and concerns.
Hangs on to his own opinions refusing to surrender to another viewpoint.	Offers his own opinions but listens to others and lends them equal merit with his own.
Takes pride in his own achievements. May even take pride in his spiritual progress.	Realizes all things proceed from God; that without God he is capable of no good thing. All good comes from grace.
Sees himself and the world as the be-all/end-all. His only pleasure is thus achieved through the world.	Takes joy in storing up heavenly treasure, in growing closer to God and deeper in holiness. Knows the difference between earthly pleasures and spiritual joy.
Uses the goods of the world to satisfy self.	Uses the goods of the world to satisfy quest for holiness.
Objects to every cross. Sees trials as a curse. Resents others' good fortune.	Surrenders to the cross through love as Jesus did. Sees crosses as a grace to be used to convert others.
Prays only for himself and his own needs.	Prays for all in need.
Cannot accept God's Will. Becomes bitter over trials.	Accepts God's Will with a loving heart even when difficult.

SECOND EDITION

Messages to the Visionary
Maureen Sweeny-Kyle

Published by:
Archangel Gabriel Enterprises Inc.

Declaration

This is an updated and expanded edition of the book originally published in 2011. The book is based on Messages given by Heaven to the American Visionary, Maureen Sweeney-Kyle. All public Messages are posted on our website: www.holylove.org.

Scripture readings are taken from the Bible used by the Visionary: Ignatius Press – Holy Bible – Revised Standard Version – Second Catholic Edition.

The picture of St. John Vianney on the front cover was drawn by the Visionary, Maureen Sweeney-Kyle.

Current Canonical Explanation:

RESPONSE TO APPARITIONS AND VISIONARIES FOR ROMAN CATHOLICS

Since the abolition of Canon 1399 and 2318 of the former Code of Canon Law by Paul VI in AAS58 (1966) page 1186, publications about new apparitions, revelation, prophecies, miracles, etc., have been allowed to be distributed and read by the faithful without the express permission of the Church, providing that they contain nothing which contravenes faith and morals. This means, no imprimatur is necessary.

CONVERSATION WITH DIVINE LOVE

"I am your Jesus, born Incarnate."

"I come with many from the Heavenly Court today to deepen your understanding of these truths – truths which the world has not heard before." (St. Thomas Aquinas, St. Catherine of Siena, St. Martin de Porres and many angels are with Jesus.)

"When you see Me, My Mother, the saints or poor souls, you say you are having visions – apparitions. In fact, you are seeing the spirit of all of these. The spirit is apart from the soul and apart from the body. Like the soul, it is eternal. This is how St. Joseph welcomed My Mother into Heaven at Her Assumption. His body was not in Heaven, but his spirit manifested in a physical form to welcome Her."

"The spirit is the embodiment of all the virtues that the soul holds in its heart. If the heart opens to evil, then the spirit is also evil. This is why it is most important to let Holy Love stand guard over the heart. The spirit is the gateway to the eternal soul."

"You will make all of these things known, and no longer question the way in which Heaven allows you to see beyond the earthly realm."

"I am blessing you."

Maureen asks Blessed Mother later that evening: "Others with same favors?"

Blessed Mother: "The above that appeared with Jesus and Saints John Vianney, Thérèse, Teresa of Avila, Gertrude."

ABOUT THE APPARITIONS

The Visionary, Maureen Sweeney-Kyle, was born on December 12, 1940, on the Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe. Our Lady first appeared to Maureen in January 1985. Shortly after the first apparition, Maureen began receiving frequent Messages, first from Jesus and then from Our Lady. Our Lady then gave daily Messages through December 1998. Jesus then gave daily Messages from January 1999 to May 2017, with God the Father giving the daily Messages since June 2017.

To date, Maureen has received over 35,000 Messages from God the Father, Jesus, Our Lady, many saints and angels, and the Poor Souls in Purgatory.

Spiritual Directors:

Over the years, Maureen has been guided by various spiritual directors/ advisors who have been experts in Marian Theology.

APOSTOLIC MISSIONS

During the early years of the apparitions, Our Lady gave Maureen a series of missions to accomplish:

1986 – 1990

OUR LADY, PROTECTRESS OF THE FAITH
(Promotion of the Title and the Devotion)

1990 – 1993

PROJECT MERCY

(Nationwide Anti-Abortion Rosary Crusades)

1993 – Present

The combined Revelations of MARY, REFUGE OF HOLY LOVE and the CHAMBERS OF THE UNITED HEARTS. In 1993, Our Lady asked that this Mission be known as Holy Love Ministries and then requested that the Ministry procure property for a shrine in Lorain County, Ohio. This was accomplished in 1995. This 115-acre shrine is now known as Maranatha Spring and Shrine, the home of Holy Love Ministries, an Ecumenical Lay Apostolate to make known to the world the Chambers of the United Hearts through the Messages of Holy and Divine Love.

MISSION STATEMENT

We are an ecumenical Ministry seeking personal holiness in and through the Message of Holy and Divine Love. We seek perfection through the Chambers of the United Hearts. We spread the Revelation of the Chambers of the United Hearts whenever and wherever we can, thus ushering in the triumphant victory of the United Hearts.

MESSAGES FROM ST. JOHN VIANNEY

June 7, 1997

I look up to see the Curé d'Ars. He says: "I see you are not so glad to see me. We do not operate in fear. I know you are afraid I will tell you things that will leave you open to criticism. I only come bearing truth."

"Where do I begin? Faith in the Holy Father, faith in the Real Presence in the Eucharist, devotion to Our Lady and the Holy Rosary – these are the three strong points that a good priest must have. There is nothing here open to debate or compromise. These are Church doctrine. No one can be one-half a Catholic. You either believe or you don't."

"The function of a priest is to bring the sacraments to the people. Nothing should get in the way of this."

"The priest can change many souls and situations from the pulpit and by his lifestyle. He can uncover sin, fight abortion, feed the hungry, and strengthen faith. He can promote the family rosary and rosary groups in his own parish. He can ask for prayers against abortion and in support of the Holy Father and the Church. He can lead a saintly, exemplary life not being afraid of unpopularity or being a sign of the priesthood in the world – not being afraid to uncover sin."

"A vocation is a special gift from God. It is a call, and within that call is grave responsibility towards his parishioners and their salvation,"

The Curé nods to me. "There now. Was that so bad? Move forward." He blesses me and leaves.

June 8, 1997

I look up to see the Curé d'Ars once again. He says: "Forgive the intrusion. I like your dress, for it is modest." (I had been concerned it was too long.) He goes on. "I have come to describe to you the perfect cardinal, archbishop, and bishop. Such a one is completely loyal to the present Holy Father (Pope John Paul II). He does not support heresy but confronts it. He is not politically motivated nor concerned with popularity within Church ranks or in the world. He is a shepherd standing for Church Tradition and truth."

"I come to you so that those who are listening will be able to recognize good and discern evil." He blessed me and left.

August 4, 1998

Feast of St. John Vianney

St. John Vianney says: "Priests need to take seriously their charge, which is the salvation of every soul given over to them by Jesus. Too much is made of social action, modern psychology, and the like. Not enough emphasis is placed on sin, salvation, heaven, and hell."

November 7, 1998

St. John Vianney says: "So you are going to pray for priests on 2nd Fridays! It is good. It is very good. Pray that their faith is not compromised and watered down by popular opinion. Pray for their integrity. I, myself, will come and address the group."

February 12, 1999

Second Friday of the Month Prayer Service

I (Maureen) saw Our Lady's hands in the air. Then St. John Vianney appeared in front of them.

He says: "Praise be Jesus. My brothers and sisters, you must pray for priests for they are so under attack, today more than ever. Satan's confusion has attacked every heart consecrated to the priesthood. It is only through much prayer and sacrifice that the truth can be found and made known. My brothers and sisters, apostasy and schism have reached the very heart of the Church in this day and age. Those in error do not leave, but remain within the Church itself, and obscure the truth. This is why I tell you, pray for the priests." St. John Vianney blessed us.

April 9, 1999

Friday Prayer Service

St. John Vianney is here. He says: "Praise be Jesus. Ask the people here to pray an Our Father, Hail Mary, and Glory Be for lukewarm priests."

"My brothers and sisters, I have three requests. These requests are subjects that I desire priests place more importance upon and preach about."

"The first one is Jesus' real and true Presence in the tabernacles of the world. The second is the most Holy and Virgin Mother of God. And the third is the battle between good and evil in hearts."

"If priests do not help their parishioners and their flock to recognize sin, how can they hope to avoid it? And how will their confessionals fill up? Continue to pray for priests in this way and I will pray with you." The Curé (d'Ars – John Vianney) blessed us.

May 13, 1999

St. John Vianney appears. He says: "Please ask my brothers and sisters to pray for priests. Our Lady invites them into Her Heart. Pray that all priests are faithful and obedient to the Holy Father, that they honor Jesus present in the tabernacles of the world, and that they love their heavenly Mother."

"I give praise to Jesus."

June 11, 1999

Feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus

Second Friday Prayer Service to Pray for Priests

Jesus, the Sacred Heart, is here with St. John Vianney.

St. John says: "Praised be Jesus. My brothers and sisters, pray for all priests that faith in their hearts is strengthened and protected through the United Hearts of Jesus and Mary. Priests must obey and honor all Church dogma and the Holy Father (Pope John Paul II), for Jesus Himself has set this Holy Father in place. Seek always the respite of the Sacred Heart of Jesus through the Immaculate Heart of Mary and your faith will be secure."

Jesus blesses us.

July 9, 1999

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here in his faded black cassock. He says: "Praise be to Jesus. My dear brothers and sisters, tonight I earnestly ask you to pray to the Blessed Mother of God, that She protect the faith of priests as well as your own faith. Ask the Blessed Mother to pray that all priests become loyal to the Magisterium and remain so; that all priests believe in the Real Presence of the Holy Eucharist; and that all priests become devoted to the Blessed Mother. These are the three anchors of faith. I will pray with you. I will give you my Priestly Blessing."

August 4, 1999
Feast of St. John Vianney

St. John Vianney comes. He says: "Praise be to Jesus. I will tell you why I have come. I have come to invite every soul into the Divine Will. You may say, 'My dear St. John, I do not know what God's Will is for me.' Here it is. Live in the present moment in Holy Love. 'Oh, that is too hard,' you say. Only if you refuse to surrender, is it hard. Your surrender is everything. These Two Great Commandments are like jewels – like diamonds. The more you surrender, the more you see the glistening jewel. But when you place your own will in the way... ah, many obstacles. You have a rough rock covering the jewel. Your will must be chipped away to see what lies in hiding – a jewel greater than any on earth. The more you surrender, the easier it is to surrender. Make it known."

August 4, 1999
Feast of St. John Vianney
Prayer Service

St. John Vianney is here. He says: "My brothers and sisters, it is through the surrender of each priestly heart to his vocation that the sacraments come to you. Therefore, pray that more surrender to their vocations and to their priestly duties. Each priest is responsible for the souls that come to him. You must pray; you must be united in Holy Love in this effort."

"Tonight I'm giving you my Priestly Blessing."

August 13, 1999
Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

Blessed Mother and St. John Vianney are here. They both say: "Praise be to Jesus." (A personal message was given.)

St. John Vianney: "My brothers and sisters, pray for priests to pursue the virtue of simplicity. Through this virtue they will think, speak, and act only to please God, to Jesus through Mary. One of the fruits of this virtue is discernment. I'm praying with you. I extend to you tonight my Priestly Blessing."

September 10, 1999
Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here. He says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"My brothers and sisters, pray tonight and every day that priests preach the power of a holy life from the pulpit. They need to mention more often the power of prayer, sacrifice, and the evil of sin. There is a difference between love, peace, and joy as the world knows it, and love, peace, and joy that is the fruit of holiness through Holy Love. Tonight I extend to you my Priestly Blessing."

October 8, 1999

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here. He says: "Praise be to Jesus." (A personal message was given.)

"Tonight, my brothers and sisters, I remind you that all priests can judge the strength of their ministry by the numbers of confessions that they hear in one week. For the priest's job is to uncover evil, to heal the brokenhearted, and to oppose Satan where he lays hidden in hearts. Today I'm asking you to pray that all vocations are strengthened in these areas. And I'm extending to you my Priestly Blessing."

December 10, 1999

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

Jesus, Blessed Mother and St. John Vianney are here. Blessed Mother and St. John say: "Praise be to Jesus."

Jesus: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. Rise up, Oh Jerusalem! I will make of you a mighty nation, one set apart, a remnant faithful. In My Hand you will be a winnowing fan, blotting out the flames of apostasy, heresy, and schism."

St. John looks at everyone and says: "Oh, it is good we are all here united together, praying for this cause. Pray for the priests. Continue to pray – persevere. So many are set apart because of their belief and devotion to the Holy Virgin Mary and the Real Presence of the Sacrament of the Altar. Do not be discouraged. Tonight I will lift up your hearts and your cause."

The United Hearts Blessing is given.

January 14, 2000

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here. He says: "Praise be to Jesus. My brothers and sisters, my dear children in Christ, please pray that all priests make of their hearts reservoirs of Holy and Divine Love. If they would do this, vocations would be saved, as well as souls. I'm extending to you tonight my Priestly Blessing."

February 11, 2000

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here. He says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"My brothers and sisters, please realize a priest is lent his vocation from Heaven above. God gives vocations so that the priest can spend his life serving the souls under his charge. Therefore, pray that all priests have perseverance in their prayer lives and in their walk in holiness."

"I'm extending to you tonight the Blessing of Holy Love."

March 10, 2000

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney comes. "Praise be to Jesus. Tonight I have come to ask that people pray for priests every day. I ask this because Satan is so attacking the priesthood, and so, the Church from within. Pray that priests are loyal to Church hierarchy and faithful to all dogma so that their flock will be united."

"God will then bless your lives."

May 12, 2000

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here. He says: "All praise to Jesus."

"My brothers and sisters, please pray every day for all priests and most especially for the newly ordained. Pray that they will be faithful to the Magisterium under this Holy Father (Pope John Paul II); that they will be devoted to the Eucharist, and close to the Blessed Virgin Mary."

"Then, let us face facts, My brothers and sisters. There are priests who oppose recitation of the Rosary. We must pray for them. This certainly is an obstacle on their path towards Holy and Divine Love. I'm extending to you my Priestly Blessing."

August 4, 2000

Feast of St. John Vianney

St. John Vianney comes. He says: "Praise be to Jesus. I have come to invite you to see that Satan's tactics are the same within the heart of the Church as they are in the secular world today. It is called compromise. When a heart is compromised, it places more value on pleasing self and impressing others than upholding truth and pleasing God. Such a conscience is not easily corrected."

"Yes, the world and the Church suffer today because of compromise. This is how Satan enters governments and marriages as well. You must uncover this in courage and make it known."

September 8, 2000

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here. He says: "Praise be to Jesus. My brothers and sisters, in Christ, we must pray together for priests who have compromised consciences. Such as these are concerned more for what people think of them than in pleasing God. You have no idea the impact this Message on the Chambers of the Heart of Our Lord would mean to such priests. I'm extending to you my Priestly Blessing."

October 13, 2000

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

Jesus and St. John Vianney are here. St. John says: "All praise be to Jesus." Jesus now disappears. St. John continues: "My brothers and sisters, a vocation is given at the time of conception. Thousands upon thousands of vocations have been lost because of the sin of abortion. Other vocations, even prelates, have lost their vocations because of their devotion to the world, the flesh, and the devil. You, my brothers and sisters must pray always that the vocations that are given at the time of conception grow to fruition under the mantle of our Most Blessed Mother. I'm extending to you my Priestly Blessing."

March 9, 2001

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

Jesus and St. John Vianney are here. St. John says: "Praise be Jesus." Jesus says: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate."

St. John Vianney: "I've come to tell you how to live more deeply this Message of the United Hearts which you have been given by Heaven. You cannot surrender if you do not trust, and you cannot trust if you do not love Jesus more perfectly. Therefore, let all your efforts be given over to loving the Lord with a more perfect love."

St. John gives us his Priestly Blessing and Jesus says: "I'm extending to all here tonight My Blessing of Divine Love."

June 8, 2001

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

The Curé d'Ars (St. John Vianney) is here. He says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"My brothers and sisters, it is every priest's duty, every bishop's duty and every cardinal's duty to be familiar with what was stated and decided upon in Vatican II."

"Compromise begins like this: Untruths and convoluted thinking are attributed to decisions in Vatican II, and these errors are spread, and worse still, accepted and believed in. I will bless you if you pursue the truth in every way and on every subject. Do not presume certain things were stated or decided upon which were not."

"Tonight I'm extending to you my Priestly Blessing."

July 13, 2001

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney and Archbishop Ganaka* are here, and say: "Praise be to Jesus."

St. John Vianney: "My brothers and sisters, no priest should exempt himself from a nightly examination of conscience, for it is in this way he is drawn deeper into the Heart of Jesus, using the light of Holy Love as his guide. Every priest needs to measure himself against the maxim of Holy Love, for this is the way to increase in holiness and made a good confessor for those who come to him confessing their sins."

"We extend to you tonight our Priestly Blessing."

 Archbishop Gabriel Gonsum Ganaka of Jos Nigeria, Founder of the Confraternity of the United Hearts.*

August 4, 2001

Feast of St. John Vianney

Saturday MSHL Rosary Service

Jesus and St. John Vianney are here. St. John is kneeling in front of Jesus.

Jesus: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. My brothers and sisters, the key to trusting more is loving Me more. The key to loving Me more is giving Me your will and accepting the Will of My Father."

"Tonight I'm blessing you with My Blessing of Divine Love."

August 10, 2001

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here. He says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"Tonight I have come, My brothers and sisters, with Heaven's request that you pray and support the (Catholic) Church's position on abortion, birth control and stem cell research, NOT the POPULAR OPINION. The popular opinion is shot full of compromise and Satan's deceit. Pray against Satan's deceptions."

"I'm extending to you my Priestly Blessing."

October 12, 2001

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

Jesus and St. John Vianney are here. St. John says: "Praise be to Jesus."

Jesus: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate."

St. John Vianney: "My brothers and sisters, pray as little children beseeching the Good God to draw all priests into the Immaculate Heart of the Virgin Mary – Refuge of Holy Love – for this is the way of true conversion."

"Tonight I will extend to you my Priestly Blessing."

May 10, 2002

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

Jesus is here with St. John Vianney. Jesus says: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate." St. John says: "Praise be to Jesus."

St. John: "We have come from Heaven to call all priests, all bishops, all cardinals into a brotherly commitment with the Lord Jesus Christ. This brotherhood of love will help you to lead with a loving heart, not with hearts drunk with power. I'm extending to you tonight my Priestly Blessing."

Jesus: "I extend to you My Blessing of Divine Love."

June 14, 2002

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here. He has tears in his eyes and says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"My brothers and sisters, today I have come to you begging your prayers and your continued sacrifices for Holy Mother Church. The soul of the Church has been laid bare, and that which was hidden in darkness has been brought into the light.* And you know, my brothers and sisters, that what has taken place in the past is still wounded in the hearts of many in the present moment. Therefore, I ask you to pray for the victims of these crimes. Priests must realize that their vocation was given to them to save souls through the sacraments of the Church."

"And so tonight I'm taking all your petitions with me to Heaven, and I am imparting to you my Priestly Blessing."

July 12, 2002

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here. He bows toward Fr. P. Then he looks at me, smiles and says: "Now you can tell them how raggedy I look."

"Now, my brothers and sisters, I have come to give praise to Jesus, born Incarnate. I have come to ask all priests to come before the Eucharistic Lord, His True and Real Presence in the tabernacles of the world – there to be stripped of all compromise and deceit – their hearts to be laid bare so that He can make them His true and real priests."

"Tonight I'm blessing you with my Priestly Blessing."

August 4, 2002

Feast of St. John Vianney

St. John Vianney comes. He says: "Praise be to Jesus. It is a sad thing that has befallen the Church today – these scandals!* It is all because of lack of belief in the True Presence of Jesus Christ in the Holy Eucharist. Yes, this belief alone would stop such heinous crimes. This belief, coupled with devotion to the Holy Madonna, would stop any serious sin. No one, let alone a priest who loves these devotions, would even entertain such thoughts."

Global clergy sexual abuse scandal and cover-up.*

August 9, 2002

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

The Curé d'Ars, St. John Vianney is here. He says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"My brothers and sisters, when the Lord places a vocation in the heart, it is there forever. It is never lost, but it is betrayed. It is betrayed when the priest does not stay faithful to the Magisterium of the Church – when he is not devoted to the Holy Eucharist or to the Holy Madonna."

"Priests must persevere in these devotions and in obedience or else they will give in to doubts. Pray for all priests."

He blesses us.

September 13, 2002

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

Jesus is here with St. Padre Pio and St. John Vianney. They both say: "Praise be to Jesus."

Jesus says: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate." Jesus now greets the priests who are here and says: "I'm pleased to see so many of My brother priests here today. I invite them to come back often." (A private message was then given to Maureen.)

Jesus continues: "My dear brothers and sisters, I invite you to pray every day for your priests and your bishops, and ALL the Church Magisterium. You, My dear brothers, must cling tenaciously to your vocations. Realize that there is so much evil in the world, for there is so much evil in hearts. I desire that you cling fiercely to the Heart of My Mother. She will press your every need to Her Immaculate Heart."

"Tonight we are extending to you our Priestly Blessings."

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here. He says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"My brothers and sisters, I desire that each of you make some small sacrifice daily for the conversion of priests and the Church hierarchy. Pray that they are always open to seeing their own weaknesses and shortcomings, and the areas of temptation where Satan enters. Pray and sacrifice that they receive strength through Heavenly grace to overcome these shortcomings."

"I'm extending to you my Priestly Blessing."

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here. He says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"My brothers and sisters, pray that all priests become detached from material goods, reputation and all worldly allurements. Let their only attachment be the Eucharistic Heart of Jesus. In this way their vocations will be safeguarded."

"I'm blessing you with my Priestly Blessing."

December 13, 2002

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here with two angels. He says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"My brothers and sisters, tonight I request your prayers for all priests that they may sacrifice themselves for the holiness of others. Pray that priests are open to the truth which is the Divine Will of God."

"And I'm extending to you tonight my Priestly Blessing."

January 10, 2003

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here and says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"My brothers and sisters, when you pray for priests, pray that they become more holy, and that their hearts open to see where they are weak. For they are not holy by virtue of their vocation, but because of their vocation they are to work on their personal holiness so that they can help others. My sweet and merciful Jesus desires to draw every priest deep into the Chambers of the United Hearts."

"I will bless you with My Priestly Blessing."

March 3, 2003

St. John Vianney comes and says: "Praise be to Jesus. The Holy Remnant must pull together now in order to oppose those who attack the Church from within. If the dissenters band together under certain titles, the Remnant must do so, as well. This can be accomplished through the Confraternity of the United Hearts."

April 11, 2003

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here and says: "Praise be to Jesus. My brothers and sisters, during this tumultuous time, priests need to cling to their Heavenly Mother with self-effacement. And with great ardor, they need to pursue Holy Love. For I tell you, the Holy Mother is calling with much energy ALL the priests of the world into Her Immaculate Heart which is Holy Love and the First Chamber."

"I'm extending to you my Priestly Blessing."

June 13, 2003

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here. He says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"My brothers and sisters, pray for all priests who feel that their ministry is ineffective. This is a trap of discouragement that Satan lays for priests, and many have fallen into it. Pray for priests who are already discouraged and consider abandoning their vocations."

St. John extends his Priestly Blessing.

July 11, 2003

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here and says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"My dear priest brothers, I plead with you tonight – reinstate the TRUE TRADITION OF FAITH in the hearts of the flock entrusted to you. Do not be swayed by the false agendas of dissenters. Do not be confused to think that you must collect large amounts of money, but trust in God's Divine Providence. You will be given everything you need and more."

"Tonight I extend to you my Priestly Blessing."

August 8, 2003

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here. He says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"My brothers and sisters, I desire that you pray and sacrifice for the priests and the Church hierarchy as well, that all that is concealed in darkness be brought into the light. Until this occurs, priests will be regarded with suspicion instead of the respect they deserve."

"My brothers and sisters, pray very hard for these intentions. I am praying with you."

"I am extending to you my Priestly Blessing."

September 12, 2003

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here. He says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"My brothers and sisters, tonight I tell you that every priest has a vocation within a vocation which is to lead his flock in the two great commandments of love – love God above all else and your neighbor as yourself. This is Holy Love. I tell you that Holy Love is the passkey to the Gate of Heaven and the Heel that will crush the head of the Serpent. How important then that this be made known!"

"I'm extending to you my Priestly Blessing."

October 10, 2003

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here. He says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"My dear brothers and sisters, please realize in this age of self-centered secularism, all priests must answer a vocation within a vocation. Every priest is called to personal holiness. The priest that does not answer this call is not a good priest and does not fulfill his priesthood the way Heaven commands. Pray for priests! Pray for priests!"

"I'm imparting to you My Priestly Blessing."

November 14, 2003

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here and says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"My brothers and sisters, tonight pray, pray that all priests observe the sanctity of the present moment by pursuing personal holiness. This can only be accomplished through humility and complete surrender to Holy Love which is God's Divine Will for each soul, but most especially for priests."

"Tonight I'm extending to you my Priestly Blessing."

December 12, 2003

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here and says: "Praise be to Jesus." He nods at everyone, then continues.

"My brothers and sisters, whole Dioceses could be converted if bishops would adopt this spiritual journey and put it in the hands of their priests. Parishioners would follow it readily, for they are thirsty for a spirituality that will lead them deep into the Heart of Jesus. Make this known."

St. John extends to us his Priestly Blessing.

January 9, 2004

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here. He says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"Tonight I have come to help you understand that all priests are on the front lines of spiritual warfare. They are attacked on all sides and must remain faithful despite opposition and every kind of compromise. I have come to help you see that the way to be strong is through prayer and sacrifice, and take as your breastplate the armor of truth. Never disdain one of these dear priests, but pray for them."

"I am blessing you."

February 13, 2004

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here and says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"My brothers and sisters, pray for your priests for they are much under attack. When I speak of priests, I include Church hierarchy. Vocations become compromised when priests allow Satan to let them worry more about money and friendships and power than in saving souls. But if all priests cling to the Divine Will of God which is Holy Love itself, their vocations will be safe in the Heart of their Savior."

"I'm extending to you my Priestly Blessing."

May 14, 2004

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here and says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"My brothers and sisters, today it is true vocations are attacked on many fronts, but always these attacks are against Holy Love in the heart. For while each person is called to holiness through pursuit of Holy and Divine Love, it is even more important for priests and seminarians."

"Pray that priests have holy discernment to realize how they are being attacked, and to know which is good and which is evil."

"Tonight I'm extending to you my Priestly Blessing."

June 11, 2004

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here and says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"Tonight I tell you that priests who draw their flock into the Eucharistic Heart of Jesus will succeed in converting many souls. Priests that downplay the centrality of the Holy Eucharist will lose many souls."

St. John extends his hands out over the priests in the apparition room. Then he says: "I'm blessing the people here with My Priestly Blessing."

July 9, 2004

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here and says: "Praise be to Jesus." He greets Fr. G. by nodding, then says to him: "Thank you for coming."

"My brothers and sisters in Christ, please pray for priests to pursue personal holiness, for it is only in this way that their flocks will be converted. They must be an inspiration of virtue to the flock they have been entrusted with. This is the way they will be judged – according to the influence in Holy Love that they had on their flock."

"I'm extending to you my Priestly Blessing."

August 13, 2004

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here and says: "Praise be to Jesus." He looks at Fr. J. and gives him a blessing.

Then he says: "My brothers and sisters, I come that you may understand Jesus is the Way, the Truth and the Life. Make Him the center of your hearts."

"Priests will always succeed in their vocations so long as they guard against inordinate self-love. This disordered love keeps them from saving souls. They must be examples of humility."

"Tonight I'm extending to you my Priestly Blessing."

September 10, 2004

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

The Image of the United Hearts appears. Then St. John Vianney appears next to it; however, he is very small.

St. John says: "Praise be to Jesus. My brothers and sisters, please realize that the Lord's ardent desire is to engulf the heart of the Priesthood in the Flame of Divine Love. For it is within this Flame that all priests realize the gentle, humble path through the Chambers of the United Hearts which leads to the Divine Will of the Father. You will please make this known."

"I'm extending to you my Priestly Blessing."

October 8, 2004

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here and says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"Today, my brothers and sisters, pray for all priests to help the souls in their charge to recognize the Divine Will of God in their lives. In so doing they must help the little lambs recognize the preciousness, the uniqueness of every present moment. This is the way to holiness – this is the way to sanctity."

"I'm extending to you my Priestly Blessing."

November 12, 2004

St. John Vianney is here and says: "Praise be to Jesus." (He's dressed as for Mass.)

"Today priests need to realize that the sacraments give spiritual life to their flock. It is the priest's job to bring the sacraments to their people. This is their responsibility. All other things such as being a great preacher or great socializer amongst his flock does not mean that the priest is great, for the priest is only great in God's Eyes if he recognizes his function as bringing the Blessed Sacrament and all the sacraments to his flock."

"I am extending to you my Priestly Blessing."

January 14, 2005

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here. He says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"My brothers and sisters, recognize that it is a great grace to look into your own heart and discover where you are failing in Holy Love. As it is a grace for each soul, it is more important for the priest to humbly do this. The priest should also pray for his penitents so that he can help them discover where their errors lie."

"Tonight, as always, I'm extending to you my Priestly Blessing."

March 11, 2005

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here and says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"My brothers and sisters, it is the priest's vocation to draw his flock into the Eucharistic Heart of Jesus. In so doing, his entire congregation will reflect Divine Love in their hearts. There is no alternative to living in Divine Love."

"You will please make this known; for if you desire Heaven, you will embrace Divine Love."

"I'm extending to you my Priestly Blessing."

April 8, 2005

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here and says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"My brothers and sisters, priests must constantly surrender their flock to the Divine Will of the Eternal Father, for it is in this surrender that true martyrdom of Holy Love is begotten. It is only in this way that sanctity can be obtained."

"Tonight I'm blessing you with my Priestly Blessing."

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

May 13, 2005

St. John Vianney is here and says: "Praise be to Jesus." He smiles at Fr. J. and nods his head.

"My brothers and sisters, pray for all priests that they be spiritually little, for this way they will not be sophisticated and worldly-wise but will have the singular purpose of saving their flock. Pray that all priests embrace this truth."

"I'm blessing you with my Priestly Blessing."

June 10, 2005

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here and says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"Today our Heavenly Mother kneels at the foot of the Cross and receives into Her Arms with much sorrow the hearts of priests. She tries to mend the hearts of those priests who have been abandoned by their confreres and the hierarchy of the Church. She prays for priests who have lost their faith through heresy."

"But Her greatest sorrow at the foot of the Cross today is the hearts of priests who are like they are dead – dead to the faith, dead to evangelization – and do not realize their roles in the salvation of their flock; for these She sorrows the most. Comfort Her, as I wish to be comforted myself when I look upon many priests today."

"I'm extending to you my Priestly Blessing."

July 8, 2005

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here and says: "Praise be to Jesus." Then he greets the people here, and smiles at the priests.

"My brothers and sisters, tonight I invite all priests to realize that their hearts are purified during each Mass through the Holy Eucharist. It is in this way they can be more completely united to the Hearts of Jesus and Mary. It is in this way, as well, that they can abandon themselves more completely to the Will of God."

"Tonight I am imparting to you my Priestly Blessing."

August 12, 2005

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

Blessed Mother and St. John Vianney are here. They both say: "Praise be to Jesus." Now they look at Father – nod and smile.

St. John Vianney says: "The Holy Mother permits me to tell you this. Priests always need prayers no matter what their holiness seems to be on the surface. They are under attack, and it is not only the priests who suffer attacks but also the Church hierarchy – cardinals and bishops. Such is the state of each priest's daily journey – one attack after another. Understand that the priesthood is the soul of the Church."

"We're blessing you tonight – She with Her Blessing of Holy Love, and I with my Priestly Blessing."

September 9, 2005

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here. He greets everyone; then turns and blesses Father. He says: "My dear brothers and sisters, praise be to Jesus through the United Hearts."

"Tonight I'm calling you to realize that the deeper you go into Divine Love, the harder it is for Satan to distract you and pull you away. Therefore, ask for a humble, loving heart. Priests who follow this dictate will have a more fruitful vocation."

"I'm extending to you my Priestly Blessing."

October 14, 2005

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here. He says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"My brothers and sisters, I have come to encourage and protect my brother priests. I desire that they know that their Faith is being protected by our Holy Mother under the title 'Mary, Protectress of the Faith' and 'Refuge of Holy Love.' These two titles belong together as one. Further, they should realize that they must continue to be devoted to the rosary, most especially the Rosary of the Unborn,* for it is every person's treatment of God's weakest creatures that determines his stand on Holy Love."

"Tonight I'm extending to you my Priestly Blessing."

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here and says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"I am addressing my dear brother priests tonight, and ask that they embrace the crosses that God the Father allows, for the cross is a hidden grace, and it leads deeper into Divine Love."

"You must understand that Divine Victimhood, which is the embrace of every cross, is the embodiment of chastity, poverty and obedience."

"I am giving to every priest tonight my Priestly Blessing."

March 10, 2006

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here. He says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"Today I invite you to understand that priests must allow all their thoughts, words and deeds to arise from hearts of Holy Love. In this selfless love, they will be able to concentrate on bringing the sacraments to the people."

"The doorway that Satan uses to corrupt and misguide others is always self-love. It is the same self-love that confuses and embraces liberalism."

"And tonight I'm imparting to you my Priestly Blessing."

May 12, 2006

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here. He says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"My dear brothers and sisters, you must realize the woundedness of the Church today. She is weaker than she has ever been before. She has been overwhelmed by confusion. It is by prayer and sacrifice that the Holy Mother Church will be able to recover. But at the same time, you must pray and sacrifice for all priests, that they have contrite hearts themselves and turn to God's Mercy, for His Mercy will refuse no one with a contrite heart. We have much work to do. I will join you in prayer."

"I'm extending to you my Priestly Blessing."

June 9, 2006

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here and says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"My brothers and sisters, I have come to help all priests realize that the success of their vocation does not lie in intellectual prowess, but in their personal relationship with Jesus. The spirituality here returns the soul to the Tradition of Faith.* You must encourage it amongst the priests. Some will never see Heaven without it.

"I'm extending to you my Priestly Blessing."

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here and says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"I have come to tell each one of you that anything you do without love in your heart is wasted. Priests in particular must pray for love of prayer, sacrifice and penance, for this is the way of conversion for their flock that they have been entrusted with. Do not hesitate to ask me to intercede for you, whether you are a priest or lay person. This is a special grace to love penance, prayer and sacrifice. I will help you with it."

"I'm extending to you my Priestly Blessing."

August 4, 2006

Feast of St. John Vianney

St. John Vianney says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"Today on my feast day, I have come to remind all priests that their vocation is the salvation of the souls under their charge. Towards this end, they need to place the distribution of the sacraments as their first priority, making Mass, the Eucharist and Confession generously available. They must be just stewards of any and all funds that come their way – not neglecting the poor in their needs, nor treating the affluent with greater respect than the simplest and lowliest under their charge."

"Any activity which could lead to debauchery must be discouraged. In the same way, sin must be exposed for what it is. Bishops cannot be placated because of rank, but must be open to suggestions – even constructive criticism."

"Seek always the reconciliation between God and His people."

"As priests, do not neglect your own prayer lives. You cannot lead if you do not move forward yourself first."

"Above all, avoid sin of any kind so that your relationship with God is the best and strongest it can be."

"If you listen and act on the words I have given you today, your Confession lines will be long, your Masses overcrowded, and many vocations will blossom in your midst."

"Make it known."

August 4, 2006

Feast of St. John Vianney

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

Jesus and Blessed Mother are here with Their Hearts exposed, and St. John Vianney is to the front of Them. Jesus says: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate." Blessed Mother and St. John Vianney say: "Praise be to Jesus."

Jesus: "My dear children, this Saint wants you to know the sin that holds souls for the longest time in Purgatory are sins of the flesh. Next comes sins of the tongue and after that – intellectual pride. And so, avoid all these and lead simplistic lives; you will see Paradise much sooner than certain others."

"We're blessing you with the Blessing of Our United Hearts."

August 6, 2006

Intellectual Pride / Purgatory

St. John Vianney says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"Today I have come to help you realize just why intellectual pride is an attitude that holds souls in Purgatory for so long. This type of pride leads people to believe more in themselves and their own opinions than in the Holy Spirit who is Truth itself."

"Intellectual pride results in false discernment, rash judgment, liberal theology and an obtuse spirit in examining their own conscience. Every heresy throughout history has been the product of intellectual pride. This type of pride leads the soul to believe he is always right – everyone who opposes him is wrong. In this same way, he closes himself off from constructive criticism."

"Souls, in humility, must realize that all intellect comes from God alone, and is only lent to the person as a grace to be used for the greater honor and glory of God. It is so with any gift or talent. How foolish to consider it otherwise."

"When the soul believes too much in himself, he begins to use what God has given him towards his own self-destruction."

August 9, 2006

St. John Vianney says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"I tell you, it is too often the Evil One who brings others' shortcomings to light – disturbing your peace and encouraging you to judge. Remember that Satan's role is the accuser – the one who brings disunity and destroys peace. When he tries this, call on Mary, Refuge of Holy Love. Then try to think of a good quality the other person has, one that perhaps you do not."

"As a general rule, do not concentrate on the faults of others, but what you can do to come deeper into the Chambers of the United Hearts."

August 11, 2006

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here. He smiles at the priest who is present, and blesses him. He says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"My brothers and sisters, if you do not recognize the portal that Satan comes through to reach the inner recesses of your heart with his temptations – if you do not recognize the path he draws you upon with his evil inspirations – then you are giving him free reign in your hearts and in your lives. This is especially true of priests who are the most popular targets of evil. You must pray for the wisdom to recognize and to know the enemy; then you will be ready for his next attack, and he will not trip you up."

"Tonight I'm extending to you my Priestly Blessing."

September 8, 2006

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here. He says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"Tonight I come especially to remind the Church hierarchy that they are priests first, and then bishops or cardinals. Understanding this, they must protect the truth of the TRADITION OF FAITH and pass this on completely and without compromise to their flock, the priests and the laity. Please pray for this to become a reality in today's world."

"I'm extending to you my Priestly Blessing."

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here and says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"My brothers and sisters, all priests must come to realize that they must imitate their Savior Jesus Christ. In this way, they should sacrifice everything for the conversion of their flocks, holding nothing back. Then, when they stand before the Judgment Seat of God, the Guardian Angels of those whom they have helped to save, will stand next to them. Remember this always, and make it known."

"I'm extending to you my Priestly Blessing."

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here. He says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"Tonight I have come to remind my brother priests that their main duty is to lead souls to their salvation through the sacraments of the Church. They must not be remiss in tending to the souls that need the most care – the ones that are discouraged or perhaps in the midst of faith crisis."

"Tonight I'm imparting to you my Priestly Blessing."

November 15, 2006

St. John Vianney says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"When you pass from time into eternity, every little thing that you did out of Holy Love goes with you, and Jesus smiles on these things at your judgment. The past – your sins and indiscretions – you must entrust to His Mercy. In eternity you will see how your entire life was woven together by the Hand of God to bring you to salvation."

"Those souls that choose their perdition (for souls condemn themselves by their own motives in life) readily see how they have squandered many a present moment and many a grace."

"I come tonight to remind you that moment-to-moment choices determine your eternity. Surrender everything to Holy Love."

"Purgatory is filled with those who live only to please themselves."

January 12, 2007

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here. He says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"My brothers and sisters, it is of urgent importance that priests be given this Message concerning the path of trustful surrender which leads to the Divine Will of the Heavenly Father; for it is they who are most under attack, most likely to be pulled from the path by Satan's designs. Pray that priests accept the path and stay upon it."

"I'm extending to you my Priestly Blessing."

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here. He says: "Praise be to Jesus, present in the tabernacles of the world."

"I have come to remind all my priest brothers that trust draws upon God's Mercy; if they have repentant hearts, they will be filled with His forgiveness. They need to trust in this and turn to Him. Do not live in the past through guilt. Remain in the present."

"I'm blessing you with my Priestly Blessing."

May 11, 2007

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

Jesus and St. John Vianney are here. Jesus says: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate." St. John says: "Praise be to Jesus."

St. John: "We have come here together tonight to stress the importance of this Message. No builder, no matter his skill or reputation, can successfully construct a building without a foundation."

Jesus: "Yes. And it is the same way in the spiritual life. No one can skip the foundation of humility and love through God's mercy and still be truly holy. Such supposed holiness is only surface deep and will collapse under the slightest stress. Therefore, even the greatest and most humble priest must first be humble and loving, and open to God's grace."

Jesus blesses us with His Blessing of Divine Love – St. John Vianney with his Priestly Blessing.

June 8, 2007

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here and says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"My brothers and sisters, today I have come to help all priests realize they must be self-effacing; that is, in every present moment in thought, word and deed, they should not regard cost to self, but only think the cost of one soul and offer everything they can to bring souls into the Kingdom of the Divine Will."

"Tonight I'm extending to you my Priestly Blessing."

July 13, 2007

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

Blessed Mother and St. John Vianney are here. Blessed Mother says: "Praise be to Jesus," as well as St. John. They both look at the Bishop, and St. John says: "Welcome," and extends his hand upwards with two fingers extended. And Our Lady says: "Thank you for living in Holy and Divine Love."

St. John says: "Today, my brothers and sisters, vocations are lost and paralyzed because they are not offered to the protection of the Holy Mother. It is She who protects vocations and strengthens them in graces and virtue. My brothers and sisters, priests should always encourage devotion to the holy rosary in their parishes, as well as to their fellow priests who have no use for the rosary."

St. John gives us his Priestly Blessing and Our Lady says: "I'm blessing you with My Blessing of Holy Love."

October 12, 2007

Second Friday Rosary Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here and says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"My brothers and sisters, solemnly tonight I tell you, that all priests must support life from the moment of conception until natural death from the pulpit. Not to do so is to play into the enemy's hands. It is the solemn duty of the Church to take a firm stand publicly on this issue. All priests will be held accountable before the Judgment of God on this issue."

"I'm imparting to you my Priestly Blessing."

November 1, 2007
TO PRIESTS

St. John Vianney says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"Child of Christ, here are some guidelines for priests, not only the ones who come here, but also the ones who are deciding about the Messages or the Confraternity."

1. "Frequent confession after much soul-searching."
2. "Pray for discernment. An opinion or a judgment is not discernment. Realize that today some Dioceses are compromised by error, by liberalism."
3. "Use your guardian angel. Develop a love for this angel God has given you."
4. "Love the souls in your charge, and do all in your power to bring them to salvation."
5. "Be humble and childlike. Avoid intellectual pride. Give all credit to God from your heart."
6. "Pray for the Poor Souls. They have much power. Put them to use."

"If priests follow these guidelines, Jesus promises a strengthening of their vocations."

St. John Vianney is here. He says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"My brothers and sisters, pray that all priests recognize the need to seek the protection of their Heavenly Mother lest they be misled by liberal theology. Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here and says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"My brothers and sisters, priests must not be pressured into honoring the dead as already reaching their sainthood. Priests, indeed, have a solemn responsibility to encourage prayer for the faithful departed. Many souls are in Purgatory very close to their release, but no one offers prayer or sacrifice for them. In fact, this is fast becoming a thing of the past."

"Tonight I'm imparting to you my Priestly Blessing."

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here and says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"My brothers and sisters, tonight I would ask that you pray for all priests who are not faithful to their vocations, the vocations that God has placed in their hearts from conception."

"These are the ones that pierce the heart of Our Savior over and over. These are the ones that He cannot bear to look upon. It begins with the priest trying to fit in with the secular society until he becomes more and more compromised and does not recognize sin in his own heart. Pray for these."

"Tonight I am blessing you with my Priestly Blessing."

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here and says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"Tonight, once again, I invite all priests to realize that their function is to win souls to Christ. If they commit sins of omission by neglecting the Tradition of Faith or neglecting to take the sacraments to the people, then they are mounting up time for themselves in Purgatory. Their sins of omission are more serious than many sins of omission for the laity."

"My brothers and sisters, I'm extending to you my Priestly Blessing."

Feast of St. John Vianney

St. Michael Shield of Truth Prayer Service

Jesus and St. John Vianney are here. Jesus' Heart is exposed. He says: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate. St. John says: "Praise be to Jesus."

St. John: "My dear priests, please listen carefully. Jesus desires that you live every present moment in humility and love with fidelity to the Tradition of Faith. Do not rebel against the Magisterium. Be devoted to the Most Holy Virgin Mother of God. Spend time before Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament; then your vocations will bear much fruit."

Jesus says: "We're extending to you tonight Our Priestly Blessing."

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here and says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"Tonight's Message is very short and easy on the ears, but difficult to live from the heart. All priests should pray to recognize the Truth and to support it."

"I'm extending to you my Priestly Blessing."

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here. He says: "Praise be to Jesus."

(A personal message was given to Maureen.)

"My brothers and sisters, please realize, and I tell you this with great sadness, that many priests have betrayed their vocations due to allurements of the world and sin itself. Therefore, it is imperative that you pray for priests daily; sacrifice for them that they will be strengthened in the face of temptation. They must go back to simple lives and not be attracted to things of the world, power, money or control."

"Tonight I'm extending to you my Priestly Blessing."

May 8, 2009

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney and St. Joseph are here. They both say: "Praise be to Jesus."

St. John Vianney says: "My brothers and sisters, today I invite all priests to realize that it is their duty to have a paternal concern for their flock – looking after their spiritual well-being, their emotional needs and their physical needs. So that they can be faithful prayer warriors, priests must lead their flocks deeper into the United Hearts."

"Tonight I'm extending to you my Priestly Blessing."

May 22, 2009

St. John Vianney says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"I have come to help you understand the significance of this novena I just dictated to you.* Encapsulated within these words is the directive to becoming a good priest. Such a priest places his own personal holiness and the holiness of his flock first. This is the embrace of Holy Love. The priest cannot do this with sincerity and still enjoy the roles of social director, financial director or embrace liberalism. Everything else becomes secondary, even minuscule, to his own journey in holiness and the holiness of all those in his charge."

"When Jesus looks into the heart of a priest, this is what He searches out. How many priests today live in such simplicity?"

See the Novena to the United Hearts for the Holiness of Priests on page 71.*

May 29, 2009

St. John Vianney says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"I wish to describe to you an arrogant person. Such a person has an unwarranted exulted opinion of himself. He cannot accuse himself of weaknesses or faults, but believes himself to be always on the right path. Such a one easily falls into judging as opposed to discerning."

"I am telling you these things, for the heart of the world reflects the arrogance that is in hearts today."

June 12, 2009

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here and says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"My brothers and sisters, as the Year of the Priesthood is about to begin under my patronage, I have come to ask that you multiply your prayers for holy priests. Priests can become holier if they perform a self-examination of conscience nightly. Then they will see the importance of the Sacrament of Penance, and they will promote it to their flock. Pray very hard, for priests are very much under attack on all sides."

"Tonight I'm extending to you my Priestly Blessing."

July 10, 2009

Second Friday Service to Pray for Priests

St. John Vianney is here. He says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"The Holy Mother sends me tonight with an open invitation to Her Immaculate Heart for all priests who come here (Maranatha Spring and Shrine)* during this hour of temptation that weighs upon the fruits of their vocations."

"Their vocations can be strengthened here through the many graces offered with love, tenderness and care."

"Tonight I'm imparting to you my Priestly Blessing."

"Each priest who comes to the property is given an extra angel to guard his vocation and move more rapidly through the Chambers of Our United Hearts. But the angel will not remain with them if they give any indication of disobedience to the Holy Father and/or Church Tradition. He (the angel), at the sign of schism, returns to Heaven." (Jesus – July 11, 2002)

July 22, 2009

St. John Vianney says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"My daughter, always seek the vestment of littleness. This is the cloak of humility God desires for you. Those who proclaim judgments against Heaven's designs upon you will, in time, fall to defeat."

"Humility is not in ambition, power or control. Humility does not seek self-recognition or the desire to be 'right'. Littleness desires hiddenness, self-effacement and always embraces truth. Humility is itself the truth of the soul's place before God, not the soul's place before the eyes of man. Earthly reputation is passing and does not follow you into Heaven."

"All that is necessary is Holy Love in the heart, for Holy Love and Holy Humility cannot be separated. To embrace one is to embrace the other. You cannot embrace littleness outside of these two. Self-love remains the enemy of littleness. Remain hidden in the most humble of human hearts – the Immaculate Heart of Mary."

Thursday – Prayer for Priests

St. John Vianney is here and says: "Praise be to Jesus." (He raises up both hands like he's blessing the priests here.)

"My brothers and sisters, tonight these priests represent all priests to me. I desire all priests surrender their hearts totally and completely to the Chambers of the United Hearts. This is why I have come – why Jesus has asked that this night (Thursday) be prayed for priests. It is through the United Hearts, priests, like all those who follow these Messages, will come deeper into holiness and can greatly assist the spirituality of their flock."

"Tonight I am blessing you with my Priestly Blessing."

October 9, 2009

Friday Service – For all those falsely accused within society, governments and within Church circles; that all calumnies are exposed by Truth

St. John Vianney is here and says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"My brothers and sisters, each time before you begin to pray, recall in your heart how much God the Father loves you, that He gave His Only Begotten Son to be given up to death for you. Then recall how much Jesus loves you, that He surrendered everything on your behalf. Always return love to Him Who is All-Love."

(The Curé motions toward the Crucifix.)

"Priests should remind their flocks of these truths before they begin to pray."

"I'm imparting to you my Priestly Blessing."

October 22, 2009

Thursday Service – Conversion of all Priests, Religious, Bishops and Cardinals; that they are convicted in and live in the Truth

St. John Vianney is here and says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"My brothers and sisters, I tell you solemnly that each priest has the solemn duty of speaking out against abortion to the general public. Not to do so offends God and causes many sins in the world that the priest is then responsible for. Do not let concerns for popularity, money or esteem keep you, my brother priests, from doing this."

"I'm imparting to you tonight my Priestly Blessing."

June 9, 2010

TO ALL PRIESTS

St. John Vianney says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"My brothers and sisters, as the Year of the Priesthood draws to a close, I have come to offer this parting advice to all priests:"

"My brothers, be simple and holy. Do not forsake any part of your duty to the truth. Be loving shepherds – not quick to condemn the actions of the Holy Spirit within your flock, but always willing to carefully consider and listen. Encourage prayer and frequent confession. Encourage devotion to the Holy Eucharist. All of these bring about unity."

"Where there is disunity, there is Satan. Do not discount Satan's efforts to snatch souls away from salvation, for every soul is vulnerable."

"Encourage Holy Love, for Holy Love is the fulfillment of the law and the scale upon which each soul is weighed."

"Trust in God's Providing Will, and do not allow worry or avarice to consume your heart."

"If you follow my instructions to you today, you will see God's grace take hold in your life. I am blessing you."

August 4, 2010

Feast of St. John Vianney

Wednesday Service – The Propagation of the Holy Love Messages and the Confraternity of the United Hearts

The Curé d'Ars is here and says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"Tonight I am speaking to my dear priest brothers whom I invoke – keep your hearts centered on what is above. (He points upward with his finger.)"

"Let your lives be centered on prayer and sacrifices especially the Holy Mass and the Holy Eucharist. Do not get caught up in trendy practices such as yoga or reiki for these are evil."

"Lead your flock in Holy Love and all arguments and dissension will disappear."

"I am imparting to you tonight my Priestly Blessing."

October 7, 2010

Thursday Service – Conversion of all Priests, Religious,
Bishops and Cardinals; that they are convicted in
and live in the Truth

St. John Vianney is here and says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"My brothers and sisters, all priests should have as their priority the administration of the sacraments to their flock, but second and also very important, is that they should be devoted to the Holy Rosary and spread this devotion. If priests would follow this agenda, there would be no bad priests."

"I'm extending to you my Priestly Blessing."

January 17, 2011

St. John Vianney says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"Please understand that I do not come to you to please, but to uncover Truth. This time in history is not one when problems can be hidden under the cover of darkness but exposed to the Light of Truth. Therefore, understand that all problems within the Church are the result of failure in personal holiness. Personal holiness must be based upon Holy Love – the Commandments of Love."

"Here, at this site, Heaven intervenes to bring Truth but it has all been regarded with much disdain. The Mission will continue in its efforts to strengthen the Church from within. Pray that hearts return to humility and simplicity in order to receive Heaven's solution which is Holy Love."

April 7, 2011

St. John Vianney comes. He is holding an electrical cord which is unplugged. He says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"You see how powerless this cord is when it is unplugged from an electrical outlet. That is how useless sacrifices are when they do not rise from a heart full of Holy Love. They are disconnected and virtually powerless."

"Therefore, connect every good work, every charitable thought or prayer, to love of God and neighbor; then the power flows through them into God's Hands, and He uses them for His purpose."

May 15, 2011

St. John Vianney says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"I invite you to contemplate the childlike spirit, for it is such as these that will inherit the Kingdom of God. It is such as these that God takes delight in."

"The childlike heart is innocent, simple and trusting. He is not sophisticated or demanding. He sees God in small things but in mighty ways – such as the blooming of a flower, a sunrise or a beautiful cloud formation."

"The childlike heart holds no guile or hidden agenda. He does not find fault or hold a grudge. He tries to see the good in everyone and every situation, for he believes God's Hand is omnipresent."

"In short, the childlike soul lives in joy, hope and peace."

June 24, 2011

St. John Vianney says: "Praise be to Jesus – Ever-Present in the tabernacles of the world."

"When I first came to Ars, people were not aware of the difference between good and evil. I had to take each situation and help the people to analyze it in the light of truth."

"I must point out that blaming and holding grudges is wicked. This is strong language, but when people play into Satan's hands, I will not cushion my comments."

"If you truly love Jesus, you will think twice before you give in to such divisive thoughts, words and even actions. Forgiveness bears the fruit of unity. So, of course, Satan does not want you to forgive. It is he who fans the flames of anger in your hearts. This, that I am telling you, is truth itself. Redirect your thoughts, words and deeds towards forgiveness and unity."

"Pray throughout the day to do so."

August 4, 2011
Feast of St. John Vianney

St. John Vianney says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"Today I have come to address all priests, bishops and cardinals. I bid them to humbly accept my advice."

"You, my dear brothers, have a great responsibility in the Eyes of God. When you come to your judgment, you will be held accountable for all the souls whose lives were touched by you – directly or indirectly. Woe to you if a soul in your charge was lost because of your indiscretions, false discernment or misguided priorities. Woe to you if you opposed prayer or placed love of money ahead of love of souls. Woe to you if you regard pomp above humility.

"Realize this and be loving, good shepherds."

"Always see the greatest good as the salvation of each soul. Pray and sacrifice for the salvation of your flock. Your prayers and sacrifices are like the sheep dogs of your flock – leading them in the way they should go. Every shepherd needs a good sheep dog."

"I warn you, my brothers, do not summarily dismiss my words to you today for shallow reasons: you don't like the way they came to you; they have not been endorsed by 'important' people or worst of all, you think they don't apply to you. Look for yourselves here in this Message today. Pray for my help. I will give you the grace of self-knowledge passed down through our Mother's Heart."

August 4, 2011

Feast of St. John Vianney

Thursday Service – Conversion of all Priests, Religious,
Bishops and Cardinals; that they are convicted in
and live in the Truth

St. John Vianney is here and says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"My brothers and sisters, tonight I have come to tell you that there are many vocations which die in the heart. These are good vocations, but they never come to fruition. Why? Because there is so much confusion and controversy in the Church today."

"Forgive my pragmatic comments, but this Ministry supports the TRUTH, does it not?"

"Tonight I'm imparting to you my Priestly Blessing."

February 1, 2012

St. John Vianney, the Curé d'Ars says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"I wanted to speak to you momentarily about motives. Motives are what inspire good works, but also – sin. Often people commit the sin of rash judgment for they neglect to search out the truth or maybe to accept the truth. Take, for instance, opinions about this Ministry. People are quick to negate the Works of Heaven here without attempting to discover the Truth. Often people presume to know why others act or speak as they do. Such contemplation very often may be the sin of neglecting to discover the Truth behind such words or actions."

"The soul needs to always pray to discover the Truth about his own spiritual journey – what weakens him and leads him into sin. This is vital to a deeper journey into the Chambers of the United Hearts. Ask, and I will assist you in this self-examination on a daily basis."

August 4, 2012

Feast of St. John Vianney

Saturday Rosary Service – Prayer Against Abortion

St. John Vianney is here and says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"My brothers and sisters in Christ, tonight, I am here to encourage you to pursue personal holiness through these Messages of Holy Love; and I am extending to you, tonight, my Priestly Blessing."

August 4, 2012
Feast of St. John Vianney

St. John Vianney says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"Priests these days need to reset their priorities. First of all, and tantamount to their vocation, is their own personal holiness. If they are not holy, how can they lead their flock along the path of holiness? Their vocation was given to them to save souls. Therefore, every priest must realize he is responsible for the salvation of every soul under his charge."

"The priest must not ignore his own personal prayer and sacrificial life. If he is committed to prayer and penance, he will be given Holy Wisdom to lead others."

"He will then minister the sacraments accordingly – using them as the powerful spiritual weapons that they are. He will be better able to instruct the faithful and guide them according to the laws of Holy Love."

August 7, 2012
DELIVERANCE

St. John Vianney says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"Today I have come to speak to you specifically about deliverance. There is great need for this today, but not all are given this gift or are called to such a ministry. It is attractive to many through spiritual pride. Deliverance seems to carry with it the pride of being 'in the know' and above others in the spiritual realm."

"But, I tell you, just reading a book, hearing a talk or desiring to be in the deliverance ministry does not give you the gift of deliverance. Deliverance ministry is a gift from God. Many are thrown off track by those who claim to be deliverance ministers, but are really looking for self-importance."

"Those who really are called to the deliverance ministry are chosen by God to help others; not to be in the spotlight themselves. They are humble, self-effacing and not looking for identity through titles."

"Most priests have the gift of deliverance if they are living in the Truth of Holy Love. There are few lay people who really have such a gift – but there are many who think they do, and profess that they do."

"Be wary of anyone who proclaims that he has any gift."

"In short, a deliverance ministry is more than reciting a formula prayer or placing a label of 'Deliverance Ministry' upon yourself. It is more than intellect. It is spiritual – an interaction between human and Divine. Never presume to be more than God chooses for you. Let God decide what gifts to give you."

August 8, 2012

St. John Vianney says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"Any special ministry – such as healing, deliverance, preaching – if it is genuine, needs to be founded on deep humility. Very often this is a distaste for being set apart or viewed as 'chosen'. If humility is not present, then the call is not genuine and grounded in Truth."

"You ask how do people know if they have a call to a certain mission? This is a basic denominator: If the person desires to be set apart, this is pride."

July 20, 2013

St. John Vianney says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"I have come, as Jesus sends me, to remind all priests that the fruit of their vocation is the salvation of souls. Therefore, their job is the distribution of the sacraments to their flock. It is not their calling to collect money, be popular or to transform their church from a religious sanctuary to a social club."

"Sin, Purgatory and Hell must be preached from the pulpit. It is doctrine. Abortion, same-sex relationships and fetal stem cell research must be renounced. These are moral issues and should not cost any religious group a tax-free status."

"If the Church can grow up into what Jesus expects, it will thrive. But, if it cannot, it will continue to fragment."

August 4, 2013

Feast of St. John Vianney

St. John Vianney, the Curé d'Ars says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"I have come to make clear the needs of all who are in Purgatory. The vast majority of the souls imprisoned there never believed in Purgatory – some, indeed, never heard of it. But this is of no account. God sees the state of their souls and must purify them before their entrance into Heaven. There are many souls there – souls of prestigious people whom those of earth would never suspect to be detained, but are presumed to be in Heaven. Therefore, pray."

September 26, 2013

St. John Vianney, the Curé d'Ars says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"I have come to tell the world that Holy Love is the safeguard of vocations and, for that matter, all personal holiness. Vocations are vessels of grace, as is each soul that embraces Holy Love. When the virtue of Holy Love is transgressed, the doorway to evil is opened."

"Every soul has the solemn duty to uphold Holy Love in his heart, but this is especially true of a soul who has a religious vocation or who influences the souls of others. The evil one uses the defeat of Holy Love in hearts to gain a foothold in vocations and, therefore, his evil influence in the world."

"This is why you have so much opposition here."

"The Chambers of the United Hearts are a pathway of power and Satan's defeat."

November 7, 2013

St. John Vianney says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"The priest must realize that his vocation is to save souls – not to please people. Often, he must hurt egos by standing up for the Truth; but this is always towards the soul's salvation. Priests must never be at odds with what Heaven desires in favor of what man wants. Any power or authority given over to a priest must be used towards the welfare of souls, not towards any self-advantage or popularity."

"Truth must not be a commodity of convenience. Faith and Truth cannot coincide with compromise. There can be no gray lines where Faith and Truth are concerned. Respect of authority also means holding authority accountable to the Truth."

January 5, 2014

TO PRIESTS

St. John Vianney, the Curé d'Ars comes. He says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"I know this Ministry is ecumenical – open to all people and all nations. Understand that Catholics can be ecumenical, as well. This is a murky point, at best, in many hearts. But today, I come to speak specifically to parish priests since I am their Patron.*

"Understand, my brothers, that you are a priest, not for yourselves, but for all others. Your vocation is a gift from God towards saving souls including your own. As such, your focus needs to be on taking the sacraments to the people. Do not let your hearts be focused on friendships, gratuities or frivolous concerns of the world. Do not love money or popularity. If you are called to any rank, do not be consumed with love of power. Do not rule, but shepherd – without a bent towards control, but to lead to salvation. Never discourage prayer, especially the prayer of the Holy Rosary. Build up, do not tear down the Kingdom of God."

"Your own hearts must be well-formed in Tradition and centered upon the Real Presence in the Holy Eucharist. Spend time with Jesus. Allow Him to be your Confidante and your All."

"God has given you souls to lead to salvation. Take this call seriously. God holds you accountable, not just for your own salvation, but for what you do – or do not do – to lead others. Define sin as sin from the pulpit, even if these sins have become political issues. Call all people to live the Ten Commandments. Take the education of your charges seriously – more seriously than income or esteem."

"Finally, be responsible for feeding your flock with the Truth."

In 2010, during the Year of Priests, Pope Benedict XVI declared St. John Vianney to be the Patron of All Priests (parish & religious).*

May 1, 2014

St. John Vianney says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"I have come to tell you that as souls make their way through the Sacred Chambers of the United Hearts, thereby becoming more holy, they are more under attack by evil. Satan's cohorts align against these struggling souls causing anxiety, confusion and every sort of temptation."

"The soul should not try to find solace in the world but in the Heart of Our Mother. Here is the Fortress against temptation and the remedy for discouragement. Her Heart is Holy Love. Holy Love is the key that allows every soul entrance to this Holy Refuge."

May 24, 2014

See Remonstrations to All Clergy on page 63.

May 27, 2014

St. John Vianney, the Curé d'Ars comes. He says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"My Messenger, if the Church was not in need of healing from within, then I would not have been sent to remonstrate the priests. But, Satan has attacked the core of the Church by challenging the personal holiness of the hierarchy and on down to the priests. Any organization will reflect the strength of its leadership. Therefore, if the priest is holy, the people he touches with his vocation will be holy."

"You can readily see why priests are so under attack and why hierarchy is so tempted to abuse authority and to compromise the Truth. Not all hierarchy and priests give in to temptations; but enough do and enough souls are affected that I pray my words to you will encourage enthusiastic change."

"Pray with me for this."

August 4, 2014

Feast of St. John Vianney

St. John Vianney, the Curé d'Ars says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"These days a great percentage of priests do not appreciate their duty in shaping their flock into holiness and developing in each soul a deep spirituality. Instead, they have allowed themselves to be formed in secularism – weakening their flock and themselves in a distorted attempt to 'fit in' with society."

"The call to the priesthood is a call to an ever-deepening spirituality. Within this call is the necessity to be detached from the world. The focus of the holy priesthood is bringing the sacraments to the people and instructing the people on personal holiness through a sacramental life."

"Priests are not called to be social directors or fundraisers or even to be popular. There should be no love of money or ambitious designs in their hearts."

"Jesus uses the holy priests to save many souls. Priests must learn to examine their conscience each night just like everyone else. They must root out pride and live only to serve others. This unselfish service is the hallmark of a holy priest."

Monday Service – Peace in All Hearts through Holy Love and World Peace

Jesus and St. John Vianney are here. Jesus says: "I am your Jesus, born Incarnate." St. John Vianney says: "Praise be to Jesus."

Jesus says: "My brothers and sisters, respect the Priesthood, as I have chosen it to be a vehicle of salvation for many souls."

"These Messages will correct those who need correction. But, if you treat Priests with the respect they should have, it will help them to be courageous in the face of so much criticism."

"Tonight, I'm extending to you My Blessing of Divine Love."

Father's Day

St. John Vianney, the Curé d'Ars and Patron of All Priests says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"I feel I must speak out about this. These days, every priest has the solemn obligation to speak out on behalf of the Truth. The Truth must be based upon the Ten Commandments and Holy Love. This is the sound direction the priest must pass on to his flock. He should be encouraged to do so by his bishop and not fear retribution. This is the bishop's responsibility."

"Never before has Truth been so compromised to please human agendas. When sin is not called sin and evil is not identified as evil, those who lead are responsible for this neglect. You cannot fulfill your vocation by pleasing man – only by pleasing God. God, Who is the Source of all Truth and all good, gave you your vocation. It is up to you to build up the Kingdom of God, not co-operate in tearing it down. Use your leadership to encourage holiness amongst your flock. Do no dilute the Truth to please anyone."

July 11, 2015

St. John Vianney, the Curé d'Ars and Patron of All Priests says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"I have been sent to address the bitter issue of spiritual pride. This is a poison that eats away at the soul insidiously. Such a soul is impressed with his own spiritual level and considers himself far above many others. I tell you, any soul is only as holy as he is humble. The greatest saints never considered themselves holy, but considered all others more holy than themselves – a sign of sincere humility. In such a soul, there is no pretense. He does not consider himself worthy to offer spiritual guidance to others. He does not set himself up as any sort of spiritual sage."

"The soul consumed with spiritual pride considers himself far more holy than he is! The more pride he has in his own spirituality the less holy he is – a fact Satan hides well. Spiritual pride is usually very hidden from the soul. He goes on believing he is far above most others but does not see it as pride. This makes it far too easy for Satan to influence his thoughts, words and deeds, because he believes he is inspired by God in all ways. I give this Message so that all may search their hearts. If you continue to regard yourself as very holy after my warning, you have not listened and digested the point of my coming to you."

Read 1 Corinthians 4:7

July 12, 2015

St. John Vianney, the Curé d'Ars and Patron of All Priests says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"I remind one and all that Satan's hallmark is the compromise of Truth. He is the father of all lies. You can readily see this in government policies and the general moral degeneration in the world today. But his greatest effort is in individual souls. He convinces the worthy that they are unworthy. He convinces the unworthy that they walk in righteousness. He puffs up egos inspiring people to believe in their own efforts apart from God. In the spiritual realm, he opposes humility, as he cannot understand it. He encourages spiritual pride. He readily helps souls to overlook their own shortcomings."

"This Mission is an Armature of Truth calling souls back to the reality of their responsibility towards their own salvation. This Mission clearly delineates the difference between good and evil. Do not be surprised that every sort of calumny and slander has been leveled against Heaven's intervention here. These are evil times when people do not recognize Satan's lies."

Read Ephesians 5:6–10

July 14, 2015

St. John Vianney, the Curé d'Ars and Patron of All Priests says:

"Praise be to Jesus."

"You ask how a soul can become more holy. The more God is the center of their life, the more holy the soul will be. It is then God is a part of every decision, every victory, every disappointment and every defeat. Such a soul interacts with grace and is never far from God's Provision."

"This is so important for priests who, too often, feel alone and make poor decisions based on free will and not the Divine Will."

"It is as though the journey in personal holiness were a ladder. The only way up the ladder which reaches to the Divine Will is to reach for the next rung. In the spiritual realm, you reach the next rung through your efforts in prayer and sacrifice and self-abandonment. These efforts make God the center of your existence."

"Allow God to take dominion over your heart in this way."

July 21, 2015

St. John Vianney, Curé d'Ars and Patron of Priests says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"I tell you, souls who cannot distinguish good from evil or Truth from untruth number in the majority these days. This is so due to the fact that leadership has chosen such compromise and abuses their authority by propagating it. You are now beginning the second generation of this mass compromise of Truth."

"People fall into Satan's trap of trying to please people rather than God. Once this priority is set, it is very difficult to reverse it. The problem becomes more complex when any criticism is judged as disrespectful to authority. No one should hold himself above criticism."

"Good leadership bears the fruit of respect – not control. The sound leader gently leads his flock into the arms of righteousness. A good leader recognizes the Truth and easily chooses good over evil. If the leader does so, his flock will follow. Hearts will change. The more people God gives you to influence, the greater your responsibility. This responsibility begins in families and ends in government and church leaders."

Read 1 Peter 5:2-4

August 4, 2015
Feast of St. John Vianney
TO ALL PRIESTS

St. John Vianney comes and bows towards me. He says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"Today, I come to speak, yet again, to all priests. Jesus regards the Holy Father, bishops and cardinals as priests first. He looks at their hearts and judges the fulfillment of their vocations as to first and foremost the holiness of their priesthood. So many fail Him – so many! Sadly, those in power do not want these disappointments ever mentioned or brought to light; yet, they are real!"

"The priest must first and foremost be in love with the Truth of the Faith. He must be committed to making the sacraments available to his flock. He must realize that he is responsible for leading his flock to salvation. He must support Church dogma and doctrine. He must not call Dogma and Doctrine by any other name hoping to minimize their importance. The priest is the link between Heaven and earth for his flock. He must rid himself of self-interest and live for others."

"He is not a social director or a financial director. These things must be left for others."

"What I see missing in priestly vocations today is a genuine interest in the spiritual well-being of each one in their flock. Vocations within parishes would flourish if this would change! As it is, many vocations are lost due to the poor example given by priests."

"I can come here and speak, but if the ones I am addressing do not listen and believe, the grace of my words is lost forever."

He bows again and leaves.

St. John Vianney, Curé d'Ars and Patron of Priests says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"I tell you, many a soul awaits deliverance from Purgatory because they practiced virtue to impress others. This defies humility and simplicity of heart. The practice of virtue needs to be between the soul and God. Do not try to portray yourself as a victim soul or as one who is all-knowing due to special gifts. Do not make yourself the center of conversation, but divert attention to others."

"Remain in the background as much as possible – always communing with God."

"To be holy means you care more about your relationship with God than what others think of you. This is humility and simplicity."

"Reach out to others in humility and simplicity."

St. John Vianney, Curé d'Ars and Patron of Priests says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"If you do not recognize the enemy of your soul, you cannot combat him. If you do not combat him, your path of personal holiness is obstructed. Therefore, teach yourself to avoid anything which opposes Godliness and Holy Love. Avoid such people or situations. Pray against any such temptation."

"I must add, many vocations are destroyed when souls do not pay heed to what they lend credence to in the present moment."

December 27, 2015

St. John Vianney, Curé d'Ars and Patron of Priests says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"I have come today with an open letter to all bishops. Dear brother priests, remember, first and foremost, you are priests and then bishops. It is your job to set the tone for personal holiness for all the priests who must follow you. You must be certain to secure the faith of all who are under you by promoting only the true tenets of faith in the schools and from the pulpit."

"You are not given your office through Divine Providence as a means of gaining wealth or popularity. You must lead in Truth without regard for others' opinions. If you do so, there will be no confusion. Never be afraid of identifying evil or calling a sin a sin. That is your duty."

"Finally, do not command but lead with loving respect for those under your charge. Then loving respect will return to you."

St. John Vianney, Curé d'Ars and Patron of Priests says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"The things I am about to say should never have to be spoken. As it is, confusion has taken up its reign within the Church. The sacraments are what sets the Catholic Church apart from all the rest. Church leaders have the solemn responsibility of defining, administering and protecting the sacraments. Sacrileges and indifference towards the Holy Eucharist must be safeguarded against – never, never encouraged. The soul must be in a state of grace – that is free of mortal sin – to receive the Eucharist. Otherwise, the Eucharist is defiled. This is where the definition of mortal sin must be clearly defined and not open to debate."

"I speak this way today as many Catholics follow this Ecumenical Ministry. They are fed the Truth here which is so obscured in the world."

April 28, 2016

St. John Vianney, Curé d'Ars and Patron of Priests says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"In the world today, both secular and religious, the main problem is there is not a clear distinction between good and evil. Tolerance of evil has taken center stage. Even within Church circles this is so. Respect for the Blessed Sacrament has diminished, as souls are not encouraged to search their hearts to determine if they are in a state of grace before approaching the altar. As sin is no longer clearly defined, a clear examination of conscience is not always possible. The percentage of sacrileges is higher than ever."

"In the secular world people choose violence as a solution to their differences. There is an ever-growing indifference as to God's Commandments and His Will. The heart of the world is distancing itself from God's Dominion."

"Make Holy Hours of Reparation, for the Heart of Jesus is tormented by man's indifference towards Him. His Heart thirsts for justice, but for love of mankind He restrains the inevitable. Over and over, He gives more chances and opportunities for man to return to love of Him and love of neighbor."

"This Ministry of Holy Love offers such an opportunity. Even so, it has been met with disdain by Church leaders who should have welcomed it and encouraged it. Pray for those who stubbornly hold error in their hearts in this regard. They are responsible for many prayers left unsaid here.

"I wish I did not have to speak so bluntly, but I did not come to sugarcoat the Truth. Many leaders – secular and religious – need a conviction of heart and a humble repentance."

June 14, 2016

St. John Vianney, Curé d'Ars and Patron of Priests says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"In the world today, there is no sense of sin. This is the bad fruit of a lack of knowledge between good and evil. A person in sin who dies suddenly without a chance for repentance has no chance for salvation. The fact that sins are now culturally acceptable denies the necessity of being in a state of grace in order to achieve salvation. Every priest should teach about sin from the pulpit. This is his opportunity to lead his flock along a road of sound spirituality."

"This topic of sin and of a state of grace must never be compromised to please man. It is the priest's job to steadfastly hold his followers to the uncompromised Truth between good and evil. It is necessary also for a soul to be in a state of grace – that is without unrepentant grave sin – in order to receive the Holy Eucharist. Catholic priests have the responsibility of making this known."

July 31, 2016 TO ALL BISHOPS

St. John Vianney, Curé d'Ars and Patron of Priests says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"I have come once again to address all bishops. My brothers in Christ, to you has been given the yoke of leadership. Draw your flock under the wing of righteousness. Do not seek to be popular first or to gain money above all else. Your flock will increase if you teach sound doctrine. You will have sufficient funds if you trust first and foremost in God's Provision. You must stand for the Truth and oppose compromise and confusion."

"These days, people long for structure, although they do not realize it. You, dear brothers, are in a position to give guidelines and principles which have been long-standing and Church approved. Do not try to redefine sin or Church doctrine to suit the people. Rather, try to recommit hearts which are compromised to the Truth."

"People look to you for sound leadership. Unfortunately, this trust in title and authority is not always warranted. Jesus placed you in the position you're in to bring conformity to the Truths of the Faith. Are you leading in this way or not?"

Feast of St. John Vianney

St. John Vianney, Curé d'Ars and Patron of Priests says: "Praise be to Jesus." (St. John Vianney is dressed like he is in his statue.)

"Please understand that these days the priesthood has, for the most part, been given over to rationalization. Priests spend their vocation on pleasing man first and foremost ahead of God. There are those within the priesthood who serve evil purposes, though they be clothed in goodness. Some never had a vocation. There are some good and dedicated priests that too often are persecuted through the envy of those around them. It is often difficult for a sincere lay person to find a priest of sound moral teaching – one of Traditional Faith."

"If I were on earth today, I would exhaust myself again hearing the confessions of the confused and compromised. As a priest, I always put the conversion of souls ahead of any personal need of my own. How many priests today can say the same? How many place popularity, money and power ahead of the salvation of souls? Bishops need to be bishops – fatherly leaders – not dictators. Every vocation needs to be grounded on the Truths of the Faith. If this were true, the Church would offer the peace and security as in days past. People would not have to search for and reinvent their own false peace."

August 25, 2016

St. John Vianney, Curé d'Ars and Patron of Priests says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"I spent my whole vocation on revealing evil and encouraging good. I have come to tell you that good cannot be victorious in hearts and in the world unless good unites in an all-out effort against evil. So long as Satan can divide those who live in the Truth, he will be strong and the good will be weakened."

"Souls need to look for common ground in the battle against evil. Do not attack or criticize each other. Attack the evil that threatens world peace. The ones who thumb their nose at the law and do not hold themselves accountable to the law deserve criticism. It is warranted. They are the enemy."

"You cannot win any war unless you confine your efforts to defeating your enemy. Take heed."

August 31, 2016

The Curé d'Ars (St. John Vianney, the Patron of Priests) comes looking somber. I (Maureen) asked him what he had to say to the people today. He said: "Praise be to Jesus. If I were in the world today, I would remind the people that Satan is real – sin is real. I would tell them that the Heart of Jesus is mournful due to the compromise of Truth and the abuse of authority. I would tell them under no circumstances should they support those guilty of these crimes – not for the sake of placating or accommodating or political correctness."

"People must seek to please God first – not themselves or each other. Take what I am saying to heart."

"You have people in the spotlight these days already found guilty in God's Eyes of these crimes."

September 14, 2016

St. John Vianney, Curé d'Ars and Patron of Priests says: "Praise be to Jesus."

As St. John Vianney says this, a light pulsates around him.

"The moral problems of the day: abortion, same-sex marriage, gender identification, are not being addressed from the pulpit as sin. The world tries to define these sins in the light of legal rights. It is cardinals, bishops and priests who must lead spiritually and not relegate the definition of sin to the likes of mass media and popular opinion and legal systems."

"The main problem in this country and in the world at large is the inability and, or disinterest in the general population to distinguish good from evil. This is reflected in your political choices. Poor leaders are the ones who do not embrace honesty and therefore, do not lead with honesty. If a clear line is not drawn between right and wrong – good and evil – leadership fails you."

"The election fast approaching in this country will be determined by mankind's ability to determine good from evil – Truth from untruth."

February 1, 2017

St. John Vianney, Curé d'Ars and Patron of Priests says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"In moral issues and in political issues how many place God's Will above their own will and desires? This is why the heart of the world is estranged from God. This is why good over evil is not even a consideration."

"These moral standards need to be taught in the home and from the pulpit. Silence, so as not to offend anyone, is Satan's ploy. The soul that does not recognize good as opposed to evil is an easy instrument for Satan to use."

"Pay attention to the direction you are being inspired to follow. Evil is very good at disguises and misleading. If the Holy Spirit is leading you, all works will bear good fruits. Do not boast of being led by the Holy Spirit. That is spiritual pride. The Holy Spirit works everywhere and often through the least likely. His favorite instruments however, are the humble."

St. John Vianney, Curé d'Ars and Patron of Priests comes. He, as usual, looks very unkempt and emaciated. He says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"Today I come to remind priests that their duty is to define good from evil from the pulpit. Many souls are lost because this is not done. Not to do this is to enable evil and to cause confusion. The salvation of the souls in your charge must be your only purpose in life."

He is as though dressed for Mass.

He bows towards me (Maureen) and leaves.

Feast of St. John Vianney

Once again, I (Maureen) see a Great Flame that I have come to know as the Heart of God the Father. He says: "Children, regard each moment as a treasure – a gift from Me to you. The present moment will never repeat itself in the same way, with the same graces. The saint celebrated this day (John Vianney), relished each moment as an opportunity to save souls. His sacrifices of prayer and fasting and of long hours in the confessional saved thousands of souls.

Today, all priests should take him as a model. If they would do so, the Church would be reformed and made whole in holiness. Priests would be regarded with the deepest respect and raised far above any sinful act. But sadly, these times find the holy priesthood as a subject of suspicion, and rightfully so. The Gates of Heaven do not automatically swing open for a priest. They meet a sterner judgment than most."

"Many souls have been led astray by those priests compromised by sin. So today, I urge you to pray once a day for priests who do not meet the standards of personal holiness that I call them to. This is an act of charity I will reward."

REMONSTRATIONS TO ALL CLERGY

May 24, 2014

Introduction

"St. John Vianney, the Curé d'Ars says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"My brothers, I come to you by command of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. I carry to your hearts loving and constructive criticism. Constructive criticism builds up, strengthens and, if well-received, never tears down."

"If you take offense at my words, it is you who most need correction. I do not come with any inclination to suppress the Truth, but, rather, to lay bare the Light of Truth."

"Recognize the Spirit of Truth in what I am sent to say."

A Priest's Daily Prayer for a Holy Vocation

"Dear Jesus, help me to remember that my vocation must be based upon Holy Love.* This will be the protection and strength I need to be holy, for I know my vocation is only as strong as I am holy. Help me, dear Jesus, to be selfless in the use of my time and always solicitous after the spiritual needs of my flock. Give me courage to proclaim the difference between good and evil. Never allow me to abuse my authority or to compromise the Truth. Assist me in seeing You in every soul."

"Encourage me to pray when I am weary – to love when I feel no love and to open my heart to the spiritual needs of others always."

"Amen."

Note: For an explanation of what Holy Love is, see 'About Holy Love' on the inside front cover.

1st REMONSTRATION

"My brothers, Heaven is not blind to the good you are accomplishing and the spiritual progress you are making with some souls and in some Dioceses. At the same time, the evil hand in the midst of you is also witnessed by Jesus and His Mother."

"You may shrink at these words and see them as divisive. But, in fact, these words must inspire you to look within your hearts and your ranks to eradicate sin and error. I remind you, you are not infallible. It is only through a cleansing of your iniquities you can best fulfill your vocations; each of you. Then you will be strengthened and your vocations will be more secure."

First and foremost, you must define sin clearly from the pulpit. Do not try to compromise any sin to appease or to accommodate any one person or special interest group."

"Do not suppress the Truth – not to gain or maintain power or elite authority, reputation or economic advantage."

"Do not regard your vocation as some regard a secular career. Do not be jockeying in position to gain favor or higher status, thus disregarding the foundation of your vocation – the salvation of souls."

"Do not ever engage in sexual activity thus destroying your own soul and others. This is an evil spirit; the spirit of homosexuality and lust."

"I am closing for now. Jesus will ask me to return with much more."

Read 1 Timothy 6:11–18

2nd REMONSTRATION

"My brothers, guard against being offended by or blind to this constructive criticism. Jesus sends me to you to strengthen your hearts and vocations for days ahead. Do not discount what I say by reproving the source. I tell you solemnly, it is I who come to speak – the Curé d'Ars."

"If you are given the grace of a heavenly apparition in your Diocese or given charge of reviewing such a spiritual phenomenon, you have the solemn obligation to regard this with an open heart. So many, so many have been suppressed and the graces attendant to them left unattended. These heavenly apparitions and Messages too often are regarded as interference and competition by the local ordinary. Consequently, every visible and invisible step is taken to discredit the visions and the Visionary."

"If an 'investigation' is done, it is very often not done with the honest motive of discovering the Truth, but rather with the hidden motive of going through the motions of investigating in order to claim Heaven's grace as unauthentic."

"Further, to say there is nothing supernatural going on is never true anywhere. The Holy Spirit and Satan do battle in every present moment, everywhere, in each soul, to gain a dominance."

"Heaven acts as it will. No one can dictate when or where Heaven will speak or for how long. Perhaps this is the point most difficult for hierarchy to accept. In fact, I know it is. You do not have control over what Heaven will say or do. You do not trust Heaven to strengthen you and the laity. You try to limit the Holy Spirit."

"Pray for the humility of heart to accept what I am telling you today."

Read Ephesians 4:10–16 and 1 Thessalonians 5:19

3rd REMONSTRATION

"Today, I remind the hierarchy that they are priests first, then bishops and cardinals. All priests must work on their personal holiness. There is no holiness outside of Holy Love. They must be examples of Holy Love in word and deed to their flock. This speaks to the absence of any hidden agenda towards self-gain or abuse of authority."

"First and foremost, the priest's job is to make the Sacraments available to the people. Reception of the Holy Sacraments needs to be promoted from the pulpit. One half hour of confession offered per week shows little concern for the spiritual welfare of any priest's flock. This is the bad fruit of the neglect or reluctance to preach about sin."

"A priest needs to safeguard his vocation through prayer and sacrifice. He needs to let the Lord fill his heart and his spare time. He needs to be a spiritual leader, not a social director."

"The parish that encourages Eucharistic Adoration will be greatly blessed. Many vocations will come out of parishes where this is encouraged. You cannot expect vocations to bud and blossom in parishes wrought with scandal."

"The Church needs to embrace personal holiness once again – first, through the hierarchy and the priests."

4th REMONSTRATION

"My final exhortation to priests is as follows. Your vocation will only be as strong as you are holy. The only way to be holy is through the embrace of Holy Love, for Holy Love is the embodiment of the Ten Commandments. Through Holy Love you will find your way to a deeper prayer life and be open to small and great sacrifices."

"The Lord desires your spiritual prowess, for it is through your strengths He is strong. It is by your efforts in personal holiness He can and will reach others."

"None of what I have said here to priests and hierarchy can or should be modified. I did not come to stroke egos, but to call all clergy back into the Truth. If you do not make a sincere effort to search out and live in the Truth, your vocation is compromised. If you use your authority to oppose the Truth or to manipulate people and situations towards any self-gain, you are not an instrument of God but of Satan.

"No, I will not modify my words. I must give you the Truth as I have been sent to do – without compromise. I must be unyielding in my call for the unity of all clergy in the Truths of the Faith without nuance or compromise and without slandering Vatican II."

"Study all I have passed on to you without tongue-in-cheek, but with sincere hearts."

Read Ephesians 4:2–7, 11–16

Prayers and Devotions

Statue of St. John Vianney in the United Hearts Chapel at Maranatha Spring and Shrine

"Reserve a side chapel to the good and Blessed John Marie Vianney... It is so I can call priests back to the true faith, to Tradition and away from much compromise. When My priests come, as they will, I will be present, praying with them."
(Our Lady – May 30, 1995)

A 5-DAY NOVENA TO ST. JOHN VIANNEY FOR PRIESTS

(To be prayed by the Laity for Priests)

FIRST DAY

"Dear St. John Vianney, Curé d'Ars, speak to the Immaculate Heart of Mary. Ask Her to intercede for us to Her Beloved Son. Grant that all priests be given divine insight into the souls of those in their charge. Give them perseverance and fortitude to match their priestly duties. Keep them safe from the wickedness of the world. Amen." (Our Lady – June 7, 1986)

Hail Mary...

SECOND DAY

"Dear St. John Vianney, Curé d'Ars, touch the priests of the world with a great zeal for souls. Draw them close to the Divine Heart of Jesus so inflamed with love for mankind. Give them the grace to discern that which is best for each soul they touch. Give them peace of mind and heart. Amen." (Our Lady – July 5, 1986)

Hail Mary...

THIRD DAY

"Dear St. John Vianney, Curé d'Ars, ask Jesus to give to all priests a great love of poverty so they can become rich in the gifts of the Holy Spirit as you were. We ask this in the Name of Jesus, Most Holy, and the Immaculate Heart of Mary. Amen." (Our Lady – August 2, 1986)

Hail Mary...

FOURTH DAY

"Dear St. John Vianney, Curé d'Ars, intercede on behalf of all priests. Help them to persevere in a life that is holy, respecting their vows, and above all, doing penance for the conversion of their flock. We ask this with humility. Touch the Immaculate Heart of Mary with our plea. Amen." (Our Lady – September 6, 1986)

Hail Mary...

FIFTH DAY

"Dear St. John Vianney, Curé d'Ars, be attentive to the needs of your brother priests. Intercede on behalf of all priests, and beg Jesus, through the Immaculate Heart of Mary, that your brothers be given the greatest of all, the gift of love. Amen." (Our Lady – October 4, 1986)

Hail Mary...

The Immaculate Heart of Mary

NOVENA TO THE UNITED HEARTS FOR THE HOLINESS OF PRIESTS

(To be prayed by Priests)

May 19, 2009

St. John Vianney says: "Praise be to Jesus. My little daughter – child of God – I have been sent to dictate to you this novena for all priests. It is given to me at the command of the Eternal Now to be prayed for the strengthening of the Church from within through the intercession of the United Hearts. It will return many priests who are compromising their vocations to the path of righteousness – the path of Holy Love."

"Each day the following prayer should be recited:"

Prayer for Each Day

"I beseech You – Blessed United Hearts of the Most Holy Trinity, together with the Immaculate Heart of Mary – help me in all of my weaknesses and imperfections. Remind me always that my vocation is a gift from you. Assist me in being an image of Divine Love to all those I minister to. Give to me the gift of touching even the most hardened souls. Amen."

Day 1

"Through the intercession of the Immaculate Heart of Mary and the infinite power and grace of the United desire in every present moment so that I can inspire deep personal Hearts, I ask for the grace of desiring to be holy. Strengthen this holiness in those I minister to. Increase my love for you, dear United Hearts. Amen."

Recite the Prayer for Each Day...

Day 2

"Most Holy United Hearts, through the intercession of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, help me to inspire those entrusted to my care with this desire towards personal holiness. Give me Holy Boldness to fill the hearts of my flock with this desire. Help me to inspire them by my own example. Amen."

Recite the Prayer for Each Day...

Day 3

"Most Worthy United Hearts, through the intercession of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, never allow me to forget, that as a priest, it is my duty to make the sacraments available to my flock, for it is the sacraments (especially the Eucharist and Confession) that protect and encourage personal holiness, and which strengthen whole parishes. Knowing this, I must encourage frequent confession, as well as Eucharistic Adoration. I must never limit their availability out of selfish use of my own time. Help me, dear United Hearts, to place others' spiritual welfare ahead of my own ease. Amen."

Recite the Prayer for Each Day...

Day 4

"Most Holy United Hearts, through the intercession of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, as a priest, help me to help my flock to grow in virtue, for the virtues are the building blocks of personal holiness. Help me, dear United Hearts, to educate my flock as to the importance of Holy Love in the present moment, for all virtue is based on Holy Love. Amen."

Recite the Prayer for Each Day...

Day 5

(On May 20, 2009, St. John Vianney gave the following Message and prayer for Day 5:)

St. John Vianney says: "Praise be to Jesus. Through the intercession of the Immaculate Heart of Mary and the United Hearts of the Holy Trinity, priests must pray to please God and live in harmony with the Will of God. This is the dictate of Holy Love – Holy Humility. These two virtues are companions; one cannot exist in the soul without the other. The depth of either is dependent upon the depth of the other. Each day priests are tested in these two virtues. Let this be the priest's prayer:"

"Through the intercession of the Immaculate Heart of Mary,* Most Holy United Hearts, let me not fail in any test of Holy Love or Holy Humility. I must realize that the test is the opportunity God gives me to practice every virtue. I pray to accept the graces I am given to succeed in every test. I pray to be able to teach others to do so. Amen."

Recite the Prayer for Each Day...

Recite daily the prayer given to priests by Blessed Mother on August 18, 2007:*

Blessed Mother says: "Praise be to Jesus. My daughter, I desire that all priests receive and recite this prayer every day from the heart. It will strengthen vocations and boost sagging spirits."

Prayer to Strengthen Vocations

"Dear Jesus, I place myself under the Complete Blessing of the United Hearts. With this Blessing, I desire a deep understanding of my faults. With Your help, I will not defend myself, but by Your assistance, work to overcome every obstacle and weakness that holds me back on the path of holiness."

"Impress on my heart a great love for the virtues, most especially Holy Love and Holy Humility, so that every virtue can increase in me. I desire to be holy, and I desire sanctification by living in God's Divine Will. Amen."

"Priests who faithfully recite this prayer will receive My special protection over their vocations. By My Hand, they will be led to the Heart of the Paternal Father."

Day 6

"Most Holy United Hearts, through the intercession of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, today I pray that any disordered desire to be popular with people be taken from my heart. I will not place love of money ahead of shepherding my flock. I will trust in God's Divine Provision. I pray for courage and Holy Boldness to speak out against all sin, even the sins that have been carried by Satan into the political arena, such as abortion, same-sex marriage, euthanasia and embryonic stem cell research. Lord, give to me a righteous tongue. Amen."

Recite the Prayer for Each Day...

Day 7

"Most Worthy United Hearts, through the intercession of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, as a priest, help me always to realize the value of self-effacement and poverty of spirit. Help me never to place myself first – my own needs or my own feelings. My personal holiness depends upon my efforts to place God and others first. Assist me, dear United Hearts, in detaching from the false gods of reputation, material gain and intellectual pride, for these are all doorways that liberalism uses to destroy vocations. I petition you, United Hearts, protect me from these traps. Amen."

Recite the Prayer for Each Day...

Day 8

"Most Holy United Hearts, through the intercession of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, help me always to speak and to teach through the Spirit of Truth. In this age of compromise, I need your assistance in combating all heresy against the Tradition of Faith. Help me to stand firm in all that the Catechism teaches, and never to alter my views to please others. Amen."

Recite the Prayer for Each Day...

Day 9

"All Worthy, All Loving United Hearts, through the intercession of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I, your faithful priest, beg your assistance in preparing my flock for the triumphant return of Jesus. I understand that Jesus' Victory will be a Victory of Holy and Divine Love. Assist me in any effort of propagating these Messages of Holy and Divine Love, for I see they are scripturally sound and based on truth. I must encourage others to live in Holy Love, for this is the Gateway to the New Jerusalem, and the path of salvation. Safeguard my heart against discouragement. Fill me with Holy Boldness. Amen."

Recite the Prayer for Each Day...

May 22, 2009

St. John Vianney says: "Praise be to Jesus."

"I have come to help you understand the significance of this novena I just dictated to you. Encapsulated within these words is the directive to becoming a good priest. Such a priest places his own personal holiness and the holiness of his flock first. This is the embrace of Holy Love. The priest cannot do this with sincerity and still enjoy the roles of social director, financial director or embrace liberalism. Everything else becomes secondary, even miniscule, to his own journey in holiness and the holiness of all those in his charge."

"When Jesus looks into the heart of a priest, this is what He searches out. How many priests today live in such simplicity?"

A PRIEST'S PRAYER TO HEAL AND STRENGTHEN HIS VOCATION

January 11, 2013

St John Vianney – the Curé d'Ars says: "Praise be to Jesus. I have come to offer these prayers that every priest can recite daily towards healing and strengthening of his vocation. This is needed more today than ever before."

"Dear Jesus, I place all of these petitions on the Altar of Your Most Sacred Heart. Please look with favor upon them."

- ♥ "Please strengthen my vocation by strengthening me morally and spiritually by living in uncompromised Truth."
- ♥ "Please help me always to conform to the Will of God."
- ♥ "Please help me to forgive all others, and to forgive myself of any wrongs I have committed against others."
- ♥ "Please strip from me love of money, status or popularity."
- ♥ "Please help me to forgive the misuse of authority, and do not allow me to misuse any authority I may have."

"Dear Jesus, please strengthen my vocation by walking closely with me in every circumstance. Increase in me every virtue through Holy Love. Open my heart to the Holy Spirit and help me to see His Actions in the hearts of others. Jesus, today I surrender my heart and my vocation to You. I am Your humble instrument. Amen."

THE LAITY'S PRAYER FOR HOLY PRIESTS

January 19, 2013

St. John Vianney – the Curé d'Ars says: "Praise be to Jesus. Today I have come to ask the laity to pray for holy priests. Petition the Sacred Heart of Jesus in this way:"

"Dear Jesus, place all vocations and every priest in Your Most Sacred Heart."

"We pray:"

- ♥ "All priests value their vocation and pursue personal holiness by living in Holy Love and going deeper into the virtues."
- ♥ "Please strengthen the Tradition of Faith in all priests."
- ♥ "Protect Your priests from all scandal and exploitation."
- ♥ "Help Your priests to know their first obligation is to minister the Sacraments to the laity."
- ♥ "Strip Your priests of attachments to the world – all concerns for power, money, popularity or corporal desires – just as You, Jesus, were stripped at the Tenth Station of the Cross."
- ♥ "Bring all priests into the Divine Will of Your Father."

"Amen."

VISION OF THE ROSARY OF THE UNBORN

Our Lady comes in white. In front of Her and suspended in the air is an unusual rosary. The Our Father beads are droplets of blood in the shape of a cross. The Hail Mary beads are light blue teardrops with unborn babies inside of them. The cross is gleaming gold. Our Lady says: "I come in praise of Jesus, My Son. I come as Prophetess of these times."

"The rosary you see is Heaven's way of describing to you the weapon that will overcome this evil of abortion. Heaven weeps for the cost of this great sin. The history and the future of all nations has been changed because of this atrocity against God's gift of life."

"Today, sadly, much responsibility must be placed on the laity who are consecrated to Me. I cannot depend on Church leadership to unite in an effort to vanquish the enemy through the Rosary. Even My apparitions have caused division by Satan's efforts to thwart My plans."

"So today, on My feast day, I am calling all My children to unite in My Heart. Do not allow pride to divide you according to which apparition you will follow. Become part of the Flame of My Heart. Be united in love and in the prayer weapon of My Rosary. The evil of abortion can be conquered by your efforts and through My grace."

"Propagate the image I have shown you today."

(October 7, 1997 – Feast of the Holy Rosary)

Promises for Praying the Rosary of the Unborn

1. "Praise be to Jesus. I see you are using the new Rosary of the Unborn. I affirm to you, my daughter, that each 'Hail Mary' prayed from a loving heart will rescue one of these innocent lives from death by abortion. When you use this rosary, call to mind My Sorrowful Immaculate Heart which continually sees the sin of abortion played out in every present moment. I give to you this special sacramental* with which to heal My Motherly Heart."

Maureen asks: "Blessed Mother, do you mean any 'Hail Mary' or just one prayed on the Rosary of the Unborn?"

Blessed Mother: "This is a special grace attached to this particular rosary. It should always be used to pray against abortion. You will please make this known."

(Our Lady as the Sorrowful Mother – July 2, 2001)

Note: Catholics believe that, in order to be a sacramental, the rosary must be blessed by a Catholic Priest.

2. "Please tell the world that each 'Our Father' recited on the Rosary of the Unborn assuages My grieving Heart. Further, it withholds the Arm of Justice." (Jesus – August 3, 2001)
3. "The greatest promise I give you in regards to this rosary is this: Every Rosary prayed from the heart to its completion on these beads mitigates the punishment as yet withstanding for the sin of abortion...When I say the punishment as yet withstanding for the sin of abortion, I mean the punishment each soul deserves for taking part in this sin. Then too, I also refer to the greater punishment that awaits the world for embracing this sin." (Jesus – August 3, 2001)
4. "If a group is gathered who are praying for the unborn from the heart and only one person has in their possession the Rosary of the Unborn, I will honor each 'Hail Mary' from each person in the group as if they were holding the Rosary of the Unborn themselves." (Jesus – February 28, 2005)

VISION OF THE CHAPLET OF THE UNBORN

Blessed Mother says: "I have come with yet another important weapon in the fight against abortion. As you know, abortion is the one crime which, if conquered, would change the future of the world. The weapon I now hand off to you is the Chaplet of the Unborn."

Blessed Mother holds out a chaplet with five sets of three Hail Mary's and one Our Father – like the Chaplet of the United Hearts. The beads are like the beads on the Rosary of the Unborn.

(March 24, 2013)

Promises for Praying the Chaplet of the Unborn

1. "Every time the Chaplet is prayed from the heart, some soul contemplating abortion will have a change of heart."
2. "Each time the Chaplet is prayed from the heart, some soul will be reconciled with the Truth of what abortion really is – the taking of a life."
3. "The Chaplet is a means of reconciliation between the heart of man and the Heart of God, which is so greatly wounded by the sin of abortion."

(Blessed Mother – March 25, 2013)

"My Chaplet of the Unborn is important as it points out the error of abortion, the importance of life in the womb, and petitions a healing of heart for all who participate, in any way, in abortion. Pray it daily."

(Blessed Mother – January 29, 2014)
